

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2883-“Impossible!

“The people from the Grimstons and Underwoods can leave! But Felton and the people from the Farmers cannot. They must stay today!”

Leon asserted firmly, leaving no room for doubt.

Earlier, he had received exact information from Fletcher. The leaders of the Farmers, Western Boss and Southern Boss, along with a large group of experts, had left the Farmers, their destination unknown!

Initially, he had thought Western Boss and Southern Boss’s purpose was to deal with him. But now, neither Western Boss nor Southern Boss had shown up at all.

This vaguely made him realize something was amiss, even suspecting that Western Boss and Southern Boss might be plotting something, trying to scheme against him in secret.

He had to figure this out!

As the son of Western Boss, Felton must know the whereabouts and intentions of Western Boss and Southern Boss.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2884-“I never intended to use the Morrisons’ Mansion and the Dagleshs to deal with your three families!” Leon declared.

“A bunch of trash like you all, I can handle on my own!” he sneered.

“There’s no need for the Morrisons’ Mansion and the Dagleshsto intervene!

” Leon’s gaze towards Felton and Dorian was filled with disdain.

His words were not unfounded. With his current comprehensive strength reaching the Semi-Saint State, Felton and Dorian were no more significant to him than ants.

They posed no threat whatsoever. Dealing with them would be as easy as flipping a coin. Why would he need anyone else's help?

"What?" Leon's statement was like a heavy bombshell, nearly blasting everyone present off their feet.

"Did we... hear him correctly?" "This kid Leon actually said he'll take on the three major powers by himself?"

"Is he out of his mind?"

The surrounding martial families and forces were stunned, unable to believe their ears. While they did not know much about Leon's situation or his martial arts prowess, given his age of under 30, they could surmise that his cultivation could not be too impressive.

On the other hand, considering Felton and Dorian's status as masters with many formidable experts among them, most at the Initial and Intermediate Almighty States, any one of them could easily annihilate Leon, a young junior, with little effort.

However, at that moment, Leon, for reasons unknown to himself, dared to declare that he would single-handedly take on all the experts from the three major forces! It was sheer arrogance to the extreme. The shock they felt was palpable!

Not only them, but also Caleb and Elder Daglesh, along with the elite members of the Morrisons' Mansion and a few experts from the Dagleshs brought by Elder Daglesh, were all stunned by Leon's audacious words!

"President Wolf, you mustn't! Dorian and Cassius are highly skilled, and they have numbers on their side! You're alone, facing them head-on is out of the question..."

After recovering from their initial shock, Caleb was slightly more composed. He had already sent people to investigate Leon's background and knew that his However, two fists are no match for four hands. Even if Leon truly was a him to contend with the numerous experts from the three factions.

Caleb did not want Leon to face humiliation due to his excessive arrogance or encounter any mishaps!

As for Elder Dagleth, it was a different story altogether.

He knew very little about Leon's background and had no idea that Leon might.
