

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2544

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2544-Baam! Baam!

Following two deafening sounds, the two guards were both sent flying by Leon's spiritual energy.

However, with their effect, Leon had to pause on his way to go after Felton, which bought Felton time to escape.

Taking this opportunity, Felton ran with all his might toward his car.

"Damn it!" Leon's expression darkened as he watched Felton's retreating figure.

making him just slightly stronger than Felton.

Now that Felton took the opportunity to run, it would be challenging to catch up to him.

"I'm finally safe!" Seeing as he was about to get away from Leon, Felton sighed a breath of relief.

His car was parked just ahead and with the distance between him and Leon, Leon would not be able to catch up to him so soon.

Once he got to his car, he would drive away to safety and Leon would not be able to do anything to him.

With that thought in mind, he was relieved.

"Hugh, forget it! Don't go after him!" Renee and Jensen could both tell that Felton was getting away.

It would be difficult for Leon to catch up to Felton.

Though Felton repeatedly undermined Leon, Leon did not suffer any actual loss in the process. On the other hand, he severely injured Felton so he found justice.

Since there was no loss and Felton already got away, there was no point for Leon to go after him.

Hence, the two of them approached to talk to Leon, hoping that he would put an end to this matter.

“I-” Leon opened his mouth to speak when Felton’s voice rose.

“Brat, I’ll remember what you did today! Just wait and see!” Felton thought that he was already safe and laughed arrogantly as he threatened Leon.

He could always seek revenge later on.

Leon just severely injured him with a single finger and there was no way that he could let this pass.

So long as he succeeded in escaping, he would gather all the capable martial artists of the family to target Leon for the damage and humiliation Leon caused him.

However, reality proved him wrong and what happened next shook them all.

Leon took a big step forward and executed the Phantom Steps. His figure blurred into a faint shadow that darted toward Felton. Within a matter of seconds, he appeared right before Felton.
