

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2606-Seeing the change in their attitude, Hugo was overjoyed and immediately took the opportunity to persuade them. “Grandfather, since you’ve already learned the potential of Cynthion Group, you should probably agree to the terms Mister Wolf proposed before something unexpected happens...” “Yeah, Hugo is right!

Grandfather, a lot of the guests from last night fought for a chance to work with Cynthion Group. Fortunately, Hugh is a great person who honored his promise to Hugo. That’s why he didn’t agree to work with anyone there. However, he already informed them that if things didn’t work out with us, he would pick one of the guests from the bouquet to work with,” Renee agreed along and recounted what happened the night before.

“I understand. Let’s get to it right away. Hugo, which hotel is Hugo staying in?

Why don’t you invite him over again to renegotiate? Inform him that we are willing to accept his proposal!” Caleb made his decision immediately and was ready to accept the deal.

However, the details would need to be sorted out and Hugo needed to invite Leon over for further discussion.

“Well...” Hugo hesitated.

“What’s wrong, Hugo? Is there any issue?” Caleb asked in confusion.

“Grandfather, we were quite rude to Mister Wolf and he’s already mad about it. I think that you should come to the hotel with me to meet with Mister Wolf. It would show that we are eager to form a partnership that way...” Hugo said hesitantly.

Leon came from the southern region to the western region to establish a partnership with the Morrisons, yet he ended up getting offended by their arrogance.

Leon was livid at the time and was even considering giving up on the deal. It was not until Hugo put in a few good words that Leon agreed to give the Morrisons another chance.

It was already quite generous of Leon to do so. Since Leon already showed his sincerity in the matter, the Morrisons should match that as well.

Hugo wanted Caleb to go to the hotel and meet with Leon to appease Leon's anger and show that the Morrisons were keen on the deal. This would benefit the deal.

"Well... that's alright! I will go to the hotel with you!" Caleb agreed as he too felt that they were too arrogant the day before.

To show his sincerity, it would be appropriate for him to speak to Leon directly about the partnership.

With that thought in mind, he stood and prepared to head out with Hugo.

Just then, Jayden stood abruptly. "Hang on! Father, you can't go to meet Mister Wolf with Hugo!" he said hastily.

"No? Why not?" Caleb was taken aback and looked at Jayden in confusion

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2607-"Dad, though these alchemical pills work great, Cynthion Group is still a small pharmaceutical firm. Mister Wolf is just the vice president and not the chairman.

For a man of your status to go to the hotel to meet with him, it would be degrading," Jayden.

"Well, he is right!" "Caleb, Cynthion Group doesn't belong to one of the powerful families in the southern region. Even if the chairman comes here, he can't rival you in terms of status, not to mention a mere vice president." "Since you've already agreed to the partnership, you can just get Hugo to invite Mister Wolf over. There's no need for you to go to meet him!"

The other elders agreed along.

Though they did not know much about the Cynthion Group, they knew that it did not belong to any influential families in the southern region.

The Morrisons, on the other hand, were the heads of all the families in the western region, which was something that the Cynthion Group could not compare.

Since they were all rude to Leon, it would look like they were apologizing if Caleb went to the hotel to meet with Leon.

None of them saw the point in going such distance for a mere vice president.

As the head of the Morrisons, Caleb represented their pride and honor, so they would never let him lower himself to apologize to Leon.

If words about this got out, the Morrisons would be the laughingstock of the western region.

“Uncle Jayden, elders, you can’t think that way. Mister Wolf came all the way here, yet we didn’t host him properly and even insulted him. I’m taking Grandfather to the hotel to meet with him so that we can perhaps treat him to a meal and discuss the details of the partnership. That will work out perfectly,”

Hugo explained.

He knew that the others were right. If Hugh was merely the vice president, having Caleb meet with him in person would be rather degrading. However, he also knew that Hugh was just a fake name Leon used and he was the chairman of Cynthion Group.

From a business point of view, Leon deserved to be received directly by the head of the family as that would be the most appropriate.

On top of that, the Morrisons offended Leon the day before and it seemed reasonable for Caleb to head to the hotel and meet with Leon in person.

If Hugo went to the hotel to bring Leon back to the Morrisons’ mansion, it would seem as though they were bossing Leon around.

On top of that, the alchemical pills produced by Cynthion Group had great market value and the Morrisons were the ones who were more eager about the deal.

Any disrespectful act would only enrage Leon further. If Leon took it personally, the deal might be off for good and this would not benefit the Morrisons in any way.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2608-“Nonsense! Hugo, if you want to host this Mister Wolf, we can treat him to a meal after the collaboration is confirmed. Why is there the need for Father to meet with him in the hotel and apologize?” Jayden scoffed.

“Yeah!” “Caleb can’t go to meet with Mister Wolf!”

The elders all agreed along.

“But,” Unwilling to give up, Hugo wanted to argue when Jayden interrupted him.

“There’s no but”. If you think that going alone to the hotel is not respectful enough, I will go with you. That should be enough right?” Jayden said.

“You? No way!” Hugo was taken aback.

“Why not? Considering my status, we are already paying him respect for me to go to the hotel with you. Is that not enough?” Jayden said with annoyance.

As a direct descendent of the second generation, he was talented and long reached the Initial Almighty State despite being suppressed by Josiah.

His strength surpassed Josiah, who was only in the Semi-Almighty state.

It was no exaggeration to say that he was the actual leader of the second generation and was valued by Caleb and the elder.

Considering his talent and status in the family, it was already quite respectful for him to meet Hugh in the hotel.

He did not think that a mere vice president would dare to disrespect him unless Leon had a death wish.

“It’s a good idea! Caleb, just let Jayden go to the hotel in your place and invite Mister Wolf over! That way, you won’t need to lower yourself and we would be able to show that we are eager!”

The elders nodded and agreed to Jayden’s suggestion.

From their perspectives, Hugh was merely a vice president, and having Jayden go over to the hotel was already rather flattering for Leon.

Leon should appreciate the gesture and come over to the Morrisons' mansion to negotiate terms with them happily.

"Alright, then! Hugo, go with your uncle to the hotel and meet with Mister Wolf!"

Caleb considered it and made up his mind.

Initially, he planned to go to the hotel himself, but what Jayden and the elders said made sense.

As the head of the family, it seemed degrading for him to go to the hotel and meet with Leon in person.

Since that was the case, he might as well get Jayden to represent him and that would solve all issues.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2609-"Well!" Hugo was stunned.

He knew that Jayden was arrogant and ignorant, so taking him to meet with Leon in the hotel might just make things worse. Hence, he was unwilling to do it.

However, Caleb and the elders were convinced by Jayden and all insisted that Hugo took him along.

No matter how hard he protested, no one would listen and he felt devastated.

Just then, Caleb's phone rang. He took it out to have a look and said, "It's from the third elder!" "Caleb, maybe he found something about Cynthion Group."

Realization dawned on the other elders.

Due to Hugo's tireless effort the day before, Caleb sent the third elder to the southern region to look into Cynthion Group's background before deciding if he wanted the collaboration at all.

Since the third elder was calling, they all knew that he likely found something.

"I think so!" Caleb said.

Though he already decided to accept Leon's terms and work with Cynthion Group, he still needed to know more about the company.

Since the third elder was calling with information about Cynthion Group, he decided that getting to know what he was dealing with would not harm him.

With that thought in mind, he answered the call. "Hello, did you find anything useful?" Caleb cut to the chase and asked.

"Caleb here's what I found," the third elder reported everything he found hastily.

Meanwhile, Jayden said to Hugo, "Hugo, why are you just standing there?"

Let's just head to the hotel to meet with Mister Wolf!" "Oh, alright then!" Hugo said bitterly.

Since Caleb and the elders decided to send him and Jayden to meet with Leon and his protest was ignored, Hugo could only do as he was told and leave with Jayden.

He could only hope that Jayden could refrain from acting rude, instead of provoking Leon further with his arrogance like he did the day before.

If that happened, partnering with Cynthion Group would only become more challenging.

While he worried about what may happen, the situation took a drastic turn.

Caleb suddenly paled and his phone slipped out of his hand, breaking into pieces as it hit the ground.

"Caleb, what's wrong?" The elders were taken aback and exchanged confused looks, not knowing why Caleb was acting this way.

"Wait! Hugo, don't leave yet!" Caleb snapped out of it and ignored the elders' question to stop Hugo and Jayden from leaving. 1

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2610-"What do you need?" Jayden and Hugo both stopped and turned around in confusion.

“Jayden, something unexpected happened. Cynthion Group is far more powerful than we imagined. The two of you can’t go to the hotel recklessly.” Caleb took a deep breath, his expression darkening.

Recalling what he heard from the third elder, he felt shaken and completely lost his composure.

“Cynthion Group is powerful? Dad, it’s just a small pharmaceutical firm that doesn’t even belong to any influential family! There’s a limit to how powerful they can be!” Jayden was taken aback.

“Yeah!” “Caleb, we’ve never heard of Cynthion Group before this. If we aren’t mistaken, it’s just a new company in the southern region. You are overestimating them!”

The elders agreed along and did not take this seriously.

Like Jayden, they did not have much respect for Cynthion Group, which was normal.

The Morrisons were the most powerful family in the western region and as the elders, they saw plenty of things.

Judging from the fact that Cynthion Group just started running, even if they underestimated it, it would only mean that it had better potential than they initially thought.

None of them thought that Cynthion Group could gain much power within a short period.

“No, Cynthion Group isn’t as simple as you think it is! Though it was recently established in the southern region, they have made a name for itself within a few months and they are starting to expand. The company’s market value is unimaginable,” Caleb said, before explaining what he learned about Cynthion Group.

From a business point of view, Cynthion Group had great potential and market value.

Through the tireless effort of Leon and his confidantes, Cynthion Group planted its roots in the southern region firmly and became one of the biggest enterprises.

Even some of the influential families in the western and southern regions would find themselves falling short in terms of wealth when compared to the Cynthion Group.

“So what? The world of martial artists honors strength above everything! Even if they are earning a lot, that just means they have money. In terms of strength, they can’t possibly compare to us!” Jayden scoffed in contempt.

It was the law of the jungle that the strong preyed on the weak, and martial artists respected nothing apart from strength.

Strength and money were equally important. Though Cynthion Group’s financial capability rivaled that of some of the most influential families, it would only be categorized at the ranks of the Feaks.

The Feaks were an ancient lineage of doctors and they accumulated tremendous wealth over the years. However, they lacked physical strength and that meant they could not compete with top-tier families.

The same thing could be said about Cynthion Group and before truly powerful families like the Morrisons, Cynthion Group could only submit. Otherwise, anyone could just destroy Cynthion Group as they wished.

No amount of money could help with that.
