

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3031-Um...”

Hearing Lucian’s reminder, Shally’s expression froze. She remembered that she did have an unused villa that fit Leon’s needs perfectly in every aspect.

However, the villa was quite expensive, and she did not think Leon could afford it.

“Miss Summers, do you have an unused second-hand villa for sale? Where is this villa? Can you take me to see it first?” Leon inquired.

He had never been a fan of second-hand houses, mainly because he was worried about buying a flawed or problematic property, which would cause unnecessary trouble.

If Shally had a villa for sale, that would be ideal!

After his conversation with Shally earlier, he had a good understanding of her character. Buying a villa from Shally seemed much better than going through a real estate agent! Of course, the premise was that Shally’s villa had to meet his requirements.

“Well... okay. Let me take you to see it then,” Shally thought for a moment before responding.

Her villa had been vacant for over two years without any use. She had considered selling it before. Since Leon wanted to buy a villa, regardless of whether he could afford it, there was no harm in showing it to him.

If Leon could afford it, that would be great. Conversely, if he could not, she would not lose anything.

Pearl Garden Estates was a high-end villa community on the outskirts of the city, nestled by the mountains and waters, with beautiful scenery. It was an ideal place for leisure, vacation, and self-cultivation, favored by many wealthy and influential people.

Following Shally’s instructions, three cars drove to an independent villa at the back of the villa community near the mountains and stopped.

Then, the car doors opened, and Leon, Shally, and the others got out one after another.

“The environment here is indeed very nice!”

Leon looked at the independent villa in front of him and then at the lush green mountains not far behind it. He could not help but show a hint of delight in his eyes.

The environment and layout of this villa were very similar to the villa Iris had in Dragonbay Villas, Springfield. The only difference was that Iris’s house in Dragonbay Villas was a bit farther from the back mountain.

The villa in front of him was closer to the back mountain, which made it convenient for him to set up an Energy Gathering Circle.

He quickly took a liking to the environment and location of this villa with just a few glances.

Moreover, he believed that when Iris arrived in the Central region to join him, she would definitely like the layout and style of this villa.

“Mister Wolf, let me take you inside to have a look,” Shally said as she opened the villa’s door and led Leon and the others inside.

Once inside, Shally showed Leon and the others around.

Although the villa had been vacant.

for over two years, she often hired maids to clean it. Aside from being a bit empty, the rooms and yard were very clean, making it suitable for Leon, Cynthia, and Ruth to settle in.

“Mister Wolf, does this villa meet your needs? Are you satisfied?” Shally asked with a smile.

“Yes, I’m very satisfied!” Leon nodded and said, “Miss Summers, how much is this villa? Name your price.”

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3032-“Mister Wolf, to be honest, the current market price for this villa is at least over eighty million.” Shally said after some thought, “However, it’s fate that we have met. If you genuinely want to buy this villa, I can give you a twenty percent discount, as a gesture of friendship with you three.”

After their previous conversation, Shally developed a favorable impression of Leon.

Additionally, since it was them who had damaged Leon’s car, and Leon had been very gracious about the matter, not making a fuss, she felt it was only fair to reciprocate his kindness.

Therefore, she offered Leon a very favorable friendship price. Of course, the premise was that Leon could afford such an expensive villa!

“What?” Lucian, who was standing beside her, was taken aback by what she said.

He had suggested that Shally sell this idle villa to Leon with the intention of seeing Leon make a fool of himself. He had never intended for Shally to sell it at a discount! Now, Shally had gone ahead and offered Leon a twenty percent discount, which made the price a whopping 16 to 17 million less than the market value.

This was no small amount!

“I’m not crazy! I know what I’m doing,” Shally responded calmly.

Although she had already determined that Leon was just an ordinary middle class person, the demeanor of Leon, Cynthia, and Ruth suggested that they were quite capable and talented individuals in the business world.

Considering the youth and potential for growth that Leon and his two companions possessed, it was not far-fetched to imagine that they might one day rise to prominence in the business world.

With this in mind, she saw an opportunity to earn favor with Leon and his friends, hoping to forge a beneficial relationship with them. Should they achieve great success in the future, this connection could potentially benefit the Summers’s business interests.

In summary, the Summers were large and prosperous, and the amount of over 10 million was insignificant to them.

If she could use this small discount to befriend three promising young business talents, it would be a worthwhile investment. Whether Leon and his friends ultimately succeeded or not, it would not harm the Summers.

“Hmm...”

Seeing that Shally had made up her mind, Lucian hesitated, wanting to persuade her further. However, after a moment of reflection, he let it go.

Like Shally, he believed that Leon and his companions were just ordinary people. Even if Shally offered an 80 percent discount, Leon could never afford such an expensive villa. Since they could not buy it anyway, there was no point in wasting his breath trying to dissuade her.

However, before his disdainful thoughts could fully form, something shocking happened.

“Miss Summers, in that case, I appreciate your kindness,” Leon said with a smile. Although he was not!

sport of money and did not care about the discount, Shally had made it clear that she wanted to offer a discount as a gesture of friendship toward him, Cynthia, and Ruth.

His principle was to respect those who respected him. Since Shally was acting out of goodwill, there was no need to reject her offer.

“What?”

“Mister Wolf, do you mean you really intend to buy this villa?” Shally and Lucian were both taken aback.

Lucian, in particular was incredulous, unable to believe his ears.

“Of course!” Leon nodded affirmatively.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3033-“Kid, stop pretending! Do you have any idea how expensive this villa is? Can you really afford it?” Lucian sneered, doubting Leon’s financial capability.

“It’s just a few tens of millions. You’ll see soon enough whether I can afford it,”

Leon responded calmly.

Leon had already sensed that Lucian harbored some animosity toward him.

However, given his current power and status, Lucian was merely a minor character to him, not worth his attention or effort to argue with.

Turning to Shally, Leon said, "Miss Summers, please calculate the total cost of the villa and give me your account number. I'll transfer the money to you."

"Oh, okay..." Shally replied, still unsure whether Leon genuinely intended to buy the villa or was merely bluffing, but the truth would soon be revealed.

She calculated the exact price of the villa and provided Leon with her bank account number.

"Kid, I'm curious to see what kind of trick you have up your sleeve!" Lucian scoffed, still convinced that Leon was just putting on a show.

After all, over 80 million was not a small amount. Even with a 20 percent discount, it still came to around 64 or 65 million. Such a large sum was not something an ordinary person could easily come up with.

Even wealthy businessmen with assets worth billions might struggle to produce 60 million in liquid funds. He certainly did not believe that Leon, an ordinary middle-class person, could afford such an amount.

It would take a miracle!

Lucian was eagerly waiting to humiliate Leon when he failed to produce the money, ready to teach him the harsh consequences of pretending to be wealthy.

However, reality was often harsher than imagination. Before Lucian's smug thoughts could settle, Leon swiftly transferred over 60 million to Shally using his phone.

Lucian never dreamed that Leon, supposedly an ordinary middle-class person, could actually come up with over 60 million. He was completely blindsided by him, leaving him in shock and disbelief. He could not understand how Leon had managed to do it and struggled to accept this harsh reality.

Of course, Lucian was not the only one shocked. Shally was equally astonished. From their earlier conversations, she too had believed Leon was just an ordinary middle-class individual. But now, seeing Leon produce over sixty million dollars, it was clear he was far more than an ordinary person.

At that moment, she realized that she had greatly underestimated Leon and his companions. Their capabilities and identities were far more and identities were far more impressive than she had initially imagined.

“What?” Lucian exclaimed, stunned. He rubbed his eyes, unable to believe what he was seeing.

He had assumed Leon was just an ordinary person and had encouraged Shally to sell the villa to Leon, hoping to watch him embarrass himself.

However, reality had given him a harsh slap in the face, almost swelling his cheeks.

Visit En.novelxo.com to read full content

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3034-“Mister Wolf, I have received the money. If you trust me, you can give me your ID card for the property transfer procedures. I will arrange for someone to handle these trivial matters, so you don't waste your time,” Shally suggested, snapping back to reality from her surprise.

“Alright.” Leon nodded.

Now that he had bought the villa, he, Cynthia, and Ruth needed to go out to purchase some daily necessities and organize the rooms, preparing for their stay tonight. This would undoubtedly take a lot of time.

Shally's willingness to arrange for someone to handle the property transfer was exactly what he needed. He could not have asked for more.

Leon thought for a moment and then spoke, “Cynthia, give your ID card to Miss Summers. Let her transfer the property to your name.”

He had used the alias 'Hugh Wolf' in front of Shally to hide his identity. If he handed over his own ID card now, it would expose the fact that he had deliberately concealed his real name, which was not appropriate.

So, he decided to have the property transferred to Cynthia's name instead. It would have the same effect.

"Alright, Miss Summers, here is my ID card..." Cynthia responded and handed over her ID card to Shally.

"Mister Wolf, if I'm not mistaken, Miss Shear should be your girlfriend, right? n Taking Cynthia's ID card, Shally seemed to have an epiphany. In her view, Leon transferring a villa worth 600,000 to 700,000 to Cynthia indicated a deep relationship, likely as a couple or even as husband and wife.

It made sense that Leon bought the villa to live with Cynthia and Ruth. If Cynthia was not his girlfriend, how could a man like Leon live casually with two stunningly beautiful women?

That would be too strange!

"Umm..." Leon was speechless, wanting to deny it but finding it inappropriate.

"Mister Wolf, your girlfriend is really beautiful! Her beauty is unparalleled in our region. You two are a perfect match!"

Not denying it also felt wrong. He did not know how to respond.

Shally sincerely praised Cynthia's stunning beauty. Hearing the compliments, Cynthia was overjoyed.

Previously, she had been wary of Shally due to her inquisitive questions and her friendly chat with Leon, But now, With Shally's compliments, Cynthia felt a great sense of satisfaction. Her wariness melted away, and her goodwill toward Shally surged.

"Miss Summers, I have a question for you. This villa has a great location and environment. Why are you selling it?"

Seeing that Shally had misunderstood the relationship between him and Cynthia; Leon did not want to dwell on it further and promptly changed the topic.

