

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2369

Chapter 2369

"Great!"

"Kill that brat!"

Contrary to the Thompsons' despair, the Hiltons and the Spears were thrilled.

Like the Thompsons, they all witnessed how Leon was injured by the Southern Boss and if Leon could not even defeat the Southern Boss, there was no way that he could defeat both the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord on his own.

Leon would perish without missing the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord working together.

Despite what they all expected, what happened next proved them wrong.

"Bring it on!" Leon huffed and narrowed his eyes sharply.

He could not use the Potential Energy Force out of fear that he might injure Arthur by mistake. However, Arthur was in a safe distance now and both the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord were charging at him at once.

This was the perfect chance for him to use the Potential Energy Force against them, so he produced it without hesitation.

As the Potential Energy Force appeared, its sheer force reached the sky and everything else seemed to pale in comparison.

The force slammed toward the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord and as Leon wielded it, he muttered to himself, "I hope this can take them both down."

Though the Potential Energy Force was formidable, the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord were in the Advanced Almighty State with great power.

Regardless, it would be fine even if the Potential Energy Force failed to kill the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord; so long as they were injured, Leon should be able to work with the Thompsons and turn the tables around.

"Wh- what on earth is that?!"

Both the Southern Boss and the Demon Lord were stunned by the sheer power force before them.

The Southern Boss always thought that Leon was beneath him and assumed that he could take Leon down with ease; to his bewilderment, it seemed that he once again underestimated Leon.

Not only did Leon have a powerful defensive tool and poisonous daggers, but he also managed to summon an almighty Potential Energy Force.

This caught him by surprise and he was utterly stunned, as was the Demon Lord.

Though the Demon Lord had no clue how Leon managed to summon such a powerful blow, he knew that the true energy hidden within the force surpassed the Advanced Almighty State by miles, which meant that neither he nor the Southern Boss could survive the blow.
