

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2433

Chapter 2433

"With the Southern Boss and the Spears gone, the underground community is a mess and chaos will erupt soon. I want you to replace the Southern Boss and keep the underground community in check. What do you think?" Leon said thoughtfully.

Henry and Chandler needed to protect the women, so Leon could only entrust Mason with this task.

Mason came from a background where he dealt with thugs and gangsters, so he was a better candidate for the role compared to Henry and Chandler. Still, it was a complicated situation and he needed to ask for Mason's opinion.

"What?" Mason was stunned.

He was once a member of the underground community but was merely the head of a few thugs at best.

The Southern Boss, on the other hand, stood at the very top of the food chain, and his position seemed unreachable for someone like Mason.

To his bewilderment, Leon wanted him to replace the Southern Boss and become a ruler of the underground community.

It was so unbelievable that he found himself frozen in shock. Mister Wolf, are you messing with me? Considering the extent of my power, I can't possibly be fit for such a position." He snapped out of it and said.

Despite what he said, he felt his blood boiling with excitement.

When he used to be a thug, it was his biggest dream to become a ruler whose name was known by everyone.

It was a wish that could never come true, yet the opportunity presented itself.

Leon intended to prepare him to be the ruler of the underground community in the southern region. He could not miss such a rare opportunity.

Still, he knew that he was weak and worried that he would fail. On top of that, Leon's suggestion seemed so unrealistic that he could not tell if Leon was being serious.

"I'm not messing with you! There are all sorts of outlaws in the underground community, and if you decide to replace the Southern Boss, you will be in danger. If you aren't willing to take this chance, I won't force you to," Leon said in a low voice.

He knew that it was a dangerous offer that might threaten Mason's life, and he refused to force Mason into acceptance over his gain.

"No, I'm willing to accept this!" Mason said and fell on his knees. "Mister Wolf, this is my lifelong wish. Please let me do this. It doesn't matter how dangerous it is. I don't mind even if I have to go through hell for this," Mason said sincerely.

Ever since he started following Leon, Leon helped him in multiple ways and he always wanted to repay Leon's generosity.

So long as he accepted Leon's suggestion, he could fulfill his lifelong ambition and repay the debt he owed Leon. It was such a great deal that there was no way he would refuse.

"Well, you won't have to go through hell. Don't worry. I've stabilized the community for now and no big issues should arise for now! In the meantime, I'll find a way to level you up to the Almighty State! So long as you succeed, it shouldn't be difficult for you to take charge of those outlaws," Leon said with a smile and helped Mason up.

He knew that Mason was far too weak to rule over the underground community, so it would not work if Mason tried to replace the Southern Boss right now.

However, so long as he could get Mason to the Almighty State, all issues would be resolved.
