

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 751

Chapter 751

Elder Young's expression was cold.

"Leon? Old man, are you actually shameless? The Youngs kicked Leon out even after all he did for you, and you even agreed to help me deal with the Shears so we can deal with Leon just now! Now you're hoping that he'll help you get revenge? You really are shameless!"

Harold had a look of mocking on his face as he started to laugh.

"That's right! Leon probably already hates you and Gilbert to the bone. If he found out what happened to you, he'd probably be laughing and clapping his hands. How could he bother getting revenge for you?! What a joke!" Daisy mocked, rubbing salt into Elder Young's wounds.

"You two..." Elder Young's face was turning red, unable to stand Harold and Daisy.

It was like Harold said. When he agreed to ally himself with Harold, he had already decided to kill Leon off. It was just that he had wanted to try to take advantage of the situation, which was why he said he would not face Leon head on.

Just a few minutes ago, he had planned on getting rid of Leon, and at that moment, he was hoping Leon would help him take revenge. It was quite humiliating! Yet, what else could he do?

He was already at his wits end. Most of the family would end up falling into Harold's hands. If he did not put his hopes on Leon, was he supposed to put his hopes on his useless son?

Whether it was strength or ability, Gilbert was just average at most compared to the others of his generation. There was no way Gilbert would be able to beat Harold! Even worse was that Gilbert was just a complete idiot who only knew how to make a mess of things.

Gilbert never even noticed that the son he raised for twenty over years was someone else's. Gilbert had also led Elder Young astray so many times, making him misplace the blame on Leon and chasing Leon out of the family. Everything had been caused by Gilbert, or the Youngs would not be in this state.

In the end, Leon was the only one he could place his hopes on. Only Leon had a chance to help him and the Youngs get revenge. Even though Leon's strength was still not at Harold's level, Leon was young and had limitless potential. He estimated that Leon's abilities would far exceed Harold's in just a few years. Then, as long as Leon could get rid of Harold, the Youngs might be able to survive. Otherwise, the family would slowly be swallowed up by Harold and perish.

"Old man, weren't you hoping that Leon would help you take revenge? Don't worry, that brat has gone against my family so many times. When I gain control of the Youngs, I won't let him off! I'll make sure he joins you in hell!" Harold sneered.

Leon was his enemy as well. He would not let Leon off easily! Once he dealt with the Youngs, he would deal with Leon.

"That's not certain yet! We still don't know who'll be laughing in the end..."

Elder Young's heart sank. Despite what he said, he knew very well that Harold would definitely have the ability to deal with Leon and the Shears once he gained control of the Youngs. Furthermore, Leon's strength was far below Harold's at that moment. It would be very difficult to defeat Harold. Of course, it was pointless even if Leon could. Leon was not part of their family, and he had even kicked Leon out. Why would Leon help them?
