

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 651-654

Chapter 651

Mason was honorable and reliable and was someone who deserved Leon's trust.

Furthermore, Mason was in the underworld for so many years. He was incredibly experienced. When Leon established his own family in the future, Mason would be an excellent candidate to take care of things.

The only regretful thing was that he only just started to establish his forces. He still had a long way to go until he could find his own family. It could not be rushed.

"Mason, I think you know very well how important an Advanced Power class method is. Without my approval, you're not to tell anyone about Demon Execution!" Leon did not forget to tell Mason with a serious expression.

"I understand. Mister Wolf, don't worry. I'll keep this secret very well!" Mason assured.

"That's good. I have to see the Southern King for something. Make sure to practice Demon Execution whenever you're free. Don't disappoint me," Leon smiled and said.

"Yes," Mason immediately answered before sending Leon out of the bar.

Looking at Leon riding the bike away, Mason found it hard to remain calm.

A few months ago, a lot of his territories were taken up by Xander because of his injuries. He was in a difficult position and could have been wiped away at any moment.

Yet, not only did Leon help him throw over Xander, he even taught Mason an amazing Advanced Power class training method. He felt like he was living a dream!

He felt incredibly fortunate. It was such a smart choice to join Leon back then. It was the best decision he ever made!

At the Southern King's mansion, Leon already gave Fane a call before he got there.

When he arrived, Fane and Vincent were already waiting at the door. After that, they welcomed him in.

“Mister Poole, I came without an invitation this time. Sorry for disturbing you,” Leon greeted.

“Mister Wolf, you’re being too polite. We’re all good friends here,” Vincent smiled and said.

After some pleasantries, they walked to the main hall and sat down.

“Mister Wolf, did you have something you need this time?” Fane could not help but ask.

“Oh, it’s like this. It’s been a while since I treated Missus Poole. I came over to give her a check-up to see how she’s been recovering. Also, I have something I need Mister Poole’s help for,” Leon briefly explained.

“So that’s it. Mister Wolf, what do you need my help for? I’ll do my best to assist you!” Vincent said quickly.

His wife recovered very well and was doing quite well. It was fine if Leon checked on her after they discussed things.

“After the sales drive yesterday, Mister Hunt was ambushed by a group of people in masks on the way to Seacove City. They stole three Pure Energy Pills.” Leon recounted Quinton’s ambush to Vincent.

“What? Something like that happened?!”

Vincent was shocked after listening to everything.

He was not just shocked at Quinton being ambushed, but more so that the attackers sent out a Semi Overlord State martial artist and over ten Supreme Masters. It was a massive force!

Other than that, they only took three Pure Energy Pills despite sending such a large force, ignoring over eight thousand Energy Nurturing Pills that were worth more. It was just too strange!

Chapter 652

“Mister Poole, I’ve already asked the Shears for help to look into this, but I’ll have to ask you to help us when it comes to the underworld. Please have your men look into it. We need to find out who those masked men were!” Leon revealed his goal.

The Shears and the Pooles would both look into their respective sides, Leon believed that there would be some clues!

“Alright, that’s not a problem. I’ll have some men look into it right now!”

Vincent nodded and accepted it before he took out his phone to make a few calls, issuing the order.

Leon felt like the matter would probably not be done that quickly, so he decided to check on Vincent’s wife first. He went with Vincent and Fane to the backyard.

In the room, Snow was giving her mother some medicine.

Gloria sat in front of the desk, elegantly taking the medicine.

“Snow, Leon’s medical skills and the medicine he issued me are amazing. In just a few days, I feel like my body has already recovered. It’s a few times better than before! If I ever see him again, I’ll thank him properly,” Gloria said with a smile, showering Leon’s medical skills with praise.

After resting for a few days, her body was practically fully recovered. Her old illness was gone as well.

It was just like Leon assured them, the illness that plagued her for more than ten years was completely cured!

It was obvious how thankful she was to Leon.

“That’s right, he’s not just very good at medicine, he even knows alchemy. Even his martial arts skills are absurdly strong.

“I don’t know how he did it when he’s so young!” Snow praised.

Thinking about Leon back during the sales drive and how he stunned everyone, she was full of admiration.

“What alchemy?” Gloria was curious.

She was at home the whole time and did not step out. So, there was naturally no way she could have heard about Cynthion Group and Leon.

“It’s like this. Fane, me,, and dad went to Cynthion Group’s sales drive yesterday.”

Snow was immediately incredibly spirited as she told her mother everything that happened during the sales drive.

However, she was very unhappy about how Vincent offered her to Leon, and how Leon rejected it.

“Leon’s just too amazing. He is a very talented young man!”

Gloria was stunned, and could not resist praising Leon.

Just as the two of them were chatting, footsteps were heard as Vincent, Fane, and Leon walked inside.

“Leon, w–what are you here?!”

Snow was shocked when she saw Leon. After that, her expression sank as she started to look unhappy.

Gloria was stunned. She looked at Leon before looking at Snow, and she had a strange expression on her face.

Earlier, Snow was so happy talking about the sales drive, and she sounded like she respected Leon a lot.

Yet, when Snow saw Leon, she seemed completely different. She did not seem to like Leon at all.

Gloria wondered what was up with her daughter.

“Snow, what are you doing? Miser Wolf came here to check on your mother!” Vincent stared at his daughter unhappily.

He knew that his daughter and Leon were quite friendly, so he could not understand what was happening.

Chapter 653

Snow scoffed, turning away and ignoring Leon.

Leon rubbed his nose. He was quite stunned, not knowing when he offended Snow.

“Mister Wolf, didn’t you come to check on me? Let’s start, then,” Gloria changed the topic as she reached her arm out.

Leon put Snow aside for the moment as he started to check up on Snow.

After a long time, Leon stood back up.

“Mister Wolf, how is my wife’s condition?” Vincent asked with concern.

“She’s been recovering very well. As long as she continues taking the medicine for a few days, she’ll make a full recovery,” Leon smiled and said.

“That’s great news!” Vincent laughed happily.

Even though she could tell that his wife was doing quite well, Leon was the professional. With Leon’s answer, he felt much better.

“Mister Wolf, thank you so much. You didn’t just save my life, you even treated my illness for many years. I don’t know how to repay you for this,” Gloria bowed to Leon in gratitude.

“Missus Poole, it was nothing worth mentioning,” Leon said in a hurry.

After that, he told Gloria to pay attention to a few things before he bid his farewell.

Vincent saw that it was almost noon, so he asked Leon to stay for lunch, but Leon rejected it.

“Dad, I’ll help you send Leon off,” Snow suggested.

“Yes, that’s alright,” Vincent looked at his daughter strangely.

His daughter acted acting so unfriendly to Leon before, but she was offering to send Leon off. Vincent was getting confused.

Leon was very confused as well, not understanding what was happening with Snow.

Only Gloria had a faint smile on her lips, seemingly understanding something.

After that, Snow and Leon walked to the gates of the mansion.

The two of them were silent the whole time. No one said anything, and the atmosphere was a bit strange.

As the gate got closer, Leon was still silent. Snow was getting angrier and angrier.

“Leon, are you just going to leave like this?” Snow could finally not take it anymore, and broke the silence.

“Of course, what else would I do?” Leon was confused.

“You-”

Snow was incredibly frustrated. After that, she took a deep breath and forced herself to calm down, saying, “Don’t you think you should be saying something to me?”

“What should I be saying?” Leon was even more confused.

“What do you think? Don’t you know what you did at the sales drive yesterday?” Snow said with a huff.

“That-”

Leon thought about it and realized, “Snow, are you angry because I rejected your father yesterday?”

“It’s good that you know!” Snow said coldly.

“Marriage isn’t something to be played around with. Your father just happened to mention it yesterday, why did you treat it so seriously? You don’t have to get angry at such a small thing,” Leon did not know what to

1. do.

“What do you mean by that? You rejected my father in front of all the major families. It’s as if you think I’m not worthy of you! How am I not worthy!” Snow said angrily.

“I—

I didn’t mean it that way. You know what the situation was like yesterday. Was I supposed to accept your father’s offer?”

Chapter 654

Leon’s head hurt, not understanding what Snow was thinking.

“Of course not! I only see you as a brother. I wouldn’t let you off easily if you dared to accept my father’s offer then!” Snow immediately rebuked.

"Then isn't this fine? Fane and I are good brothers. I see you as a sister as well. So, wouldn't rejecting it have been my only choice then?" Leon hurriedly said.

"Oh, you do make sense."

Snow calmed down a lot, but she was still a bit unhappy. She said, "But you still embarrassed me yesterday, that's the truth! I bet a lot of people are talking about me right now. I'm one of the four beauties of Springfield City, and the heiress of the Pooles. Even though I was practically being given to you, you still rejected me! How do you think I'm supposed to show my face in public in the future?" Snow was more and more unhappy as she spoke.

"That-" Leon was speechless.

He finally understood the gist of it. Snow was angry because she felt like she was embarrassed.

It was just like Ruth from the day before. Ruth got angry from the shame and challenged him in front of everyone to regain her honor.

However, he was more skilled and managed to defeat Ruth. Otherwise, he would have been thoroughly embarrassed if he lost to Ruth.

In the end, he felt like rejecting the Pooles and the Collins was wrong. However, Ruth and Snow were prideful goddesses. They could not accept being rejected by a man!

In the end, women were unreasonable. Even Snow and Ruth were no exception.

"Alright, I'm sorry for what happened yesterday," Leon said with a sigh.

He knew that there was no reason with women. He had a pretty decent relationship with Snow as well, so he did not want such a small matter to become anything serious.

So he decided to just say a few words to console her.

"Is just a simple apology enough? Wouldn't that be letting you off too easily?!" Snow rolled her eyes at Leon.

"Then what do you want? If you're not happy about it, you can hit me a few times," Leon said.

"What's the point of me hitting you?"

Snow suddenly had a thought and said, "Why don't we do this? I'm not in a good mood. Go shopping with me and buy me some clothes. I'll take that as compensation."

“Go shopping with you? Wouldn’t that be inappropriate?” Leon hesitated.

He was not Snow’s boyfriend. Going shopping with an amazing beauty like Snow alone would be a bit awkward.

“Why would it be inappropriate? You just said you see me as a sister. Isn’t it normal for a sister to go shopping with her brother? What? Were you just lying to me just now? You don’t see me as a sister at all?” Snow said unhappily.

“I wasn’t lying.”

“Fine, I’ll just go with you,” Leon said in exasperation.

“That’s more like it! Let’s go shopping then.”

Snow immediately smiled. After that, she grabbed Leon’s risk and quickly walked outside.

In truth, ever since Leon helped her teach Jacob a lesson the first time, she started to like Leon a little.

After that, Leon put his own life at risk to save her mother, which intensified her feelings.
