

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 346

Chapter 346

Then, if Theodore used some of his connections, Leon might even end up being in jail for a long time!

“Janice, don’t worry. Let him call the police if he wants to! I want to see if he’s capable enough to twist the truth like that!” Leon smiled in disdain.

The law was not a toy. The police had to act as they should, and could not arrest anyone just because they wanted to.

Theodore’s words were just enough to scare commoners like Janice, it could not scare him at all!

Furthermore, he had some connections himself. If Theodore wanted to pull something in the dark, he would just be asking for his death!

“Brat, I already gave you a chance. Since you’re not willing to accept it, then don’t blame me!” Theodore prepared to call the police, wanting to make Leon taste the consequences of going against him!

Right at that moment, footsteps could suddenly be heard, interrupting what Theodore did.

“Who’s causing trouble in my hotel? How dare you?!”

An angry shout could be heard.

Right after that, a fierce-looking man in a suit who looked to be in his forties led five able-bodied men into the room.

Leon’s fight with the bodyguards destroyed the room door, and it started the hotel’s employees.

The middle-aged man got reports from them that someone caused trouble, so he immediately hurried over with a few subordinates.

“Who’s the one who broke the door? Come out right now!”

The middle-aged man sneered as his fierce gaze looked at everyone there. He had a murderous intent in his eyes that instilled fear.

Feeling the terrifying aura the man gave out, Leanne, Janice, and the others could not help but shudder, not daring to meet the man’s eyes.

Only Leon and Theodore were exceptions.

Leon was strong and bold, he was naturally not afraid of the man.

Meanwhile, Theodore was arrogant and felt like everyone was beneath him. Others might have been afraid of the man’s murderous aura, but he was not!

“It was my bodyguards who broke the door! It’s just a broken door, what’s so impressive about it? I’ll just pay you back for it!” Theodore said dismissively.

He could see that everyone seemed afraid of that middle-aged man, so he deliberately tried to show off a little, wanting to impress Janice!

If Janice saw how fearless he was, she might start liking him more. After that, she would leave Leon and jump into his arms!

Smack!

The moment Theodore said that a clear slap could be heard. The middle-aged man stepped forward and sent a vicious slap on his face.

“Who do you think you are, acting so arrogantly in front of me? Are you sick of living?!” The middle-aged man shouted coldly.

Theodore was stunned. He clutched his face in one hand and was filled with disbelief.

After that, he shouted angrily, “How dare you hit me? Do you know who I am...”

Smack!

Before Theodore could finish, the middle-aged man gave him another slap.

That slap was several times and it sent two of Leon’s teeth flying. His face was bleeding.

“If you don’t clean your mouth up, I’ll smack your mouth rotten!” The man looked at Theodore coldly. “You...” Theodore started to feel afraid and no longer acted arrogantly.
