Chapter 2374

Chapter 2374

"Oh!"

As Arthur's words fell, the Spears and Hiltons instantly started wavering.

"As expected of someone with experience!' Leon glanced at Arthur respectfully, impressed that he managed to stir their spirits with just a few words.

"Don't listen to him! So long as we regroup, we can get out of here together! " The Southern Boss hastily tried to console his subordinates, but it was too late.

"Elder Thompson's right! We only came for the Southern Boss and old Hilton; none of you should've been dragged into this! So long as you step aside and stop helping them, the Thompsons and I won't harm you!*" Leon added, his words resonating deep within the others.

He knew that the Hiltons were an ancient family with a shared sense of belonging, so most of the Hiltons would follow Devon to death if that were necessary; however, the same could not be said about the Southern Boss's subordinates.

As the ruler of the underground community, the people who gathered to work for the Southern Boss mainly did so for fame and wealth; since Leon and Arthur promised not to harm them, it was likely that these people would stop working for the Southern Boss.

So long as all the people who worked for the Southern Boss retreated, the Thompsons could easily defeat the Hiltons and prevent large-scale casualty.

"Mister Wolf, Elder Thompson, we don't mean to be your enemies. We're willing to yield!"

As Leon predicted, countless Spears crumbled before the pressure and saw no point in continuing to work for the Southern Boss now that Leon promised to not harm them.

Someone leaped out of the battlefield and stood aside, and many others soon followed him.

Within the blink of an eye, most of the Spears yielded except a few powerful figures in the family like the three Guardians, along with the Hiltons.

With that said, the Thompsons instantly found themselves at an absolute advantage and it was only a matter of time before they won.

"You all! Damn it!' The Southern Boss gritted out in frustration.

Contrary to his rage, Leon and Arthur observed that Henry and Angus had everything under control and decided that it was time for them to focus on eliminating the Southern Boss and Devon.

"Elder Thompson, please deal with old Hilton! I'll handle the Southern Boss! " Leon said.

"Sure!' Arthur nodded and leaped toward Devon.

Upon learning that the Southern Boss and Rodney worked together to kill Yonas, Arthur desperately wanted to kill the Southern Boss himself.

However, he was severely injured by the Demon Lord earlier and since the Southern Boss's power rivaled that of his, he might not be able to defeat the Southern Boss.

Leon, on the other hand, had countless tricks up his sleeves, so it seemed safer to leave the Southern Boss to him.
