

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2326

Chapter 2326

"What? Joel was involved in Yonas's murder as well?!" Arthur and Angus were stunned at the realization that Rodney and Joel were involved.

It finally made sense that the Hiltons came to back the Southern Boss up as they likely already allied.

Contrary to their surprise, Leon remained composed as he already guessed Joel's involvement in the matter when Devon and the Hiltons appeared, and his thought was merely confirmed.

"Southern Boss!" Devon's expression darkened, knowing that the Southern Boss tried to drag the Hiltons into his fight with the Thompsons.

He must admit that the Southern Boss's plan worked; since Arthur now knew that Joel was involved in Yonas's murder, he was bound to seek revenge against the Hiltons if he survived the confrontation with the Southern Boss and the Hiltons could not bear to risk that.

"Very well! Southern Boss, Hilton, you two plotted to kill my grandson and I'll make you two pay for that!" Arthur was furious and glared at the two hatefully, desperately wishing to tear them apart.

"As if the Thompsons can do that! What a joke! The Spears might not rival the Thompsons under normal circumstances, but now that we have joined forces with the Hiltons, you are outnumbered!" The Southern Boss scoffed and stared at Arthur contemptuously.

"I-" Arthur paled, unable to retort as the Southern Boss was right; Both the Spears and the Hiltons were not matched for the Thompsons on their own, but since they allied, the Thompsons were outnumbered and there was no way that the Thompsons could win.

"Don't get all smug just yet, Southern Boss! Who said the Thompsons are outnumbered? I'm still standing here! The Thompsons and I, versus the Spears and the Hiltons! There's no telling who's going to win! Don't get ahead of yourself!" Leon, who remained quiet the entire time, stepped forward to face the Southern Boss and Devon fearlessly.

"You? Who do you think you are?" Both the Southern Boss and Devon glanced at Leon mockingly.

They both were confident that Leon would be killed; they did not see him as a threat to begin with because Leon was far too young to be a formidable martial artist and had no background in the southern region.

Since they assumed Leon was in the Overlord State, they thought they could easily send one of their subordinates to the Almighty State and Leon would be left powerless.

The two considered themselves far too mighty to consider Leon a threat and did not view him as an opponent. 4
