

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2811

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2811-“It’s true. Elder Daglesh, if you don’t believe me, we can get Mister Jensen to try it on the spot!” Leon said.

“That won’t be necessary. We believe you, Mister Wolf!” Elder Daglesh and the others said hastily.

Mateo did not believe in Leon’s skills and even tried to stop Leon from treating Elder Daglesh forcefully.

This almost hurt both Leon and Elder Daglesh.

The reality proved that Leon was a skilled doctor. Not only did he cure Elder State.

After what happened, he dared not to doubt Leon’s words any longer.

Besides, Elder Daglesh was going to give the Emperor Herb as a gift, and Leon was the one who refused and insisted on trading with two Cleansing Pills.

It would not make sense for Leon to lie about the effect of the Cleansing Pills, and the Daglehs knew this.

“Alright! Elder Daglesh, since you believe in what I said, you wouldn’t refuse the Cleansing Pills, right?” Leon smiled.

“Well, Mister Wolf, I’m sorry. You saved my life and the Emperor Herb is my way of saying thank you, so you can just take it. As for the Cleansing Pills, they are far too valuable and we can’t accept them!” Elder Daglesh said thoughtfully and shook his head.

Though he was quite impressed by what the Cleansing Pills could do, he was already struggling to repay his debt to Leon and there was no way he could accept just valuable alchemical pills.

“It’s fine. It’s just two Cleansing Pills. They don’t mean much to me. I still have a few with me so these two pills don’t make a big difference! Just take them!”

Leon smiled.

Since the Cleansing Pills could only help younger martial artists, there were certain limits to it.

Leon and his confidantes all took the Cleansing Pills and the remaining dozen of Cleansing Pills were of no use to him.

He merely did not sell them because he kept them to give to his friends as gifts.

Hence, he intended to give two to the Dagleshs in exchange for the Emperor Herb so they all could get something out of the deal.

“But,” Elder Daglesh hesitated.

He knew that Jensen was not exceptionally talented in comparison to the likes of Hugo and Felton.

With both Elder Daglesh and Jensen as the pillars of the Dagleshs, they would thrive.

This simply proved how important the Cleansing Pills were for the Dagleshs.

Jensen felt the same as well and looked at Elder Daglesh with anticipation, hoping that he would accept the Cleansing Pills.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2812-“Um, alright then! Mister Wolf, thank you!” Edler Daglesh no longer insisted and accepted Leon’s offer in the end.

With that, Leon traded two Cleansing Pills for Emperor Herb.

“Leon’s such an amazing person. I have underestimated him,” A conflicted look appeared in Candice’s eyes as she studied Leon’s face.

Due to previous misunderstandings, she assumed that Leon was a despicable man.

At this moment, she realized how wrong she was.

Not only was he formidable, but he was always modest and righteous.

After curing Elder Daglesh, he insisted on trading the Cleansing Pills for Emperor Herb.

Such virtue was admirable and rare, making him a rare gem.

Instantly, her impression of Leon took a sharp turn, and the previous contempt she felt transformed into admiration.

“Alright! Mister Wolf, we’ve taken up enough of your time. Please take your seat!” Just then, Elder Daglesh changed the subject.

Though it was a shame that the Dagleshs could not partner with Cynthion Group, they gained something in return as well.

He intended to treat Leon to a grand meal to express his gratitude.

“Elder Daglesh, I’ll take you up on that offer then!” Leon smiled and did not reject Elder Daglesh.

The group took their seats and with the previous misunderstanding resolved, the atmosphere was lively.

They all clicked glasses and had a great time.

Sometime later, the feast came to an end.

Seeing that it was getting late, Leon bid his farewell to the Dagleshs and returned to his hotel.

Meanwhile, in the Morrisons’ mansion.

Since Leon hurried to the Dagleshs’ mansion, the follow-up paperwork for the pharmaceutical firm was left in the hands of Renee and Hugo.

By the time they completed everything and returned to the Morrisons’ mansion, it was already in the evening.

“Caleb, it’s been so long. Why haven’t Hugo and Renee returned? Is it possible that they failed?”

The elders were losing patience and all looked worried.

If Hugo and Renee failed to secure the deal in the end, the Morrisons would suffer a great loss.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2813-“We don’t know that! Grandpa, my dad told you all that Leon isn’t a good man!

He’s greedy and proposed an extremely unfavorable profit division. It’s dangerous to work with someone so despicable! I think that Hugo will struggle to strike a deal with Leon!” A young man chimed in sarcastically.

He was none other than Jayden’s son, Georgie.

Since Jayden almost ruined the opportunity to work with Cynthion Gorup, Elder Daglesh was enraged and grounded him.

Hence, Georgie blamed Leon for causing this and was displeased with Hugo as well.

If possible, he did not wish for Hugo to succeed. Once an alliance was formed between the Morrisons and Cynthion Group, Caleb and the elders would surely place more trust in Hugo, and Jayden’s position would be threatened.

This would hardly benefit him and his father.

“Well/ Hearing this, Caleb and the elders grew more worried.

Just then, they heard footsteps approaching.

Hugo and Renee strode in.

“Hugo, Renee, you’re finally back!” Caleb and the elders were excited and all stood up to welcome the two.

As they approached, they noticed that Hugo seemed exhausted and their hearts sank.

“Hugo, how did it go? Did you manage to secure the partnership with Cynthion Group?” Caleb asked worriedly.

The elders turned to Hugo with concern as well, worried that he would bring bad news.

Georgie was the only one who watched with interest, hoping that Hugo would fail.

Once Hugo failed, he could blame everything on Hugo and Leon, before pleading for Caleb to withdraw the punishment on Jayden.

However, the reality was cruel and what Hugo said shattered his fantasy.

“What?” Georgia froze.

Contrary to his reaction, Caleb and the elders were all over the moon and excitement replaced the concern they felt moments ago.

“Wonderful! Hugo, you didn’t disappoint me!” Caleb laughed in relief.

Based on his previous encounter with Leon, he felt the same as his father and assumed Leon was a despicable man.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2814-“Yeah! Hugo, did Mister Wolf raise any additional condition?”

The elders’ hearts dropped as they turned to look at Hugo.

After all, the profit division Leon proposed was too unfavorable and the Morrisons were barely accepting it.

If Leon attempted to exploit them further for personal gain, the situation would be even less ideal.

“No, Mister Wolf didn’t ask for anything else. He did ask for our help to acquire a cosmetic firm though.” Hugo shook his head, then recalled about the mention of acquiring a cosmetic firm.

“What?” I knew that he was a greedy and cunning man! We’ve already spent close to 280 million on acquiring a pharmaceutical firm for him. Now, he’s getting cocky and asking US to spend hundreds of millions more on another cosmetic firm! He sure knows how to bargain!” Georgie sneered.

He knew that the Morrisons could benefit greatly from working with Cynthion Group, but the profit division Leon proposed was too unfavorable and the Morrisons would merely earn around 400 million each year.

They already lost close to 280 million on acquiring the pharmaceutical firm. Yet, Leon was not satisfied and demanded they spend another hundred million on acquiring a cosmetic firm for him.

This was beyond greed and Leon was trying to take advantage of them.

This was a blatant humiliation toward the Morrisons.

Leon's greed would likely enrage Caleb and the elders, so all Georgie needed to do was fuel the fire.

Then, Caleb and the elders may blame Hugo for making the decision by himself and accepting such unreasonable demands.

With that said Hugo would not be appreciated for obtaining the partnership with Cynthion Group and would instead be blamed.

That meant that he would not gain the trust of Caleb and the elders, nor would he threaten Jayden's position in the family.

"Yeah! Mister Wolfs demand is out of line!"

The elders' expressions darkened as well.

This was far out of line.

They were no cowards and were all furious about how greedy Leon was.

Caleb, too, was enraged by Leon's insatiable nature.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2815-"Grandpa, Leon's ruthless and cunning. We can't just let him mess with us!"

Georgie was pleased that the others were offended and added fuel to the fire.

However, before he could finish, Hugo interrupted him. "Georgie, that's enough.

Mister Wolf isn't like that!"

He turned to Caleb and the elders. "Grandpa, elders, you're all mistaken! Mister Wolf is generous and kind. He has never planned on having US help with the cosmetic firm without paying. That includes the pharmaceutical firms as well.

He's already paid me all the money I used on acquiring the pharmaceutical firm," Hugo explained before recounting how Leon refused to accept the pharmaceutical firm for free.

"Hugo, are you saying that he refused the gift?" "I see!"

Realization dawned on Caleb and the others.

They were all prepared to give the pharmaceutical firm to Leon for free to obtain the partnership with Cynthion Group. To their bewilderment, Leon refused it and paid them back.

This took them by surprise and they instantly realized they misunderstood Leon.

"Looks like we were all being too shallow," Caleb and the elders felt ashamed.

Since Leon refused to accept the pharmaceutical firm for free, he could not possibly demand that the Morrisons deliver a cosmetic firm for him without paying them back either.

"Grandpa, there's more! Mister Wolf promised to increase our portion of profit to twenty-five percent if we find him a suitable cosmetic firm," Hugo added.

"What? Hugo, are you serious?" Caleb and the elders could not believe what they were hearing.

Personal gain would always be the greatest motivator.

When Leon first came to the Morrisons, they all acted arrogantly to obtain more profit. In the end, they offended Leon and he refused to compromise.

This almost cost them the chance to work with Cynthion Group.

At this point, the Morrisons accepted the profit division set by Leon, yet he took the initiative to increase it to twenty-five percent.

"It's true!" Hugo nodded.

“That’s wonderful.” “Mister Wolfs so generous!”

Instantly, they were overwhelmed by joy.
