

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3034 - 3040

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3034-“Mister Wolf, I have received the money. If you trust me, you can give me your ID card for the property transfer procedures. I will arrange for someone to handle these trivial matters, so you don't waste your time,” Shally suggested, snapping back to reality from her surprise.

“Alright.” Leon nodded.

Now that he had bought the villa, he, Cynthia, and Ruth needed to go out to purchase some daily necessities and organize the rooms, preparing for their stay tonight. This would undoubtedly take a lot of time.

Shally's willingness to arrange for someone to handle the property transfer was exactly what he needed. He could not have asked for more.

Leon thought for a moment and then spoke, “Cynthia, give your ID card to Miss Summers. Let her transfer the property to your name.”

He had used the alias 'Hugh Wolf' in front of Shally to hide his identity. If he handed over his own ID card now, it would expose the fact that he had deliberately concealed his real name, which was not appropriate.

So, he decided to have the property transferred to Cynthia's name instead. It would have the same effect.

“Alright, Miss Summers, here is my ID card...” Cynthia responded and handed over her ID card to Shally.

“Mister Wolf, if I'm not mistaken, Miss Shear should be your girlfriend, right? n Taking Cynthia's ID card, Shally seemed to have an epiphany. In her view, Leon transferring a villa worth 600,000 to 700,000 to Cynthia indicated a deep relationship, likely as a couple or even as husband and wife.

It made sense that Leon bought the villa to live with Cynthia and Ruth. If Cynthia was not his girlfriend, how could a man like Leon live casually with two stunningly beautiful women?

That would be too strange!

“Umm...” Leon was speechless, wanting to deny it but finding it inappropriate.

“Mister Wolf, your girlfriend is really beautiful! Her beauty is unparalleled in our region. You two are a perfect match!”

Not denying it also felt wrong. He did not know how to respond.

Shally sincerely praised Cynthia's stunning beauty. Hearing the compliments, Cynthia was overjoyed.

Previously, she had been wary of Shally due to her inquisitive questions and her friendly chat with Leon. But now, with Shally's compliments, Cynthia felt a great sense of satisfaction. Her wariness melted away, and her goodwill toward Shally surged.

"Miss Summers, I have a question for you. This villa has a great location and environment. Why are you selling it?"

Seeing that Shally had misunderstood the relationship between him and Cynthia; Leon did not want to dwell on it further and promptly changed the topic.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3035-Well..." Hearing Leon's inquiry, Shally seemed to recall something unpleasant.

Her smile froze, and a trace of sorrow flashed in her eyes.

"Miss Summers, what's wrong? Is there something you're reluctant to share? If it's inconvenient for you to talk about it, just pretend I never asked, and noticing her discomfort, Leon quickly changed the subject.

"Actually, there's nothing inconvenient to talk about. This villa was a gift from my grandfather when I graduated from university. I moved out of my family home to live here and planned to start my own business..."

"But later, my parents and elder brother met with misfortune. They were harmed by evildoers... The Summers had no direct heirs left, so my grandfather asked me to move back and take over the family business..."

Shally sighed, her face filled with deep sadness and grief. Ever since she moved back to her family, the villa had been left vacant. She had kept it all this time with no particular use until now, by chance, it was sold to Leon.

"I see..." Leon was stunned by her explanation, finally understanding why Shally had reacted so strangely earlier.

"Miss Summers, I'm very sorry. I didn't mean to bring up your past. Please forgive me..." Leon apologized sincerely, feeling quite guilty for his prying questions.

"It's okay. After all, it's all in the past now, and the culprit was brought to justice some time ago.

"The deep-seated revenge of my parents and brother has finally been avenged.

I believe their souls can now rest in peace..."

Shally suppressed her sorrow, forcing a faint smile. Her smile carried tears but also a sense of relief from avenging the deaths of her loved ones.

“That’s good to hear.”

Seeing that she did not mind, Leon felt much relieved.

“However, the only regret is that I don’t know who the hero was that avenged my parents and brother. If I ever find out or have the chance to meet that hero in the future, I will definitely express my deep gratitude for what they did for our family...” Shally said regretfully, a hint of disappointment on her face.

“What? You don’t know who killed the culprit?” Leon was surprised.

“No, I don’t. My parents and brother were caught up in a dispute over a treasure and were killed by one of the Eight Criminals, the Demon Lord.

“Recently, according to an announcement by the Dragon Corps of the Central region, the Demon Lord was slain by an expert from the Southern region’s Dragon Corps.

“But I don’t know exactly who killed the Demon Lord, and I’ve never had the chance to meet them...”

Shally shook her head.

“What? The one who killed your parents and brother was the Demon Lord?”

Hearing this, Leon, along with Cynthia and Ruth, were all taken aback by Shally’s revelation.

Especially Leon, as it was he who had slain the Demon Lord back then!

However, to avoid exposing his true identity, the Dragon Corps of the Central region had credited the Southern region’s Dragon Corps with the deed.

Now, he never imagined that the one who had caused the deaths of Shally’s parents and brother was the Demon Lord. And the hero she spoke of was none other than himself.

What a coincidence!

For a moment, even someone like him, who had experienced countless storms, was left bewildered by this coincidence.

“Yes, that’s right. I hope I can meet that hero someday...” Shally nodded, her heart filled with gratitude and endless admiration for the hero who had slain the Demon Lord.

After all, the Demon Lord was the third-ranked Criminal, possessing profound skills and having reached the Advanced Almighty state.

If it were not for that hero, the Summers, with their limited power, could never have avenged her parents and brother, no matter how long they tried.

This showed just how grateful and respectful she was to the hero who had slain the Demon Lord!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3036-Well,” Leon snapped out of it and opened his mouth hesitantly.

From the look of anticipation on her face, he could tell that Shally wanted to meet the person who took the Demon Lord down.

However, Leon could not risk exposing his identity and could not tell her that he was the one who eliminated the Demon Lord.

Hence, he could only swallow his words. If a chance arose in the future, perhaps he could tell her the truth.

“That’s interesting. What a coincidence!” Cynthia and Ruth glanced at Shally and then at Leon.

When Leon fought the Southern Boss for the first time, the two of them were present and saw Leon eliminate the Demon Lord.

Because of that, Leon somehow avenged Shally without him knowing.

“Miss Shear, Miss Collins, what’s interesting?” Shally asked in confusion.

She did not know that the hero who eliminated the Demon Lord was standing right before her eyes, or she would be over the moon.

“Nothing.” Cynthia and Ruth both shook their heads.

Since Leon refrained from telling the truth, the two of them were not about to go against his will.

“Oh, Mister Wolf, I’ve lost my manners just now when I recalled things about my parents and brother. Sorry for blabbering on. Please forgive me.” Shally did not notice the odd looks on their faces.

After all, she assumed that the hero who took the Demon Lord down was a formidable martial artist from the southern region of Dragon Corps.

Leon, Cynthia, and Ruth, on the other hand, were just talented entrepreneurs from the western region, making them unrelated to whoever took the Demon Lord down.

She would have never imagined that Leon was the one who did it.

"It's fine." Leon smiled.

When he took down the Demon Lord and the other criminals, he merely.

And now, upon learning that he sought revenge for Sally's family unintentionally and how grateful she was, he once again realized how meaningful his heroic acts were.

This further confirmed his thought of eliminating BrahmaX wished to eliminate the threats to commoners.

"Mister Wolf, it's getting late and I need to report back to my family. I won't bother you further and will take my leave now." With that, Shally bid her farewell with the three of them and left as they watched.

Soon, Leon, Cynthia, and Ruth were the only ones left in the mansion.

"Leon, why didn't you tell Miss Summers that you killed the Demon Lord?"

Cynthia and Ruth asked.

"It's not necessary. Too many things are involved. Besides, even if I tell her the truth, she may not believe me," Leon said.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3037-"Well, you're right." Cynthia and Ruth considered his words and realized he was right.

The Demon Lord was a martial artist in the Advanced Almighty State and Leon was young.

If he told others that he killed the Demon Lord without any evidence, no one would believe him and the situation would only worsen.

There was no point in doing so.

"Cynthia, Ruth, let's go. We will go grocery shopping and settle in," Leon said.

"Sure," they said.

With that, the three left the mansion and went grocery shopping.

That night, the three bought some household necessities and tidied their rooms before settling in.

Apart from that, their car was badly damaged and could not be fixed anytime soon.

Mason delivered the car to maintenance and regrouped with them according to the address Leon provided.

In the next two days, Leon and the others needed to purchase furniture and household appliances apart from daily necessities.

They took care of that and cleaned the entire mansion.

Meanwhile, the car was fixed and Mason drove it back.

Still, a single car would not be sufficient and Leon was not short of money, so he bought two more luxurious cars.

With that, everything was settled.

On the morning of the third day, Leon called Shally and intended to purchase some jadeites from her to set up an Energy Gather Circle.

According to the address she provided, Leon left the mansion with Cynthia and Ruth. Mason was responsible for driving and they headed toward a shopping area.

Inside a store named Treasure Hunt in the shopping area.

This was a store under the Summers and one of the biggest stores that sold jadeites in the area.

When Leon arrived, he saw Shally behind the store and she was with Lucian along with two guards.

“Mister Wolf, we meet again. Please take a seat.” Shally was friendly and greeted them with a smile.

After a brief exchange of pleasantries, they each took their seats.

“Miss Summers, I came to purchase a few pieces of jadeites of good quality. I’ll trouble you for that,” Leon said with a smile.

“Of course!” Shally said.

Before she could finish her sentence, Lucian cut in. “Kid, Shally and I came here to do something important if you are just looking to buy a few pieces of cheap jadeites, you can just go to the display area to do so. Why are you wasting our time over such a trivial matter?" he said with displeasure.

When Leon purchased the mansion, he proved Lucian wrong, In the end, Shally even offered a twenty-percent off discount and sold the mansion to Leon at a low price.

This caused Lucian to resent and envy Leon.

Yet, he was reaching out to Shally and wasting their time over a few and wasting their time over a few cheap jadeites. There was no way that Lucian would treat Leon with respect.

Leon mentioned that he wanted to purchase some lower-class jadeites for accessories.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3038-"Lucian, what's wrong with you? Mister Wolf is my friend. How can you speak to him that way?" Shally's expression darkened and reprimanded Lucian.

She sold the mansion to Leon at a cheaper price because she noticed that Leon and his companions were all talented people.

She wanted to build a bond with them as they may eventually grow into people who could help the Summers.

It took her quite a lot of effort to win their favor yet Lucian insulted Leon.

If Leon and the others were enraged by this, all her efforts would have been for nothing.

"I'm just telling the truth. Shelly, the resources we found from the northern region a few days ago have arrived. We need to hurry up and organize everything instead of wasting time on this kid!" Lucian said stubbornly.

"I can arrange and organize the stock later. Don't worry about it!" Shally scoffed.

"But," Lucian was reluctant to give up.

He opened his mouth to speak but was immediately interrupted by Shally.

"That's enough! I know what I'm doing and you're in no position to lecture me!"

Shally said coldly.

"But, alright." Seeing as she made up her mind, Lucian was worried about enraging her and quieted down.

“Miss Summers, since you have something important to handle today, I won’t overstay my welcome. I’ll just head to another store.” Leon stood and bid his farewell.

He came to purchase jadeites for the Energy Gathering Circle. Apart from having certain demands for the quality and size, he did not care about the way it was carved.

Given his demands, it would not matter where he went for the purchase.

Since Shally and Lucian were busy, he could simply head to another store instead of staying to face humiliation from Lucian.

“Mister Wolf, please stay. Forgive my cousin for being rude. I apologize on his behalf. Please find it in your heart to forgive him,” Shally stood and apologized sincerely.

“I-” Lucian’s expression darkened.

Though Leon was not an average person since he bought a mansion with 9 million, this was considered a small amount to the Summers.

As an ancient lineage of martial artists in the central region, their family’s total worth exceeds billions. Even if Leon could afford a mansion at 9 million, he was still nobody.

Yet, Shally remained polite and respectful toward Leon and even apologized to him.

This felt like a humiliation for Lucian.

He could not understand why she would do this and felt both furious and resigned.

Shally was the eldest unwed daughter of the first bloodline and, was responsible for handling the family business, making her more powerful than he was.

Since Shally was siding with Leon, Lucian could only swallow his pride despite his frustration.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3039-You’re too kind, Miss Summers.” Leon frowned and refrained from leaving.

Though Lucian was rude and Leon disliked his arrogant attitude, Shally treated him with kindness and he had a good impression on her.

Since Shally apologized sincerely, Leon could not bring himself to leave and out of respect for her, he decided to simply ignore Lucian and returned to his seat.

“Mister Wolf, what are you looking for here?” Shally relaxed and asked.

“Oh, I need eighteen clear jadeites and a larger high-quality clear jadeite that weighs at least three kilograms,” Leon said.

An Energy Gathering Circle and an Energy Convergence Circle were different.

Though both required eighteen pieces of jadeite, the requirement for the centerpiece was different.

Energy Convergence did not call for high-quality jadeite so long as the size was appropriate.

An Energy Gathering Circle, however, needed to gather the spiritual energy from the mountain and direct it to the mansion. Hence, the requirement for the centerpiece was high.

It had to be ice-clear or clear, and the larger the better.

The Energy Gathering Circle he built in the Heavenly Waters Estate directed the spiritual energy from the mountain to the mansion and it was built with a gigantic imperial purple jadeite.

He now planned to build another Energy Gathering Circle in the new mansion and therefore needed high-quality jadeite for the center of the circle.

Still, large imperial purple jadeite was far too rare and could not be bought with money alone.

Hence, he decided to purchase a high-quality clear jadeite weighing three to four kilograms instead and that should suffice.

“What? Do you want eighteen pieces of clear jadeites and a large high-quality clear jadeite? Mister Wolf, are you messing with me?” Shally was shocked.

Naturally, Lucian was equally shocked.

They both thought that Leon was going to buy a few cheap jadeites for decoration. To their bewilderment, Leon demanded a high-quality clear jadeite along with eighteen clear jadeites.

This was surreal because clear Jadeites were the best quality among all and even ordinary ones would cost from hundreds of thousands to millions, not to mention those of higher quality.

Eighteen clear jadeites would cost around 30 million and a high-quality clear jadeite weighing three kilograms or above would also cost just as much, so these would add up to a rather considerable amount.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3040-“I’m not kidding. Miss Summers, I understand that larger piece of clear jadeite is hard to find, but I’m hoping that you can find one for me. So long as the price isn’t ridiculous, I can accept it,” Leon said.

He knew that clear jadeites could be easily bought and it was not challenging for him to purchase eighteen clear jadeites here or in other stores.

However, ones of bigger sizes were hard to come by and one could only happen upon it by luck.

Meanwhile, the Summers were jadeite merchants with many stores apart from the Treasure Hunt. If Shally agreed to help, it would make finding the larger jadeite easier than him going from store to store himself.

This was precisely why he asked for her help. Otherwise, he would have simply purchased over the counter or headed to other larger stores instead of troubling Shally.

“What?” Shally and Lucian were both shocked.

Though the Summers had a net worth of billions, most of their wealth remained in the form of real estate, and having 50 to 60 million cash was challenging.

Yet, Leon intended to spend that much on eighteen clear jadeite and another bigger one of higher quality.

This was so surreal that neither of them would have believed it they did not see it themselves.

“Dude, these jadeites would add up to at least 50 million. Can you even pull out that much money?” Lucian snapped out of it and questioned Leon mockingly.

He assumed that Leon was an ordinary person and it was shocking enough that Leon produced 9 million to purchase Shally’s mansion.

Lucian refused to believe that someone as ordinary as Leon could afford to pay 50 million unless there was a miracle.

“It’s just 50 million. So long as you find me the jadeites, money isn’t an issue,”

“You sure make it sound easy. Who the jadeites and you can’t afford it, our effort would all be wasted!”

Lucian scoffed.

He knew that finding eighteen clear jadeites would be easy for the m Summers, gut locating a clear jadeite weighing over three kilograms of great quality was hard.

Leon said.

Very often, one would have to obtain this through rock gambling or merchants.

If the Summers spent a high price to purchase a suitable jadeite and Leon failed to pay, this would merely be a waste to their time and effort and would cost them a large sum of money.
