

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 242

Chapter 242

Cynthia scoffed.

That scoff sounded like a thunderbolt in Dominic's ears. He suddenly remembered how he rushed at Cynthia earlier.

With the power of the Shears, killing him would be easier than killing an ant.

If he did not figure out a way to get Cynthia to forgive him, it would be a disaster!

Thinking about that, Dominic felt a chill in his heart. He immediately knelt as he pleaded fearfully, "Miss Shear, I didn't do it on purpose. Please be generous and forgive me this one time..."

"Now you know to beg for mercy. Why didn't you do that earlier?!" Cynthia snorted, not moving at all.

She was always a rich heiress who did as she pleased. No one dared to provoke her even in the noble circles of the city.

Not only was Dominic rude to her, he even insulted her and Leon, calling them dogs!

With her prideful personality, there was no way she could let it go just like that!

Dominic felt hopeless at Cynthia's cold expression. His heart completely sank.

After that, he seemed to think of something as he scrambled to Leon, pleading, "Leon, we used to be fellow students. Please help me ask Miss Shear for forgiveness..."

"That..." Leon did not like Dominic at all at that moment, but he still sighed in the end, thinking about their college days. He pleaded for Dominic's sake, "Cynthia, forget about it. He's an ex-classmate of mine. Can you forgive him for my sake?"

"Do

you think you're worth that much?!" Cynthia rolled her eyes.

When he was with the Shears, Leon cured her grandmother. It was something she was very grateful for.

However, since Leon stole her Blue Star of the Sea, she still had some opinions about Leon.

"That..." Leon did not expect himself to be worth so little and felt a bit awkward.

Looking at Leon's forlorn look, Cynthia could not stop herself from laughing.

She just teased Leon and did not mean anything else by it. There was no way she could disregard Leon's request with how much Leon helped their family.

After that, she looked at Dominic, saying coldly, "You're lucky this time!"

"For Leon's sake, I'll spare you! Otherwise, I'd have that filthy mouth of yours beaten rotten!"

"Thank you for your mercy, Miss Shear..." Dominic looked like was shown tremendous mercy as he wiped away the sweat on his forehead, finally daring to stand up. He felt a bit happy that he managed to avoid disaster.

"Leon, let's go!" Cynthia pulled at Leon's arm and turned around to leave.

Leon looked over at Janice, but did not say anything.

After what Cynthia pulled, he knew that there was no way this gathering would continue.

He planned on inviting Janice to come with him, but he remembered that he was there to talk business. Furthermore, Cynthia's personality was hard to grasp, so he decided against it.

Looking at Leon and Cynthia leave, everyone finally snapped out of their shock.

They knew of Leon's background. He was an orphan without anything and was even a divorcee.

Yet, someone as noble as Cynthia had her eyes on someone like Leon!

It was unbelievable!

Of course, quite a few of them realized that Cynthia might not be Leon's girlfriend, and they just misunderstood things.

However, regardless of whether or not they were in a relationship, it was still a fact that Leon was close to Cynthia!
