

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3086-3090

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3086-“Who is this kid? Such arrogance! “Ts he crazy or something?” Upon hearing Leon’s arrogant words, Howser was equally shocked.

He could not help but take another look at Leon.

Although he did not know Leon’s background, there was one thing he was sure of.

Currently, beside Mister Micah, there was a formidable Advanced Almighty elder and an elder in the peak stage, the grey-robed old man, Elder Destiny.

Faced with the combined intimidation of Elder Destiny and the Almighty Elder, even Howser, with his noble status, dared not confront Mister Micah directly.

However, now, Leon, an unknown young upstart, dared to publicly belittle and provoke Mister Micah! If that was not madness, then what was? If nothing unexpected happened, with the overwhelming strength of the Almighty Elder and Elder Destiny, either of them could easily crush Leon, a mere young man, with just a flick of their fingers.

There was no other possibility! “Kid, how dare you belittle the Micahs? “You’re courting death! “Elder Destiny, cripple him right now, let him know how high the sky is and how deep the earth is!” Mister Micah was furious, deeply enraged by Leon’s arrogance.

He immediately ordered Elder Destiny to either kill or cripple Leon with a single slap, to quell his anger! However, perhaps due to his excessive rage, he failed to notice Elder Destiny’s unusual reaction.

The moment Leon stepped out from the crowd, Elder Destiny’s pupils contracted sharply, as if he saw a ghost in broad daylight.

His face was filled with horror, and his body even trembled slightly.

“Leon, it’s you!!! “Aren’t you supposed to be in the Southern Region? How could you be in the Central Region?” Elder Destiny, filled with terror, couldn’t help but blurt out, revealing Leon’s true identity.

“How do you know my name?” Leon was taken aback, stopping in his tracks.

Since coming to the Central Region, he always used the alias ‘Hugh Wolf.

Even Shally and Lucian only knew him as Hugh from the Western Region, not as Leon, or anything related to the Southern Region.

Now, this unfamiliar grey-robed old man, Elder Destiny, directly revealed his real name and background, completely catching him off guard! He couldn't figure out how Elder Destiny knew about him.

Thinking quickly, he realized something.

Although he had never been to the Central Region before, and besides a few experts from the Wu Long group, no one should recognize him, there were two exceptions.

One was Hades, ranked second among the Eight Criming, and the other was a doppelganger of Brahma! Both encountered him in the Southern Region, so they naturally knew him.

With this thought, combined with his earlier feeling of familiarity with elder Deistiny aura Leon suddenly realized the truth.

"Hades, so it's you!" Leon's eyes turned cold as he finally recognized the grey-tobed old man as Hades, the second-ranked among the eight criminals back in the southern Region, Hades, dressed in a wide-sleeved robe and wearing a half-race, mask with green features and fangs, concealed his appearance and physical characteristics while rescuing the Southern Boss.

Hades had only hastily deflected a few of his poison darts, engaging briefly without a full confrontation.

Therefore, Leon only found his aura vaguely familiar earlier, without recognizing him outright.

Now, with Hades revealing his true name and background, Leon finally guessed Hades's real identity!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3087-"What?" "He, he's Hades?" Leon's words landed like a thunderclap in a clear sky, shocking everyone present.

Hades was one of the top Criminals on the Criminal list, his hands stained with countless lives and blood.

His notoriety was well – established, and his crimes were many.

Those present certainly heard of Hades's infamy.

They knew he ranked second among the Eight Criminals, possessing profound martial skills.

Moreover, he was known for his treachery and cunning, adept at hiding his tracks and evading the Central Region Dragon Corps' capture for over a decade.

Now, hearing from Leon that this old man in grey was Hades was simply unbelievable.

The shock they felt was beyond words! "Mister Wolf, are you saying he is the second-ranked Hades on the Criminal list? Is this for real? Are you, are you sure you haven't made a mistake?" Howser, who just recovered from his shock, looked doubtful.

Hades, one of the Eight Criminals, was known for being elusive.

Hardly anyone ever saw his true face, and those who had were probably dead.

Otherwise, the Central Region Dragon Corps would not have hunted him for over a decade without success.

And here was Leon, a nobody with an unknown background, claiming he could identify Hades! Howser could not understand how Leon could unmask Hades's identity.

He suspected Leon was mistaken, or that this old man in grey just happened to share the same name, leading to a misunderstanding.

"I am not mistaken! He is indeed the second-ranked Hades among the Eight Criminals!" Leon declared with absolute certainty.

"What?" With Leon's firm assertion, everyone present was completely stunned!

Especially the Summers, whose martial skills were comparatively lower.

Many of them shivered involuntarily, a chill rising from their feet, spreading through their bodies.

As the saying goes, a person's name is the shadow of the tree.

As one of the most vicious villains, Hades left no survivors wherever he went to conceal his identity.

He never left any witnesses alive.

Now, encountering Hades and knowing his true identity and appearance was not a good thing them! At this thought, many couldn't help but show fear, their hearts trembling.

“Damn it! “How could this happen?”

Seeing Leon publicly reveal Hades’s Micah’s face turned pale, his mood sinking.

Like everyone else, he had not known much about the old man in grey, known as Elder Destiny.

He only knew Elder Destiny had recently sworn loyalty to his father, Central Boss.

He had no idea Elder Destiny’s real identity was Hades, the second-ranked Criminal Ofcourse, that was not the main issue. The main issue was that the Dragon Corps’ duty was to maintain order and stability in the martial world.

Any ancient martial family found secretly colluding with or harboring one of the Eight criminals would be a serious prime if Elder Destiny was indeed Hades, and this information got out, the Micahs would be in deep trouble with the Central Region Dragon Corps.

This could potentially bring a great disaster to the Micahs. Realizing this Mister Micah quickly made a decision.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3088-“Kid, I don’t know what nonsense you’re spouting! “This is our esteemed expert, Elder Destiny, from the Micahs.

He’s not some ‘Hades’! “Stop spewing lies and slandering people!” Mister Micah, having regained his composure, angrily rebuked Leon, denying any association between Elder Destiny and Hades.

His sharp gaze immediately turned toward the grey-clad Elder Destiny.

“Elder Destiny, kill this brat quickly, don’t let him deceive everyone with his lies!”

Mister Micah’s face was cold and ruthless, his eyes full of murderous intent.

Although he was not certain whether Elder Destiny was Hades, he was well aware of one thing.

At this moment, only Leon knew Elder Destiny’s true identity, and no one else dared to confirm it.

As long as Elder Destiny killed Leon swiftly, leaving no evidence, the Micahs could arrange for Elder Destiny to escape afterward.

With no proof, the Wu Long Group of Zhongyu wouldn’t be able to take any action against the Micahs, especially given his father's esteemed status in the underworld.

All problems could be resolved this way! However, Howser and the Summers members present weren't blind or deaf.

If Elder Destiny only killed Leon, it might not be enough to cover up the truth.

If necessary, after killing Leon, Elder Destiny could just wipe out Howser and the Summers members as well, leaving no witnesses to ensure complete secrecy.

The only tricky part was Howser's distinguished status.

Unless necessary, Mister Micah wouldn't dare let Elder Destiny kill him.

He decided to wait and see how things unfolded after Elder Destiny dealt with Leon.

"Not good!" "Mister Micah is planning to kill!" Sensing the cold murderous intent in Mister Micah's eyes, Keith and the Summers members, along with Howser and the Jansons's experts, all turned pale.

They knew very well the grave implications of Hades's identity.

The simplest way for the Micahs and Hades to cover up the truth would be to kill everyone present.

For the Summers, given their relatively low cultivation levels, it would be a mere trifle for the Micahs's experts to kill them.

As for Howser, although he brought several formidable experts from the Jansons, including two in the Advanced Almighty state, Elder Destiny's cultivation already reached the peak of the Almighty state.

Moreover, he was notorious for his ruthlessness, making him a top-tier expert among his peers.

With the support of the Micahs's Fourth Holy Guardian, the Jansons's experts stood no chance against them.

If Hades decided to go on a killing spree, they would all be doomed.

There was no other possibility!

Realizing this, both the Summers and the Jansons experts felt hearts sink into despair, a chilling feeling of hopelessness washing over them.

However, before they could fully succumb to despair, an astonishing scene unfolded before their eyes.

Swoosh! In that moment of despair, Hades finally reacted.

Without any hesitation, he leaped into the air and fled rapidly to the M distance with lightning speed.

They all assumed that Mister Micah decided to kill and that Hades would soon start a massacre to silence them.

However, now, to their utter disbelief, not only did Hades not attack them but he seized the opportunity to flee but he seized the opportunity to flee as if his life depended on it. "Hades ran away?" Seeing this, everyone present was stunned, rubbing their eyes in disbelief.

Especially Howser and Keith, their faces were filled with incredulity.

What was happening? For a moment, they were all dumbfounded by Hades's bizarre behavior!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3089-Elder Destiny, why? Why are you running? "Hurry back!" Mister Micah was equally shocked.

He shouted in the direction where Hades was fleeing, unable to understand what was going on.

"Sir, this Leon is formidable and strange.

I can't defeat him! "Before he makes a move, you must flee.

Run as far as you can!" While running away, Hades hastily threw out these words without even looking back.

"What?" Hades's words were like a bombshell, almost blowing everyone away!

Only then did they realize that Hades fled not to launch a killing spree but because he was scared of Leon! "Leon scared off Hades?" "Are we dreaming?"

Everyone was dumbfounded, their jaws almost hitting the ground! They were well aware of Hades's strength and notorious reputation.

Just now, they witnessed firsthand the aura Hades exuded, reaching the peak of Almighty state! Even the combined forces of Sixth and Seventh Uncle could not withstand him.

But now, with Leon's appearance, the notoriously powerful Hades was frightened off by an unknown young junior! This was unbelievable! If they did not see it with their own eyes, they wouldn't have believed it, even if beaten to death.

Moreover, before they could recover from their shock, an even more astonishing scene unfolded.

"Trying to run? It's not that easy!" Leon quickly reacted.

Hades was the second-ranked Criminal on the list, always committing heinous crimes, unforgivable.

Now that he finally encountered Hades again, he would not let him escape easily.

Without hesitation, he stepped forward, swiftly using the top- grade Earth Class sage technique, Phantom Steps, moving as fast as lightning, chasing after Hades! Whoosh! whoosh! Whoosh! Realizing his reaction was a step slower than Hades, Leon found himself at a disadvantage.

He flicked his wrist, sending three blue- glowing poison needles flying toward Hades's back with a sharp, piercing sound, aiming to halt Hades's escape and buy himself some time to catch up! "Not good! Poison needles!" Feeling the fierce wind behind him, Hades turned his head and was scared out of his wits.

He fought Leon in the Southern Region before and knew how deadly Leon's poison needles were.

Not daring to take them head-on, he rolled on the ground, swiftly dodging the three incoming needles! swish taking advantage of this opportunity, Leon exerted his full power, using the top- grade Earth Class sage technique, Phantom Steps, leaving a shadow behind as he leaped over Hades's head, landing firmly in front of him, blocking his path.

"This" Seeing Leon intercept Hades, everyone behind was dumbfounded.

None of them expected that the second-ranked villain, Hades would be so frightened by an unknown young junior.

Even more unexpected was

Leon would not let Hades escape but instead forcibly stopped this ruthless criminal more least or way it he.

mouse bullying the cat? Everyone was utterly confused!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3090-"Hades, today is the day you die.

Let's see where you can run now!" Leon intercepted Hades with a chilling expression, secretly taking out a Dragon Pill and swallowing it.

Although his overall strength already reached the extremely high level of Semi Saint, his true cultivation was slightly inferior, at most in the Advanced Almighty state.

On the other hand, Hades was a top-tier expert at the peak of the Almighty state, a force not to be underestimated.

To avoid any unforeseen events, Leon dared not take any chances.

He consumed the Dragon Pill, preparing to deal with Hades first.

"Leon, there's no grudge between US.

You, you don't have to push me too far!" Hades steadied himself, his face ashen, his eyes showing fear and apprehension as he looked at Leon.

Previously, while rescuing the Southern Boss in the Southern Region, he learned from the Southern Boss that Leon possessed an incredibly powerful Potential Energy force.

Although he and the Southern Boss vaguely guessed that Leon's Potential Energy Forces were mostly exhausted, he heard that later on, the Southern Boss joined forces with 'Brahma' to deal with Leon and ended up dead.

This was enough to show Leon's formidable strength and the possibility that he still possessed that Potential Energy force to move.

Because of this, Hades feared Leon earlier, even fleeing without a fight.

"So what if I'm pushing you too far? "Hades, over the years, you've committed countless atrocities and deserve to die a thousand deaths! Last time in the Southern Region, you managed to escape by a stroke of luck, but this time, you won't be so fortunate!" Leon's face was full of coldness, a sharp killing intent flashing in his eyes, eager to eliminate this heinous criminal.

However, he just took the Dragon Pill, and its effects did not fully kick in yet.

This matter could not be rushed.

So, he restrained himself, not immediately making a move against Hades.

"You'll be feeling Leon's fierce killing intent, Hades knew he was unlikely to escape this time.

He steeled his heart, his ferocity provoked by Leon.

“Leon, there’s no need to be so arrogant! Although you killed the Demon Lord last time, my power is far superior to his! It won’t be that easy for you to deal with me.” Hades’s face was stern and fierce, trying to bolster his courage.

“What? “The third-ranked criminal on the Criminal list, Demon lord was killed by this mister wolf Hearing this, everyone was shocked and stunned by Hades’s words.

Especially Keith and the Summers, Shally’s parents and elder brother died at the hands of the Demon Lord.

Now, from Hades’s words, they learned that the one who killed the Demon Lord was none other than Leon before them.

Their astonishment was indescribable! “Miss Shear, Miss Collins, is what Hades said true is Mister Wolf great benefactor who killed the Demon Lord for the Summers?” Shally, regaining her composure, could not help but look at Cynthia and Ruth with disbelief in her eyes.

According to the Dragon Corps’ report, she always believed that the one who killed the Demon Lord was a master from the Southern Region’s Dragon Corps.

She even mentioned to Leon and the others before that she wanted to meet the great benefactor who avenged her parents and elder brother.

But now, she never dreamed that the benefactor, so far away yet so close was Leon this was beyond belief! If she did not hear it with her ears, she would not believe it, even if beaten to death!
