

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2591-“Dad, what should we do now? The Southern Boss is one of the strongest martial artists in both the Western and southern regions. If he is responsible for all these, we won't be able to retaliate,” Romeo said.

The Peaks were hardly the most powerful families and the strongest martial artist in the family stopped at the SemiAlmighty State, which was miles away Naturally, Roman and the elders agreed as well.

They all know that the Peaks could not rival the Southern Boss in strength and going after him for revenge would only cause the downfall of their own family.

Instantly, their hearts sank in despair.

“Elder Peaks, don't worry! Back in the southern region, the Southern Boss was found working with one of the eight criminals and because of that, he is already wanted by the Dragon Corps. Now that he has committed murder again in the western region, I'm sure that the Dragon Guards in both the southern and western regions would go after him,” Leon consoled them.

“Mister Wolf is right. Elder Peaks, don't worry. The Southern Boss has taken innocent lives, so the Dragon Corps will bring him to justice!” Howard nodded.

“Sure! Thank you, Howard!”

The Peaks were relieved to hear this.

Though the Peaks had no power in seeking revenge against the Southern Boss, Almighty State.

The Southern Boss could not possibly rival them.

So long as the Dragon Guards hunt the Southern Boss down, the Peaks could consider the debt paid and the guards that sacrificed would be avenged.

“Alright, this matter concerning the Sotuehrn Boss is important so I have to report it to my captain. Mister Wolf, Elder Peaks, if this is all, we shall leave now,” Howard said.

However, before he could leave, Fletcher stopped him.

“Hang on! Howard, I need to speak with Mister Wolf,” Fletcher turned to look at Leon. “Mister Wolf, would you like to come with us to the western branch office?”

It’s a rare opportunity that you came so I have to host you!” he invited earnestly.

He was thankful that Leon saved his life before and wanted to invite Leon back with him so he could thank Leon properly.

“Fletcher, you,” Howard frowned in displeasure.

The Dragon Corps was a special organization that governed martial artists, and ordinary people were not supposed to step foot into the office.

It was rather inappropriate for Fletcher to invite an outsider to the office, but Howard was close with Fletcher and did not want to embarrass him now that he already invited Leon.

Hesitantly, he swallowed his words.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2592-“Um, sure!” Leon agreed.

He got to know Fletcher and a few other Dragon Guards from the western region. Since he ran into Fletcher, he did not mind visiting the Dragon Corps in the western region.

“Give me a minute, though. There’s something I need to take care of,” Leon added and hurried to Jaxon’s side. “Mister Jaxon, your condition has stabilized, but you will still need time to recover. I’m going to recite a prescription for you.

Take this daily and you should be able to recover in a month. M “Sure.” Jaxon straightened his back and focused, while the other Feaks followed.

Leon recited a prescription and since the Feaks were all experts in medicine, they instantly memorized it.

Mister Wolf, thank you for saving me. I'm sorry that the culprit took the Rainbow Flower. We can't trade anymore," Jaxon thanked Leon after memorizing the prescription.

Also, he felt guilty that he could not fulfill his promise.

"It's fine. I guess it's just my luck and the Rainbow Flower isn't meant to be mine," Leon sighed.

Despite what he said, he felt devastated.

The Rainbow Flower was a rare heavenly herb. He was so close to obtaining it, only to lose it in the end. For a moment, he was disappointed.

On top of that, the Rainbow Flower could enhance the power of martial artists in the Almighty State and increase the chances of a breakthrough.

Now that the Southern Boss had taken the flower, Leon knew that he intended to use the flower to get to the next level. Once the Southern Boss got to the Peak Almighty State with the flower, taking him down would only be more challenging.

"Oh, yeah! Grandpa, we still have that thing, right? Why don't you give it to Mister Wolf?" While observing Leon's disappointed expression, Jaxon recalled something and turned to Roman.

"Well," Roman understood what he meant right away. He was hesitant and fell into silence.

"Dad, Jaxon is right! That thing may be rare, but Mister Wolf saved Jaxon's life.

Why don't you just give that to him to show our gratitude?" Romeo said after a brief moment of hesitation.

But," Roman was still hesitant.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2593-"It's fine. Saving people is a doctor's duty. I just helped Mister Jaxon because I happened to be around. You don't need to give me anything," Leon shook his head and rejected their offer.

He did not know what they were talking about, but Romeo mentioned that it was something precious. Leon could tell that Roman was struggling and he could not possibly ask them to give anything to him just because he helped.

In his current possible, he was not short of money and did not need them to offer him any gift.

“Alright! Elder Feaks, if that’s all, I’ll get going now,” Leon said and turned to leave with Fletcher.

“Hang on! Mister Wolf, please wait!” Roman gritted his teeth with determination and called out to Leon.

“What’s wrong? Is there something else you need, Elder Feaks?” Leon turned around in confusion.

“Mister Wolf, Romeo, and Jaxon are right. You saved Jaxon’s life and even found us the culprit who did this. You have done so much for us. To thank you, I want to give you the fruit of the Rainbow Flower,” Roman said seriously.

The Feaks did not just find the Rainbow Flower, but also its fruit.

It was such a rare specimen that no one in the Feaks recognized what they were.

Hence, Roman told Jaxon to show it to others during the bouquet to see if anyone could identify it. In the end, Leon recognized it.

Since the Feaks possessed both the Rainbow Flower and the Rainbow Fruit, they did not mind trading the Rainbow Flower for the Sun Pills so long as the pills were as effective as Leon claimed.

However, the situation took an unfortunate turn.

The Southern Boss stole the Rainbow Flower and the Feaks were left with the Rainbow Fruit. Hence, Roman was hesitant to give it away.

Still, because Leon saved Jaxon’s life and how Roman and the others mistook Leon for the killer, Roman felt guilty toward Leon.

In the end, he decided to give it to Leon.

“What? The Rainbow Flower’s fruit?” Leon was shocked.

Leon was stunned when he realized the Feaks were talking about the Rainbow Flower's fruit.

According to the records left by Leon's ancestors, the Rainbow Flower only bloomed every thirty years and bore fruits every fifty years.

Since the flower had to grow in the valley with tremendous natural spiritual energy, it needed to absorb energy from the earth and sky to bear fruits.

This indicated that the Rainbow Fruit was extremely rare and its value was even higher than the Rainbow Flower.

The conditions needed for the Rainbow Fruit to grow were extremely demanding, so Leon did not expect the Feaks to obtain both the Rainbow Flower and the Rainbow Fruit.

For a moment, he was utterly stunned.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2594-"Yeah! The flower was taken by the Southern Boss, but we still have the Rainbow Fruit! However, that's in our family mansion and not with me. I'll go home to get it and have it delivered to you," Roman said.

"That's wonderful!" Leon was overjoyed and excited.

He was rather disappointed that the Rainbow Flower was taken away from the Southern Boss. To his bewilderment, the Feaks possessed something even better and were willing to give it to him.

His disappointment was instantly replaced by joy.

"Elder Feaks, the Rainbow Fruit is too precious and I can't just accept it for free!

How about I honor the same deal I set with Mister Jaxon and offer the Feaks three Sun Pills and some premium Energy Nurturing Pills." Leon snapped out of it and said.

"It's fine. Mister Wolf, we mistreated you, yet you saved Jaxon's life anyway. We can't thank you properly or pay you. Just consider the Rainbow Fruit our way of saying thank you. You don't need to offer us the alchemical pills," Roman shook his head.

He knew that Jaxon was severely injured and came close to dying.

Though he did not know how Leon revived Jaxon, he could guess that it took Leon a lot of effort. Hence, it seemed reasonable to give him the Rainbow Fruit as a gesture of gratitude.

In the end, he was right.

Leon used two expensive herbs and exhausted his spiritual energy to cure Jaxon. He would not have struggled to fend off a single attack from Howard when they found him.

"It's fine! That's not related to this! The Rainbow Fruit has nothing to do with me saving Mister Jaxon. Besides, the Sun Pills can help martial artists in the Semi-Almighty State to the Almighty State. They will be useful to you! Trading the Rainbow Fruit for the Sun Pills and some Premium Energy Nurturing Pills will benefit us both," Leon smiled.

Though he did pay quite a price to cure Jaxon, the Rainbow Fruit was simply too precious and he could not bring himself to accept it without giving something in return.

Hence, he intended to trade with alchemical pills so that they all benefit.

"Mister Wolf, forgive me for asking, but can the Sun Pills get martial artists in the Semi-Almighty State to the Almighty State?" Roman asked.

Since the Feaks were hardly the most influential family in the Western region, the most powerful martial artists in the family like Roman and the elders all stopped at the SemiAlmighty State.

If the Sun Pills could indeed get martial artists in the SemiAlmighty State to the Almighty State, they would be extremely useful to them.

However, the effect of the Sun Pills sounded like it would rival with supreme spiritual herb, so the Feaks remained doubtful.

It was precisely because of this that Jaxon did not make the trade the night before, and this ended up allowing the Southern Boss to rob them.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2595-“It’s true! I swear the Sun Pills work exactly that way!” Leon promised confidently.

“Well,” Roman and the others fell into silence.

If they heard this the night before, they would never have believed Leon.

However, the situation was different.

They all fought Leon after mistaking him as the killer and sensed that Leon reached the Initial Almighty State.

If that were the case, Leon’s promise would sound far more convincing.

Moreover, Roman was going to give the Rainbow Fruit to Leon and Leon was the one who offered to trade with the pills.

If he was lying about the effect, there would not be a point for him to do such a thing.

Instantly, the Feaks found themselves convinced.

“Mister Wolf, since you insist on trading, I will take you up on your offer!” Roman bowed slightly with a grateful expression.

Since the Feaks were a long lineage of doctors and after over a hundred years of effort, they accumulated tremendous wealth. Their only weakness was the fact that they were not that accomplished in martial arts compared to other families.

Initially, he did not want to hand the Rainbow Fruit to Leon because he wanted to use it to reach the Almighty State, thus enhancing his family’s overall strength.

However, if Leon was indeed telling the truth about the Sun Pills, three pills would help produce three martial artists in the Almighty State. Once that was achieved, they could produce their method in the Ultimate Power Class and slowly rise to the ranks of influential families.

This was far better than keeping the Rainbow Fruit, so there was no reason for him to refuse Leon’s offering.

“Alright, it’s settled then!” Leon said with a smile.

“Romeo, you and the second elder will stay here to look after Jaxon. Send him back to the mansion to rest. Mister Wolf, you can come with us to get the Rainbow Fruit,” Roman said.

“Sure. Let’s go!” Leon nodded and suddenly recalled something. He turned and found Fletcher waiting and said, “Mister Caldicot, I’m going with Elder Feaks to take the Rainbow Fruit and this may take time. Why don’t you head back to the branch first? I’ll come look for you after I’m done! If “Um, it’s fine. Mister Wolf, I’ve never seen a heavenly herb before. If it’s okay with you, I’ll go to the Feaks’ mansion with you,” Fletcher said.

The Southern Boss murdered to steal the Rainbow Flower and Fletcher could tell that the Rainbow Fruit was a heavenly herb as well.

It was rare for Leon to appear in the western region and Fletcher was worried Leon may run into other trouble later on as soon as he left. That may change Leon’s mind about going to the Dragon Corps’ western region branch, and Fletcher would not know when he could see Leon again.

With that considered, he decided to go with Leon to the Feaks’ mansion and have a look at the legendary heavenly herb
