

The Ex-Husband's Revenge

Dragonsky

Chapter 26

"I think he looks okay..." Iris' beautiful face reddened slightly.

What she said to Ariel earlier was supposed to just be between best friends.

Yet, Ariel spilled everything right in front of Leon.

Suddenly, her face heated up. She did not know how she was supposed to face Leon anymore.

Ariel was worse. She even felt like she was about to spit out some blood. She held so much hope for that man. She even started to worship that perfect man from her fantasies!

Yet, she never would have expected that the heroic man was the sissy that she just met earlier!

The impact she suffered was immense! She felt like she was completely fooled by Iris! 3

Iris took a deep breath and regained her composure, "Leon, I've been needing an administrative secretary. I want you to be my secretary. What do you think?"

"If you don't like it, I can give you a different position!"

"I'm happy with it, of course, I am," Leon was incredibly happy as he nodded frantically.

Iris arranged for a much better job than he dared to hope for. He would even be able to learn a lot by staying by Iris' side. He desperately wanted the job.

In Ariel's eyes, he proved that he was a sissy by accepting a job as a secretary.

"Other than that, I have to remind you that the company has its own rules. I hope you can obey them. Don't just act like you own the place just because I'm indebted to you!" Iris added. ²

"I know. I'll work properly. I won't betray your trust," Leon said earnestly.

Iris let out a satisfied smile before she looked at Ariel, "Ariel, Leon just joined the company and doesn't know anything. I'll temporarily leave him to you. Make your arrangements for him!"

Ariel viciously glared at Leon, nodding reluctantly.

"Also, I arranged for Leon to be the president's secretary because I want to properly train him up. I don't want anyone else to know about what happened between the two of us, so don't spread it around," Iris said.

Better to teach a man how to fish than to give him fish for a day! 1

Iris knew that Leon was not that capable. She arranged for Leon to be by her side because she wanted to expand Leon's knowledge as well as train Leon's organizational abilities.

Then, even if Leon left the company in the future, he would be able to carve out a business for himself or have a career as an executive in a company.

That was her way of repaying Leon.

"I understand. Don't worry, I won't let it spread," Ariel smiled. She knew what Iris was concerned about. 1

Leon was Iris's savior. If the people in the company knew of that, there would be a lot of people who would try to get friendly with Leon.

If that happened, training Leon would be completely secondary. There was a chance that Leon would completely ruin his future due to some alluring offers.

"Let's go, I'll bring you to the human resources department to get your documentation done first," Ariel glanced at Leon before turning around and leaving the office.

Leon followed behind her.

After getting the documentation done, Ariel brought Leon to the front of the president's department.

"Leon, in our company, the president's secretary is nominally under the president's department. You should report to the department first and learn the ropes from the office for a few days. Once you get the basics down, I'll personally guide you," Ariel said simply.

In the Elegante Group, the president's assistant was a high-ranking executive within the company. She had a lot of power and was almost equal to the vice president and the general manager. 1

The president's secretary was only in charge of running errands for the president. Other than a slightly better salary, the secretary had no real power.

However, Leon's situation was a bit more special. Iris had intentions of training him. He was merely assuming the position of a secretary for the moment. In the future, he would have as much power as Ariel.

"Alright, I still have a lot of work to do. Go over and report yourself," Ariel turned around to leave after that. 1

Leon rubbed his nose and headed to the office by himself.

The president's department was split into two parts, the inner office, and the outer office.

The inner office was where the head of the president's department worked. Meanwhile, the outer office was for general affairs. 1

The president's department was an important department that made decisions within the company, assisting the president in the day-to-day business. 1

The head of the president's department was the same rank as the president's assistant. Both of them were at the rank of directors. They were both core members of the company's power structure.

Since Ariel was close to Iris, her power was a level higher than the head of the president's department.
