

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 308

Chapter 308

"You're no one to my cousin, so why are you worried that she might misunderstand? As I expected, you are into my cousin!" Louisa stared at Leon intently.

"You... What are you talking about? I'm not into Iris." Leon looked away guiltily.

"How stubborn! You have the power and the strength, yet you are willing to be Iris's secretary and insist on staying here at her place! Why else would you do that if you are not interested in her?" Louisa smirked

"Um..." Rendered speechless, Leon realized that he could never win an argument against Louisa.

"Lewd, just tell the truth. Do you like my cousin or not?" Louisa's lips curled into a smug smile as she continued to tease him.

"I..." Leon's hurt began to hurt. He never imagined being asked the same question twice by Cynthia an hour ago, only to be confronted again by Louisa.

'Are all women this nosy?' He thought to himself.

"I already know the answer, anyway! My cousin is the most beautiful woman in Springfield City, so any man would fall for her. If you are not into you, you are probably not a man!" Louisa said.

"It's none of your business either way!" He said with frustration.

"Of course, it's my business. I can help you get her!" Louisa deadpanned.

"I am not going t- Huh? What did you just say?" Leon was about to lecture Louisa, before gaping in disbelief.

"I said that I can help you get her! She's my cousin and we've always been close. I can compliment you more often in front of her and give you chances to be with her. That way, it would be easier for you to make her yours, don't you think?" Louisa said as she sold her cousin off without hesitation

"Seriously? Are you messing with me?" Leon gaped and felt dazed by her words.

"I'm serious, but I have a condition!" Louisa smiled slyly.

"And what's that?" Leon instantly realized that Louisa came up with a plan.

"You're a Supreme Master, right? I want to learn martial arts from you!" She said excitedly. Her eyes lit up as she recalled the power Leon showed earlier at the bar.

"Martial arts?" Leon was shocked, not expecting her request to be such a simple one.

"Yeah. You're a Supreme Master at such a young age, so I can only imagine that you're powerful! If you agree to teach me, I'll help you get to my cousin! How is that?" She asked in anticipation.

She knew that most martial arts were well-kept secrets and the more powerful they were, the rarer they became. As Leon was not related to her in any way, it would not be easy for him to agree on teaching her his ways. To achieve her dream of becoming a martial artist, she decided to sacrifice her cousin. As long as she did not have to sacrifice herself, Louisa did not feel sorry at all.

Spread the love