

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 373

Read The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 373

The first thing he felt after coming to was an excruciating pain shooting through his lower body, and he immediately recalled his humiliating encounter with Leon.

“Mister Long, please help me take revenge on that wretched Leon Wolf! I want to see him fall!” Brody shrieked at the top of his lungs, baring his teeth in sheer rage.

He knew that Xander did not dare act rashly because he was still in Leon's hands, and now that he was safe and out of danger, Brody was certain that Xander would be able to defeat Leon easily!

When that happened, he would skin Leon alive and turn him into minced meat, even at the risk of being convicted of murder, to fulfill his vengeance!

“Master Long, we're rooting for you!”

“Yes, kill him!”

Xander's subordinates cheered for him so loudly that their cries almost blew the roof off.

They knew that Xander's combat skills were not to be underestimated, as he was one of the most experienced martial artists to walk this earth, and a nobody like Leon would stand a chance against him!

“I can say the same for you!” Leon scoffed and swung his fists back in anticipation to meet Xander's attack.

“Why, you're not even a real martial artist! What a joker!” Xander burst into laughter as a glimmer of malice flashed through his eyes.

He could not feel any true energy coursing through Leon's body at all, and this made him feel even more contemptuous of his opponent.

Despite that, however, he did not show even a single ounce of mercy in his pursuits, and was still determined to finish Leon in one blow!

Brody and the rest of the men watched intently at the fight playing out before them.

All of them agreed that it was foolish of Leon to step up against Xander, and Xander would probably snap his arm in half!

“Thud!”

Leon and Xander's fists met with a loud crunch.

However, to everyone's surprise, Leon's arm was unscathed, and instead, Xander's entire body flew backward as though he was struck by a gust of wind.

Xander's body landed on the ground, hard, and he spat out a mouthful of blood from the impact. His arm landed limply by his side in a contorted angle, and it was clear his arm was broken from the energy of Leon's blow.

“How... how can this be?” Xander was astounded by this.

Even Brody and the rest could not believe their eyes. None of them ever imagined that instead of Leon, their much-admired master Xander Long would be the defeated party!

This was an extremely earth-shattering revelation!

If they did not witness that for themselves, they would probably never believe this could happen!

“How can this be...” Xander was speechless.

When he met Leon in combat, he could not feel even an ounce of true energy from Leon at all, which meant Leon was not a proper martial artist, but Leon's strength far surpassed his, to the extent that he broke his arm with just one punch.

This was unbelievable!

“You dumbass—didn't I try to warn you not to do that? I told you that Mister Wolf is a Supreme Master and can crush you like an ant, but you were arrogant and didn't believe me! Well, do you believe me now?” Mason cackled when he saw this but did not flinch or even falter in his steps. Instead, he continued fighting the two men as though he took a stroll in the park.
