

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 336

Chapter 336

“Joey’s client is a wealthy young man. He’s young, and his family is worth tens of millions. Joey and I wanted to introduce Janice to him...”

“What do you two think?” Mindy explained the situation.

“Really? That’s great!” Booth Horace and Leanne were incredibly excited.

In their eyes, a family with tens of millions was the mega-rich.

Even though the two of them never put their hopes on their daughter marrying into a rich family, they would naturally want to give it a try when there was a chance right in front of them.

If their daughter was lucky enough to be fancied by the other party, would her fortunes not instantly turn?!

“Uncle, Auntie, so the two of you agree?” Mindy said happily.

“Yes, of course, we do,” Both Horace and Leanne nodded.

“No! Mindy, thank you for thinking about me, but I don’t want to be matchmade like that!” Janice was shocked and hurriedly rejected it.

Even though matchmaking was not something that was out of the ordinary, it was not like the two of them had any emotional bases.

She was not that old either, and she did not lack in men trying to pursue her, so she could not accept it at all.

If they insisted on something like that, she would rather go with Leon. At the very least, both of them knew each other very well.

The moment that idea even sprang up, Janice was shocked. She hurriedly pushed the idea down, feeling like she was nagged by her mother too much. Otherwise, how could she have thought of Leon?

“Why not? You don’t have a boyfriend right now. Why don’t you just give it a try?!” Leanne said unhappily.

“That’s right! Janice, both Joey and I are just introducing you to each other. Whether or not it’ll go well is uncertain. If you don’t like the guy, then you can just come up with an excuse to reject him,” Mindy said.

“But...” Janice was still hesitant.

There’s nothing to be concerned about. Let’s just do it!” Leanne said decisively.

“Alright then...”

Janice felt helpless when she saw that her mother already made the decision. She was forced to accept it.

“Uncle, Auntie, Joey has already reserved a room. Once Mister Wyatt is here, we’ll have a meal together to get to know each other. That’s all we need to do.”

“As for Janice’s classmate, can you please leave!”

Mindy looked at Leon and tried to chase Leon away.

Since this was a blind date arranged for Janice, it was not appropriate for Leon to stay there.

“Alright then, Mister and Missus Lynch, Janice, I’ll take my leave.”

It was Janice’s private affair and had nothing to do with Leon. He wisely prepared to leave.

“No, Leon can’t go! If he leaves, then I won’t agree to this!” Janice hurriedly grabbed Leon’s arm with a determined look on her face.

Leon came specifically to give her some cosmetics. If he left without even a meal, then she would be too ashamed to even meet Leon anymore in the future.

“Why would you want him around if you’re meeting a guy...”

Leanna was very angry.

“He’s my good friend. I want him to keep an eye out for me!” Leanna shot Leon a look.

Hearing Janice’s words, Leon felt like it was a reasonable idea, so he temporarily forgot about leaving.

“Auntie, it’s fine. Since Janice is so insistent, let her classmate stay. He’s just one person anyway. It’s fine as long as he doesn’t cause any trouble,” Mindy said after thinking about it.
