

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3051 - 3055

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3051-“Yeah, I know,” Shally said with a dark look on her face.

She also knew how important the Dragon Jade was to the Summers and that she could not let the Nortons have it.

Otherwise, the Summers’ business would face a crisis or even a downfall.

This was not a consequence she was willing to face.

With determination in her eyes, she made her choice.

“Marvin, since you are determined to cause trouble and want to make this into a bidding war, I will compete with you to the very end. I’ll pay 287 million.”

“What, you want to compete with me? Sure, I’ll play along. I’ll pay 320 million!”

Marvin sneered.

Gritting her teeth, Shally raised the price again. ‘340 million!’

“360 million!’ Marvin said without hesitation.

“Why you!” Shally paled.

Though the Summers’ total worth was over billions, most were in the form of real estate, and with all the stores running under their names, she only had a cash flow of 430 million.

Now that Marvin raised the price to 360 million, it was a price that she could not quite afford.

“Shally, you said you are going to compete with me to the very end, right?

What’s wrong? Have the Summers run out of money?” Marvin said mockingly.

Enraged by his words, Shally stubbornly offered a higher price. “370 million!”

“390 million!” Marvin sneered in contempt, his relaxed demeanor a stark contrast to Shally’s tense look.

“I-” Her expression darkened and a thin layer of sweat started to form on her forehead.

Marvin raised the price to 390 million, and the cash flow for the Summers was only up to 430 million.

If she was right, she would only be able to bid once more and if Marvin continued to raise the price, she would have to admit defeat.

She gritted her teeth and was prepared to raise the price to 410 million when something unexpected happened.

However, the Dragon Jade was far too important for the store and she could not give up until the very last moment.

“Hang on. Miss Summers, stop bidding!” Leon stepped forward and stopped Shally from bidding.

“Why?” Taken aback, she turned to him in confusion.

“Miss Summers, 390 million is just too high a price to pay for this piece of jadeite. If you continue to bid, your family will suffer great financial loss even if you manage to purchase it,”

Leon said while glancing at Marvin.

and Mister Negus thoughtfully.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3052-“Thank you for the heads up, Mister Wolf. I know 386 million dollars is overpriced but the Mystical Dragon Jade is too important for the shop. I must go all out to secure it,” Shally sighed and looked helpless.

“I don’t think that’s the case. Can’t you tell, Miss Summers? This whole thing could be just a scam. If you buy the jade, you’re jumping into a trap,” Leon said seriously.

“What do you mean?”

It felt like a bomb went off in the room blasting everyone including Shally and Lucian. The look on Mister Negus and Marvin changed dramatically and a sense of panic could be seen from their eyes.

All of these changes happened swiftly but Leon was observing them secretly and saw their reaction. The abnormal reaction confirmed Leon’s suspicion.

“Mister Wolf, are you saying this is a scam? I don’t get it,” Shally asked immediately once she gathered herself.

Then Mister Norton came in immediately and raised the price to get you on the run. Surely, this can't be a coincidence. Besides, 386 million dollars is a large amount of money. At least not all rich kids can afford to take out the amount easily. Yet, he kept on raising the price without any bad feelings. Instead, he purposely tried to infuriate you to make you raise your bet. It's clear he's trying to scheme you," Leon explained by giving valid reasons.

"I—" Immediately, Shally knew that Leon's assumption was spot on because his points made sense.

First, Marvin arrived shortly after Mister Negus came into the shop. Everything was perfect as if both of them planned their arrival which made it too much of a coincidence.

Secondly, the maximum amount of money they could use from their family business was not more than 43 million dollars. However, Shally was different. Since her parent and brother passed away, she was forced to take care of the family business. Thus, she had the authority to use any amount of money available in the business.

Of course, this did not apply to Marvin. Although Marvin was the eldest son of the Nortens, he was not in charge of his family business nor did he have the authority and power to use a large amount of money from the business.

Yet, Marvin dared to be on the run of buying the Mystical Dragon Jadeite without consulting or getting approval from his father or approval from his father or grandfather. It just did not make sense that he did not flinch even a little after raising the price of the Mystical Dragon Jadeite to 386 million dollars.

"Hey, what are you talking about? Are you saying we're trying to scam Shally?"

"That's bullshit!"

Marvin and Mister Negus were shocked and reprimanded Leon angrily after hearing what Leon had to say.

"You know very well that I'm telling the truth!" Leon talked back calmly and gave Marvin and Mister Negus a disdainful look.

No data found.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3054—"Hm, you got a point there. Mister Wolf, I believe this is a real Mystical Dragon Jade. I don't see the reason why Mister Negus needs to work with Marvin to set me up. Is there a mix-up?" Shally asked.

Mister Negus successfully convinced Shally.

It was true that the Mystical Dragon Jade was a very rare top-quality jadeite.

Such a rare top-quality jadeite would bring much fame and name to any jadeite companies in the market.

If Marvin was working with Mister Negus, Marvin just needed to announce to the market that he had such rare jadeite and continued to stop Shally from getting any jade supplies. That was enough to destroy Shally and her business. The Nortons would have their victory.

It just did not make sense why Marvin would conspire with Mister Negus to sell the Mystical Dragon Jade to her.

Thus, in her opinion, the possibility of them conspiring together was little to none. Most probably, Leon was the wrong one.

“No. I’m not wrong. Miss Summers, if this is a real Mystical Dragon Jade, they did not have to do this. But, what if this is a fake jadeite? You will put your family business in great danger once you buy it with nearly 437 million dollars!” Leon said his thoughts.

He tried to sense the so-called top-quality jadeite on the counter just now and realized the spiritual energy the jadeite had was similar to a clear emerald jadeite.

However, since he had never seen an actual Mystical Dragon Jade before, he did not know much about it. At first, he thought it was a real thing but now he realized Marvin and Mister Negus were trying to scam Shally, he was assured there was something wrong with the jadeite. Especially since the purity of the spiritual energy of the jadeite was less than an imperial green or imperial purple jadeite.

That was the only reason to explain why Marvin and Mister Negus needed to play an act to make Shally fall into their trap.

“What? Are you saying this is not a real Mystical Dragon Jade? But, how’s that possible?” Shally and the others were shocked and had a hard time believing what they heard.

After the inspection performed by three appraisers, they all decided that this piece of top-quality jadeite was indeed a Mystical Dragon Jade. Yet, Leon opposed the result and claimed it was a fake.

It was too unbelievable!

For a time, they were surprised and stunned as to why Leon would make such a statement.

“Nonsense! Three appraisers have determined that this is a real Mystical Dragon Jade. Are you an appraiser?”

Ypuire making false accusations!

What exactly are your intentions?"

Mister Negus rebuked exasperatingly and looked at Leon with angry eyes.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3055-"That's not necessarily true! People can make mistakes. It has been decades since anyone saw a real Mystical Dragon Jade. I believe neither of the three appraisers has seen one before. I won't be surprised that they made a mistake," Leon made his statement.

"He's right. Neither of US can guarantee that this is a real Mystical Dragon Jade as we are only analyzing it based on our knowledge." One of the appraisers took a stance.

Among the three, only Mister Zimmerman saw the Mystical Dragon Jade when he was young. The other two had never seen one before. They determined that it was a Mystical Dragon Jade based on their experiences and the characteristics of the jadeite.

Therefore, neither of them dared to give their guarantee that Mister Negus's jadeite was a real Mystical Dragon Jade.

"Mister Negus, is it? I'm sure you heard it very clearly. Since you insisted that I'm making a false accusation, do you dare to let me inspect your jadeite again?" Leon asked calmly.

"What is there to be afraid of? But you better be prepared to face the consequences for slandering me and ruining my reputation if this is a real Mystical Dragon Jade!" Mister Negus talked back with a stern voice.

Although he had no idea who Leon was or what his relationship with Shally was, he presumed Leon was just a nobody because of Leon's age. With the three appraisers stating the jade was a Mystical Dragon Jade, he did not think Leon could find any fault with the jade.

Once Leon could not find anything wrong with the jade, he could take this as an excuse to last out at Leon and have his two guards teach Leon a good lesson.

That was for sabotaging his and Marvin's attempt to scheme Shally. An eye for an eye.

"No problem. As long as you have what it takes!" Leon snorted.

With his current power, not even the major families or forces in the central region could do anything to him. What was a small jade merchant like Mister Negus could do that would make him afraid? The murderous aura in Mister Negus' eye had zero effect on him.

Leon walked to the counter. He gathered the spiritual energy in his palm and placed it on top of the top-quality jadeite back and forth to inspect carefully to find out what was wrong with the jadeite.

After a while, Mister Negus had a smirk on his face because Leon remained still.

He was not alone as Marvin had the same smirk too.

He hated Leon for sabotaging the bidding and nearly destroyed his plan to scam Shally. To be honest, he wanted to beat Leon up and throw Leon out of the shop.

All Marvin and Mister Negus were waiting for was to hear Leon say that he was wrong because neither of them was going to let Leon off the hook easily. They would show Leon a hard time.

However, before they had the chance to think about how to teach Leon a lesson, the thing they were afraid of the most happened.

"I get it now!" Leon exclaimed after he finished inspecting the jadeite with his spiritual energy.

He discovered the outer layer of the jadeite was different from the inner.

part. The purity of the spiritual energy of the inner part of the jade was as he sensed before which was almost the same as a top-quality emerald.

jade. However, the outer layer of the jade had a very strong and pure spiritual energy which was almost the same as an imperial green or imperial purple jadeite.

That was enough to prove that there was something wrong with the jadeite and the jadeite was not as what they saw.
