

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 655-660

Chapter 655

However, she was already three or four years older than Leon. She preferred men that were more mature, so she never had any such intentions for Leon.

In her eyes, she did see Leon as a brother.

At least, that was the way she thought!

At the front gate, Snow looked around and said curiously, "Hey, Leon, where's your

"My car is there," Leon pointed at the motorcycle in the garage.

"A bike? You rode a bike here? You didn't drive?" Snow was surprised.

"Yes, I don't have a driver's license," Leon smiled awkwardly.

car?"

"You don't have a driver's license? Haha, how could you not have one in this day and age?"

"Why are you so funny?" Snow could not stop herself from laughing. When she laughed, she looked stunning.

Leon was speechless, and he felt even more awkward.

He was considered the top young man in his generation by all the major families in Springfield City, but he did not even have a license. It really was quite embarrassing.

"Alright, I'll stop laughing at you now, but you definitely can't keep on going around without a driver's license. Why don't I use some of my connections to get your driver's license? I guarantee you, it'll only take ten days at most," Snow said with a smile.

"Alright, thank you for that," Leon nodded, not rejecting Snow's kindness.

"Let's go! I've never sat on a bike before. I'm in a good mood today, so I feel like riding a bike and feeling the breeze. Why don't you bring me shopping on your bike?" Snow said happily.

“Are you sure about that?” Leon had a strange expression on his face.

“Of course I’m sure! What? Is there a problem with that?” Snow was curious.

“It’s nothing. Since you want to ride along with me, I’ll just do as you please.”

Leon smiled meaningfully. After that, he got on the motorcycle and Snow sat behind him. The two of them sped off.

Before too long, Snow started to regret it.

Even though the motorcycle was made for men, and there was much more space than the one Leon’s used before, it was still useless.

After Leon slammed on the brakes a few times, Snow could not stop herself from slamming onto Leon’s back.

Feeling the softness on his back, Leon was feeling quite elated.

In truth, he was not trying to take advantage of Snow, but the feeling on his back stirred a lot of beautiful memories.

He thought about those happy days when he just joined Elegante.

Among them, Lily, Ariel and Iris all sat on his bike before.

Iris, in particular, meant so much to him.

Yet, time moved on and waited for no man.

Iris returned to her family with a depressed look on her face.

In the main hall, both Elder Young and Gilbert knew that Iris planned on asking Leon to get back together that day. They were talking in the hall while they waited for the news from Iris.

Not long after that, the two of them walked over when they saw that Iris was back.

“Iris, how did getting back with Leon go? Did he agree?” Gilbert said anxiously.

“He-”

Iris opened her mouth, but she could not suppress the sadness in her heart as she started to cry.

Chapter 656

“Iris, w—what happened?” Elder Young was shocked as he hurried over to help Iris take a seat.

“Did Leon say no to getting back together?” Gilbert’s expression changed as he vaguely started to understand.

Iris did not answer. She started to sob even harder on the table, unable to stop her tears at all.

Only after losing something would you understand how valuable it was.

Back then, she spent every day with Leon. Leon never held back in his care for her, but she never treasured it properly.

Even after breaking up with Leon, she always felt like Leon was still by her side, never leaving because there were so many traces of Leon at home and the company.

Yet, when she found out that Leon was Cynthia’s boyfriend, she finally realized that she completely lost him!

It was a huge blow to her!

At that moment, she regretted it. She should not have broken up with Leon for the sake of the family, and she started to deeply regret not trusting Leon!

If she just believed Leon unconditionally back then, she would not have been affected by her grandfather and her father. She deeply hurt Leon and wrongfully blamed him. There was no way Leon would have gone into Cynthia’s arms otherwise!

Unfortunately, it was already too late for any regrets!

“How could this be?”

Both Gilbert and Elder Young were shocked.

Even though Iris did not answer it clearly, the two of them could still guess from how sad Iris was that Leon must have rejected her!

“Iris, what happened? Leon still has feelings for you. Why did he reject you?” Elder Young had an uncertain look on his face.

“Leon is already Cynthia’s boyfriend. T— they’re already together,” Iris cried and stammered out.

“What? How is that possible?! If Leon was Cynthia’s boyfriend, then why didn’t he announce it during the sales drive?” Elder Young and Gilbert were shocked.

“I don’t know why either, but I heard Leon admit it himself. How could it not be true?”

Iris was sobbing incredibly sadly.

Iris was always cold and serious in the business world. This was the first time she ever lost her composure so badly.

“That-” Elder Young and Gilbert were both uncertain.

Even though they had their doubts, it should be true if Iris heard it for herself. There was no way they could ignore that!

Of course, they never would have even dreamed that Iris did not see Leon the whole time!

“It looks like I was mistaken,” Elder Young sighed as his mood sank.

He planned on getting Leon back through Iris, but the results were out of his expectations.

His only sliver of hope was extinguished!

Leon was not only working with the Shears but even Cynthia’s boyfriend. The two sides had an incredibly close relationship.

The Youngs could do nothing but give up on Leon.

“Whatever, our family did this to us. We can’t blame others! In the end, Iris, it was my fault. I ruined your happiness,” Elder Young said with regret.

Since the Youngs could no longer get Leon back, he was forced to accept it.

Chapter 657

However, due to his mistakes, he ruined a beautiful relationship with his granddaughter. He did blame himself quite a bit for it.

It was just a pity that they were already past the point of any return!

"I-" Iris felt even sad.

She knew very well that Elder Young and Gilbert both held a lot of responsibility for what happened.

However, they were still her family. Her break up with Leon was already set in stone, what was the point of blaming them?

Leon would no longer return to her side!

"Please, it's just a man! Iris, you're still the top of the four beauties of Springfield City and the heiress of the Youngs. Do you have to be so sad for a man? You'd be laughed at if word got out!"

At that moment, a laugh of disdain was heard as Daisy walked inside.

Daisy already heard about Iris planning on getting back together with Leon from Gilbert.

Seeing how sad Iris was, she did not even need to guess to know that Leon rejected Iris!

It was amazing news for her. The smile on her face was massive.

"This is my matter. It has nothing to do with you!" Iris was furious as she stood up.

Daisy and she never got along. There was no way she would stand for Daisy's snide remarks. The anger in her heart burned even more intensely.

With that anger, the sadness started to cool down.

"What? Did I hit a sensitive spot and get you angry?" Daisy smiled mockingly.

"Daisy, can you keep quiet? Iris is so sad right now. It's one thing if you don't want to console her, but why are you trying to make it worse!" Gilbert said unhappily.

"I'm not, I'm just speaking the truth! Iris, you always put yourself so high up, and never even looked at any man. What happened to all of that? You are so depressed for the sake of a wild man like that, it's so shameful!"

Daisy mocked.

Iris was always noble and refined. It was rare for her to be in such a state. There was no way Daisy would give up on the chance to mock Iris!

"You!" Iris was furious, but she had nothing else to say.

"Daisy, shut up! You're responsible for the situation getting to where it is as well. I haven't even settled the score with you!" Elder Young berated.

"Dad, you can't blame me for this. Even though all of you think Leon was wrongfully accused, I don't think so! When Iris was kidnapped, Leon deliberately killed the two thugs even though he's so strong. That in itself is a clear problem! In my eyes, even if he wasn't the mastermind behind Iris's kidnapping, there's no way his hands are completely clean!" Daisy insisted.

"That-" Elder Young was taken aback, unable to say anything to that.

"Nonsense! Leon has no grudges against the Youngs, and he even saved my grandfather. How could he be the mastermind behind my kidnapping? He had to have been framed!" Iris looked over angrily.

She did not believe Leon because she was affected by Elder Young and Gilbert before this. However, she already wrongfully accused Leon once. There was no way she would do it again, no matter what Daisy said!

Chapter 658

Of course, if she was able to believe in Leon so unconditionally from the start, they would not have broken up!

"It's up to you if you want to believe it or not, but I won't say any more!" Daisy smiled in disdain.

She just wanted to deliberately instigate Iris a little. Leon was not willing to get back together with Iris anyway, so it was not important if Iris believed in it or not!

Just as Iris and Daisy were staring at each other, a frantic set of footsteps were heard. Randy quickly walked inside.

"Elder, the Northern King is here with his men. He says he has something very important he wants to meet you for," Randy said.

"The Northern King, Harold Lowe? The Youngs have never had many dealings with him before, so why is he here?"

Elder Young and Gilbert were shocked.

"Randy, bring him in," Elder Young said, wanting to see what Harold's goal was.

“Yes,” Randy answered before he left.

Iris was in an incredibly bad mood. She was in no condition to continue arguing with Daisy. She said, Grandfather, I’m tired. I’ll go upstairs to rest.”

“Yes, go get some rest.”

Elder Young nodded, and Iris went upstairs alone.

Not long after that, Randy brought Harold into the main hall.

Behind Harold was his son, Jacob, and a few experts under him..

“Greetings, Elder Young,” Harold greeted.

Even though he was a king in the underworld, Elder Young was still of an older generation. He did not dare to act too arrogantly in front of Elder Young.

“Please, sit,” Elder Young motioned to Harold and the others.

After a few pleasantries, Elder Young asked, “Northern King, do you have a reason for this visit?”

“Elder Young, it’s like that. My son, Jacob, has always liked Iris. I came here to suggest an engagement!”

Harold practically dropped a bomb.

“What? An engagement?” Elder Young and Gilbert were completely shocked.

“That’s right! Miss Young is the top of the four beauties of our city. She is talented and beautiful. Even though Jacob is not as amazing as her, he’s still someone quite excellent among the younger generation! They’re both single right now. If we manage to tie them together through marriage, they would be a perfect match for each other!” Harold smiled and said.

“That-”

“Northern King, I’m sorry. Iris hasn’t been in a good mood lately. We don’t have any plans for her marriage at the moment!” Elder Young rejected.

“Elder Young, don’t be in such a hurry to reject it. Why don’t you listen to our offer first? It wouldn’t be too late to decide after that!” Harold said calmly.

He seemed to have already anticipated the Youngs’ rejection and was not put off by it.

Before Elder Young and Gilbert could answer, Daisy was the first to speak up, "Oh? What offer is that?"

"Elder Young, I know the Youngs don't need any money, so that would be too bad of a wedding gift. To show my sincerity, as long as the Youngs agree to the marriage, the Lo wes will be subordinate to the Youngs, and will be willing to follow your family!" Harold said seriously.

"What?" Elder Young and Gilbert were both shocked as they stood up at the same time.

Chapter 659

The greatest forces in Springfield City were the four families, but the two Kings were no slouches!

In the past, political marriages were not uncommon between major families. However, they were usually to forge alliances, and both sides were equal.

Yet, Harold mentioned being subordinate to the Youngs. They were willing to work under the Youngs.

It was like how the Four Tigers served under the two Kings!

It was obvious how much Harold was offering for the marriage!

"Northern King, are you joking? This isn't funny at all!" Elder Young said.

"I'm not joking. Everything I said is serious!" Harold said sincerely.

"But why? You're one of the top figures in Springfield City. This isn't like you at all!" Elder Young was full of disbelief.

Everyone knew that the two Kings stood at the top of the underworld. They were both very powerful figures!

He did not think that Harold would join the Youngs just like that. It did not seem real!

If he trusted Harold so easily, then all his experiences would have been for naught!

"Elder Young, let me be honest! You should know very well that our family has some grudges against Leon. Leon is already with the Shears right now. With his help, the Shears will stand at the top of Springfield City one day. If that happens, our family will be in a difficult spot!

"I'm willing to submit to the Youngs firstly because my son likes your granddaughter, and secondly because. I want to work with the Youngs to deal with them before the Shears and Leon can get stronger!" Harold said with conviction.

"That-" Elder Young had some thoughts on his mind.

He saw for himself how unfriendly Leon's relationship with the Lowes, Fields, and Collins were in Cynthion Group's sales drive.

Harold's words were not untrue, so he started to trust them a bit.

"Northern King, you have the wrong person! Leon saved me before. The Youngs will not help you deal with him!" Elder Young said calmly.

"Elder Young, I know that Leon has helped your family, but I know he has grudges against you as well! Forgive me for being straight with you, but the Youngs forcibly broke Iris and up and kicked him out of the family. He probably holds a grudge! When he gets stronger, he won't let you off easily even if you don't plan. on dealing with him!" Harold said firmly.

During the sales drive, the Youngs were the ones who had a conflict with Leon first. He was there, so he heard. about what happened.

"Surely not!" Elder Young and Gilbert's expressions changed.

Even though the two of them said that they knew that Harold was not exactly wrong. The two of them hurt

Leon before and even kicked Leon out of the house. It deeply offended Leon!

Even if Leon was willing to forgive them, the Youngs will have to submit to the Shears if the Shears become too strong in the future. The losses would be massive!

It would be no good for their family!

"Elder Young, there are no friends that last forever, only profits! Before the Shears and Leon can grow, we have to cut them off. Otherwise, we'll be the ones to suffer!"

Chapter 660

Harold continued to add oil to the fire.

"But-" Elder Young was still hesitant.

He was the head of the Youngs, there was no way he did not know the threat they posed!

However, Leon saved his life before. He already wrongly accused Leon once. If he targeted Leon again, it would be completely immoral!

“Elder Young, don’t worry. With the Dragon Corps around, there’s no way we can kill Leon and the Shears! I just think that the Youngs will grow much stronger after I join you, and you’ll stand at the top of the four families!

“Then, you’ll be able to summon up the other families to work together and destroy Cyntion Group or even threaten Leon to split the profits. That would be enough! We can let Leon and the Shears monopolize everything no matter what!” Harold advised, but there was a cold glint in his eyes.

His target was not as simple as just Leon!

“Dad, I think the Northern King is right! We can’t just let Leon and the Shears grow. Otherwise, our profits might suffer. We might even get destroyed! We can’t just ignore this!” Gilbert said with worry. He was convinced by Harold.

“Yes, that makes sense,” Elder Young started to be swayed as well.

In truth, Elder Young had his sights further than Gilbert. If the Northern King joined the Youngs, then suppressing the Shears and Leon and getting rid of future troubles was just one thing!

On the other hand, with the Northern King’s support, even if the Youngs were not able to completely take control of Springfield City, they would at least become the strongest of the four families!

It was his greatest wish in all his years. It would be a lie to say he was not tempted!

“No, I refuse!” An angry shout was heard at that moment. Iris was coming downstairs.

She heard everything that was said between Elder Young and Harold from upstairs. She never expected that Harold was there to mention marriage!

“So, Miss Young is here too.”

Harold and Jacob’s smiles stiffened when they heard Iris’ rejection.

Iris ignored the others and walked right to Elder Young.

“Grandfather, I won’t agree to this!” Iris was shocked and angered.

The

person she loved was Leon. She was still feeling sad about breaking up with Leon, there was no space in her heart for any other man!

In the first place, marriage was not to be played around with. She did not meet Jacob much before, so the two of them were practically strangers. There was no way she could accept a man she did not know!

“That-” Elder Young was caught in an awkward spot.

Harold was still a notable figure in Springfield City. Even if Iris did not want to accept it, the rejection should have at least been more polite.

However, Iris’s rejection was too direct. It was embarrassing to both sides!

“Miss Young, don’t be in such a hurry to reject it. Just think about it. Other than Theodore, Anson, and Harvey, no one’s better than my son Jacob among the younger generation! Based on what I know, the four families never marry each other, so the three of them are not suitable. Only my son can match up to you! You’re a match made in heaven!” Harold said confidently.

He did not get angry at Iris’s refusal at all!
