

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 363

Chapter 363

Horace was stunned. He knew that there was no way his wife lied, and he started to get anxious as well.

“No matter who did it, let’s hurry up and report this to the police!” Leanne hurriedly took out her phone and prepared to call the police.

“No, we can’t tell the police!” Horace stopped Leanne in panic.

“Why can’t we call the police? Your daughter’s already been kidnapped. It gets more dangerous every minute. Are you just going to let your daughter suffer and not do anything?” Leanne was furious. She almost slapped Horace in the face.

“Leanne, calm down!”

“If the other side is some violent thugs, then Janice will be in even more danger if we call the police and scare them!” Horace hurriedly explained.

He was a man in the end and was calmer than Leanne at the moment. He thought things through even more.

“That…”

Leanne was stunned. She knew that her husband was being reasonable.

In many movies and dramas, after the kidnappers got their target, they would end up killing the hostage if the police were involved and they had no other choice.

If they reported this to the police, the thugs could very well harm Janice’s life to protect themselves if they found out!

“What do we do now? We have no money or power, and we have no connections. What do we do if we don’t report this to the police?” Leanne was even more panicked. She felt incredibly hopeless and did not know what to do.

There was no way she would just let her daughter die!

“Don’t panic! Even though we have no power, Leon’s very capable! We can ask him for help. He might have a way!” Horace immediately thought of Leon.

“That’s right, how could I forget Leon?!” Leanne realized. She was very emotional, but she quickly thought. of something. Her expression stiffened, “But we don’t have Leon’s contact. How do we get him to help?”

“It’s fine, Janice left in a hurry, I don’t think she brought her phone. She might have Leon’s contact… If it really won’t do, we can go to the hotel to look for Horsen. He has a way to contact Leon,” Horace consoled.

“There’s no need for that, I’ve already found Janice’s phone!” Leanne walked to the living room and quickly saw Janice’s phone on the coffee table. After that, she hurriedly found Leon’s number and called Leon.

At Dragonbay Villas, Louisa pulled Leona and Iris into the room and prepared to train.

Ring ring!

Right at that moment, Leon’s phone suddenly rang. He took it out and saw Janice’s number.

“Hello, Janice, you…”

Before Leon could even say anything, he was interrupted by Leanne’s voice.

“Leon, it’s me, Janice was kidnapped by thugs…”

Leanne hurriedly told Leon everything.

”

“What?” Leon was shocked, and his expression immediately sank.

“Leon, please. You have to figure out a way to save Janice!” Leanne pleaded. She sounded like she was about to cry.

“Mrs. Lynch, don’t worry. Janice’s my best friend. I won’t let anything happen to her!” Leon said firmly.

In college, Janice was the only person willing to get close to him. She helped him a lot, and he always looked at Janice with gratitude.

Spread the love