

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 661-670

Chapter 661

"Iris, the Northern King is right. No matter how you look at it, Jacob is the best choice!" Gilbert hurriedly said.

The four great families were always competitors. None of them ever regarded the other highly, so there were never any marriages between them.

Other than the four great families, the strongest forces in Springfield City were the two Kings. The Northern King was even stronger than the Southern King!

Both Theodore and Anson were known playboys as well. They were not very reliable.

However, Jacob was different. He never had a bad reputation, and he was seen as a better man than Theodore and Jacob.

In the end, in terms of political marriages for the Youngs, Jacob was the best choice in Springfield City.

"Iris, even if you have no feelings for Jacob right now, feelings can be slowly built up. I think you can just get engaged to him for a moment, and the two of you can try dating for a bit," Elder Young said in a low voice.

He felt like Jacob was a decent man too.

When it came to relationships, Iris was still sad about Leon's rejection. He wanted Iris to find a new boyfriend so she could quickly step out from the shadows of heartbreak.

Jacob had a good background. Even though he was not the most excellent character, he was still quite decent. He could be seen as an acceptable match for Iris.

Furthermore, Harold already promised to be subordinate to the Youngs as long as the marriage went through. It would bring the Youngs tremendous benefits!

It was the perfect solution!

"That's a good idea. We can let them get engaged first, then let them try getting to know each other!" Harold nodded in agreement.

"I refuse! Grandfather, I won't accept any political marriages! If you still see me as your granddaughter, then don't force me!" Iris clenched her teeth and said with resolve.

"You-"

Both Elder Young and Gilbert's expressions soured when they saw how determined Iris seemed to be, but there was nothing they could do.

"Northern King, I'm sorry. This thing just came too quickly. Iris needs some time to accept it. Why don't you go back for now? We'll think about it properly," Elder Young said with a sigh.

He knew that Iris was very stubborn. They could not rush the matter. He planned on slowly giving Iris advice, in hopes of changing her mind.

"Alright, we'll go back and wait for the news! Let's go!" Harold left with his men.

Despicable! Iris would rather be with that orphan, Leon than even look at him. What a wretch!

When Iris fell into Jacob's hands, he would toy with her properly!

Before they left, Jacob had a cold glint in his eyes, but he quickly hid it as he left with his father.

Only Elder Young, Iris, and the rest were left in the main hall.

"Grandfather, you should have just rejected them earlier. Why did you ask them for time to think about it?" Iris said unhappily.

"Iris, I know you don't want a political marriage. I can understand your feelings, but you're not that young anymore. It's time you think about getting married. I feel like Jacob is quite a decent man in many ways. You could try going out with him. Once you get to know each other better, you might think that the two of you are a good match!"

Chapter 662

Elder Young tried very hard to convince Iris.

"That's right! Iris, both your grandfather and I just want the best for me!" Gilbert nodded.

"The best for me? That's what you always say! If you did want the best for me, Leon and I wouldn't be in this state!" Iris started to cry from her frustration. Her tears constantly flowed out..

At that moment, all the sadness she suppressed in her heart exploded!

“You had no evidence back then, but you forcibly split me and Leon apart! Now, for the sake of the family, you’re planning on sacrificing me, giving me to a man I don’t love! Have you ever thought about how I feel?”

Iris

sadder as she spoke. She could do nothing to stop the tears from falling down her face.

She thought that her grandfather loved her, and would not use her marriage for the sake of profit!

Yet, she was blinded. She was constantly disappointed by her grandfather!

“Iris, that’s not what I mean. I’m not planning on sacrificing you for profit. I just want you to start a new love so you won’t be sad about Leon anymore. Engagement doesn’t mean you’re getting married anyway. If you think that you don’t like Jacob, you can just reject it afterward,” Elder Young’s face was incredibly pale.

He was thinking about Iris when he wanted to engage the two of them, hoping that Iris would find a new love.

However, he was thinking about the family’s profits. He could not deny that either.

“I don’t want to listen to your excuses anymore! I won’t agree with this, you should just give up!” Iris was miserable. After she said all of that, she turned around and left the house.

Looking

at Iris’s retreating, Gilbert still did not want to give in. He asked, “Dad, Iris is just too stubborn.. What do we do now?”

“Let’s take things one step at a time. Iris is still too sad about Leon. Let’s give her some time to calm down before we do anything else,” Elder Young said.

In truth, he did not want to force Iris, but Iris and Leon’s breakup was already set in stone. The two of them would not get back together!

Iris needed to get married eventually. There was no harm in giving Jacob a try.

Yet, Iris did not like Jacob at all. It gave him a headache!

At a big mall in the city, Leon stopped his bike outside with Iris behind him.

“Stupid Leon, you got lucky today!” Snow jumped off the bike and blushed. She pinched Leon on the waste.

Their bodies constantly touched each other on the way as Leon stopped the bike. Leon was very lucky with her.

“You were the one who insisted on riding my bike, how could you blame me?” Leon said through clenched teeth.

“Whatever, I can’t be bothered arguing anymore. Let’s go buy some clothes!” Snow rolled her eyes at Leon before she pulled him into the mall.

The two of them shopped around, and quickly walked into one of the biggest luxury clothing stores there.

Chapter 663

It was a high-end brand, and they had all sorts of different clothes for men and women inside. Each one of them was quite expensive.

In the men’s clothing area.

“Leon, why don’t you try this suit on?” Snow had a glint in her eyes as she took out a blue suit for Leon.

“Aren’t you here to buy clothes? Why are you making me try on something for a man? Are you planning on buying something for Fane?” Leon was surprised. He thought that Snow probably asked him to try it on because she wanted to buy it for Fane.

“No, I’m planning on buying something for you!” Snow said.

“Buying something for me? Why would you do that for no reason?” Leon was shocked.

“You helped me teach Jacob a lesson, then you saved my mother. I plan on buying a few clothes to thank you,

Snow said with a smile.

“There’s no need, it wasn’t anything much,” Leon tried to refuse.

“What do you mean by that? You’ve done so much for our family, and you refused my father’s reward back then. I just want to buy you a few clothes as thanks. It’s not like it’s that much money. Are you going to reject me?” Snow said unhappily.

“Alright then,” Leon smiled helplessly. He was forced to accept Snow’s goodwill.

“That’s more like it,” Snow let out a smile. After that, she took out a few outfits for Leon to try on.

Leon was tall and thin, and he was handsome as well. It was quite easy to find clothes that suited him.

The expensive branded clothes served to make him look manlier and more handsome.

Snow was very satisfied. She picked out the five best-looking ones and bought them for Leon.

Leon felt quite warm in his heart. Snow just pretended to ask him to bring her shopping, but she just wanted to buy him clothes to repay him.

With his current net worth, those clothes were not much to him, but Snow’s intentions made him feel very thankful.

After buying the clothes, Leon walked around with Snow some more. They bought her some cosmetics before they left the mall, preparing to go back.

At that moment, Leon’s phone suddenly rang. It was a call from Leopard.

Leopard was the boss of the area around Mistcloud Mountain. When Leon first went there with Iris, they had a conflict before.

After that, they settled their grudges.

“Hello, is this Mister Wolf?”

When the call went through, Leopard’s respectful voice was heard.

“It’s me, Leopard, do you need anything?” Leon asked curiously.

“Mister Wolf, are you free right now? I want to treat you to a meal, and ask you for some help,” Leopard said after some hesitation.

“Help? Did something happen with Lily’s family?” Leon’s heart stopped.

Lily was one of Iris's secretaries. When he was working at Elegante, Lily was quite close to him.

After that, he helped Lily's family handle some troubles when he went there as a guest as well.

To prevent anything similar from happening again, he asked Leopard to help take care of them, since Lily's family was close to Mistcloud Mountain.

Chapter 664

With how suddenly Leopard called him, he thought it was because Lily's family was in trouble!

"No, it's a personal problem," Leopard said apprehensively.

Even though Leon and Leopard already resolved their problems, the two of them were not that friendly with each other. He did not know if Leon would help him, so he was not confident at all.

"Oh, alright. Let me know your location. I'll go over right now."

Leon was much more relaxed when he found out that it was not Lily's family.

Of course, since Leopard agreed to look after Lily's family, he had no reason to refuse his request. He planned on going over to see what the matter was.

"Thank you, Mister Wolf,"

Leopard was elated as he gave Leon the address.

After hanging up, Leon said to Snow, "Snow, I have something I need to get done right now. Why don't I send you home?"

"What is it? Will it be fun? Let me go with you."

Snow said with a smile.

Snow vaguely caught some parts of the conversation earlier, and it piqued her interest.

"I think it might not be that appropriate for you to come with me," Leon said after some hesitation.

"Why isn't it appropriate? Are you doing something shameful?" Snow's eyes glinted in curiosity.

“Of course, it’s not.”

Leon did not know what to do. After that, he thought about it and said, “Whatever, since you want to go, I’ll bring you with me.”

Leopard was part of the underworld, so Leon felt like it could be related to a conflict in the underworld.

Snow was the daughter of the Southern King. With the Southern King’s influence and power, Snow might be able to help if she came along.

At the most luxurious hotel in the area around Mistcloud Mountain, Leon was greeted by Leopard and his subordinates at the entrance the moment he arrived.

“Mister Wolf, it’s been a long time.”

Leopard walked up with a polite smile as he greeted Leon respectfully.

“That’s true, it has been a while,” Leon smiled.

“Mister Wolf, this is?”

Leopard was surprised to see Snow.

The first time he met Leon, Leon was with Iris, and the two of them were very close.

Yet, the female companion was someone different this time.

That was not the most important point. The most important thing was that Iris was the daughter of one of the four great families. She was incredibly beautiful and talented.

Yet, Snow’s looks did not lose out to Iris at all. Snow was much sexier, and both of them had their amazing qualities.

He was shocked. Leon was not that strong, only at around Leopard’s level, but Leon was somehow surrounded by beauties!

He could not understand how Leon did it!

“Leopard, let me introduce you. This is my friend, Snow Poole.”

“Snow, this is Leopard, the boss of the area around Mistcloud Mountain.”

Leon gave some brief introductions.

“Miss Poole, hello,” Leopard greeted politely.

He vaguely felt like Snow’s name was familiar, but he could not recall where he heard it before.

Furthermore, Springfield City was so large. There were so many people with the same name, so he did not take it to heart.

“Yes,” Snow nodded and answered coolly.

Chapter 665

She was the daughter of the Southern King. She knew very well how the power in the underworld was distributed. Mistcloud Mountain’s area was more secluded in Springfield City. The ones who were there were usually insignificant.

With who she was, she would naturally look down on such a person!

If it was not because of Leon, she would never even have spared Leopard a glance!

Leopard felt a bit awkward at Snow’s attitude, but she did not dare to voice any displeasure since Snow was with Leon.

“Mister Wolf, I’ve already prepared a feast inside. Please, follow me.”

Leopard motioned for them to go inside.

In a luxurious room, Leon, Leopard, and the others sat down.

Leopard had the staff bring in the food.

“Leopard, why were you in such a hurry to look for me?” Leon said directly.

“Mister Wolf, it’s like that. I have a rival around the area called Chimp.”

“Recently, Chimp joined one of the four Tigers, the Laughing Tiger, Riker. His strength greatly increased, and he’s been pushing me back at every end, taking a lot of my territories.”

Leopard had a bitter look on his face as he explained everything.

Under Chimp's constant attacks, his situation was getting more and more dangerous.

He only gave Leon a call because he had no other options. He wanted to see if Leon could help.

"So that's it," Leon had a look of realization.

He was wondering if Leopard needed him for some conflicts in the underworld, and he was right!

Riker was one of the four Tigers, and one of the Northern King's men. He could not believe that Riker cared about such a distant location.

It exceeded his expectations.

"Mister Wolf, I know you're quite close to the Youngs. Could you ask them for help?" Leopard pleaded.

He knew that the Youngs were one of the four great families. Their power and wealth were unimaginable. As long as Leon was able to convince Iris to do something, it would be very easy to deal with this.

However, the Youngs were not part of the underworld. He did not know if they would be willing to help.

He had no confidence at all, but it was at least some hope!

"I've already broken up with Iris," Leon said with some pain in his heart.

Leopard's words struck Leon right where it hurt. He could not help but think about Iris' beautiful face and smile.

"What? You broke up?" Leopard was shocked.

He already knew that the two of them were close, and wondered if Leon could be Iris' boyfriend.

Yet, in just a few months, Leon already broke up with Iris!

No wonder Leon had a different girl next to him!

“That’s right,” Leon took a deep breath, forcing back the pain as he composed himself.

“That-” Leopard was stunned. His expression completely sank.

He asked Leon for help because he wanted to see if Leon could get Iris to help him.

Yet, his hopes were completely gone when he heard that they broke up.

“Leopard, is it? You’re really stupid!”

Chapter 666

“Everyone in the underworld knows that the two Kings are on opposing sides. Since your rival joined the Laughing Tiger and the Northern King, you can join the Southern King and ask him for help. Wouldn’t that fix things? Why would you need to go all the way to the Youngs?!” Snow rolled her eyes and said.

Her looks were incredibly stunning, and she was incredibly sexy as well.

Just that eye-rolls was incredibly seductive.

Leopard and his subordinates could feel their hearts racing just from that, completely defeated by Snow’s beauty.

In the end, Leopard’s will was a bit stronger. He was the first to snap back to reality, “Join the Southern King? Miss Poole, you’re thinking about things too simply. The Southern King is one of the great figures in the underworld. He stands at the top of Springfield City! I’m just an insignificant figure in the underworld. Even if I wanted to join someone like him, there’s no way he would even bother with me,” Leopard smiled bitterly.

“If you don’t try it, how do you know it won’t work?” Snow said firmly.

Even though she said that, she knew very well that Leopard was right. Her father was very respected in the underworld. He would not have bothered with someone like Leopard!

“I’ve already tried.”

“You might not know this, but Mistcloud Mountain is quite close to Horsen, the Great Maned Tiger’s territories. I asked to see him a few days before to join him and ask him for his protection, but I was rejected right away. Daily new chapters upload Only on Alaniniz(dot)com Horsen is one of the Southern King’s subordinates, if even the Great Maned Tiger looks down on me, then I won't have any hope with the Southern King," Leopard sighed as he spoke.

If he tried to join Horseson earlier, Horseson might have considered it with his territories and strength.

However, after Chimp's constant attacks, his territories were dwindling.

If Horseson accepted him, not only would it have done nothing, it would even have offended Riker.

Horseson was no idiot, there was no way Horseson would have agreed!

"So that's it."

Snow had a look of realization. After that, she smiled and said, "It's fine, they might not have accepted you before this, but the situation is a bit different now."

"The situation is different? How is it different?" Leopard was stunned, not understanding what Snow meant.

"Then you should just ask Leon. Let's see if he nods or shakes his head," Snow smiled as she looked at Leon.

She did not know Leon's relationship with Leopard, nor did she know if Leon would be willing to let Leopard join her father.

If Leon was fine with it, she would help Leon get everything done!

"It's fine, it's not even a big deal. Leopard, don't worry, I'll help you deal with everything. You don't need to trouble the Southern King," Leon said.

Leopard's opponent was just Riker in the end, it was not like it was the Northern King.

Leon could deal with something like this easily. There was no need to trouble Harold.

"You'll help me deal with it? Do my ears deceive me?!"

Leopard was shocked. He said in a hurry, "Mister Wolf, you might not know this, but Chimp's level is just like mine. He's already in the advanced Acquired State. He also has an expert of the peak Acquired State from the Laughing Tiger to help him!"

Chapter 667

“Even if the two of us work together, we won’t be able to beat them!” Leopard was more and more concerned. as he spoke.

He fought Leon before and knew that Leon was just a bit stronger than him. Leon should not even be at the peak Acquired State.

Leon’s skills would not be useful at all!

Chip even had the Laughing Tiger behind him. If Leon got involved, it would just be sending Leon to an early grave!

“A peak Acquired State expert?” Leon and Snow exchanged a look, and they could not resist laughing.

After what happened at Cynthion Group’s sales drive, Leon was already recognized as the strongest among the younger generation of Springfield City. He was already at a terrifying advanced Supreme Master level!

Even peak Innate State experts would be killed with just one blow from Leon!

“What are you laughing at? Am I not right?” Leopard was getting confused by Snow’s laughter.

“I’m just laughing because you’re too stupid! Even someone at the peak Acquired State is an expert now? It’s hilarious,” Snow said between laughs.

Bang! Bang!

Before Snow could even finish speaking, the door to the room was suddenly knocked down from the outside.

Right after that, over ten muscular men in black shirts rushed in holding various weapons.

One of them was a young man about thirty years of age. The man looked like a monkey and did not look like he had good intentions at all.

He was Leopard’s rival, Chimp!

“Chip, it’s you!”

Leopard’s expression changed as he and his subordinates stood up. All of them looked like they were facing a huge opponent.

Only Leon and Snow remained sitting down calmly, not even moving.

“Leopard, you are quite brave! Even at the brink of death, you’re not hiding in your nest. You dared to walk around like this! Aren’t you just waiting to die?!” Chimp laughed out loud.

If Leopard stayed hidden in his territories, Leopard would not have been so easy to deal with since Leopard had some skills and quite a few subordinates.

Yet, Leopard came to the hotel with just four or five men. It was practically suicide!

When he got the news, he immediately brought his men and rushed over!

“Chimp, don’t you dare!” Leopard’s expression was incredibly dark. He regretted being so careless. He should not have shown himself so publicly.

At that moment, he was caught by Chimp with nowhere to run!

“So what if I dare? Leopard, I’ll give you one last chance. You’d better surrender right now. Hand over all your territories, and I’ll think about sparing your life! Otherwise, you’ll suffer the consequences!” Chimp had a cold smile as a cold glint flashed in his eyes.

“You-” Leopard’s expression darkened.

There was no way he would surrender. He decided to try to fight his way out.

However, before that, he needed to figure out a way to make sure Leon and Snow were safe.

Chapter 668

After all, he owed Leon a great deal. He could not drag Leon down with him!

“Chimp, Mister Wolf, and Miss Snow here aren’t part of the underworld. They have nothing to do with this, they’re innocent. I hope you’ll be honorable and let them leave!” Leopard said.

Hiss!

As he looked toward where Leopard was pointing, Chimp quickly saw how beautiful Snow was. He hissed and widened his eyes.

“How beautiful!”

Chimp gulped as he stared right at Snow’s beautiful face and sexy body. He suddenly had a fire in his eyes as he continued to fix his gaze on Snow.

His subordinates were the same. All of them were completely captivated by Snow's looks.

As for Leon next to Snow, they completely ignored him, not even sparing him a look.

"Chimp, the underworld never hurts the innocent! Come at me, but you have to let the two of them go!" Leopard said coldly.

"Let them go? Do you think that's possible?!" Chimp let looked at him mockingly after he snapped back to reality.

He knew that the underworld was honorable and never involved family or the innocent. If Snow was not that beautiful, he would have considered letting Snow and Leon off.

However, Snow was just far too beautiful and alluring. She was the dream of every man!

He never saw anyone that beautiful before. Just from one look, he was absolutely captivated!

If he could get his hands on someone as beautiful as Snow, he would even be willing to give up ten years of his life. Violating the honor of the underworld was nothing!

"Crap!" Leopard cursed in his heart.

He knew that Chimp was a complete pervert. Chimp probably refused to let them go because of Snow's beauty.

If Leon and Snow fell into Chimp's hands, the situation would be disastrous!

"Mister Wolf, the situation is bad. I'll hold back Chimp and that advanced Acquired State expert. You bring Miss Poole and run away!" Leopard deliberately whispered.

He knew that Leon was a decent fighter, and slightly stronger than him. As long as he was able to hold Chimp and that expert back for a few seconds, Leon would be able to break through with Snow.

"What, you want to run? It won't be so easy!"

Chimp immediately realized Leopard's intentions. With a wave, a dozen of his fierce subordinates surrounded Leopard and the others.

Right after that, Chimp walked over, standing in front of the entrance with a muscular man, completely sealing off any room for retreat. The muscular man's name was Hunter. He was the expert sent by Riker!

"We're done for!" Leopard's emotions sank.

The only exit was that door with Chimp and Hunter blocking the way, they would not be able to break through even with Leon's help, let alone getaway!

"Mister Wolf, I'm sorry. I dragged you down," Leopard was full of despair, not knowing what to do.

"Don't worry, they're nothing to me! I'll help you deal with them right now!" Leon smiled as he stood up.

Chapter 669

"Brat, who are you calling nothing? Do you want to die?!" Chimp was furious as a murderous glint appeared in his eyes.

Hunter's expression was dark as well. With his strength, he was a king in the area around Mistcloud Mountain!

Leon dared to call him nothing. There was no way he could just swallow that!

"Chimp, you seal the exit. Leave those two to me!" Hunter said coldly as he stepped forward.

"Alright! Hunter, you're much stronger than I am. With your help, that brat and Leopard will die!" Chimp said happily.

Even though he did not know who Leon was, Leopard and Chimp were the two strongest fighters in Mistcloud Mountain, and they were only at the advanced Acquired State.

With Hunter's skills at the peak Acquired State, it would be incredibly easy to deal with Leopard and Leon!

"Leopard, come at me with that brat, don't waste my time," Hunter pointed at Leon and Leopard incredibly arrogantly.

“Just with you?”

“You’re quite good at talking, but your actual skills are trash!” Leone was amused by Hunter’s arrogance.

Even Snow was laughing at those words. She acted like she heard the greatest joke in the world!

“Brat, you’re looking down on me? Since you want to die, I’ll grant you your wish!” Hunter was furious. He sent out a punch with enough force to shatter the stone, attacking Leon.

Leon sniffed, not even bothering to both.

“That brat’s been scared stiff! Hunter, you don’t have to show any mercy. Just cripple th is brat. Let him know the consequences of going against us!” Chimp said viciously.

“Hunter, show them what you’ve got!”

Chimp’s subordinates thought that Leon was stunned by fear as well, and all of them cheered intensely!

“Mister Wolf, be careful!” Leopard was shocked as his heart stopped.

He did not know why Leon did not avoid it, but he knew very well that Leon and his skills were more or less at the same level. They were no match for Hunter at all!

If there were no surprises, Leon would not be able to stand up to Hunter!

Looking at Hunter’s attack coming at him, Leon finally moves. He pointed a finger out, and he was incredibly quick as his finger met Hunter’s fist.

Boom!

There was an intense crash, and Hunter flew back from Leon’s finger like he was struck heavily.

Hunter started to spit out blood as he slammed on the wall behind him, crumpling on the ground.

After that, an intense pain ran through his arm and fist. Leon broke his whole arm with one finger!

Seeing that, Chimp was dumbfounded.

Leopard was dumbfounded as well.

Other than Snow, everyone, there was dumbfounded!

They never would have dreamed that Hunter, who was already at the peak of Acquired State, practically a king in their eyes, lost to a single finger from Leon!

Suddenly, they looked at Leon in disbelief. The whole place was silent.

“H—
how strong! Mister Wolf, you’re amazing!” Leopard started to laugh when he recovered from his shock

Chapter 670

Leon said that Leon would help him solve all the problems, but he thought that Leon was just bragging.

Yet, when he saw Leon’s skills, he finally realized that Leon was speaking the truth!

“H—how is this possible?!” Hunter clutched his injured hand as he struggled to get up. His expression was incredibly dark.

The fact that he was at the peak Acquired State meant that Leon was at least an initial Innate State since Leon defeated him in one blow!

He could not understand how an expert like that appeared in such a place!

Chimp’s thoughts were more or less the same.

To him, those at the Innate State were already true martial arts experts. They were existences that he could not touch!

The fact that Leon could be someone at that level caused him to shudder.

“Mister Wolf, I can’t believe you’ve already reached the initial Innate State! You’re so amazing!” Leopard said excitedly.

He knew that the fact that Leon was easily able to defeat Hunter meant that Leon was probably at least at the Innate State!

If he was not mistaken, Leon should already be at the initial Innate State!

Of course, it was natural for him to think that way. The first time he met Leon, he exchanged blows with Leon. He was sure that Leon was only in the advanced Acquired State back then!

It was just a short two or three months. It would already be a miracle for Leon to reach the advanced Acquired State!

He did not think that Leon's skills were above that level!

It was too absurd!

"It's nothing," Leon smiled.

His skills were not at the advanced Acquired State, but already at the level of an intermediate Supreme Master!

Whoever, it was a bit hard to imagine, and he did not want to bother explaining it.

"So he's just at the initial Innate State!" Hunter and Chimp let out a sigh of relief.

Leon was Leopard's friend. Since Leopard said that Leon was just in the initial Innate State, then it was probably true

To them, if Leon was already at the advanced or peak Innate State, the two of them could not offend him.

However, if Leon was just in the initial Innate State, then it was still not enough to scare them!

"Brat, who are you?" Hunter asked in a low voice, wanting to figure out Leon's origins.

Before Leon could answer, Snow interrupted.

"You two have no right to know who he is!" Snow said arrogantly.

"You-" Hunter and Chimp were furious. Yet, Leon was still stronger than them, so the two of them did not dare to do anything.

"Brat, no matter who you are, I don't mind telling you. Our boss is the famous Laughing Tiger, Riker Smith! The fact that you injured Hunter means you're going against Riker! Since you didn't know, I'll give you a chance. As long as you leave right now and stop interfering, we'll forget about this! Otherwise, you'll suffer the consequences!" Chimp threatened.

Even though he already saw Leon's skills, he still had Riker behind him. He was not afraid of Leon.

"Is that so? What if I insist on interfering?" Leon said calmly.
