

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 721-730

Chapter 721

Jensen only agreed to work with Acme Group because Leon asked him to.

"Thank you, Leon..." Ava smiled sheepishly, struggling to meet Leon's eyes.

Leon mentioned that he could help them with contacting Wick Group before Mister Lynch arrived, and Ava, who thought that he was bluffing, merely scorned him.

It was not until this very moment that she realized he had been telling the truth all along, and she had underestimated him.

"You're welcome. I'd appreciate it if you forgive me for destroying your deal with Westpraise Group," Leon said sarcastically.

"I... How would I know that you're actually capable of all these? I was wrong, alright? I shouldn't have suspected you when you offered to help us out of kindness. I apologize..." Ava flushed and apologized sincerely.

Had she believed Leon right away, she and Janice would never have to deal with Mister Lynch, and Leon would never have felt the need to strike Mister Lynch, so Ava admitted that it had indeed been her fault.

"It's fine. Forget it." Leon smiled. He was not one to hold a grudge and would not resent Ava over such a small matter, so the two immediately resolved their differences.

"Thank you for this, Jensen. I owe you one. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com Tell me if you need my help with anything in the future. Just say the word, and I'll do whatever I can," Leon said gratefully.

"We're friends, Mister Wolf, so you don't have to be so polite with me. However, I do have a request. We're running out of the Energy Nurturing Pills, and if possible, I was hoping that you can sell me some," said Jensen.

"Forget about selling them to you! I have two hundred first-grade Energy Nurturing Pills on me right now. Accept them as a gift." Leon pulled out a flask from his pocket and handed it to Jensen.

The Wicks

had helped him time and time again, including supporting him during the sales drive for Cynthion Group a few days ago despite having to face the Fields and the Northern King . Leon had been grateful for their support.

Giving Jensen 200 first–grade Energy Nurturing Pills was only natural as he could not take the Wicks' support for granted.

“Thank you,

Mister Wolf.” Overjoyed, Jensen thanked Leon and accepted the Energy Nurturing Pills.

Ava and Janice were both confused as they were ordinary people who never heard of or knew anything about the Energy Nurturing Pills.

“Mister Wolf, my friends are still waiting for me upstairs, so I'll take my leave now if this is all.” Jensen bowed respectfully at Leon.

“Sure. I won't keep you here. Let's go grab a drink when we've got the time,” said Leon before watching Jensen leave.

Ava and Janice felt confused as to why Jensen seemed to respect Leon so much.

Janice, who already knew that Leon was a brilliant man and that he was friends with Iris and the Shear siblings, was not overly surprised. Ava, on the other hand, thought that Leon got to know Jensen by luck or through friends.

Chapter 722

Judging from Jensen's attitude, it seemed as though Leon was the superior one between the two, and Aval simply could not comprehend how that came to be, so she assumed that perhaps Jensen was simply a respectful person to begin with. She had no other explanation for this matter otherwise.

“Leon, let's go home now that we've signed the contract,” said Janice.

“There's no rush. You were too occupied with work and haven't eaten at all. We can leave after finishing the food,” said Leon. He was used to being thrifty and did not want to let the food go to waste.

“Forget about that! Mister Lynch is a narrow–minded, resentful man. You've just injured him, and I don't think he will let that pass! W e'll leave this place as soon as possible, or he might come back with others!" Ava explained.

"Revenge? If he dares to do that, I'll make sure that he doesn't step out of here alive!" Leon snorted.

He was no longer the good-for-nothing that anyone could bully with no concerns for consequences. If Mister Lynch stopped, Leon would not have gone after him. If the man decided to seek revenge, however, Leon was determined to eliminate him once and for all to prevent him from going after Ava and Janice.

"Can you stop being so stubborn? I know that you might be confident in yourself because you know Mister Wick, but you can't afford to cross Westpraise Group! The Wests are also one of the more powerful families in this city like the Wicks!

"If you cross them, even Mister Wick won't be able to help you!" huffed Ava.

She could tell Leon was capable of dealing with the likes of Mister Lynch. However, Mister Lynch worked for the Wests, and if he decided to turn the Wests against Leon, Leon would not stand a chance.

In her perspective, Leon was just an ordinary man and would not be able to face the Wests on his own, no matter who his friends were.

"Leon, Miss Addice is right. There's no point in causing trouble. Let's just go!" insisted Janice.

She believed in Leon but also knew that Leon was merely an orphan with no family to back him, so he would surely suffer if he crossed a powerful family,

"It's fine; we didn't do anything wrong. Mister Lynch was out of line, and I simply punished him for it. If the Wests are reasonable people, they won't do anything to us. Even if they aren't, I'm not afraid of them!" Leon waved his hand in dismissal.

Though he had only started building his army, he had the Shears, the Southern King, and the Wicks as support, so he had no fear for the Wests even if Mister Lynch turned them against him.

Leon had become a powerful figure himself, and cowering before the Wests would make him look like a fool.

Chapter 723

“You...” Ava was frustrated. She could not understand why Leon was this confident and grumbled internally, ‘Does he think he’s the king of Springfield City simply because he got lucky and became friends with Mister Wick, or does he truly think that he can reason with the Wests? What a joke!’

Just then, the door to the room was pushed open, and a man in his fifties strode in, followed by two bodyguards in black suits.

‘Has Mister Lynch come back to seek revenge?’ Ava and Janice’s hearts sank as they turned to look at the door, but soon relaxed when they saw the man who walked in.

It was not Mister Lynch, but the chairman of Acme Group, Mister Javner.

“Mister Javner, why are you here?” Ava and Janice got up to welcome Mister Javner.

Ava, as the person in charge of the meeting, knew that she had achieved a great accomplishment for securing a partnership with Wick Group.

She thought that the chairman would be over the moon once he found out and both Janice and her would receive a raise, but to her bewilderment, it was not a compliment but a slap across the face that awaited her.

“Look at what you’ve done, Ava!” Mister Javner slapped Ava across the face furiously.

“Mister Javner, what... How can you hit me?” Stunned, Ava palmed her burning cheek.

Janice, too, was startled.

“What do you think? I just received a call from Mister Lynch, saying he’s terminated our contract on behalf of Westpraise Group! I sent you here to talk about renewing the contract, yet you screwed it all up and cost us a tremendous loss! I’m telling you right now! You’re fired!” Mister Javner roared as he glared daggers at

Ava.

After losing Westpraise Group as a partner, Acme Group could only choose to work with Uniqpeace Enterprises and they expected to suffer great losses.

As the chairman of the company, Mister Javner was furious.

Since Ava was responsible for the negotiation, he could only blame it all on Ava.

“Mister Javner, please let us explain! Miss Addice and I-“Janice tried to argue, only to be interrupted by Mister Javner.

“Shut up! You too, Janice Lynch! You were supposed to assist Ava in the discussion w ith Mister Lynch, so you’re responsible for this as well. You’re both fired as of today!” Mi ster Javner roared as he pointed at

Janice.

When Mister Lynch called to confront Mister Javner, Mister Javner did not know the det ail of what happened but could easily guess that Ava and Janice must have crossed the man.

Once he fired the two women, Mister Lynch would surely be pleased, and Mister Javner could send other employees to talk to Mister Lynch. Acme Group might still be able to secure the partnership with Westpraise Group!

Chapter 724

“Why you...!” Janice’s eyes reddened.

Despite having secured the deal with Wick
Group and saved their company billions of dollars, Mister Javner had fired them without giving them any chance to explain themselves. She felt both depressed and frustrated; on the contrary, Ava kept her composure.

She was born in an ordinary family and though they were not wealthy, her parents had loved her and had never hit her no matte r what happened, yet Mister Javner, who was only her supervisor, slapped her across the face.

It was humiliating and though she was furious, she remained calm.

“Mister Javner, I’ve been in this company for over six years and I’ve worked hard to sec ure countless orders and clients for our firm! Though things did happen to the partnershi p with Westpraise Group, but don’t you think you are way out of line here to slap me in t he face and fire us without giving us the chance to explain?! “Ava questioned sharply.

“So what if I am? Did I not pay you for working for Acme Group? Who are you to compla in about having to work hard? You are just dogs that I keep and no matter the reason, y ou two ought to suffer the consequences for breaking Westpraise Group's confidence! Firing the two of you is considered merciful!" Mister Javner sneered.

"Good! Very well!" Ava laughed in rage. Though what Mister Javner said was true, it was a blatant insult toward her.

Even the employees at the lowest level of the corporation required respect, not to mention a director like Ava. However, Mister Javner had been far too materialistic with no sense of decency, and both Janice and Ava were disheartened.

"You blind, old twat! Miss Addice and Janice have already secured a deal with Wick Group for Acme Group and this is how you treat them?" Enraged, Leon grabbed the contract on the table and threw it toward Mister Javner's face.

"How dare y-

" Mister Javner muttered in frustration when the contract hit his face, but froze when he heard the latter half of Leon's sentence.

"What did you just say? You said that they secured a deal with Wick Group?" Shocked, Mister Javner immediately picked up the contract from the floor and glanced through the pages in bewilderment.

It was written clearly on the contract that not only had Wick Group agreed to work with Acme Group, they had agreed to not take any percentage of Acme Group's profit, which would save Acme Group billions of dollars.

Wick Group had control of the bigger proportion of the market and in terms of benefits and future development, working with Wick Group would be far more beneficial compared to working with Westpraise Group and the two were hardly comparable.

"Ava, you two got Wick Group to work with us?"

Chapter 725

"That's great news!" Overjoyed, Mister Javner grinned from ear to ear.

"That's right, Mister Javner, Janice and I signed the contract with Wick Group! Unfortunately, since we've already been fired, this contract will no longer be effective!" Ava sneered and snatched the contract from Mister Javner's hands.

Reminded of the fact that he had just fired Ava and Janice, the grin on Mister Javner's face froze when Ava snatched the contract away from his hands. Ava and Janice had secured a partnership with Wick Group and that was a great accomplishment; however, he had not given them any chance to explain before slapping Ava on the face and firing her and Janice.

'I've been a fool! He thought to himself. Instantly, his heart was filled with regret.

"Miss Addice, it was a misunderstanding. I've wrongly accused you... I will take back my words. I hope you won't hold a grudge against me." Mister Javner smiled; his attitude and tone taking a sharp turn compared to earlier.

He knew that he was supposed to apologize for slapping Ava on the face, but as the chairman of Acme Group and a known figure in elite society, he could not bring himself to apologize to his subordinate. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com Hence, he decided to be coy about it in the hope that they could all forget about what had just happened.

"A misunderstanding? That's it?" Ava mocked.

"What else do you want?" Mister Javner scowled impatiently.

"I don't want a thing. Whether you take back what you said or not, I'm quitting anyway! Whoever wants to be your dog can do as they please, but I have more love for myself and I won't accept that!" Ava said.

What Mister Javner said earlier and the fact that he refused to offer a proper apology had been extremely disheartening.

Ava had her own pride to defend and even if Mister Javner was her supervisor, she could not swallow her pride over a job.

"I'm quitting, too!" Janice agreed.

Though she was not slapped, Ava had been kind to her and she only managed to become the sales manager with Ava's help. Since Ava was leaving the company, there was no reason for Janice to stay.

“What?!” Mister Javner paled. He knew that since the deal with Wick Group was struck by Janice and Ava, the contract would not be effective with both of them gone. It would cost the company a fortune and Mister Javner could not bear the consequence of it.

“Miss Addice, you might want to think this over. You are on a high management level, earning hundreds of thousands each year! If you quit, you might not find such a high-paying job anywhere!” Mister Javner said calmly, without any sign of panic about their threats to resign.

He was the chairman of Acme Group and had encountered countless crises in the past, so he was confident that he could resolve the current situation.

Chapter 726

“Whether I can find another high-paying job is not your concern!” Ava snorted. Despite what she said, she knew that it had taken her incredible hard work to finally rise to the position of sales director after working for over six years in Acme Group. If she left the company, it would be extremely difficult for her to find a job with an equal offer and she might even have to start over.

It was a hard price to pay.

“You both should know that since you’ve secured the contract with Wick Group, you are now the heroes of the company and I will definitely reward you. Miss Addice, if you agree to stay, I will assign you as our Region Manager and your pay will double! As for Miss Lynch, you will take over Miss Addice original position as the new sales director! Do you still want to quit now?” Mister Javner said calmly.

Both Ava and Janice hesitated as they felt their determination wavering. Though it had been humiliating to be slapped across the face, it would be a lie for Ava to say that she was not tempted by the position of Region Manager and a double pay. On the contrary, if she truly left Acme Group, she might not find a decent job at all and for a moment, Ava was at a crossroad.

Janice was even more tempted by the offer. She was only earning forty-five thousand a year and if she became the sales director, not only would she rise to the management level, her salary would triple and she would be able to improve her family’s lives.

“Miss Addice, Miss Lynch, think this over!” Mister Javner grinned smugly.

People were often tempted by what benefited them and he was certain that Janice and Ava would cave before the temptation of higher pay.

“Screw Region Manager and sales director! Janice, don’t listen to him! This kind of man only has his eyes on money and if you continue to work for him, he will sell you out one day!” Leon said coldly.

After listening to what Mister Javner had to say, Leon concluded that Mister Javner was a selfish and immoral materialist. Ava had not thought for a moment of betraying Janice when negotiating with Mister Lynch, but had Mister Javner been here, he would definitely sell Janice out to Mister Lynch.

Janice

had always been a good friend to Leon and he refused to watch as she continued to work for such a despicable man.

“And who are you, brat?” Mister Javner narrowed his eyes coldly at Leon. He did not recognize Leon and assumed that Leon was merely an employee working under Janice and Ava.

Mister Javner was instantly enraged at the thought that a mere employee threw the contract at him and argued with him.

Leon ignored Mister Javner and focused on Janice. “Janice, I’ve started a company recently. You can come to work with me if you are willing to do so.”

Chapter 727

“As for salary, I can offer you forty–five thousand a year without counting other incentives and benefits!”

“What? Forty–five thousand? Leon, are you joking? When did you start your own company? I didn’t even know about it!” Janice gasped in shock.

“It’s kind of a long story. I will tell you all about it later. You just need to trust me!”

Janice had helped him on numerous occasions back in university and he had always been grateful.

Since he had found a certain extent of success in Springfield City, he knew that it was time to repay the ones who had helped him in the past. Offering Janice a job with forty–five annual income was partially his effort in repaying her, but was also done out of consideration for Cynthia, who often had to take care of everything in Cynthion Group.

Janice was one of his most trusted friends and Leon would love to make Janice someone who could be of assistance to Cynthia. It was an idea that happened upon Leon at that very moment.

Janice hesitated for a moment, before nodding. "Yeah... I trust you." She had been a witness to countless of Leon's accomplishments so far and knowing how capable Leon was, she trusted him from the bottom of her heart.

She paused for a moment, before saying, "Miss Addice, too. Leon, can you help her out as well?"

Ava had always been caring toward her and Janice knew that Ava was a talented individual. Since Leon was running his own firm, she wanted Leon to consider hiring Ava as well.

"Sure. That's not a problem!" Leon nodded. Since he was the one who destroyed the deal between Acme Group and Westpraise Group, causing Ava to take a slap to the face, he decided that he owed it to Ava to find her another job.

"Miss Addice, if this is okay with you, you can come to work at my company as well with the same offer as Janice of forty-five thousand a year!" Leon said.

"Leon, are you messing with me?" Ava gaped. Her mind was still stuck on the sight of Leon on his motorcycle and she found it extremely hard to believe that he had the ability to run a company, not to mention offering her forty-five thousand a year.

"Don't worry. I don't make promises I can keep!" Leon promised.

"Well..." Ava was at a crossroad. Leon's offering was far better than Mister Javner's and since she was humiliated by Mister Javner earlier, she desperately wanted to accept Leon's invitation, but she was worried that Leon might be bluffing. However, she then remembered how she doubted Leon before and how Leon was close with Jensen, she realized that Leon might be far more capable than she imagined him to be.

She gritted her teeth and said, "Okay, I'll believe you this one time!" She intended to gamble for once and if she failed, she could always start over again.

"Why you...! Very well!" Mister Javner was enraged. Just as he thought that he was close to convincing Ava and Janice to stay, Leon destroyed his plan. He had originally thought that Leon was their employee, but now that his assumption was proven wrong, he could not figure out who Leon might be.

“Who are you, kid?”

Chapter 728

“How dare you try to take my employees? Do you have a death wish?!” Mister Javner glared daggers at Leon, desperately wishing he could cut Leon up into pieces.

“You are one with a death wish! Old twat, you have one chance to get down on your knees to apologize to Miss Addice. If she forgives you, I might consider letting you go! Refuse, and you will suffer for what you did!” Leon narrowed his eyes maliciously.

did!

He had been the reason why Ava was slapped and since Ava had chosen to leave Acme Group to join Cynthion Group, he had to seek justice on her behalf.

“You want me to kneel?! Who do you think you are?!” Furious, Mister Javner waved his hand and commanded his bodyguards, “teach this kid a lesson so that he learns his place! Also, grab that contract from Ava. Those two can go anywhere they want, but the contract stays!”

Since Janice and Ava had represented Acme Group in signing the contract with Wick Group, he could still proceed with the partnership with Wick Group once he obtained the contract, and Janice and Ava’s resignation should not affect the company. In conclusion, the contract was the key.

“You have no shame!” Ava gasped in fear, not expecting Mister Javner to attempt stealing the contract from them despite firing her and Janice.

Janice, on the other hand, remained calm. She had seen Leon fight in the past and knew that he was more than capable of protecting the contract from two bodyguards.

“Leave this kid to me. You go grab the contract!” The bodyguard on the left signaled at the one on the right, who immediately darted toward Ava. Meanwhile, the bodyguard to the left launched a punch toward Leon with true energy oozing from his fist.

“Do your worst and show no mercy!” Mister Javner sneered viciously. He had hired two skilled martial artists with a fortune who could defeat ten men with ease. Seeing how slender Leon appeared, Mister Javner believed that his bodyguards would be able to destroy Leon within an instant.

“Two men in the Peak Acquired State, huh? Know your places!” Leon chuckled.

As soon as the bodyguards leaped into action, he immediately sensed that they were martial artists at the Peak Acquired State, which were hardly comparable to Leon, who ha d reached the Intermediate Supreme State. Leon stood his ground and sent his true energy toward the two bodyguards.

Baam! Baam! Following two deafening sounds, the two bodyguards were sent flying, with one slamming onto the ground and another one flying toward the door of the room, causing the door to shatter into pieces.

Within a blink of an eye, both bodyguards were rendered helpless.

Since Leon did not hold only personal grudge toward them, he decided to show mercy, or the two would have died.

“How...how is this possible?!” Mister Javner gaped, the sneer on his face freezing in place.

Chapter 729

He had never expected his bodyguards to be defeated by Leon within seconds and would have never believed it had he not seen it with his own eyes.

“Woah!” Ava gasped.

Apart from the minor conflict between Mister Lynch and Leon, this was the first time she saw Leon in action and shocked when she realized that he could easily defeat two professional bodyguards. She had thought that Leon was a poor man with nothing but a motorcycle, but to her bewilderment, not only did Leon know Jensen, he was a skilled martial artist as well.

Ava finally realized that she had been completely wrong about Leon and was instantly filled with curiosity as she wondered who he truly was.

“Old twat, it’s your turn now!” Leon sneered and grabbed the contract from Ava’s hand, before walking toward Mister Javner.

“Wh—
what do you want? I’m warning you! Don’t come any closer!” Terrified, Mister Javner backed away and fell onto the ground.

“Don’t you want the contract? I have it now, so you can come take it if you can!” Leon dangled the contract before Mister Javner’s eyes mockingly.

“I don’t care who you are, but don’t think for a second that you can do whatever you want just because you can fight! I might as well tell you ahead of time, but I’m a powerful man even in the elite community and I have connections with the government and police! If you know what’s best for you, you will hand that c contract over to me right now and I can consider forgiving what you've done, or I will make you pay!" Mister Javner roared.

Up until this very moment, Mister Javner was still determined to take the contract back and decided that he could always deal with Leon later.

"You are going to make me pay? You? Old twat, you like slapping people, right? I'll give you a taste of what it's like to be slapped, then! Let's see how you make me pay for that!" Leon sneered sarcastically, before slapping the contract against Mister Javner's face.

Snap!

Following a deafening sound, Mister Javner saw stars before him. He had never been humiliated to such an extent and covered his swollen cheek with blood—shot eyes.

"Just wait and see. I will have you killed!" Mister Javner roared.

"Killed? Let's see if you can withstand being slapped by me!" Leon narrowed his eyes and slapped Mister Javner again for another six times. Though there were only a few pieces of paper, they felt as hard as wood after being wrapped in Leon's true energy.

Mister Javner spat his broken teeth out with blood filling his mouth and both his cheeks were completely swollen.

Selfish men were often cowards and seeing how Leon had no intention of stopping, Mister Javner fell onto his knees before Leon in fear.

"Please stop. Have mercy on me. I've been wrong..." His blood ran cold and decided to beg for forgiveness.

Chapter 730

"You should have done this right from the start! You just won't give up until I bash you about, huh?" Leon sneered in contempt.

Terrified of Leon, Mister Javner did not dare to let his resentment show.

"Old twat, this is your last chance to apologize to Miss Addice!" Leon said.

“Yes. Yes...” Mister Javner crawled toward Ava and begged. “Miss Addice, I was wrong. I apologize. Please have mercy on me and forgive me...”

“I-

” Ava was stunned. She knew that Mister Javner considered himself her superior and did not expect to get an apology from him, yet Leon had sought justice on her behalf. Not only had Mister Javner apologized to her, he had kneeled as well, and Ava felt excited that the humiliation she felt was returned to Mister Javner.

“It’s fine. Get up...” Ava said while looking at Leon with gratitude.

“Alright. You can leave now!” Leon scoffed.

“Okay. Okay.” Relieved, Mister Javner stood and ran. As soon as he ran out, he bumped into a young man dressed in splendid clothing. The young man did not move, but Mister Javner stumbled backward and fell.

“Who are you, old man? Are you blind or something?!” The young man roared angrily, before leading Mister Lynch and a few other men into the room.

The young man was the Region Manager, the second son of the Wests, Jared West.

“Mister West!” Mister Javner was shocked when he saw the young man.

“I was wondering who it was. You are the chairman of Acme Group!” Jared studied Mister Javner’s face.” How dare you, Mister Javner?! Mister Lynch here represents Westpraise Group and your employees injured him! You people have guts!”

Jared narrowed his eyes coldly in rage.

“Mister West, please forgive me. I have nothing to do with this. I didn’t know that they would do such a thing.... I’ve already fired Miss Addice and Miss Lynch to make things right for Mister Lynch...” Mister Javner explained hastily.

“It’s good that you acted quickly!” Jared snorted, the anger on his face easing. Since Mister Javner was not related to this, Jared did not intend on wasting his time on Mister Javner and directly walked toward Leon, Janice and Ava.

Mister Javner had wanted to leave, but changed his mind after seeing Jared. Not only had Leon slapped Mister Javner, he had forced Mister Javner to kneel before Ava. Mister Javner had never experienced such. humiliation before and resented Leon for it.

Acme Group was merely an ordinary company and since Leon was a powerful martial artist, Mister Javner knew that seeking revenge would not be easy. However, the Wests were a powerful family with countless martial artists at their disposal. As powerful as Leon might be, he would not be able to fight the Wests on his own.

Mister Javner immediately went to hide near the corner with his bodyguards and watched the others from afar.