

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 365

Chapter 365

"I don't mind if you want to play around a bit, but you'd better clean up after yourself. Don't leave any evidence. If the police are alerted, it won't do us any good!" Xander did not forget to say.

They lived in a lawful society, and the internet and media were incredibly quick to expose anything. Even the four great families and the two kings were not able to stop everything!

There was no way Xander and Brody could either!

If Brody ended up leaving any evidence because of his lust, then the results would be disastrous!

"Don't worry, I've already thought of everything. There won't be any evidence..."

Brody slapped his chest in guarantee before he told Xander his plan.

"Good idea! I won't disturb you then. Go and enjoy yourself!" Xander laughed as he shot Brody a thumbs-up before he got up to leave the living room.

Leon was the only target the Sullivans were paying him for.

As for Janice, he did not care how Brody wanted to deal with her!

It was fine as long as it did not ruin their plans!

In the room, Janice's hands were both tied up. She shrunk to the side of the bed with a pale look on her face.

She knew that she was kidnapped, and was incredibly anxious and scared. She was worried about what waited for her.

At that moment, she heard some footsteps.

Brody pushed the door open and walked right inside.

"It's you!" Janice was shocked when she saw Brody's face.

She met Brody when Leon had that conflict with him in the mall. She knew that Brody was the heir of Sullivan Enterprises.

Back then, she wondered why anyone would kidnap her when her family had no money.

She finally understood. Brody was the mastermind behind everything!

Brody probably had her kidnapped to deal with Leon!

"That's right, it's me! Pretty girl, I bet you didn't think we'd meet again so quickly?" Brody had an ill-intentioned smile on as he walked in front of Janice.

"W-what are you trying to do?" Janice jumped at Brody's tone, feeling a sense of uneasiness..

"We're a man and a woman in a room alone, and you're so beautiful. What do you think I'll do?" Brody smiled as his sinister gaze shifted all over Janice's beautiful face and gorgeous figure. He had a greedy look on his face.

"H-how dare you?!" Janice's expression changed immediately, understanding what Brody meant.

He did not plan on targeting Leon but even doing something to her.

"Why wouldn't I dare?" Brody held Janice's chin and lifted it.

After that, he seemed to think of something. He looked at Janice and said with a strange look, "Could you be a virgin?"

"W-what does it have to do with you?!" Janice's face was completely reddened. She turned away, moving away from Brody's hand.

Yet, her hands and legs were tied up. She could do nothing, or she would have already slapped Brody.

"It's true!" Brody was stunned. Janice's embarrassed demeanor had to mean that she was a virgin!

"Haha, Leon oh Leon. Your wife was a virgin, and even your girlfriend is too!"

Spread the love