

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2861-“What? Do you want to go fight Leon? Felton, stop messing around! Leon has partnered up with the Morrisons and with their protection, you are no match for him!” Both the Western Boss and the Southern Boss were taken aback.

The Western Boss knew that the Morrisons were powerful and even if he were to attack, he could not be certain if he could defeat Leon and the Morrisons, let alone if Felton did it.

For some reason, Felton decided that he wanted to fight Leon and the Morrisons.

It was practically suicidal and he could not send his son on a suicide mission.

“I’m not messing around, Dad! While you were training a few days ago, Leon got into a fight with Mister Grimston and Miss Underwood. Leon then broke Mister Grimston’s leg, then injured his father and two other martial artists from the Grimstons. I was the one who stepped in to help them escape at the time,”

Felton explained.

“That happened? How dare an outsider like him cause trouble with the Grimstons here in the western region? How arrogant!” The Western Boss was taken aback.

“Yes! Because of that, the Grimstons now hold a grudge against Leon. I can approach the Grimstons and the Underwoods to help US in dealing with Leon during the sales drive. Though Leon is backed by the Morrisons, the Morrisons can’t fight three families by themselves. With the Grimstons and the Underwoods on our side, we may be able to eliminate Leon once and for all,” Felton cut to the chase.

The Grimstons and the Underwoods were bound by marriage.

Since Leon injured the Grimstons fiercely and humiliated them, Felton knew that the Grimstons and the Underwoods were displeased about it.

On top of that, he jumped into the Grimstons' rescue at the time. So long as he reached out to the Grimstons and the Underwoods, he was certain that he could convince them to join forces with him.

On the other hand, the Grimstons and the Underwoods were rather powerful families that rivaled the Farmers and the Morrisons.

With their help, the Morrisons would be no match for them unless there was a miracle.

Once the Morrisons were out of the way, Leon would be left all alone and helpless.

"That's a great idea!" The Western Boss was overjoyed.

With two plans in place, they would surely succeed.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2862-"Well," The Southern Boss opened his mouth hesitantly as he studied the excited looks on their faces.

He felt differently because he knew how formidable Leon was.

Even if Felton worked with the Grimstons and the Underwoods, they may not do much harm to Leon.

However, he was not sure if Leon had more Potential Energy Forces and he dared not to face Leon head-on without assurance.

At the moment, Felton underestimated Leon and wanted to fight Leon.

This would not stop the Western Boss from going to the southern region with the Southern Boss, so it worked perfectly in the Southern boss's favor.

He could use Felton, the Grimstons, and the Underwoods as the vanguard to test what Leon was capable of.

If Leon ran out of Potential Energy Forces, Felton may just be able to eliminate Leon with the help of the Grimstons and the Underwoods.

This would be perfect. On the contrary, if Leon still had more Potential Energy Forces, Felton, the Grimstons, and the Underwoods would be the ones who suffer and the Southern Boss would have nothing to lose.

He could still capture Leon's confidants and blackmail Leon into complying, which would deliver the same result.

Felton's plan would only benefit him, so he swallowed his words and did not object to the plan.

"Felton, do as you said. I'll go to the Grimstons and the Underwoods with you now to convince them to face Leon and the Morrisons with us!" the Western Boss said.

With that, the three of them reached a consensus.

The next day was the day when Cynthion Group's sales drive took place.

With the Morrisons's tireless effort in marketing, combined with the fact that Leon showed others how the alchemical pills worked during Jaxon's bouquet, most of the families in the western region now heard about Cynthion Group and the magical effect of its alchemical pills.

Since Cynthion Group was launching a sales drive to sell alchemical pills, countless families along with powerful figures made time to participate in the sales drive, hoping to purchase some alchemical pills for themselves.

Instantly, the Cynthion Group building was packed with people.

At the main hall where it was used for the sales drive, there was a grand stage at the back.

According to Leon's agreement with the Morrisons, the Morrisons were responsible for security.

Apart from that, he even had a few core members of the family, including Jayden, Josiah, Hugo, and Renee, with him.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2863-Renee stared at Leon and his confidantes from afar, sighing with a conflicted look on his face.

Ever since Leon treated Candice, she was forced to realize that she was in love with Leon. Unfortunately for her, Leon already had a girlfriend.

She was no match for Iris and Cynthia, so she could only give up.

However, the relationship between Cynthia and Leon was unique and she mistook Cynthia for Leon's girlfriend as well.

This gave her hope as she contemplated whether she should join their ranks, or give up on her love toward Leon.

She thought about it for the past few days. Her mind kept telling her that she needed to cut off all feelings toward Leon to avoid losing herself.

Still, it was too challenging to control her feelings.

The more she tried to give up on Leon, the more she struggled to do so. Leon's face filled her mind along with all the memories of the time they spent together.

At that moment, as she stared at Leon, her love for him overwhelmed her and threatened to take over him.

Instantly, her mind was in a mess and she could not decide what to do with her future.

"Renee, what's wrong? What are you thinking?" Hugo asked in confusion next to her.

He was Renee's elder brother and the two were always close.

He noticed that something was off with Renee in the past few days. She was absorbed in her thoughts and appeared depressed most of the time.

This baffled him and he could not tell what was wrong with her.

“Are you sure? Why do you look depressed, then?” Hugo frowned in concern.

He felt that the Morrisons contributed more to the collaboration by providing herbs and being in charge of marketing. Yet, they were offered only a low percentage of profit in the end.

From his perspective, Leon had the best part of the deal so Jayden was still upset with him.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2864-“Uncle, I don’t agree with you. Leon did a round of marketing during Jaxon’s bouquet. All these families are attending the sales drive out of respect for Leon and Cynthion Group’s alchemical pills. This is not entirely our accomplishment!”

Renee argued but immediately regretted defending Leon afterward.

Leon already had a girlfriend and she desperately wished to forget about Leon to start her life anew.

However, all Jayden did was bad-mouthed Leon and she could not help but defend Leon.

How could she possibly forget about Leon this way?

Instantly, she was frustrated at herself and felt extremely helpless.

“Well,” Jayden was rendered speechless. Though he was annoyed by Renee, Caleb was standing on the side and he dared not to insult Leon further out of fear of upsetting Caleb.

Hence, he could only shut his mouth.

Meanwhile, most of the businessmen and members of powerful families arrived, including the Daglehs.

Though it was a shame that the Daglehs could not work with the Cynthion Group, Leon saved Elder Dagleh's life.

To thank him, Elder Dagleh came to participate in the sales drive along with Jensen, Candice, and a few other Daglehs.

They wished to show their support for Leon and also purchase some alchemical pills.

Since Leon was quite close with the Daglehs, he went over to greet them warmly and they all exchanged pleasantries.

It was getting late, so Leon Leon walked back to the stage with his confidentes and subordinates.

Backstage, Leon intended to host the sales drive alongside Cynthia since this was the first-ever sales drive in the western region.

However, before he could get on stage, his phone rang.

He took out his phone and realized it was a call from Fletcher.

Without hesitation, he answered the call.

"Hello, Mister Caldicot. Is there something you need?" Leon cut to the chase.

The Southern Boss finally showed himself.

Once Fletcher heard about it, he immediately called to inform Leon about it.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2865-"What? The Southern Boss showed himself? Great!" A pleased expression appeared on Leon's face.

Though he guessed that the Western Boss was likely connected to the Southern Boss, this was merely a speculation and he could not confirm his theory.

Upon learning that he was right, he was even more pleased that the Southern Boss came out of hiding and this was exactly what he wanted.

“Oh! Mister Caldicot, What are the Southern Boss and the Western Boss planning to do?” Leon asked.

He came to the western region to capture the Southern Boss. Now that the Southern BOSS revealed himself, it was time for Leon to settle the scores.

However, he needed to get to the bottom of their intention before he acted. That way, he could cooperate well with the Dargon Guards to take the Sotuehrn Boss down.

“I don’t know. The scouts we sent out only saw the two of them leading a big group of martial artists out of the Fermers’ mansion. At the moment, we don’t know where he was going and what their intentions are.” Fletcher said.

“I see. Never mind what their intentions are. I’ll go to Mister Orpwood and ask that he send a few men to come with me in my search for the Southern Boss,”

Leon said thoughtfully.

Though his overall strength reached the Semi-Saint State and he had nothing to fear from both the Southern and Western Bosses, he was outnumbered.

Neither the Southern Boss nor the Western Boss was easy to deal with. If he headed out alone, they may be able to escape with the advantage of number.

If he was too occupied with dealing with others, he would miss out on the chance to eliminate the Sotuehrn boss.

To be safe, he decided to team up with the Dragon Guards to take the Southern Boss down. That ought to ensure the success of this mission.

“Um, that may not work!” Fletcher said hesitantly.

“No? Why not?” Leon was baffled.

“Mister Wolf, today’s the day when the central region hosts the annual meeting for the Dragon Corps. Mister Orpwood headed to the central region this morning, so you won’t find him even if you come over now,” Fletcher explained.

“What? I see!” Leon was taken aback.

If that were the case, handling the Southern Boss would be more challenging.

“Oh? Is that so? That’s wonderful!” Leon was overjoyed and relaxed.

Though Mister Orpwood could not physically help, he placed Leon in charge and this would deliver the same result.
