

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 561-570

Iris was at the top of the four great beauties of Springfield City. She was always been pure and untouchable, and was practically a goddess in the eyes of the rich elite!

Yet, their goddess was taken by Leon, an orphan divorcee!

It completely changed their world. The shock in their eyes was evident!

On the other side, Leon saw Louisa and Iris as well.

It was the first time Leon saw Iris since he broke up with her. He felt a complicated wave of emotions. There was sadness, frustration, and even pleasant surprise.

After all, Iris was the woman he loved the most. Even in the past few days, he found himself unable to forget about her.

Seeing Iris after a few days, the feelings of longing surged into his mind again. He felt somewhat emotional, and even started to wonder if Iris would change her mind about him after having a few days to calm down!

However, when Iris stated that they broke up, it was like a bucket of cold water over his head. His heart turned cold, and all of that excitement and happiness vanished!

“Leon, it’s been a while!” Louisa looked happy when she saw Leon. She waved and ran over to Leon.

“Louisa, why are you here?” Leon forced out a smile and said.

Ever since he was kicked out by the Youngs, he lost any feeling of good will toward the Youngs, especially Elder Young and Gilbert.

However, Louisa was the only exception.

Even though Louisa was a devil of a girl who was incredibly hard to deal with, she was always a straightforward person who treated him quite well. She even voiced out the injustice of it all after the matter.

No matter how much he hated the Youngs, it would not affect Louisa at all!

“Oh, my grandfather and uncle wanted to bring Iris here to cheer her up. I happened to not have any today, so I followed her here,” Louisa let out a cheeky smile.

classes

In truth, Iris did not want to bring Louisa over, but she kept on insisting . Iris only agreed after giving up.

“Louisa, come over right now!” Iris shouted. She looked at Leon with a complicated expression.

Their feelings were something between the two of them. After going through so much with Leon, she was head over heels for him. It was out of her control.

After the two of them broke up, Leon was not the only one who was sad. She was sad as well, and maybe even more so than Leon!

Whether it was at the company or home, there were traces of Leon every where.

Every moment she went through, she would constantly think about Leon . She even went through some sleepless nights. She wanted nothing more than to forget everything and look for Leon, jumping back into Leon's arms.

However, when she thought about Leon having ill intentions for the Youngs, she regained her calm. She even silently warned herself. No matter how much she loved Leon, she could not destroy the whole family just for her love!

“I'm not! Iris, it's just a misunderstanding between the two of you. Why are you so stubborn? Why can't you trust him?” Louisa did not give up.

“Louisa, stop causing trouble!”

At that moment, Elder Young, Gilbert, and a few of the Youngs' experts walked over from behind.

Elder Young scoffed coldly. He had an impressive aura about him, giving out a lot of pressure.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 562

The rich young men around him were scared away by Elder Young, and they could not help but take a step.

back.

Louisa was afraid of nothing, except her grandfather. She shut her mouth and reluctantly walked over, cursing her grandfather softly for being a stubborn old coot.

Thankfully, she was very soft, and only Leon heard her.

Otherwise, Elder Young would have been infuriated by her!

“Leon, I heard you’re the president’s assistant in Cythion right now! I can’t believe you turned around and ran to the Shears right after you left us! You are quite good at cozying up to others!” Gilbert said with a mocking laugh.

“So he’s Cynthia’s assistant!”

The men around them realized something, finally understanding Leon’s relationship with Cynthia.

However, they still did not know what happened between Leon and Iris.

“Mister Young, you don’t have to speak so snidely. I don’t mind telling you. Leon isn’t something as simple as the president’s assistant of Cythion Group!” Cynthia’s expression was cold as she walked over.

She was of course referring to Gilbert.

At that moment, Elder Young already took a backseat to things, and most of the family’s matters were given to Gilbert to manage. Gilbert was the chairman of the Young Group.

“Oh, is that so? Then who else is he?” Gilbert was curious.

The others looked at Cynthia curiously as well, not understanding Cynthia’s words.

“You’ll know who he is very soon!” Cynthia did not give a straight answer. It was still not the time for them to formally announce who Leon was. She was in no hurry.

“You’re just trying to twist the truth! Miss Shear, I should give you a warning. Leon is an ambitious little wolf, he doesn’t have good intentions

! If the Shears had to have him around, just don't be surprised if he bites back and swallows you up one day!" Gilbert said with a sneer.

"Haha!"

A cold laugh was heard at that moment. Benedict walked over with Harvey and a few of their family experts.

"Mister Young, thank you for your warning. However, I have something to tell you too. The Youngs chasing Leon away was the worst decision! Of course, if you didn't do that, we wouldn't have managed to gain so much. I should be thanking a ll of you," Benedict said with a smile.

Even though the Shears were already working with Leon before, Leon refused to take charge of the Cythion Group to stay by Iris's side.

With Leon's abilities, if Leon stayed with Iris and they got married, the Youngs would just have to tug at Leon slightly, and they would have been the biggest winners. The Shears would just have scraps.

However, Benedict never expected that they would kick Leon out, giving Leon over to the Shears.

It was just an incredibly amazing thing. He almost laughed in his sleep a few times!

"The wrong decision? Why don't I think so?!" Gilbert snorted, not caring much about what Benedict said at all.

"Elder Shear, your family treats a piece of trash from the Youngs like such a treasure? It looks like the Shears have fallen!"

With a laugh, Walter led Theodore and a few of their men over.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 563

Walter heard everything that was said between Gilbert and Benedict just now. He even heard from Theodore that Leon was the one who foiled Theodore's kidnapping of Cynthia before. He even injured Theodore after that.

Since Leon was an enemy of the Fields, he would naturally not bother currying favor with Leon!

"Elder Fields, I don't know if our family has fallen or not, but I know something very well. If we manage to grow strong, then your family will have nowhere to go!" Benedict had a sharp glint in his eyes.

The Shears and the Fields were always enemies. Furthermore, Theodore sent men to attack Cynthia not too long ago. There was no way he could just accept that!

However, the Fields were at about the same level as the Shears, so he could do nothing about it at the moment.

If Leon helped them and the Shears ended up growing stronger than the Fields, he would not let them off easily!

Walter ignored Benedict and turned to look at Leon. he unleashed a strong aura as he said coldly, "Brat, you dared to make an enemy of our family. I'll remember this! Let's see how long the Shears can protect you. We'll see if they can keep you safe your whole life!"

How strong!

Leon was shocked to feel the massive pressure behind Walter.

Even though his skills were already at the level of an intermediate Supreme Master, Walter was still one of the greatest figures in Springfield City. His strength was unfathomable.

Even if Walter just unleashed a bit of pressure, Leon still suddenly found it hard to breathe.

Thankfully, Benedict quickly unleashed a similarly strong power, shielding him from Walter.

“Elder Fields, this is our territory. It’s not the place for you to show off!” Benedict sneered as his power clashed against Walter’s. The two of them looked at each other, and there seemed to be intense sparks between them!

“Haha!”

“Elder Shear, Elder Fields, the two of you are the heads of two of the four great families. What’s the point of fighting over a nameless little person? Aren’t you worried you’ll be laughed at?!” George laughed as he walked over with the Collins.

Other than Anson, there was another incredibly beautiful girl in red next to him. That was the genius of their martial arts, Ruth.

“Hmph!”

Both Benedict and Walter scoffed as they turned away.

“Leon, I can’t believe we meet again! You had the Shears and the Youngs behind you last time, so I couldn’t do anything to you. Let’s see if you still have the ability to fight me now!” Anson sneered.

He heard about Leon breaking up with Iris earlier.

He was always one of Iris’s pursuers, and he noticed that Leon’s relationship with Iris was not just a normal friendship before this. Iris finally leaving Leon was amazing news for him. His smile was incredibly wide!

“Mister Collins is right!”

“Leon, you’ve constantly gone against the Lowes. Without the Youngs to protect you, I’ll make sure you die! “A cold and sinister laugh could be heard. Jacob walked over with his father, Harold with some subordinates behind them.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 564

“The Fields? The Collins? The Lowes?”

“Didn’t Mister Young say that he was just a president’s assistant in Cyntion group?”

“How did a mere assistant offend so many big figures?!”

Everyone was stunned at the scene.

Even Elder Young and Gilbert were shocked!

They knew who Leon was the best. Both of them never expected that Leon could even manage to offend so many of the major families!

Was that not too unbelievable?

It was not something just anyone could do!

“Leon, you are something else! Not only did you make an enemy out of us, but you also managed to offend the Collins and the Lowes as well. I don’t know where you get your courage from!” Theodore was caught off guard. He was very surprised as well.

He was never someone particularly close to Anson or Jacob. He did not know what happened with Xander back then.

“Leon, after this sales drive is over, we’ll settle the score with you! You’ll be dying very soon!” Jacob had a fierce look on his face.

He faced Leon quite a few times in recent times. Every single time, he lost to Leon. He already hated Leon to the bone!

If the sales drive was not so important, he would have attacked Leon on the spot!

“Jacob, do you think you’re worthy of doing that? If you want to touch Leon, you’d have to go through us first!” A beautiful voice was heard. She now arrived with her father Vincent and a few experts.

“The Southern King, Vincent!”

Harold’s eyes had a fire in them as he looked over at Vincent.

The two kings were always enemies.

The two of them were incredibly angered when they saw each other. A terrifying aura was unleashed by both of them.

“Vincent, are you trying to go against me?” Harold said coldly.

“What? Were my daughter’s words not clear? Harold Lowe, Leon has greatly helped our family. His enemies are my enemies! If you have the skills, then come at me. Don’t try to touch someone from the younger generation!” Vincent said coldly.

The tension between the two of them were incredible, but a sudden laughter was heard.

“Wow, it’s quite rowdy here!” Bernard Wick was laughing as he walked over with Jenson and some of their family’s men.

“Mister Wolf, it’s been a while,” Jenson smiled and greeted Leon.

“Yes, it’s been a long time,” Leon nodded and greeted me in a friendly manner.

He already knew that the Wicks were a major family, so he was not surprised that Bernard and Jenson were there.

“Leon, it’s just been a couple of months, how did you end up offending so many major families?” Bernard had a curious expression on his face when he saw the tense atmosphere.

“That’s hard to explain,” Leon smiled wryly.

Cynthia and he just wanted to make a bigger spectacle of this sales drive. He never expected that there would be such a huge commotion before the sales drive even started.

“Whatever, you saved this old life of mine. No matter who you offended, the Wicks will always support you unconditionally!” Bernard said calmly.

Even though the Wicks were not at the level of the four great families, they were not that much different. He was not at the level where he needed to be scared of them!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 565

Furthermore, Leon saved his life before. That was something he could not repay, so he would not just leave Leon to suffer!

The moment he said that, everyone was shocked.

“The Shears? The Wicks? Even the Southern King, Vincent?”

“This guy is just an assistant, how could he be supported by three major forces?!”

“What’s happening in the world? Are they all crazy?”

Everyone was stunned. They looked at each other in shock!

Even though Leon offended three major families, he suddenly got the support of another three!

It would be one thing if Leon was a notable figure in Springfield City, but Leon was just the president’s assistant at Cynthion Group. He was even an orphan!

An orphan managed to cause such a huge scene among so many major families. Was that not unbelievable?

If they were not witnessing it for themselves, they would not dare to believe it was real!

Of course, they were not the only ones who were shocked. Elder Young and Gilbert were even more shocked!

The two of them already knew that Leon was a powerless orphan. They had a negative view of Leon and even chase Leon out primarily because they looked down on Leon, never regarding Leon as anyone worth their notice.

Yet, Leon demonstrated connections that deeply shocked them!

They suddenly started to wonder if they underestimated Leon!

Before everyone could even get over their shock, another voice was suddenly heard.

“Don’t forget the Hunts. The Hunts will unconditionally support Mister Wolf as well!” Quinton said proudly. He had his two guards behind him and a few of his family’s experts.

“The Hunts?”

“I’ve never heard of the Hunts before!”

“Who are they?”

Everyone was shocked as they looked at Quinton. Quinton’s group seemed very unfamiliar, so everyone was uncertain.

“Quinton Hunt from Seacove City!” Quinton said loudly, announcing who he was.

“Seacove City’s Hunts? So he’s the new head of the Hunts, Quinton!”

Everyone was shocked, immediately guessing who Quinton was.

Seacove City was next to Springfield City. The two cities had regular business deals. The Hunts were one of the three great families of Seacove City, and immensely powerful. All of them had more or less heard of the Hunts before.

Quite a few of them heard that Quinton assumed the position of the head of the Hunts.

As the head of the Hunts, Quinton's position represented the whole family!

“Why is a force from Seacove City coming over here?”

“They even said that they would support Leon unconditionally. What's happening?”

The Youngs, the Fields, the Collins, and the Lowes all had a sudden change in expression.

In their eyes, Leon should have been an insignificant person. The fact that Leon was supported by three major forces already exceeded their expectations.

Yet, Leon suddenly even had the support of the Hunts from Seacove City. It was completely different.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 566

Not only was Leon incredibly well connected in Springfield City, but he was also even able to form a relationship with the major families outside of Springfield City, managing to gain their support.

Even the four great families were not able to do that, but Leon did!

The shock in their hearts was evident!

“Mister Wolf, I hope I’m not late,” Quinton smiled and bowed to Leon respectfully.

In Seacove City, he already represented the Hunts in obtaining an agreement with Cynthion Group for the Energy Nurturing Pills. Since Cynthion Group made a second batch of the pills, he came to obtain them based on their agreement.

“No, the sales drive hasn’t started yet. You came at the right time,” Leon said with a smile.

Seeing that, The Fields, the Collins, and the Lowes had dark expressions on their faces.

“Even if the Hunts are strong in Seacove City, don’t think you can do whatever you want in Springfield City!” Walter said coldly. He did not view Quinton and the Hunts as a threat. They were not worthy.

“Elder Fields, you don’t have to act like you’re so amazing! Currently, it’s four to three. If you want to, go ahead and try something! Let’s see how capable you are!” Benedict laughed and said.

Even though the Hunts were not based in Springfield City, Quinton brought quite a few of their experts over. It would serve a purpose if it came to it!

It was obvious which side was stronger!

“You!” Walter’s expression turned sour. He knew that his side was not at an advantage as well. He shot Elder Young a look.

“Elder Young, you should say something too!” Walter said.

He already allied with the Youngs. As long as the Youngs stood with him and it became four against four, his side would have the advantage. They would be able to push down Leon and the Shears!

“That-”

Of course, Elder Young understood what he wanted. Elder Young cursed internally. They allied to get the alchemist behind the Shears, not for Leon!

What was Walter trying to do?!

Even though the Youngs' relationship with Leon was already ruined, Leon still saved his life before. He could not help the Fields against Leon, and did not need to!

“Elder Fields, we all came here today to take part in Cythion Group's sales drive. We're all just joking around. We should stop here. There's no need to take it seriously!” Elder Young laughed to dispel the tension.

Seeing as Elder Young was not going to join this altercation, George immediately reacted, “Elder Young is right. Elder Shear, we were just joking around, don't pay it too much mind. I think it's getting quite late. You should probably go focus on your sales drive!”

George let out a laugh.

Even though Anson had a small conflict with Leon before, they never really fought each other. The Collins did not need to fight the Shears just for that!

The Fields and the Lowes had the deepest grudge against Leon. The two of them were a bit unhappy, but there was nothing they could do since the Collins stepped down. They were forced to back down as well.

In truth, the two sides were just trying to pressure the other.

Even if there were any grudges between them, there was no way they could resolve them in it this place. It was even less likely that they would resolve it head-on like this!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 567

It was just a game between each other!

Since the other side backed down, Benedict and Leon backed off as well. There was no need to pursue the matter.

“Cynthia, all the major families are mostly here already. We should start the sales drive!” Benedict said. After that, he went toward the main area with Leon and the others.

The Fields and the others continued to gather outside of the main area.

Not too long after that, the sales drive formally started.

Cynthia stepped on the stage in an incredibly expensive dress.

She looked incredibly beautiful. With that dress, it accentuated her looks even more, making her look incredibly noble.

She was like a goddess that descended on earth.

Suddenly, everyone was looking at her, and the crowd fell silent.

“Thank you all for attending Cythion Group’s sales drive.”

Cynthia started to say a few words to start the occasion. Her voice was incredibly melodious.

“How beautiful!”

“I wonder which man will be lucky enough to marry Cynthia in the future and become a part of the Shears!”

“That’s right, I would do anything to marry her!”

“It’s not just Cynthia. All four great beauties are stunning. You’d be lucky to marry any of them. It would be worth it even if you had to pay with ten years of your life!”

The youths below the stage were all looking at Cynthia with drunken expressions on their faces.

“Miss Shear, most of us came here today to see the chairman of Cynthion Group. You should hurry up and invite him on stage!” Harold said.

His goal was the same as the Youngs, the Collins, and the other families. They were all aiming for the alchemist behind the Shears. They wanted to see if they would be able to get a piece of the pie!

“The Northern King is right! Miss Shear, we’re all wondering who this mysterious chairman of Cynthion Group is, ask him out and show him to all of us!” George and the others agreed.

“Since everyone is so interested, then let’s invite the chairman of Cynthion Group on stage!” Cynthia cleared her throat and said.

After what she said, even the elders who experienced a lot could not help but feel a bit excited. All of them tried to look behind the stage, waiting for that amazing alchemist to appear!

Yet, the next moment, Leon walked onto the stage dressed in a suit.

“Huh, isn’t that the president’s assistant?”

“Where’s their chairman? Why don’t we see him?”

Everyone was stunned, unsure of what to say.

Even George and the others were confused.

“Let me introduce everyone. This is the chairman of Cythion Group, Leon Wolf!” Cynthia introduced herself seriously.

“what?”

The moment she said that it was like a bomb that exploded on the spot!

“Miss Shear, what kind of a joke is this?!”

“Isn’t Leon your president’s assistant? How could he be the chairman?!” Gilbert said unhappily. “Mister Young, are you the one joking?”

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 568

“Who told you Leon was my assistant? When have I ever announced that?” Cynthia said coldly.

“That-“Gilbert was speechless.

When it came to the information that Leon was the president’s assistant, he found out by accident. Many of the employees in Cythion Group guessed that Leon could be Cynthia’s assistant, but Cynthia never announced it!

“Is Leon the chairman of Cythion Group?” Gilbert’s expression changed.

He suddenly remembered how Cynthia said that Leon was not just the president’s assistant. He thought that Cynthia was just embellishing the truth, but he finally understood what Cynthia meant!

“That’s right! Let me emphasize this again. Leon is the chairman of Cythion Group!” Cynthia said.

The moment he said that the crowd exploded!

“This guy is the chairman of Cynthion Group?!”

“Isn’t that unbelievable?”

Everyone was shocked. They were deeply shaken by that piece of news.

In truth, many of the other families had the same thoughts as the Young. They thought that the alchemist behind the Shears was an incredibly old person. They were probably some amazing experts from a hidden faction.

They would never have dreamed that the alchemist was a nameless young man!

It completely shattered their expectations!

“How could this be?” Elder Young was dumbfounded.

All the other families were too!

They looked at Leon on the stage in disbelief. They could not accept that shocking truth!

Elder Young and Gilbert’s expressions were especially icy.

They already guessed that there was an alchemist behind the Shears even during the first opening ceremony.

They tried so hard to look into the alchemist so they could attempt to lure the alchemist over.

They never would have dreamt that the alchemist was Leon, who they looked down on the whole time!

Even funnier was the fact that Leon was already a part of the Youngs, but they forcibly broke Leona and Iris apart, and even chased Leon out!

With Leon's amazing skills at alchemy, he was so highly sought after, but they tossed him aside.

What was that if not stupidity?!

They finally understood why Benedict said that they had made a horrible decision by kicking Leon out. It was no exaggeration at all!

Compared to the Youngs, Walter, George, and the others were not feeling great either.

Their goal was the alchemist behind the Shears. For the sake of getting that alchemist, they spared no expense and even allied.

In the end, the alchemist was their mutual enemy, Leon. That greatly exceeded their expectations!

Even worse was the fact that they just worked together to target Leon.

They already offended Leon so deeply. How were they supposed to get him to their side?

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 569

Unless there was something wrong with Leon, there was no way he would agree to work with them!

Of course, it was not just Leon's enemies that were shocked. Even the Southern King, Bernard, and Quinton were shocked too!

They never expected that Leon was the chairman of Cynthion Group, the great alchemist behind the Shears!

“Such a young hero. Leon has hidden it well!” Vincent laughed and said.

“I’ve always thought that Leon was no regular person, but I didn’t expect him to be so accomplished in just a few months!” Bernard said.

“No wonder, no wonder!” Quinton realized something.

When they were at Seacove City, Cynthia allowed Leon to make all the decisions. He thought that it was because Leon was Cynthia’s boyfriend. He finally understood that it was because Leon was the chairman!

“Leon, you’re amazing!” Louisa raised her fist emphatically after she snapped back from the shock.

She always saw Leon as a friend, and even saw Leon as her future brother-in-law. Seeing Leon be so impressive under everyone’s gazes, she truly felt happy for Leon!

Iris was next to Louisa. She bit her lips as she looked at Leon on stage. Her feelings were incredibly complicated.

She already knew that Leon’s abilities were extraordinary. As long as Leon had some time, Leon would excel.

Yet, regretfully, Leon and she were not meant to be. They already broke up.

Suddenly, she did not know if she should feel happy for Leon or not!

Cynthia was very satisfied with how shocked everyone was. That was what she wanted to happen.

She believed that Leon’s name would be heard throughout Springfield City after that day. No one would look down on Leon ever again!

After the shock, everyone quickly calmed down. They slowly accepted that Leon was the chairman of Cythion Group.

Especially the Youngs, the Fields, and the Collins.

They allied to push the Shears down, but after finding out that Leon was the chairman of Cythion Group, there was no longer any reason for the alliance with their awkward relationship with Leon.

“Mister Wolf, we had some misunderstandings with you before, please forgive us. In terms of strength, our family won’t lose out to the Shears at all! Let me make you a promise in front of everyone right now. As long as you leave the Shears and agree to work with us, we’ll make sure to satisfy you regardless of if you want riches and power or fame and women!” Walter said, trying to extend an invitation to Leon.

There were no eternal enemies, only eternal profits. With the Shears’ relationship with the Fields, he could not let Leon fall into their hands!

As long as Leon was willing to join the Fields, they were willing to forget any old grudges. They would start with a clean slate!

After Walter said that, many of the major families reacted.

“Us as well.”

“Me too.”

The families were all fighting to promise things to pull Leon over.

Even though Benedict and Harvey already expected all of those major forces to try to lure Leon away, their expressions still darkened.

Thankfully, the two of them trusted Leon a lot. They believed that Leon would not be lured away by money and profits.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 570

“Mister Wolf, we, the Pooles, don't want you to give up on working with the Shears. However, based on what I know, you just got a divorce not too long ago, and you don't have a girlfriend right now. Personal matters are always separate from business. Men can't just focus on business. If you don't mind, I can promise Snow to you. The two of you can get engaged. We'll have everyone here act as witnesses!” Vincent said, playing his trump card!

Ever since Leon cured his wife last time, he started to seriously consider matching his daughter to Leon.

When he found out that Leon was the chairman of Cynthion Group, even more, talented and amazing than he thought, he was even happier with Leon.

That was not the main point. The main point was that he could already tell that his daughter seemed to fancy Leon a little. On such a grand occasion, if he was able to match his daughter and get Leon at the same time, it would be perfect!

“What?”

Leon was shocked by Vincent's words.

The other major families, including Benedict and the Shears, were shocked as well!

None of them would have expected that Vincent would be willing to give his daughter to Leon for the sake of pulling Leon over. It was such a huge price!

“The Southern King is impressive!”

Everyone felt a chill down their spine.

Not only was Vincent not offending the Shears by doing so, but he would also even be able to pull Leon firmly to his side. He would get benefits from both ends.

If Leon married Snow and became Vincent’s in-law, the Lowes would benefit when Leon grew in the future.

It was a brilliant move!

Of course, the elders of all the families saw the benefits of it, but the younger generation did not think so.

Many of the younger men looked at Leon furiously, wanting to rip Leon apart!

Snow was one of the four great beauties of Springfield City. She was ranked in third place. She was also naturally charming and sexy and was a dream girl for many of the youths.

Vincent planned on marrying Snow to Leon. As long as Leon nodded, he would be able to get that dream girl easily!

It was obvious how envious all of them were!

If looks could kill, Leon would probably have already lost his life several times over.

“Dad, w—what are you saying? Leon and I are friends. H—how could you?”

Snow’s face was completely red in embarrassment as she stamped her feet.

She never would have expected her father to do something like that in public. It caused her to panic, not knowing what to do.

Vincent was even more sure that his daughter fancied Leon when he saw how much like a little girl Snow was acting, so he relaxed.

Even though he liked Leon a lot, he would not sell off his daughter's happiness if she did not like Leon.

"Snow, I'm doing this for you. Don't worry, I know what I'm doing," Vincent said meaningfully.

The snow seemed to have been seen through by her father. She blushed and wanted nothing more than to hide at that moment.

Ever since Leon stood up for her and risked everything to save her mother after that, she started to slowly fancy Leon. However, it was still not at the level where she could say she liked him as a man.
