

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3101 -3110

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3101-“What?” Daren and Steven got a shock hearing that.

Hades was very mysterious so they did not know Elder Destiny was Hades.

However, they knew Hades was on the same power level as they were.

Now they learned that Leon killed Hades and Hades did not even have the chance to run away before he was dead.

It meant that Leon’s power level and power were definitely above them.

They were not Leon’s opponents.

As they felt shocked, they also stopped their attacks.

“Who killed Elder Destiny? Damn you!” shouted someone angrily.

Followingly, a middle-aged man in his fifties appeared with an extremely dangerous vibe.

Behind him were seven old men with strong aura and more than a dozen strong fighters.

The leader of the group was none other than the famous person in the central region, the Central Boss.

Those who followed behind him were the rest of the Holy Guardians, Apostles, and other main members of the Micahs.

They were having a meeting in the meeting room when they heard the commotion and hurried over.

“The Central Boss is here! Yes! This is great!” Daren, Steven, and the fighters in the courtyard were excited to see the Central Boss and quickly made way for him to pass through.

With the cheering going on, the Central Boss walked out of the crowd with an angry face.

“Oh, no.

Mister Wolf is in trouble.” The look on Howser and Isaac’s face changed.

They knew the Micahs very well and could recognize the Central Boss and the core members of the Micahs.

Leon was too arrogant by forcing his way into the manor, picking fights, and attracting the fighters.

Now almost all of the core members of the Micahs and the Central Boss were here.

It was a powerful lineup that Leon could by no means contend with.

If there were no surprises, Howser and Isaac predicted how badly Leon would end up to be.

However, a surprising moment happened as soon as they started to feel worried.

“You’re Bharma’s clone!” Leon was shocked when he laid his eyes on the Central Boss.

Immediately, he recognized him.

It was a slightly different situation compared to Hades.

When Leon saw Hades in the Southern Region, he only crossed paths with Hades.

They did not fight each other.

In addition, Hades was wearing a devil mask and a long and loose-fitting robe to cover his face and body shape.

When Leon saw Hades, Hades’ aura was familiar to Leon but Leon could not recognize Hades at first sight.

However, it was different with Bharma’s clone.

Although Bharma’s clone wore a devil mask to cover his appearance to he worked with the southern Boss to fight Leon and gave Leon big trouble familiar with the aura of Bharma’s clone.

Since Leon fought with Bharma’s clone for a long time, he was very!

As he saw the Central Boss, he immediately recognized Bharma’s, clone through some specific body parts and the familiar true energy and spiritual energy.

In addition, Leon presumed the Central Boss and Bharma were the same person after interrogating Hades.

Then again, he was shocked to see his assumption was wrong.

The Central Boss was not the real Bharma but Bharma's clone.

This was unexpected and caught him a little off guard.

While he was feeling shocked, he did not understand.

If the Central Boss was not the real Bharma, then who exactly was Bharma?

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3102-"What? Leon?" While Leon recognized the Central Boss, the Central Boss also recognized Leon when he saw Leon.

The look on his face changed as he was shocked.

When he was in the Southern Region, he helped the Southern Boss to fight Leon.

However, they lost badly and suffered severe injuries.

In the end, he had to use every trick he got to escape and save his life.

He returned to the central region.

After a long recovery, his injuries were healed.

Yet, he did not expect to see Leon standing right of him now.

As if Leon landed from the sky from out of nowhere.

It was a very terrible situation for him.

He felt like he was struck by a thunder.

"Central Boss! So you're Bharma's clone.

Great.

This is great.

I've been looking everywhere and here you are." Leon glared coldly at the Central Boss once he came out of his shock.

Even though he was a little disappointed because it was not the real Bharma, it turned out to be a blessing in disguise.

Bharma's clone went to the Southern Region and worked together with the Southern Boss to attack him.

Not only did they kill many fighters of the Dragon Corps in the Southern Region including Scott, but they were also the reason Renee went into a coma and had not wake up yet.

Since then, he had a deep grudge against the Bharma.

With God on his side, he found Bharma's clone by accident.

This was the time for him to settle the score with Bharma's clone and avenge Scott and Renee.

On top of that, being the clone of the Bharma, he must know some clues and the whereabouts of the real Bharma.

If he could defeat the Central Boss and follow the clues from the Central Boss to continue tracing, it should not be difficult for him to find the real Bharma.

This just happened to kill two birds with one stone! nytt The murderous aura from Leon was scary.

The Central Boss's eyes flinched and he could not help but take a few steps backward.

Am I imaginina things howser and isaac exchanged looks and sawi the shocking expressions on each other's faces.

Once bitten, twice shy.

Although he had no idea how Leon could find him when the central region was a huge place, there was one thing he was certain of.

That was Leon was a lot more powerful than him in terms of power, skills, and so on.

He was not Leon's opponent.

Now that Leon found him, Leon was never going to let him go easily because of the feud they had.

Scary thoughts filled his mind.

And the idea to run away was very strong.

He did not wish to die yet.

“Central Boss, what’s going on with you?” The apostles and fighters of the Micahs sensed the Central Boss was scared of Leon.

They did not understand why and were surprised.

The Central Boss was the head of the Micahs and also the most powerful person in the central region.

To them, the Central Boss was invincible.

Yet, the Central Boss was feeling scared like when a mouse saw a cat.

His domineering and mighty vibes decreased a lot because of Leon.

It was unbelievable.

Just imagined how shocked those people were.

They were not alone.

Howser and Isaac had the same feeling too.

“The Central Boss is scared of Leon?”

At first, they thought Leon was doomed when he forced his way into the Micahs’ manor.

Yet, things did not turn out as they expected.

The famous Central Boss was so scared of Leon that he took many! steps back ward just as soon as he recognized Leon.

It was quite similar to the time Hades saw Leon and wished to run for his life.

How unbelievable it was.

If they did not see it with their own eyes, they would never believesthis was happening if they were being beaten to death.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3103-“I- Nothing!” The Central Boss realized he lost his calm and quickly regained his composure after hearing the inquiries of the apostles and fighters.

Although Leon was very strong, it was different now.

When they were in the Southern Region, he was no match for Leon.

However, this was his territory and there were many strong fighters in the manor.

In particular, the Five Apostles.

They were at high power levels and were fighters of Peak Almighty State.

With his strength, coupled with the assistance of the Five Apostles and the other fighters, they were in a favorable situation.

Whereas, Leon was alone by himself and might not have the capability to defeat so many people.

With this in mind, he was greatly calmed and felt much more at ease.

“Dad! Save me!” All of a sudden, Eaton cried for help.

Central Boss looked and only noticed his son, Eaton was in Leon’s hand.

At the same time, he remembered Eaton once told Daren and Steven that Leon killed Hades.

After some thinking, he realized Leon must have found him because of Hades.

“Leon, there are so many places you could go but you choose to come to hell.

You have one chance.

Let go of my son! Or I’ll make sure you’re not going to see the sun tomorrow!”

Central Boss spoke coldly and glared at Leon with a murderous look.

Leon found out his real identity.

This was a very serious matter.

No matter what it cost, he had to kill Leon.

Leon could not leave the manor alive.

This was to avoid Leon informing the Dragon Corps and brought chaos to the Micahs.

However, Leon had Eaton now.

Before he could kill Leon, he had to think of a way to save Eaton first.

“Have you forgotten how you lost to me in the Southern Region? You must be dreaming to think that you can kill me.

Don't say that I didn't give you a chance.

All of you can fight together so I can save my time too!” Leon snorted and gave Central Boss a contemptuous look.

He also pointed at Central Boss and all the fighters to tell them to attack him together.

That could save him a lot of time.

“You arrogant brat! Central Boss, please allow me to fight him.

I'll kill him!” The Grand Apostle was furious and asked to fight Leon.

After what happened just now, he kinda figured out Leon was not a normal fighter.

However, being the head of the Five Apostles, he was the best fighter of Peak Almighty State.

Most of the time, he was invincible.

Therefore, he did not think Leon who looked young was his match.

Killing Leon should be easy peasy for him.

However, Central Boss rejected the suggestion immediately.

“No! He's too strong.

I'm not his match too so I'm certain you cant defeat him” Central Boss shook his head.

His power level was the same as the Grand Apostle.

Both of them were at the Peak Almighty State.

Nevertheless, his power was more powerful than the Grand Apostle.

He was one step away from reaching The Semi-Saint State.

If he used the weapon at a normal Semi-Saint fighter, he could stand a orangelor
Winning

Other than that, he also had a Semi-Saint high-level offensive weapon that could deal
Semi Saint attacks and power.

That was why people thought he reached the Semi-Saint State.

Where in fact, he was not there yet.

He had to rely on the power and might of the weapon@becasstrong ag the sahipsaint fighter

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3104-“What?” Everyone, including the Four Apostles and all the members of the Micah family, gasped upon hearing this.

They could hardly believe their ears! Every single one of them heard of Central Boss—his power was comparable to the SemiSaint State, but the fact that he had outright admitted that he was no match for Leon...

It demonstrated a horrifying fact—that Leon was far more powerful than they all thought, surpassing even the Semi-Saint State! This feat was unheard of, especially for someone at the young age of thirty! This was practically a miracle!

One could only imagine how thunderstruck they were to hear of this, but they were not the only ones taken aback by this news— even Howser and Isaac were too stunned for words.

After witnessing Leon single-handedly defeat Hades, both of them were convinced that Leon’s power was of the Peak Almighty State.

Neither of them—not even in their wildest dreams—would imagine that Leon’s power attained the Semi-Saint State! It was no wonder Leon had the guts to take on the Micahs all by himself! “Grand Apostles, this boy is far more powerful than we initially imagined, and I’m afraid we need to combine our powers to stand any chance of defeating him! “I will try to rescue Eaton, while all of you combine your powers and create a diversion.

I’m sure that by working together, we can defeat him easily, and we must not let him escape at any cost.

It is too dangerous for someone like him to run loose...” Central Boss said, shooting the Grand Apostles a knowing glance.

He knew full well that he would not stand a chance against Leon alone, but since Leon challenged him to a battle with the Micahs combined, he would gladly enlist their help! All was fair in love and war! Before Leon could even figure out what was going on, Central Boss leaped into the air, channeling an immense surge of power and sending it pelting straight toward Liam, hoping to catch him off guard and use the distraction to help Eaton escape! “You have no idea who you’re messing with!” Leon scoffed.

With reflexes as quick as a fox's, he let go of the liability that was Eaton and somersaulted through the air, using Eaton's body as a launching pad to kick himself off.

At the same time, he channeled all the power within him into his finger, unleashing his signature Earthly Plunder to counter Central Boss' attack! Central Boss, knowing full well that he was no match for Leon, darted away just in time, disappearing from Leon's view with nothing more than a swish of his robes.

"So you're playing a game of speed, huh? Wrong choice, pal!" Leon sneered.

With an agile step, he launched himself through the air in a move one would recognize as the Phantom Steps, leaving behind only his shadowy silhouette as he pummeled straight toward Central Boss.

"Oh no!" Central Boss gasped.

Leon's Phantom Steps were so lithe that there was nothing he could do to counter him.

His only defense was to keep dodging Leon every time he materialized in front of him.

Since he was close to attaining the Semi-Saint State, he could just manage to get away from Leon every single time, although just barely.

"This is it! Everyone, seize him! This'll teach him not to mess with the Grand Apostles ordered recognizing the perfect opportunity to attack Leon while he was preoccupied with Central Boss.

His back was facing them, and it was the golden opportunity to strike! The Micahs all channeled their true m epergy. into a single, condensed beam of light one that harnessed energy far beyond their imaginations, and sent it hurtling straight toward Leon's turned back! Central Boss also launched an attack at the same moment, resulting in Leon being cornered from front and back!

Although neither of them could take on Leon on their own, their combined powers could easily take Leon down.

Aside from the Grand Apostles and the Holy Guardians, the Micahs also had other masters hidden amongst them, with most of their members having attained Peak Almighty or even Advanced Almighty States.

Leon was severely outnumbered, and even though none of his opponents were as powerful as him on their own their collective powers combined were not to be underestimated, especially with such elaborate scheming! By attacking Leon from opposite directions, they stood a great chance of defeating him!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3105—"I'm going to kill you, you twat! Take this! Of the Advanced Power Class—the Soul-Piercing Claw!" Central Boss, too, recognized the opportunity of defeating Leon once and for all and quickly altered his strategy, adopting a position of offense now.

Instead of dodging Leon, he unleashed a powerful attack, one that belonged to the Advanced Power Class—the Soul-Piercing Claw! A sinister black cloud of mist gathered between his fingertips, congealing momentarily before hurtling straight toward Leon at breakneck speed! He was determined to give Leon a taste of his own medicine! "Good one!" Leon shouted, without so much as a flicker of fear on his face.

He wanted nothing more than to end this battle as soon as possible, so even when he realized the Grand Apostles were coming at him from behind, he made no move to dodge them at all.

With the thundering crunch, Leon's Earthly Plunder made contact with the Soul Piercing Claw, erupting into a thunderous explosion of power and energy.

Leon channeled the energy and concentrated it on the weakest point in the Soul-Piercing Claw, crumbling it and sending the immense wave of power that erupted from it back toward Central Boss, who flew several feet backward and finally landed in a crumpled heap on the ground.

"Thud!" Central Boss spat out a mouthful of blood as an excruciating pain shot through his chest.

Clearly, he was severely injured, but thankfully, the Soul-Piercing Claw dampened most of the Earthly Plunder's impact, so he was still mostly fine.

At the same time, the Grand Apostles launched their attacks on Leon! "Oh no!"

"Mr.

Wolf has underestimated his opponents," Both Howser and Isaac's hearts sank as they watched on, waiting for Leon's inevitable fate.

With the Grand Apostles combined, their powers could easily surpass those of the Saint State, and knowing that Leon was only in the Semi-Saint State, he could not possibly put up a good fight against them! It was impossible! Who would have thought that Leon would let his ego get in the way and choose to strike Central Boss—at the expense of being attacked from behind? This was a fatal choice he made! There was no doubt about it—Leon would not get away from this alive, not with an attack of such magnitude! "Excellent!" "Eat this, you twat!" Central Boss and the Grand Apostles, on the other hand, were beyond delighted at this sudden twist in events.

Triumphant smiles spread across their faces, but no one grinned as wide as Central Boss.

He deliberately launched his Soul -Piercing Claw at Leon specifically to distract him and prevent him from escaping the Grand Apostles' attack, and it worked!

So long as the Grand Apostles successfully pulled off their attack, they would be able to take Leon down—if not kill, then severely incapacitate him! There was no possible way Leon could escape this! As pleased as they were, what happened next shocked them to their core! Their smiles froze on their faces as Leon turned around and angled his chest, to which the Mirror of Sovereign was strapped, straight at the Grand Apostles so it would take the brunt of the attack.

“Thud!” With a thunderous crash, the Grand Apostles' attack landed squarely against the Mirror of Sovereign.

The attack was so powerful that even with the Mirror of Sovereign shielding him Leon still staggered backward from the impact, his face pale with effort.

He had to muster all the strength within him to keep standing! o Thank fully the mirror of sovereign was an eXtremely Powerful defensive shield, with the ability to block off most attacks of the Semi-Saint state.

Therefore, any attack that was lesser than the Saint state could not harm him! The Grand Apostles, as powerful as they were did not attain the Saint state even with their powers combined, and thus they were no match for the Mirror of Sovereign at all! The Grand Apostles merely slowed him down, but otherwise left

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3106-What?” “How can this possibly be?” No one, not even the Micahs or both Howser and Isaac, could believe their eyes! Just a few seconds ago, they were all certain that Leon would meet his end—there was no doubt about it! And yet Leon came out of it unscathed, after using his flesh to counter the attack from the Grand Apostles! There was not so much as a hair out of place on his head!

One could only imagine their utter disbelief at this! However, their shock only lasted a few moments.

Most of the people present there were master fighters—the best among the best of the Central Region, and so it did not take them long to figure out what happened.

The most likely explanation for this was that Leon somehow obtained an Almighty Weapon—one of the Saint State, which would help defend him against attacks of the Saint State and below! There was no other possible way Leon could have pulled this off otherwise! “How the tables have turned! I believe it is my turn now! Take this — Hurricane Break!” Leon was so outraged at the near miss that as soon as he steadied himself, he launched straight into another attack without even a moment’s hesitation.

Without a doubt, he chose to employ one of his signature moves of the Ultimate Power Class—the Hurricane Break! The energy in the air seemed to buzz and crackle with electricity as they congealed together, forming a massive tornado that swept straight toward the Micahs! “What, what on earth is this sorcery?”

“Oh rats! Everybody get out of the way!” The Grand Apostles and the Micahs were all horrified to see such an immense display of power.

They immediately ducked in all directions, trying to escape as fast as their legs could take them, but unfortunately for them, one of the Hurricane Break’s specialties was its tremendous attack range—so wide that it was capable of swallowing virtually everything in its path! No matter how hard they tried, they could not possibly outrun the Hurricane Break! “Thud!” “Thud!” “Thud!”

Deafening crashes reverberated all around them as the Hurricane Break caught the Grand Apostles and the various members of the Micah family by their ankles, hurtling them all into the air until their limp bodies were strewn all over the place.

The Grand Apostles and the Micahs all spat out mouthfuls of blood as they slumped on their backs, panting for breath.

They all suffered varying degrees of injuries, but since most of them were well trained and managed to get away just in time, they were spared the brunt of the attack and merely got away with mild wounds.

“Oh, oh my God!” Both Howser and Isaac’s jaws were slack as they watched on, too stunned for words.

They were not the only ones utterly astounded by the turn of events however even central Boss could not believe his eyes.

Although he encountered Leon before and knew that he already attained the Semi-Saint state, it m turned out he committed the fatal mistake of underestimating Leon once again! Leon’s Hurricane Break.

was so impressive that it could only have been pulled off by someone far.

more powerful than the Semi-Saint State, perhaps even close to the Saint

State itself! This was the only possible explanation as to how Leon managed to single-handedly defeat the entire Micah family as well as the Grand Apostles! The worst part was- With most of the Micahs and the Grand Apostles wounded, the only person who remained standing was Central Boss, and he knew full well he was no match against Leon! He had to make a run for it! The only alternative was death! "Swish!"

Seizing the brief opportunity in which Leon paused to catch his breath, Central Boss leaped into the air and made a run for it without even looking back! This was his only chance of getting out of here alive!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3107-"Not so fast! You can run, but you can't hide!" Leon caught sight of him making his sneaky escape and quickly swallowed a Spirit Nurturing Pill to replenish his spiritual energy just in time.

With his renewed energy, he once again employed his Phantom Steps and bounded lithely toward Central Boss at breakneck speed.

However, he paused just halfway there, as though something occurred to him, and reached into his coat, shouting, "Central Boss, take this!" With a swipe, he sent three small knives soaring through the air, their blades glinting maliciously as they pierced through the air and pummeled straight toward Central Boss, the tips of their blades aimed precariously at the square of his back! "Oh no!"

Central Boss risked a quick look behind him when he sensed the knives behind him.

His first instinct, upon seeing the knives bearing down on him, was to land on the ground to dodge them, but he knew that once his feet were back on the ground, Leon would be hot on his heels, and he would stand no chance of escaping! Therefore, without much room for hesitation, he swished the sleeve of his robe to deflect the knives and catapulted through the air, past the garden wall, and disappeared from view! "You got lucky!" Leon scoffed as he watched Central Boss disappear past the garden wall, but there was no hint of fury upon his face at all.

It was practically a miracle of Central Boss to have managed his escape, considering Leon attained the Semi-Saint State and employed the Phantom Steps, one of his most powerful moves that had not failed yet.

However, Leon knew that letting Central Boss go was the more sensible choice in this scenario.

Central Boss, like Hades, was one of the most infamous villains known to men, and if he caught Central Boss, he would not have been able to get any useful information out of him.

Like Hades, Central Boss would have rather died than reveal Brahma's whereabouts to Leon.

Central Boss was one of Brahma's many clones, and Leon was fairly certain that Central Boss would seek out Brahma's assistance after making his escape.

Unbeknownst to Central Boss, the three knives Leon sent after him as a last ditch attempt to corner him were not poisonous at all, but instead coated with powder from Soul Searcher Pills.

Their distinct fragrance would linger on Central Boss' clothes and lead Leon straight to Brahma's hideout, where he would be able to capture the two of them once and for all! "Rats! How could this have happened," Eaton's heart sank as he watched Central Boss make his hasty escape? He thought his family stood a great chance of defeating Leon, especially considering his father led the entire troupe of Micah family fighters to his rescue.

Who would have thought that not even the combined forces of the Micahs and the Grand Apostles would be able to stop Leon. Not only that but Leon's immense display of power scared Central Boss so much that he was even willing to leave his own son behind to guarantee his escape! One could only imagine how betrayed Eaton felt at this.

Nothing could ever compare to the sheer disappointment and 'O!' mortification one felt at being abandoned by one's own father! Of course, he was not the only one in shambles over this.

The rest of the Micahs were just as appalled by Central Boss selfish escape but there was nothing they could do about this.

What was done was done.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3108-Leon, however, ignored their blatant shock and instead made his way to Howser and Isaac.

"Mr. Janson, may I ask you for a favor?" he said, smiling with such kindness that it came as a stark contrast to the dark, malicious scowl on his face when facing Central Boss.

"Of course, Mr. Wolf.

Please let US know how we may assist you!" Howser said, a look of sheer respect on his face.

The martial world always bowed down to the strongest.

The Micahs and the Jansons were among the four most powerful families in the Central Region, and yet Leon single-handedly defeated so many of the Micahs, rendering Central Boss so frightened that he made a hurried escape.

This was a strong indicator of just how powerful Leon was, and neither Howser nor Isaac dared to underestimate him.

As stunned as they were initially, they were both now utterly in awe of him and were glad to be of service to him.

“Well, the thing is, there are so many members of the Micah family that I can’t possibly tackle them all on my own.

I was wondering if you, along with the rest of your family when they arrive, help me capture them all and hand them over to the Dragon Corps,” Leon explained.

There was no time to lose—he had to get to tracking Central Boss down immediately, and could not afford to waste his time dealing with the aftermath of the fallen Micah family.

He had no choice but to delegate this task to Howser and the rest of the Jansons, hoping that they would be able to round up all the criminals and hand them over to the Dragon Corps for him.

“Of course.

It is our honor to help,” Howser replied, nodding.

Although the Micahs were not enemies of the Jansons, the two families frequently crossed paths due to their extensive business connections, and on some occasions, these encounters were not pleasant.

Since Leon defeated most of the Micahs—save for Central Boss— the downfall of the micah family would no doubt be good news to the Jansons, who would from here on out have one less nemesis to deal with, so of course the Jansons would be happy to help!
“Alright then.

I’ll let you handle this, Mr. Janson! I’m afraid I need to go now Without another second’s hesitation Leon!

leaped into his Ear and set off on the trail of Central Boss! As soon as Leon left, Howser directed Isaac to incapacitate some of the Micahs, rendering them defenseless.

Most of the Micahs were still so weak from the injuries they sustained from Leon’s attack that they could not even fight back when isaac fen oved their powers, and there was.

nothing they could do except watch, powerless, as they became prisoners!

All of a sudden, there came the squeal of tires against the asphalt as several luxurious cars screeched to a halt outside the door.

The door of the car in the lead was flung open, and a formidable- looking man in his mid-seventies stepped out, scowling.

This man was none other than Howser's grandfather, the patriarch of the Janson family—Percival Janson.

He rushed over to aid Leon after receiving Howser's call about then situation, at hand; but unbeknownst to him; Leon already left by the time he arrived.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3109—"Grandpa, you're finally here!" Howser was overjoyed to see his grandfather and immediately approached him.

"Howser, didn't you call me here for a rescue mission? What, what happened here?" Percival was in utter disbelief when he arrived at the scene.

Howser sent Severin back to warn Percival of the imminent danger in hopes that he would lead the Jansons over to aid Leon, but who would have thought Leon perfectly capable of taking on the Micahs all by himself? He did not need Percival's help at all, and this was evident in the absolute chaos and disarray that the place was left in, as well as Leon's striking absence from the scene.

Percival did not expect this at all, and he struggled to understand what happened.

"Grandpa, it turns out that Mr.

Wolf is far more powerful than I ever could've imagined.

Not only did the Micahs fail to take him down, but he single-handedly managed to defeat all of them," Howser replied, looking rather sheepish, then proceeded to explain everything that happened to his grandfather.

"What? I can't believe it.

Is he that powerful?" Percival gasped incredulously after hearing Howser recount his tale.

The rest of the Jansons were just as stunned to hear this.

Neither of them would ever imagine that a youngster like Leon would be capable of defeating the entire Micah family and single-handedly leading to their downfall! Neither of them could believe their ears, and if it were not for the fact that they were standing right at the scene, none of them would have believed Howser's story! "Well, Mr.

Wolf had to leave earlier, Grandpa, but he wishes we could help him with handing the Micahs over to the Dragon Corps.

I promised him we'd do as he wishes," Howser added.

"Very well then! If he wishes the Dragon Corps to take over, we shall do as he says! We Jansons have to do good by heroic youngsters like him, for he may very well be the beacon of our future!" Percival replied, nodding in approval.

The rest of the Jansons, under Percival and Howser's lead, began to clear the scene and escorted the Micahs to the Dragon Corps headquarters.

The Jansons were, along with the Chanters and the Suttons, among the three most powerful ancient families in the Central Region.

The Chanters' roots traced further back, giving them significantly more power and influence over the other two, and it was considered public knowledge that the Chanters were the most powerful out of the three.

On the premises of Chanter Mansion was a quaint little cottage tucked in the far corner of the garden, which was where Wulfric Chanter, the patriarch of the Chanter clan, usually spent most of his time meditating.

All of a sudden, a silhouette darted over the garden wall and slipped past the cottage, pausing just a few feet outside of the cottage window.

It was none other than Central Boss, who journeyed here after making his hasty escape.

He approached the cottage door, knocked gently on it, then opened the door and slipped inside.

Wulfric was sitting at a desk in the middle of the room, and perched before him were towering stacks of training method manuals, depicting various martial arts techniques, including those belonging to the ultimate power class, the Advanced Power Class, and even the Preliminary Absolute Methods! The mysterious Brahma, one of the most infamous criminals known to mankind, was none other than Wulfric Chanter himself! The teachings of the Absolute Methods were lost for centuries now, and most of the martial artists in the Central Region, including the members of the three ancient families, practiced the Preliminary Absolute Methods instead. Practicing the Preliminary Absolute Methods would allow one to attain the Semi Saint State, but nothing further, and certainly not until the Saint State.

Wulfric was such an avid practitioner of martial arts that his biggest dream was to develop a new Power Method that was comparable the the m apsolute methods and would ultimately allow him to progress to the Saint state! He also dreamed of creating a new Martial Technique that would allow him to become one of the most powerful practitioners of the Absolute Methods.

To attain this, he sent many of his subordinates—most of them members of the renowned Criminal List themselves—to attain various Martial Techniques belonging to numerous Power Classes to diversify his knowledge.

Many of these Martial Techniques were based on foundations known to martial arts, such as Light Methods, Dark Methods, and the Five Elements.

He aimed to gather as much and as diverse information as possible to develop an all-new Martial Technique that would enable him to become the most powerful martial artist the world had ever seen! After decades of hard work, he finally began to see the light at the end of the tunnel.

About six months ago, he not only managed to develop new training methods belonging to the Absolute Methods but even successfully attained the Saint state!

Unfortunately, Martial Techniques belonging to the Earth class were far harder to come by than their Power Methods, and as a result, he was yet to be able to create Martial Techniques for the Absolute Methods.

For the past six months, he had buried himself in books and ancient scrolls, eager to achieve his second dream of developing Martial techniques belonging to the Absolute Methods! Once he successfully attained this goal, it would not be long before the Chanters demolished their enemies and dominated the world!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3110-Who's out there?" Wulfric overheard the scuffling outside his door and immediately put down the books which he was burying his head in just a few seconds prior.

He glanced sharply in the direction of the door, just in time to see Central Boss tumbling into his house, looking alarmed.

"It is I, Master Brahma..." Central Boss said, hastily disguising his nervousness and instead bowing low to show his respect towards Wulfric.

"It's you, Central Boss! What brings you here all of a sudden?" Wulfric replied, his brows furrowed in slight annoyance.

Central Boss was one of his clones that he spent decades nurturing, and was usually in charge of overseeing his other subordinates while they helped him get his hands on the Martial Techniques and Power Methods he needed.

With Central Boss' help, he managed to evade the Dragon Corps' capture all these years, providing an alias that would rid the Chanters of any suspicion of criminal activity.

Because of this, he also rarely reached out to Central Boss, for fear that someone would discover his true identity.

Knowing this, Central Boss also stayed away, only seeking his help when it was necessary to avoid bringing the Chanters any trouble.

The fact that Central Boss showed up without warning meant that something terrible happened, and his suspicions were confirmed by the panicked look on Central His's face! However, he could not, for the life of him, figure out what could have possibly caused such a scare! "Master Brahma, something terrible has happened! That Leon Wolf fellow—the one who killed the Scarlet Thief, the Demon Lord and many more—has arrived in the Central Region searching for me! He cornered me and the Micahs, and managed to defeat US...

"I only managed to get away in time..." Central Boss then launched into an explanation of everything that occurred.

"What?" Wulfric was so stunned to hear this that he immediately leaped to his feet in outrage.

Although he never met Leon before, he heard of Leon's name, though briefly, through both Hades and Central Boss' accounts.

Leon not only single-handedly slaughtered most of the criminals on the infamous Criminal List, but even injured Central Boss when he ambushed him in the Southern Region a few days ago.

Ever since then, Wulfric was wary of this young man, yet aware of the fact that he had to kill Leon somehow and rid himself of such a pesky nuisance! The truth was, he was contemplating the idea of visiting the Southern Region to kill Leon once and for all, but he never once expected Leon to show up in the Central Region of his own accord, and even seek out Central Boss by himself! Not only that, but he severely injured Central Boss and defeated most of the Micahs!

After recovering from his brief moment of shock, Wulfric was soon overcome by a wave of anger.

He could not believe the audacity of this Leon Wolf fellow—how dare he show up and wreak such havoc in his territory? "Master Brahma, Leon Wolf has destroyed my family and the empire I have spent decades building.

You have to avenge me..." Central Boss hissed through gritted teeth, his eyes ablaze with hatred and white-hot fury.

"I understand, Central Boss! Don't worry, you can stay here with me while you recover from your injuries, and I'll send someone else to track him down instead.

Once I discover his hideout, I will kill him myself!" Wulfric replied coldly, a malicious glint flashing through his eyes.

As eager as he was to carry out this bloodshed, he could not act out of haste, because he knew too little about his opponent.

As much as he wanted to avenge Central Boss, he could only do so after attaining more information about Leon including his hideout!

Aside from that, he could not risk exposing himself to the Dragon Corps, so he had to tread carefully.

His best bet was to track Leon down, then deliberately steer the Dragon Corps away while he killed this twat Leon wolf, his only remaining obstacle in his path to success, and he would kill him at all costs!
