

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 355

Chapter 355

Everything destroyed him mentally.

“What a weak character! There’s no point in you begging!” Fane looked at Theodore in disdain.

Initially, he thought that Theodore should have been someone with some backbone to dare to go against Leon.

He never expected Theodore to be so weak!

The underworld always respected those with resolve. If Theodore had more of a backbone, Fane might have looked upon Theodore better.

Looking at how Theodore acted, he felt even more contempt.

Seeing that Fane was not moved by it at all, Theodore felt a chill in his heart.

However, he had an idea in his panic. He quickly realized who the key figure in this whole affair was. Fane acted because of Leon, so the real person who held the Wyatt Group in his hands was Leon!

“Mister Wolf, I was blind just now and kept offending you. I apologize to you. Please show some mercy and forgive me...”

Theodore hurriedly knelt in front of Leon, constantly pleading.

For the sake of the company and his life of luxury, he no longer cared about his dignity as a man. He pleaded incredibly hard, not even caring about how he looked.

“I swear that I'll keep my distance from Miss Janice in the future. I won't ever have any thoughts for her, and won't pester her,” Theodore hurriedly assured.

He had a conflict with Leon precisely because of Janice.

After witnessing Leon's tremendous power, capable of determining the life or death of his family's company with just a word, he realized how stupid he was to fight over a woman with Leon!

Even if he had ten times the guts, he would never even think about being with Jancie anymore.

Witnessing that scene, Leanne, Mindy, and the others were shocked.

They never would have dreamed that Theodore who they regarded as so rich and powerful would be kneeling in front of Leon!

Meanwhile, Leon, who they thought was an orphan with nothing at all, suddenly turned into a powerful person.

What was even more of a joke was the fact that they constantly mocked Leon so much for the sake of Theodore. All of them looked down on Leon.

The cruel truth slapped them in the face!

Leon, who they looked down upon so much, had Theodore's company in his hands. His power and ability were so much more than Theodore's. It exceeded what they could even imagine!

Suddenly, they were feeling very anxious, not knowing what to do.

Leanne had an especially sour expression on her face.

Leon was so much better than the arrogant Theodore in every way, whether it was power, humility, or looks.

Yet, she looked down on someone as excellent as Leon for the sake of gaining Theodore's favor, trying to set her daughter up with Theodore.

Was there something wrong with her head?

If Leon hated her for that and decided to break up with her daughter, would she not have ruined her daughter's happiness?

Thinking about that, she felt like slapping herself on the face!

“Mister Wolf, please let me off. Let the Wyatt Group off this one time,” Theodore continued to beg.

“That...” Leon stopped at that.

He just wanted to teach Theodore a lesson with a light punishment. Ruining the whole company was a little too much.
