

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2826-“Miss Dagleth, if I’m not mistaken, you may be suffering from dysmenorrhea and irregular menstruation. You would often experience pain in your lower abdomen as well, right?” Leon said.

To simplify, Candice was suffering from dysmenorrhea.

When Leon first inherited everything from his ancestors and started working for Iris, Iris’s best friend suffered the same condition as well and he ended up curing her.

Ariel’s condition was caused by coldness in her uterus and since she was treated in time, the condition was hardly severe.

Candice’s condition, however, seemed to be caused by coldness within her body in general.

Since she had delayed treatment, her condition was far worse than Ariel’s.

“Yeah. In recent months, I would suffer bad pain and my limbs would go cold during my time of the month and the situation keeps worsening,” Candice blushed and dared not to look Leon in the eye.

Though it was a new age, she was born and raised in a prestigious family with more conservative beliefs.

Leon was a man around his age and it was quite embarrassing to discuss this sort of matter with him.

Hence, she was hesitant to tell Leon about her condition earlier.

She went to the hospital multiple times and nothing worked, or she would have never swallowed her pride and come to Leon for help.

Leon was far more skilled than ordinary doctors and he managed to see what was wrong with her without using any equipment. Hence, her trust in him deepened.

“Pain and coldness in your limbs, huh? I guess it is caused by dark energy,”

Leon said thoughtfully.

Though coldness in one's body and one's uterus were different conditions, there were a lot of similarities in symptoms.

Coldness in one's uterus only occurred in women and there was a high tendency of occurrence.

Coldness in one's body, on the other hand, was a more general condition with rarer occurrence.

Under normal circumstances, a lot of doctors would misdiagnose and mix up the two.

"Mister Wolf, what should I do now?" Candice asked worriedly.

Through Leon's reaction, she could tell that her condition was challenging to treat and she felt nervous about it.

To prevent a false diagnosis, he needed to perform a more detailed test to be certain.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2827-"Okay." Candice felt reassured and sat down on the couch under his guidance.

Leon sat across from her and placed his fingers on her pulse to begin the diagnosis.

Some time later, his expression darkened and Candice felt nervous at the sight.

"Mister Wolf, what is it?" "It's not that good. You've delayed treatment for too long and the condition around your torso is already worsening. If the situation escalates further, you would suffer permanent damage to your body, or even die," Leon said.

After the diagnosis, he could confirm that Candice was indeed suffering from dark energy within her body.

However, she delayed treatment for far too long and the situation was slightly more complicated than he imagined.

“It’s that bad?” Candice’s heart sank helplessly.

“It’s fine. So long as we treat you before things worsen, you will be fine.” Leon smiled.

With his skills, he could cure anyone as long as they were still breathing, not to mention when it was just a mild issue like Candice’s.

It would not be challenging at all for him to cure her.

“Great! Mister Wolf, please treat me,” Candice sighed a breath of relief and felt glad that she had come to the hotel to seek Leon’s help. Otherwise, her condition would have worsened and the consequences would be unimaginable.

“Miss Daglesh, please lay down on the bed. I will first massage you to speed up your circulation, then apply pressure on your pressure points. This would ensure the effect of the treatment,” Leon said.

“Oh, sure,” she said, then went to lay down on the bed.

Leon approached and fired up his true energy to start massaging her.

The coldness within Candice’s body was caused by the accumulation of dark energy and most of it gathered in her torso, which caused dysmenorrhea.

The method Leon trained with was light so his true energy contained a high content of light energy.

By firing up his true energy during the massage, he should be able to neutralize the coldness within her body.

However, the condition within her torso was more severe and private and he would have to resolve it with another method.

However, the reality was hardly what he anticipated.

As he started to massage the pressure points around her ankles, the soft touch of the legging caused Leon to shiver.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2828-Sensing his movements on her, Candice blushed.

She did not think much of it when Leon proposed to massage her.

However, once their skin came into contact, she realized that it was a rather intimate treatment.

However, Leon already started the treatment and it was too late for her to quit.

Hence, she could only endure the embarrassment and accept the treatment.

Thankfully, Leon focused on mainly a few pressure points and did not take advantage of her, which eased her embarrassment slightly.

With that, Leon focused on massaging Candice with his true energy, moving from her ankles to her legs and avoiding her stomach.

He then moved to her arms and shoulders, slowly expelling the cold energy within her.

“This feels nice,” Candice could not help but moan.

She was quite nervous because the massage felt too intimate. However, as Leon’s true energy flowed into her body, his hands gave off a warmth that expelled the coldness within her.

This made her feel incredibly comfortable and less nervous to the point that she could not stop moaning.

Hearing her seductive noises, Leon felt stricken.

Candice was extremely beautiful and her curvy figure was extremely alluring.

Leon merely managed to cast away unnecessary thoughts with solitude.

However, her moaning was simply too seductive and it was something that almost broke Leon.

Thankfully, the massage was almost coming to an end so he withdrew his arms.

“Alright, Miss Daglesh, the first phase of treatment is done. I will continue to stimulate your pressure points and then prescribe you medicine. So long as you take the medicine according to schedule, you should be fine within half a month,” Leon sighed, regaining his composure.

“Alright! Mister Wolf, I think that treatment worked wondrously. Thank you,”

Candice smiled gratefully.

With that, her trust in Leon’s skill deepened.

“Good! Let’s continue, then!” Leon smiled.

The Eternity Compression Method could remove blockage and balance energy within one’s body.

Hence, he focused on using his true energy instead of spiritual energy.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2829-As he executed the Eternity Compression Method, Candice jolted and her blush deepened.

Since Leon’s treatment from earlier was working, the nervousness she felt eased slightly.

However, things were different as Leon was now focusing on her torso, which was far more private than other parts of her body.

Though Leon was merely sending his true energy through the pressure points and was hardly touching her, she was still more embarrassed and nervous compared to earlier.

Shaking slightly, she closed her eyes and dared not to look at Leon so that she would not feel as embarrassed.

As a doctor, Leon was solely focused on treating his patient and did not think much of other matters.

Focusing on the treatment, his true energy coursed through Candice’s body and neutralized the coldness within her torso.

A long while later, the coldness was slowly expelled under his effort and everything seemed to be going smoothly except for one thing.

“Oh,” Candice moaned again.

Like earlier, Leon’s true energy warmed her up and she felt incredible.

Though she kept a leveled head and remained nervous, she could not help moaning.

“M- Miss Daglesh, can you stop making that kind of noise?” Leon’s heart rose to his throat and he came close to stopping the treatment.

He was a normal man and her melodious voice was extremely alluring.

He could not take it and would have completely lost his composure if he was not as determined.

“I don’t mean to, but I- Oh@” Candice felt extremely embarrassed and wished she could just hide herself.

She knew that she should not be moaning as it would interrupt the treatment, but she could not help it.

Before she could finish her sentence, she jolted and moaned again.

Flushing a shade of crimson, she desperately wished she could just faint on the spot.

“I-” Leon was resigned.

Though Candice did not finish her sentence, he knew what she meant to say.

It was normal and there was nothing much he could do.

Hence, Leon could only endure it and keep calm.

Sometime later, he started to flush and was sweating profusely.

However, something unexpected happened in the next moment.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2830-Bang, bang!

Just then, the knocking on the door alerted Leon.

“Leon, are you here? I need to speak with you!” Renee’s melodious voice rose outside the door.

“I’m here! Renee, give me a second. I’ll open the door now,” Leon responded.

He then sped up the treatment and eliminated all the cold energy within Candice’s body.

Ending the treatment, he withdrew his hands.

“Leon, what’s taking so long?” Renee was confused as Leon was yet to open the door.

“Coming,” Leon did not think much of it and hurriedly opened the door.

Renee went into the room and was confused by how flushed Leon looked.”

Leon, what were you doing? What took so long?” “Oh, I was helping Miss Daglesh,” Leon said.

Before he could finish his sentence, Renee turned and noticed Candice behind him.

Candice sat up on the bed while Leon opened the door and adjusted her clothes, preparing to get out of bed.

“Miss Daglesh, why are you here?” Renee was shocked as she did not understand why Candice would end up on the bed inside Leon’s room.

“I-” Candice blushed as she struggled to recover from her earlier embarrassment.

Taken aback by Renee’s question, she opened her mouth but did not know how to respond.

“You two! Could it be that the two of you were sleeping together?” Renee took in the hesitant look and blushing cheeks on Candice, then at how her clothes were slightly undone.

She then glanced at Leon, who was sweating like he was just exercising.

Instantly, realization dawned on her and her expression darkened.

“What?” Both Leon and Candice were stunned.

He immediately understood why Renee would feel that way.

“Treating you?” Renee’s expression eased, but she then noticed something wrong.
