

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2671 - 2677

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2671-“Alright. You two are next. Come at me!” After defeating Milo, Leon pointed at Diego and Enzo, asking that they attack together to save him some time.

“Don’t get so smug, kid. So what if you are in the Semi-Almighty State? There’s a huge gap between the Semi-Almighty State and the Almighty State. You are no match for me!” Diego scoffed and released his true energy.

His energy in the Initial Almighty State swarmed Leon.

He came to the same conclusion as Enzo and assumed that Leon was merely in the Semi-Almighty State There was an enormous gap between the Semi-Almighty State and the Almighty state.

Not only were they a level different, but there was also a huge difference in strength.

Countless second-generation and first-generation martial artists who lacked talent struggled to get to the Almighty State from the SemiAlmighty State.

Considering Leon’s young age, they refused to believe that he reached the Almighty State as it was impossible.

So long as Leon did not reach the Almighty State, he would not stand a chance against Diego.

“You’re just in the Initial Almighty State, so what are you all smug about?” Leon smirked in contempt as Diego’s powerful aura washed over him.

“How arrogant. Fight me and let’s see what makes you think you can act all smug in front of me!” Diego laughed angrily and was provoked by Leon’s attitude.

He strode forward and stopped before Leon, reaching a stand-off with Leon.

“Enzo, leave this kid to me. Guard the door so he can’t escape!” Diego said to Enzo.

He was in the Almighty state and did not fear Leon, since he assumed Leon was in the Semi-Almighty state. However, Leon was rather formidable and if he tried to run, Diego might have had a challenging time capturing him alive.

Hence, he ordered Enzo to guard to exit and Leon should not be able to run.

“Yes, sir!” Enzo stayed on high alert and stood by the door to prevent Leon from running.

“Alright, kid. Don’t say that I didn’t give you a chance. You are a junior, so I’ll let you start first!” Diego sneered mockingly and stared down at Leon.

“It’s fine, old man. YOU go first, or you may not even have the chance to do much!” Leon retorted calmly.

“Why you! Very well! I’ll teach you a lesson since you don’t know your place! “

Diego was livid.

Not wasting more time talking, he launched a powerful attack on Leon.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2672-“Bring it on!” Leon showed no fear in the face of Diego’s attack.

He repeated the same and took a step forward to launch a counter-attack.

“Die, kid!” Diego said viciously.

He already concluded that Leon was in the Semi-Almighty State. If Leon dodged or found a chance to escape, it would be challenging for him to disable Leon.

However, Leon arrogantly attempted to face him head-on.

This was practically suicidal and Diego was not about to let this opportunity go.

He exerted more strength in his attack and intended to end the fight in an instant.

Before he could act, Milo called out hastily, "Diego, something isn't right with that kid. He can launch another attack while still on the momentum of the first attack.

Be careful. Don't face him directly or you will fall for his trick!"

"What? I see!" Diego came to a realization.

He was wondering how Leon managed to defeat Milo with a single blow. At this moment, he finally understood that Leon won with some sort of trick.

Keeping Milo's warning in mind, Diego was on guard and could not possibly go up against Leon directly.

He retreated and dodged Leon's attack. "Kid, I don't care what trick you are playing, because tricks won't work in the face of absolute power. I'll show you the power of the Almighty state! Take this! Gold Shattering Blow!"

Diego scoffed and gathered his true energy onto his palm to launch his martial technique, Gold Shattering Blow.

A faint, golden light gleamed on his palm and as he extended it, the light darted toward Leon at the speed of lightning.

Though he did not know what trick Leon was playing, he was certain that Leon was merely in the Semi-Almighty state.

Now that he launched his most powerful technique, the Gold Shattering Blow, Leon could not possibly fend off the attack unless there was a miracle.

"It's not even a Platinum technique. What's so powerful about it? Take this!

Earthly Plunder." Leon remained completely calm.

Spotting the weakness of the Gold Shattering Blow, Leon launched the Earthly Plunder. His energy transformed into a sharp blade on his finger as he faced Diego's attack.

"You must have a death wish." Diego laughed angrily.

He did not think Leon could take the attack to begin with. Yet, Leon refused to run and arrogantly tried to fight him with a single finger.

This was practically suicidal.

Since Leon had a death wish, Diego did not mind granting his wish. He exerted more power into his attack and intended to take Leon down with a single blow so he could take Leon back to the Western Boss as soon as possible.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2673-“Know your place!” Like Diego, both Milo and Enzo were sneering and looking at Leon as though he was already dead.

Milo, who just fought Leon, witnessed just how strange Leon’s abilities were.

However, Diego was far stronger than Leon and even used a powerful martial technique.

He did not think that Leon could fend off such a powerful attack, not to mention when Leon was arrogant enough to face it with a single finger.

If he was not mistaken, Diego’s attack would break Leon’s finger or even his entire arm.

There was no other possible way that this could go.

However, what happened next shocked all three of them.

Baam!

Following a deafening sound, Leon’s Earthly Plunder clashed with Diego’s Gold Shattering Blow.

Power technique that was far more powerful than others in the same category.

Diego’s Gold Shattering Blow simply could not compare to it.

On top of that, Leon saw through the weakness of the Gold Shattering Blow and he aimed his attack at the weakest point of Diego’s attack.

His Earthly Plunder served as a sharp blade that cut through Diego’s attack and darted directly toward Diego.

Naturally, Diego was far more formidable. Hence, the Gold Shattering Blow was a step ahead in reaching Leon before his Earthly Plunder could reach Diego.

Leon was experienced in battles to the point that he could compare with the likes of the Southern Boss and Western Boss.

He reacted swiftly and turned to take Diego's Gold Shattering Blow with the Mirror of Sovereign.

Considering the powerful defensive power of the Mirror of Sovereign, it would fend off any attack in the Initial Almighty state or below.

Diego's Gold Shattering Blow could not even get past his guard, so there was no way that it could injure him.

Meanwhile, his Earthly Plunder landed on Diego's shoulder and pierced through it, drawing blood.

Diego grunted in pain and backed away under the impact. Paling, he fell onto the ground.

Blood oozed from the wound on his shoulder and soaked his shirt.

"What?"

"Diego lost? How can this happen?" Enzo and Milo could not believe their own eyes.

They both knew that Diego was in the Almighty State and when he launched a powerful technique, they both assumed that Leon would not be able to survive.

To their surprise, Leon fended it off with just a finger and defeated Diego with a single blow.

This was so surreal that they were both shaken to the core.

Diego felt the same, as he assumed Leon was merely in the Semi-Almighty State.

Hence, he could not understand how Leon managed to defeat him and could not accept the reality of being defeated.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2674-Milo was the first to snap out of it.

Glancing at the mighty-looking Leon, he turned to look at Diego and Enzo, who were injured.

An idea crossed his mind and he made a decision.

He darted forward in the next moment and appeared behind Leon. "Die, kid! "

He sneered.

Catching Leon off-guard, he launched a powerful attack at Leon's back.

Though he did not know how Leon managed to defeat Diego, he knew that if the strongest amongst the three was defeated, he could not possibly rival Leon or accomplish the mission on his own.

That thought left him more determined.

Just as Leon was not looking, he attacked Leon from behind in the hope of disabling or injuring Leon.

That was far better than sitting on his thumbs.

"Good work!"

"That's right!"

Diego and Enzo perked up in excitement.

They both knew that Leon was formidable beyond their imagination.

Since they were both defeated and injured by Leon, it became an issue if they could escape Leon at all.

Accomplishing the mission given by the Western Boss was out of the question at this point.

Milo's stealth attack gave them a hint of hope.

Though Leon was powerful, he was merely human and so long as Milo succeeded in injuring Leon, the three of them may stand a chance.

This was their only chance to turn the table around.

After some rest, Enzo felt slightly better.

Diego only had his shoulder pierced by the Earthy Plunder, so he was doing fine.

To work alongside Milo, the two stood in unison despite the pain radiating within their bodies.

Then, they proceeded to move into a position so the three of them were surrounding Leon.

This was a formation close to perfection.

It would be ideal if Milo succeeded. Even if he failed, the other two could leap into action as soon as Leon backed away.

By then, Leon would surely lose.

“You want to sneak up behind me? Know your place!” Leon scoffed when he sensed Milo’s presence behind him.

His first thought was to dodge the attack. However, realization dawned on him when he saw Diego and Enzo getting into positions for a triangle formation with Milo.

If he dodged, it did not matter which direction he moved toward because Diego and Enzo could easily attack him.

He would practically be delivering his life to them.

Without hesitation, he turned and took the blow with his Mirror of Sovereign.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2675-“Get down, kid!” Enzo was thrilled that Leon was taking the blow.

He was initially worried that Leon was too strong for his attack to work.

To his surprise, where Diego and Milo were standing formed a perfect triangle with his position.

To make things better, Leon was either desperate or foolish and ended up exposing his chest to the attack.

This was practically suicidal and he was not about to let this chance go.

Without hesitation, he sped up and his fist landed on Leon's chest.

"Great!" Diego and Milo were both excited.

Though they did not know why Leon did not bother to avoid taking a hit on the chest and exposed himself instead, they knew that Leon was just human.

Once he took a blow in the chest, he would surely be severely injured to the point that he could not fight any longer.

That way, they would turn the tables around.

This was the only way this would turn out.

However, the reality was cruel and as they were all sneering, what happened next shook them.

Baam!

Just then, Milo's attack slammed against Leon's chest. 1 With the help of the Mirror of Sovereign, Leon remained unscathed and unmoved.

He merely stood there and stared coldly at Milo like a mighty god.

"What? How is that possible?" Diego, Enzo, and Milo could not believe what they were seeing.

Milo gaped at Leon in disbelief.

He initially thought that his attack would at least disable Leon. To his surprise, Leon took the blow with his chest and remained unscathed.

This was so surreal that he was shaken to the core.

Diego and Enzo felt the same.

They stared at Leon in shock, both wondering how Leon accomplished such a thing.

It was practically a miracle and they would have never believed it to be true if they did not witness it with their own eyes.

“Alright, it’s my turn now!” Leon scoffed and launched a powerful attack at Milo.

“No!” Sensing Leon’s powerful force approaching, Milo’s blood ran cold.

He was still on the momentum of his initial attack and could not dodge Leon’s attack.

At the very last moment, he tilted his body with all his might and avoided direct damage to his chest. However, he did not manage to completely dodge the attack.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2676-Baam!

Following a deafening sound, Leon’s attack landed on Enzo’s shoulder. 1 There was a loud snap and Enzo’s bone instantly shattered. He was sent flying and rolled off the round.

Once he landed, a sharp pain pierced through his shoulder and his arm fell weakly.

Paling, he lay sprawled on the ground and was instantly disabled.

“Damn it! How can this happen?” Both Diego and Milo felt struck, their hearts sinking.

They thought that Enzo could at least get Leon to back away or dodge.

That way, they could take the opportunity to take Leon down.

To their surprise, Leon did not dodge or back away. Instead, he took the hit with his chest.

This caught them off-guard as they did not expect that to happen.

With Milo injured, their only chance at victory was ruined and they instantly fell into despair.

“I got it! He isn’t just powerful. He also has a defensive tool in the Almighty State as well! That has to be the case!” Realization dawned on Diego.

He was baffled the entire time as to how Leon withstand Milo’s powerful attacks.

However, he figured it out upon further contemplation.

Leon likely had a powerful defensive tool on his chest if he was not mistaken, otherwise, Leon would never be able to remain unscathed after taking Milo’s attack.

Still, he knew that there was far more to Leon’s power than this defensive tool.

When he dueled with Leon earlier, Leon injured him with a single finger and no defensive tool could accomplish that.

In conclusion, he realized that he underestimated Leon.

Combining what Leon displayed so far, he assumed that Leon surpassed the Semi-Almighty State and was likely in the Initial Almighty State like him.

Along with the fact that he possessed a powerful defensive tool, Leon managed to defeat the three of them with ease.

“Diego, this kid is too strong. His strength surpasses our anticipation. What should we do?” Enzo asked Diego darkly.

Upon hearing Diego’s words, he also guessed that Leon possessed a powerful defensive tool.

It was no wonder that they could not defeat him.

To make matters worse, all three of them were injured by Leon so there was no way they could rival him.

If they stayed and continued to fight Leon, they may very well perish.

Instantly, Enzo’s heart sank and he did not quite know what to do.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2677-“Um, Milo, I’ll stall him. Leave! Once you get back, tell the Western Boss about what happened and get him to send reinforcement.” Diego made the decision swiftly.

He knew that Leon was likely in the initial Almighty State and because Leon possessed an Almighty-level tool, it would be impossible for the three of them to capture him.

Hence, he instantly decided to retreat.

However, Leon was too formidable and it was almost impossible for them to get away unscathed.

Therefore, he decided to stay back and stall to get Milo a chance to escape.

Enzo, on the other hand, suffered too many injuries to escape.

He could only give up on Enzo and place all hope on Milo.

So long as Milo escaped and reported the situation to the Western Boss and Felton, this could alert them and prevent them from underestimating Leon in the future.

On top of that, plenty of formidable martial artists worked for the Western Boss and there were numerous people in the Initial and Intermediate Almighty State.

Leon could not possibly rival them all.

Once Milo escaped safely, the Western Boss would surely send stronger martial artists to rescue Diego and Enzo.

That way, all issues would be resolved.

“Alright!” Milo was relieved.

After witnessing what Leon was capable of, he was slightly terrified of Leon.

He completely lost the will to fight and wanted to retreat, so he was glad that Diago told him to run.

Without hesitation, he turned and ran for the door.

“Running already? Not so soon!” Leon sneered and stepped forward to grab Milo at the speed of lightning.

“Kid, it’s me you need to deal with. Take this! Gold Shattering Blow!” Diego reacted swiftly.

Before Leon could get any closer, he launched the Gold Shattering Blow at Leon to stop him from going after Milo.

“Out of my way!” Leon scoffed and shifted into the Earthly Plunder.

His energy formed a sharp blade at the tip of his finger that countered Diego’s Gold Shattering Blow.

Diego was injured by this technique earlier so he knew just how powerful it was.

Not daring to take it head-on, he dodged Leon’s attack and closed in the distance again.

Constantly changing his movements, he stalled Leon to buy time for Milo.

He guessed that Leon was likely on the same level as him, which meant he was in the Initial Almighty state.

Though Leon had a powerful defensive tool and Diego could not beat that, stalling Leon should not be challenging.
