

Read Novel The Ex-Husband's Revenge

The Ex-Husband's Revenge chapter 2478

"Sir, he can't get far. Once the bouquet ends, we can deal with him later," One of the bodyguards whispered into Felton's ear.

"Yeah, you're right," Felton agreed with the bodyguard.

Leon was merely a lowly scum and he had plenty of chance to deal with Leon after the bouquet. There was no hurry to it.

"Mister Fermer, welcome. The bouquet's about to start. Please end this out of respect for me," Jaxon came forward.

As the host, he did not want this conflict to affect the bouquet and preferred if the situation could be resolved.

"I'll do so out of respect for you, then!" Felton nodded and shot a sharp glance at Leon, scoffing. "Kid, consider yourself lucky. I'll let you off the hook this time since Mister Daglesh and Mister Feaks asked. If this happens again, you won't get away so easily!"

Maybe," Leon snorted casually.

He came to this bouquet to purchase rare herbs, not to fight.

Since Renee was not his girlfriend, he did not see others as rivals either.

Felton already compromised and Leon could not be bothered to waste his time on him.

"Good. This is settled peacefully." Seeing as the conflict between Felton and Leon came to an end, Renee and Ariella sighed a breath of relief, thinking this was the end of it.

Unbeknownst to them, Felton was determined to pick on Leon later on.

If they knew about this, they would not be so optimistic.

"This guy sure is lucky," Unlike them, Joshua was disappointed.

He exposed Renee's relationship with Leon to teach Leon a lesson through others. However, Leon got lucky and dodged the bullet.

This caused his effort to go to waste.

Naturally, the others were just as disappointed because they all disliked Leon for being Renee's boyfriend.

If they were not worried about ruining the bouquet, they would have wanted Felton to teach Leon a lesson and they felt slightly upset that could not happen.

Mister Hacket, this all happened thanks to you. I should be thanking you,"

Seeing through Joshua's thoughts, Leon cast a sharp glance at him.

He knew that all the trouble was a result of what Joshua said. He could not tell if Joshua did so unintentionally or on purpose, but he knew Joshua bore ill intention.