

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 386

Read The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 386

The energy center was the core of a martial artist's training, and to lose it was to lose all ounces of their power and hereby become an ordinary person.

Leon did not want to kill Xander; all he wanted to do was take away Xander's energy center and render him powerless, but still alive.

This was the best he could do!

"Mason, send both of them to the hospital and make sure nothing happens to them," he ordered.

Both Brody and Xander were injured by him and needed urgent treatment. If they did not go to a hospital immediately, something terrible would happen, and he did not need the police on his trail at this time.

"Yes." Mason gestured for a few of his men to follow him, then left with Brody and Xander.

"Mister Poole, Mister Shears, and you, too, Iris; thank you all for your help. I wouldn't have been able to do this without you." Leon did not forget about thanking his friends.

"You're too kind, Mister Wolf. This is the least I can do for you after how you helped my family," Harvey replied, smiling.

Cynthia, on the other hand, was far less humble than her brother. A sly expression crossed her face as she said, "Leon, if you want to thank me, you can give me another two sets of Elegante Group's products that you previously gifted me. They work absolute wonders!"

"No problem," Leon replied, nodding.

A split second later, he realized that Iris's expression was a little dark.

The skincare products that he gifted Cynthia were a part of Elegante Group's property and thus, belonged to Iris as well. Even though a mere few sets of her product would not amount to much less, and Iris would not reprimand Leon for something as small as this, she still could not help feeling a little annoyed by this.

Leon used her products to butter Cynthia up, and of course, she would be displeased—Cynthia was a beautiful woman, arguably as pretty as she was!

"Leon, you've always been so kind to me. Thank you so much." Cynthia gave him a charming smile, then turned around and shot Iris a triumphant look behind Leon's back.

Leon managed to win her heart ever since he rescued her from her accidental overdose of the Energy Nurturing Pills, and since then, she developed feelings toward him.

However, she knew full well that Leon was in love with Iris, so naturally, she felt a little uneasy to see Iris. show up here, so much so that the thought of stealing Leon away from Iris crossed her mind.

However, on second thought, she knew that she could not do that. For one, she did not want to risk angering Leon and resulting in the disruption of their friendship.

Secondly, she was a prideful woman and could not bring herself to stoop so low as to steal someone else's ' boyfriend'.

Therefore, the only thing she could do to ease her anger was to provoke Iris while she had the chance.

Iris scowled at this. She had a sharp intuition and immediately understood what Cynthia tried to do!

In the past, Leon was nothing more than a divorcee with nothing under his name in her eyes, and she always treated him as just a friend.

However, their encounter at the cinema made her realize that she could not seem to go a day without thinking of him.

To her surprise, however, she seemed to have many competitors; Leon seemed to be close with Janice, and now, even Cynthia appeared to be interested in him too.

Spread the love