The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2587-sing.

“Of course. This won’t happen again,” Roman said in relief.

After reprimanding Roman, Howard took a deep breath to calm himself and turned to look at Leon. “Mister Wolf, right? I attacked without digging deeper into the truth and came close to killing you. This is my fault and I apologize. Please forgive me,” Howard said guilty, and apologized sincerely.

Though he was misled by the Feaks, it was still wrong of him to attack Leon without any evidence. As a Dragon Guard, he failed his duty.

Thankfully, Fletcher knew Leon and stopped him in time to prevent a tragedy from taking place.

If he killed Leon, he would not be able to explain himself to his captain.

Naturally, he did not know he was worrying over nothing.

stronger than Howard, so he could have never actually harmed Leon.

Still, Leon lost a tremendous amount of spiritual energy after treating Jaxon and using the Hurricane Break repeatedly.

If Fletcher did not interfere, there was a possibility that Leon would get injured.

However, there was no way that Howard could succeed in killing Leon.

“It’s fine, Howard! It’s over now so don’t blame yourself.” Leon shook his head.

He knew that this was not Howard’s fault and since Howard stopped in time when Fletcher interfered, Leon saw no reason to get upset with him.

“Well, alright, then! Thank you for your understanding, Mister Wolf.” Howard sighed a breath of relief at his words.

Thoughtfully, he walked over to Jaxon. “Mister Feaks, I need to ask you something. Who was the culprit who did this?”

Since Leon was not responsible, someone else must be. Not only did the culprit commit robbery, but they also took a few innocent lives and this crossed the line for the Dragon Corps.

When the Feaks sought help from the Dragon Corps, the captain entrusted the mission to Howard. If possible, he would like to find the true culprit and bring them to justice.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2588-“Yeah!”

“Jaxon, who did this?”

Roman and the others turned to look at Jaxon, their gaze resentful.

Not only did the culprit murder a few guards, they came close to taking Jaxon’s life as well.

The Feaks developed a deep resentment for the culprit and once they found out who did this, they would avenge the dead no matter the cost.

“I don’t know! The culprit wore a mask so I can’t identify him. Judging from his figure and voice, he’s probably a middle-aged man, though,” Jaxon said weakly.

“What?”

“You don’t know who did this?”

“Damn it! How can this be?”

The Feaks’ hearts sank as they assumed Jaxon would know who was responsible.

None of them expected the culprit to be so careful and took special care to hide their faces and identities.

This caught them by surprise.

Though Jaxon could identify from the figure that the culprit was a middle-aged man, there were plenty of people who fit that profile in all the families in the western region.

They could not possibly find the culprit with so little information. However, if they could not figure out the culprit, they could never seek revenge.

Frustrated, their expressions darkened and they were all rendered helpless.

“Elder Feaks, don’t get frustrated. Mister Jaxon may not know who did it, but I do,” Leon said.

“You do?”

“Really?”

Mister Wolf, are you messing with us?” Roman and the others were all shocked.

If the victim himself could not identify the culprit, it seemed odd for Leon to know.

Neither of them could figure out why Leon knew about this.

On top of that, they once asked Leon who the culprit was when they first arrived at the crime scene. At the time, Leon clearly stated that he did not know.

That was why they mistook Leon for the culprit. However, Leon now claimed he knew who did it.

His statements seemed to contradict each other and they were all confused.

Instantly, they all wondered if Leon was telling the truth.

“It’s true! When I treated Mister Jaxon and inspected his wounds, I found some leads! If I’m not mistaken, the Southern Boss is likely the one who did this,”

Leon said.

“The Southern Boss?”

“Him?”

The Feaks were all stunned by Leon’s words.

The Southern Boss was one of the major players in the underground community unrivaled in both the southern and western regions.

They all knew about this and heard of the Southern Boss's name.

To their surprise, the Southern Boss was the person who murdered to steal the Rainbow Flower.

This completely caught them by surprise. However, just as they were about to comment, they realized that something was off.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2589-eaks recovered from the initial shock and asked.

Though the southern and western regions were next to one another, each contained vast land and the heart of each region were far apart.

The Feaks were moderately influential and not as up-to-date about what happened in other regions compared to more influential families.

Some of the most powerful families already received information that the Thompsons destroyed the Spears and the Southern Boss fled with severe injuries.

However, the Feaks were unaware of this. Hence, they did not understand why the Sotuehrn Boss would end up in the western region and commit such crimes.

This led them to wonder if Leon was mistaken.

"I'm not mistaken. I've fought the Southern Boss before and I'm familiar with his true energy. When I was treating Mister Jaxon, I could sense the Southern Boss's energy around the wound," Leon explained.

"What? You've fought the Southern Boss before?" The Feaks were shocked.

Though they did not know the true extent of Leon's strength, they could tell from the earlier exchange that Leon was likely in the Initial Almighty State.

State.

It would be a miracle for Leon to have fought the Southern Boss and survived.

“More than once. There are some grievances between me and the Southern Boss. I’m going to take him down for good the next time I see him,” Leon said and narrowed his eyes coldly.

“What?” The others were stunned.

They thought that Leon was fortunate enough to have survived a fight with the Southern Boss. However, Leon felt differently and even claimed he would take the Southern Boss down.

This sounded arrogant and they were all taken aback.

Naturally, Howard felt the same as well and looked at Leon contemptuously.

He witnessed Leon’s strength and Leon could not even take a single attack from made him much stronger than Howard.

Even Howard would lose to the Southern Boss, not to mention Leon.

He could not figure out what gave Leon the confidence to say that he would take the Southern Boss down and Howard dismissed it as arrogance.

Still, it seemed normal for youngsters to be overly ambitious and he did not think much of it, thinking that Leon was just bluffing.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2590-“Mister Wolf, you said that you detected the Southern Boss’s true energy on Jaxon’s wound? But, why would he be in the western region?” Roman changed the subject.

He, too, felt that Leon was merely bluffing when he said he would take the Southern Boss down and did not take it seriously.

“Well, Elder Feaks, you probably don’t know this, but the Thompsons destroyed the Spears and the Southern Boss fled to the western region with severe injuries,” Leon said thoughtfully and proceeded to briefly explain what happened.

The Spears’ downfall and the Southern Boss’s injury were mainly caused by Leon, but he came here using a fake name.

On top of that, the others did not believe him when he said he would take the Southern Boss down. To avoid being mistaken as a person who enjoyed bluffing, he simply gave all the credit to the Thompsons.

“I see. So, can the Southern Boss be behind all that happened?” Realization dawned on the Feaks.

The Thompsons were the head of all families in the southern region and their influence rivalled that of the Southern Boss's.

Also, the two families were always at odds, so it seemed to make sense that the Thompsons caused the Spears' downfall and that the Southern Boss fled to the western region.

Instantly, they were all convinced.

“That has to be it! We received news that the Southern Boss likely fled to the western region just a few days ago. I suppose it's true after all,” Howard agreed along with a stern expression.

When the Dragon Guards found out that the Southern Boss might have gone to the western region, Alfred informed Leon and also the person in charge of the western branch to seek help in searching for the Sotuehm Boss.

Hence, both Howard and Fletcher heard about this.

However, the western region was vast and the Southern Boss hid himself well, so none of the Dragon Guards managed to find him so far. Up until now, they could not even confirm if the Southern Boss was truly in the western region.

However, Leon detected the Southern Boss's true energy on Jaxon's wound and identified him as the culprit of this incident. This indirectly confirmed that the Southern Boss was in the Western region.

Howard's expression darkened and he decided that he had to inform his captain, Mister Orpwood, about this once he got back.

“Damn it! It seems like the Southern Boss is the one who did this!” Roman's expression darkened.

He knew what the Dragon Corps was capable of and did not doubt the information they had.

Since it was confirmed that the Southern Boss was in the western region, what Leon found proved that the Southern Boss was the culprit.

There was not a doubt in the Feaks' hearts that this was the case
