

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2661-2662

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2661-The Morrisons took on a similar strategy as well.

Having almost lost the chance to work with Cynthion Group, Caleb cherished the hope that Renee salvaged.

He cast his ego aside and put on his most sincere attitude to fight for this opportunity.

Both the Daglehs and the Morrisons showed extreme eagerness in the matter and Leon was at a loss.

From the Cynthion Group's perspective, the Morrisons were the head of all families in the western region with great influence. On top of that, Hugo already gathered all the herbs he needed to produce the alchemical pills so almost everything was in place.

It may be more appropriate for him to work with the Morrisons.

However, the Morrisons' elders were far too arrogant and Jayden was a troublemaker. This left Leon with a horrible impression and he was concerned that similar events would occur again once they established a partnership. This would hardly benefit Cynthion Group's future development in any way.

The Daglehs, on the other hand, were honest and sincere. It would be a safer option to work with the Daglehs. However, the Daglehs were slightly less powerful than the Morrisons.

Furthermore, they would need to search for the herbs they needed from scratch.

Despite how hard he considered, both families had their strengths and weaknesses.

Instantly, he found himself at a crossroads and he could not decide which family was the most suitable partner for Cynthion Group.

Outside the room, Leon, the Morrisons, and the Daglehs completed the initial discussion of terms.

“Elder Morrison, and Elder Daglesh, you both seem very sincere and I can’t make a decision at this moment. How about you go home for now? Give me some time to consider. I’ll give you an answer within three days,” Leon said thoughtfully and decided to give this matter more thought before making the decision.

“Well, sure! Mister Wolf, well go now, then,” Caleb and the others said.

They all knew that this was a rather big decision to make and it was normal that Leon needed more time to consider.

They could all empathize with that, so they bid their farewell and left.

In the Morrisons’ mansion, Caleb summoned all the elders over for a meeting in the main hall.

“Caleb, welcome back! How did the discussion go?”

“Have we secured the opportunity to work with Cynthion Group?”

The elders asked hastily as soon as they arrived.

“Not yet,” Caleb shook his head with a dark expression.

“Not yet?” “That can’t be.”

“We’re already agreeing to the profit division Hugh proposed, so why isn’t he agreeing to work with US?” The elders were taken aback.

They all thought that with Caleb representing the Morrisons, they should be able to secure the deal now that they agreed to Hugh’s condition.

To their bewilderment, they were wrong and Caleb did not manage to convince Hugh.

This caught them by surprise and they were all shocked.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2662-’It’s all Hugh’s fault. He promised in front of everyone that he would prioritize US. In the end, he saw all the families fighting for a chance to work with Cynthion Group and went back on his words. He made US compete with the Daglehs so that he could profit more! Damn him!" Jayden said in frustration.

He only tried to convince others to team up against Leon because he was worried that Leon would play hard to get once he knew he had so many options.

He might then try to lower the profit he offered to his partner for his gain.

After that, Leon changed his mind about the Morrisons and Jayden dismissed it as Leon's tactic.

When Leon met with both the Morrisons and the Daglehs, this confirmed what he assumed and he was certain that Leon was trying to obtain more profit by making this a competition.

'How dare you blame Hugh at this point? Aren't you embarrassed of yourself? If you didn't cause trouble, things wouldn't have worsened to this extent!" Caleb was livid and landed a fierce kick on Jayden.

Baam!

Jayden grunted in pain and stumbled, coming close to falling.

Luckily, he was already kicked multiple times by Caleb at the hotel and got used to it. In the end, he maintained his balance and prevented himself from falling.

"Dad, I'm just telling the truth. Can't you tell that Hugh's making US compete with the Daglehs on purpose? He simply didn't make the final choice because he wants to obtain more profit!" Jayden said, feeling like he saw through Hugh's thoughts.

"You, you're beyond saving!" Caleb was furious.

Back in the hotel, he already realized how foolish Jayden was. Jayden could not even compare with Josiah and Hugo in terms of perceptiveness.

After that, Jayden acted recklessly and came close to ruining the Morrisons ' chance to work with Cynthion Group.

Caleb thought that Jayden would at least realize that he was wrong. To his surprise, Jayden refused to recognize his mistakes and even blamed it all on Hugh.

This was extremely foolish of him.

Instantly, he was livid and disappointed.

“Caleb, what’s this?”

“What happened?”

The other elders were baffled by this argument.

“Elders, here’s what happened,” Hugo explained what happened at the hotel in Caleb’s place.

“What?” After listening to Hugo, the elders were all shocked and finally realized why Caleb did not manage to secure the deal.

It seemed like Jayden was foolish enough to dream of teaming up with others to control Hugh, only to end up failing and coming close to costing the Morrisons the chance to partner with Cynthion Group.

Thankfully, Renee was quick on her feet and managed to salvage the situation.
