

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2400

Chapter 2400

Confused, the Southern Boss asked, "Why would we look for Brahma?"

"The Demon Lord, the Scarlet Thief, and the others were all killed by Leon! I need to inform Brahma and get him to help take Leon out! If he is willing to help, that brat is doomed!" Hades said viciously.

The eight criminals on the list were all killed except for Hades and Brahma, and it was unsettling to know that Leon was still alive.

Brahma ranked first on the criminal list and reached the Semi-Saint State. On top of that, he possessed a powerful treasure at the Saint State; so long as Brahma was willing to act, they could easily eliminate Leon.

Once Leon was taken out, Hades could pay Brahma to obtain the treasure Leon possessed without having to risk his own life-fighting Leon.

"That's great! With Brahma's help, Leon's going to die!" The Southern Boss said in excitement.

Through the earlier fight, he witnessed how resourceful Leon was and realized that Leon was far more challenging to deal with compared to the Thompsons.

If Leon did not turn the tables on the Spears by himself, the Southern Boss would have won the battle and at the moment, he considered Leon as his biggest enemy.

Rodney was the culprit who killed Yonas, so the Southern Boss could guess that Rodney was being held by the Thompsons; out of fear for the Southern Boss, it was likely that the Thompsons would not dare to harm Rodney.

Once Leon was out of the picture, the Southern Boss could retaliate against the Thompsons and rescue Rodney to his heart's content.

With that in mind, he was instantly overwhelmed with joy.

"Southern Boss, don't get ahead of yourself!" Hades said." Brahma's named that way because he has multiple faces. No one has ever seen his real face and no one knows where he's hiding. It's not going to be easy to find him!

Since Brahma was hard to find, Hades was not confident in finding him anytime soon but was certain that Leon would be doomed once he did.

Leon took down the Scarlet Thief, the Demon Lord, and the others, which made him the enemy of all remaining criminals, '

Once Brahma learned about this, he would indeed attack Leon to eliminate all possible risks instead of allowing someone like Leon to grow stronger.

"I see!" The Southern Boss felt disappointed but soon realized that he did not need to rush.

Hades resided in the central region most of the time and should know much about the area and Brahma. With that considered, Hades would locate Brahma sooner or later and eliminate Leon.
