

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2368

Chapter 2368

You want to take us on by yourself?'

"How arrogant!"

Both the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord were enraged by his arrogant tone.

The Demon Lord ranked third place on the criminal list and prided himself on all the deaths he caused; any other martial artist would have run away without daring to look him in the eyes before him, yet not only was Leon not scared at all, he also claimed that he could defeat both the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord contemptuously.

As a man known for his ruthlessness, the Demon Lord could not stand it any longer and gritted out viciously, "Since you seem like she's desperately trying to end your own life, I'll make that happen for you!"

He ignored Arthur and launched a powerful attack on Leon, preparing to take care of Arthur after he killed Leon.

"Me, too! Die, Leon Wolf!" Equally enraged, the Southern Boss shouted.

He knew that Leon was swift and possessed defensive tools along with poisons.

Worried that the Demon Lord might not be able to kill Leon, the Southern Boss launched a powerful kick at Leon's head; with both him and the Demon Lord working together, Leon would be left with no chance to escape alive.

"Leon, watch out!"

Iris, Cynthia, and the others gasped as they watched the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord darting toward Leon.

Though they knew Leon was formidable, the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord were in the Advanced Almighty State and it would be challenging for Leon to face them both at once.

On top of that, the Southern Boss resented Leon and the Demon Lord was a ruthless murderer, so one could easily imagine what might happen to Leon if he lost.

They paled, worried that Leon would fail; Iris, Leon's girlfriend, knew she could not live if Leon died.

"It's over!"

"Mister Wolfs going to die!"

Arthur and Angus watched the scene with a dark expression, their hearts sinking.

They wished that Leon could retreat so that they could all work together to escape, yet Leon refused stubbornly.

The Demon Lord and the Southern Boss teamed up against Leon, so it was too late for Leon to retreat.

None of them thought that Leon had what it took to deal with the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss alone, so they all assumed that he would lose his life once he was struck.

With Leon dead, the Thompsons would be the next, instantly devastated. 2
