

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 752-760

Chapter 752

It did not sound possible at all! Suddenly, he was filled with regret. He regretted how ruthless he had been. Even if he had wanted to break Leon and Iris apart, he should not have kicked Leon out. Otherwise, the Youngs would have stood a chance if Leon was still around.

"Harold, why are you talking to this old man so much? Just kill him!" Daisy said coldly, sending a fist at Elder Young's vital spot.

"Wait!" Harold reached out and stopped Daisy's attack. After that, he hit Elder Young at the back of the head, knocking Elder Young unconscious. When he fell unconscious, Elder Young was not worried about his own life, but the family.

The family was on the brink of disaster. His only hope was that Iris would be smart enough to discover Daisy and Harold's plot. After that, he hoped that Iris would do everything she could to get back together with Leon for the sake of the family. Then, for Iris' sake, Leon might help the family survive.

Otherwise, if the Youngs were to be destroyed in his hands, he would not be able to face his ancestors when he died. Yet, the hope was incredibly miniscule...

"Harold, this old man should just die. Why are you stopping me?" Daisy said unhappily.

"No, the old man is still an Overlord state warrior. He's one of the top figures in our city. If the two of us kill him, it'll alert the Dragon Corps. It won't do us any good!" Harold shook his head.

He knew very well that the number of Overlord State martial artists in Springfield City was very limited. Every one of them was held in high importance by the Dragon Corps. If Elder Young suddenly died for no reason, the Dragon Corps would definitely look into it. If they found out the truth, then Daisy and him would not be able to get out unscathed.

Daisy frowned. She knew that Harold was right. After that, she said with worry, "This old man already knows so many secrets. If we don't kill him, it might be disastrous!"

"Don't worry, I already used my power to damage his brain just now! From now on, he's just going to be a vegetable. He won't be able to disrupt our plans!" Harold smiled calmly.

“That’s good!” Daisy breathed a sigh of relief.

Putting Elder Young in a comatose was much better than killing Elder Young. At the very least, it would not attract the attention of the Dragon Corps. After a few months, the Dragon Corps would stop paying attention to a cripple like Elder Young. They could deal with him then. After that, Daisy and Harold tidied up the messy room. However, they could not really restore it completely. There were still some traces of battle. If any of the Youngs saw those traces, they would easily figure out what happened to Elder Young.

“Harold, let’s move the scene of the crime. We can’t let the Youngs notice anything!” Daisy said with some worry. With things as they were, they had to eliminate all the evidence to make sure nothing went wrong.

“Alright.”

Harold picked up the comatose Elder Young, and both of them left the study and went to Elder Young’s bedroom. In the bedroom, after tidying it up, they placed Elder Young quietly in bed. Other than looking pale, he looked like he was just sleeping. There did not seem to be anything out of place.

Chapter 753

“Daisy, I’ll leave for now. You can handle everything else!”

Harold

gave Daisy a hug before he left the place without a trace. In truth, Daisy had secretly let him in for this visit, so no one knew he had been to visit the Youngs at all. There was no way anyone would find out what he did to Elder Young.

After

Harold left, Daisy composed herself before she quickly rushed to notify the older generation of the Youngs. She told them that Elder Young’s old illness suddenly resurfaced, and he had fainted in the room.

In the past few years, Elder Young’s body had not been in a good state. He had fainted once before, and Leon had saved him. It was something everyone in the family knew. When Daisy said that Elder Young’s illness was back, they had no reason to suspect Daisy.

After that, the core figures of the family rushed over and saw Elder Young unconscious in the room.

Before too long, Gilbert and Iris rushed over from their company when they received the news as well. There were no traces of battle in the room, and no one knew that Harold had been there. Everyone thought that Elder Young's illness had just come up, and no one guessed that Elder Young had been attacked.

"Dad, why did grandfather suddenly fall ill?" Iris asked frantically.

She had been in deep pain after breaking up with Leon, so it had been difficult for her to even eat. She looked a lot skinnier. What happened to Elder Young caused her mind to fly into even more of a mess.

"I don't know. Your grandfather hasn't been very healthy recently. He might have overworked himself and triggered his old illness..."

Gilbert shook his head with worry. The others were the same. All of them looked incredibly worried. Elder Young was the pillar of the family. With Elder Young in that state, it would not be good for the family at all.

"Dad, what do we do now?" Iris bit her lips.

Other than her aunt, only Elder Young treated her well. Everyone else was worried that Elder Young's illness would affect the family businesses, but she was the only one who was truly worried about Elder Young's health.

"Iris, don't worry. I've already sent someone to get the Holy Doctor. With Graham's skills, I think he'll be able to wake Elder Young up!" One of the older generation said.

When that was said, Iris and Gilbert relaxed a lot more. Only Daisy had a cold smile on her face. She knew that Graham was Holy Doctor, recognized as the best in Springfield City. With his skills, even if he could not cure Elder Young, he would be able to tell that Elder Young had been attacked. However, she was not worried. She trusted that Harold would have already dealt with it.

The moment Graham found out that Elder Young was ill, he went into his medical room to get his equipment. before rushing to the Youngs to treat Elder Young.

Right at that moment, he suddenly felt a chill. He shot back and shouted, "Who's here? Come out!"

"Graham, I'm sorry for disturbing you."

A masked man appeared in front of Graham.

"Who are you? Why are you here?!"

Graham was shocked as he took a few steps back, adopting a defensive stance.

Chapter 754

“Graham, don’t be alarmed! I just have a few things to tell you. When you treat Elder Young later, there are a few things I hope you can say, but there are a few things you can’t!” the masked man said calmly, but the threatening tone in his voice was clear.

“What? Are you threatening me?” Graham’s expression darkened, wondering who that person was and what his intentions were!

“What if I am?” the masked man said coldly as he unleashed an incredibly strong wave of power at Graham.

“Overlord State!”

Graham was shocked when he realized that that person was an Overlord State expert!

The Eliots might be one of the powerful families in Springfield City, but the strongest among them was only a Semi Overlord State!

Graham focused on medicine and never spent too much time on martial arts, so he was only an intermediate Supreme Master.

An Overlord State expert could kill him incredibly easily!

“Graham, I know you’re a smart person. I hope you won’t cause yourself any trouble. It would do you no good! Alright, I’ll stop there. Goodbye!”

The masked man let out a cold laugh before he turned around and disappeared.

Graham had hurried over with his assistant to Elder Young’s room. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com He checked on Elder Young himself before using his tools to look things over.

After looking through everything, Graham obviously saw that Elder Young had been greatly injured on his chest and that his brain had been damaged to the point where he was comatose.

He finally understood what the masked man was warning him about. There had to be an underlying plot going on!

“Graham, how’s my grandfather?” Iris said with care.

“That...”

“Elder Young’s life isn’t in danger at the moment, but his brain is already damaged. He’s in a coma, and it’ll difficult for him to wake up again...” Graham stopped there.

He had wanted to reveal the truth, but thinking of the masked man’s threat and how strong the masked man was, he swallowed back his words.

However, he was still the Holy Doctor and was incredibly ethical. It ate at his conscience that he could not reveal the truth.

“What? A coma?”

Iris and the Youngs were shocked. All of them could not remain calm.

Iris, in particular, was about to cry, but she could do nothing about the situation.

Thankfully, Elder Young was still alive. It was already a blessing!

“Graham, you’re the Holy Doctor. You’re so skilled. Please figure out a way to save my grandfather...” Iris pleaded.

“I’m sorry, Elder Young’s condition is too severe. I’m unable to do anything for him...” Graham apologized. After that, he suddenly recalled Leon.

“Miss Young, I remember Mister Wolf seems to be your friend. His medical skills are better than mine. I would suggest that you give him a try. He might be able to cure Elder Young!” Graham said confidently.

Even though he did not know if Leon could cure Elder Young, he knew that, with Leon’s skills, Leon would definitely be able to tell that Elder Young had been attacked.

That was his way of telling the Youngs the truth.

“That...”

Chapter 755

Iris, Gilbert, and the others fell silent.

The Youngs had not only blamed Leon wrongly in the past, but they also kicked Leon out.

Their relationship was in an awkward spot at that moment, and there was no way they could ask Leon to help treat Elder Young!

Graham did not know what happened between them, so he paid it no mind.

He had already led the Youngs to the answer. The Youngs could decide if they wanted Leon's help, and it would have nothing to do with him!

"Mister Young, I'll prescribe some medicine for Elder Young. Make sure he has it on time every day. It might have some effects," Graham said after some hesitation.

It was not just Elder Young's brain that had been injured, but his chest as well. He could not wake Elder Young up, but he could still treat Elder Young's internal injuries, so they did not get worse.

When Elder Young's internal injuries were cured, there was a chance he could wake up. However, it was very unlikely!

"Graham, thank you." Gilbert and the Youngs did not forget to say their thanks.

Even though they did not know if the medicine could help cure Elder young, it still gave them some hope!

After that, Elder Young left a prescription behind before he bid her farewell and left.

Iris was very conflicted as she watched Graham leave.

She wanted to listen to Graham and ask Leon to help cure Elder Young.

However, the family had been too ruthless to Leon. On top of that, Leon was already Cynthia's boyfriend. She did not know how to approach Leon.

At the very least, she held out some hope for Graham's medicine.

Elder Young's life was in no danger anyway. If the medication proved useless, she would summon up the courage to see Leon!

In the next few days, a dark cloud slowly descended upon the Youngs.

Elder Young was the pillar of the family and was also one of the strongest figures in Springfield City!

News of his illness started to spread, which caused waves amongst the major families.

Not only that, Gilbert was the first in line for succession. He was not capable enough, so he failed to suppress some of the more ambitious folk.

Suddenly, the Youngs looked like they were in dire straits. The shares of the company fell by over ten percent in two days.

It was a rare chance, and many major families were looking at the Youngs, trying to benefit from it.

Right after that, an unknown investment company suddenly seized the initiative. It was as if they were already prepared as they quickly attacked the Young Group's shares, earning a lot of profits.

With someone breaking the stalemate, the Fields, the Collins, the Shears, and the other major families did not fall behind. All of them took the chance to get a piece of the pie.

Their business was the basis of the family. The Youngs could not look on as their company was being split apart by everyone. There was nothing they could do but put in a large amount of money to maintain the shares.

In just five days, the Young Group had lost almost a billion. The company was in a dire financial situation, and they were in an incredibly dangerous state!

The only thing they were thankful for was the fact that, other than Elder Young, there was still another Overlord State expert in the family.

With that person's might, the other forces could only attack the family's business to earn some profits at most, as they could not target the family directly.

Chapter 756

However, the Youngs were still in a bad state despite that. If nothing surprising happened, the Youngs would be at their end if the Young Group was done for!

At Cynthion Group, Leon and Cynthia shared an office to make it easy for him to learn the ropes, but that was not the long-term plan.

He was already familiar with company matters, so he was moved to a different office from Cynthia.

In the chairman's office, Leon was earnestly working at his desk.

At that moment, the door was opened, and Cynthia walked inside.

"Cynthia, do you need me for something?" Leon asked curiously, dropping his work for the moment.

Cynthion Group was rapidly expanding. He had been busy dealing with work matters and did not know about what happened with the Youngs!

"Leon, Elder Young fell sick..." Cynthia said after some hesitation.

"What? Elder Young was just fine. What happened?" Leon stood up in shock.

"I heard that Elder Young's old illness came back, but I'm not sure of the specifics..." Cynthia shook her head.

She knew of Leon's relationship with the Youngs and knew of Leon's feelings for Iris.

She had debated not to tell Leon anything in case anything happened.

However, she was worried that Leon would be unhappy if she hid things, so she decided to tell him the truth.

"H-how is that possible!?" Leon was even more shocked as his expression darkened.

Back when Elder Young fell unconscious, he had saved Elder Young. With his skills, he should have already gotten rid of the illness. There was no way it could have come back!

However, it had been his first time treating someone. He lacked experience. Finding out that Elder Young could have been hit by the same illness, he wondered if he had failed to completely cure Elder Young back then.

"Leon, ever since Elder Young fell sick, there seems to be someone moving behind the scenes in Springfield City. The mastermind is causing the Youngs trouble, and most of the major families have joined in. Even the Shears...

"The Young Group is going through major financial difficulties right now. The situation is dire..."

Cynthia sighed.

In truth, if it had been a normal situation, the Youngs would not have been pushed down by so many major families, even if Elder Young had been ill.

The important point was that someone was pushing things on in the dark, causing the Youngs to fall to that state!

As for who the mastermind was, Cynthia could not figure it out.

“It’s that bad?” Leon’s expression changed as he started to feel anxious.

He would never have expected Elder Young falling ill to impact the family so much!

Even though he did not like Elder Young and Gilbert that much, Iris was still the woman he loved the most.

With the Youngs being pushed down, he was worried about Iris.

“Leon, c—could you be thinking about helping Iris?” Cynthia asked with concern.

The Youngs were in dire straits, so she was very worried that Leon would toss everything aside to help Iris!

What she wanted to see the least was Leon getting back together with Iris because of that!

“I…”

“I do want to help her, but how would I even do that?”

Leon’s expression was dark.

Iris knew that he was skilled medically, and he had saved Elder Young before. Yet, Elder Young had already been sick for a few days, but no one had asked him to treat Elder Young!

Chapter 757

Ever since Iris and the Youngs looked down on him, he had no reason to try to do anything!

Of course, he did not know that Iris and the Youngs did not look down on him. They were just too embarrassed to ask him for help!

“That’s good. Cynthion Group might be somewhat influential in the city, but we still lack economic power. We can’t help them at all!”

Cynthia let out a sigh of relief.

Cynthion Group's pills were the lifeblood of martial artists. When it came to the major families, they had a lot of influence.

However, in terms of economic power, Cynthion Group's total assets did not even amount to a billion.

The Young Group's losses were already way more than that. Even if Leon sold Cynthion Group, it would not be enough to cover their losses!

"I know. I won't act recklessly..." Leon sighed and said.

He knew that he could not help the Youngs financially, but if Iris had come to see him, he would have considered trying to cure Elder Young for her sake.

Yet, Iris and the Youngs still refused to lower their heads to him even in this situation.

With his relationship with the Youngs, there was no need for him to stick his head into the situation!

At Elder Young's room, Iris had already left Elegante's matters to Ariel and Ashwin. She had stayed at home the last few days and put all her attention on taking care of Elder Young, hoping that Elder Young would wake up quickly.

However, the greater her hopes, the more disappointed she became. Elder Young had not reacted at all. It caused her to feel more and more disappointed.

At that moment, she heard some footsteps. Gilbert and Daisy had entered with a few of the older Youngs. "Iris, is he getting any better?" Gilbert's eyes were reddened as he asked.

The past few days, the major forces in Springfield City had worked together to push down the Young Group. As the chairman of the company, he had been incredibly busy. It had been a few days since he got any rest.

If Elder Young still did not wake up, he felt like he was going to collapse soon!

"No..." Iris shook her head.

"This is bad!" Gilbert clenched his fists as his expression soured, but there was nothing he could do.

"Dad, what happened?" Iris finally realized something was off with Gilbert as she asked.

The past few days, she had focused on caring for Elder Young and did not know what happened to the Young Group.

“Don’t even talk about it. Ever since father fell ill, an unknown investment company has been pushing the other major families to pressure the Young Group. We’ve already lost over a billion, and it looks like we’re in a bad state financially...” Gilbert clenched his teeth.

He might not be the most talented businessman, but he was no slouch.

He could tell that the unknown company was deliberately targeting the Young Group, taking this chance to cause waves. Otherwise, they would not be in this state!

“What? How did that happen?! Who’s the mastermind?” Iris was shocked.

“I don’t know. They hid their tracks too well. I haven’t been able to find out who it is...”

Gilbert’s expression darkened.

They had failed to look into it even with the Youngs’ power. It was obvious that, even if the culprit was not one of the four great families, they were at least at the level of the two Kings!

Chapter 758

Yet, he still failed to figure out where they were from.

Iris fell silent for a moment before she clenched her teeth and got up to head out.

“Iris, where are you going?” Gilbert asked.

“I’m going to look for Leon. I’ll ask him for help. He’s a very talented doctor. He might be able to save grandfather!” Iris said with a sigh.

She already knew that Elder Young’s illness would affect the family, but she never expected it to be so major!

The Youngs were in an incredibly dangerous position. She could no longer care about her pride!

For the sake of her family and her grandfather, she had to ask Leon for help. If Leon could cure her grandfather, then the Youngs might be able to turn things around!

It was the only chance their family had!

“No, you’re not to see him!” Gilbert immediately denied.

“Why?” Iris was surprised as she looked at her father curiously, not understanding why he stopped her.

“The Shears are also one of the families who tried to push us down. I’m starting to wonder if they are the ones targeting us behind the scenes! Wouldn’t you just be inviting our enemy in if you look for Leon? I won’t agree to it!” Gilbert said coldly.

Even though he did not know if the Shears were culprits, the Shears had gotten stronger thanks to Leon. The Shears were showing signs of growing stronger than the other families!

On top of that, the Shears had clearly taken part in this. No matter how he looked at it, it was very possible for the Shears to be the ones responsible. At the very least, the Shears were the most suspicious!

Elder Young was sick, but his life was not in danger. The major forces were all worried that Elder Young would wake up at any moment, so they were still too scared to destroy the Youngs completely!

However, if Iris invited Leon in and Leon ended up killing Elder Young instead of curing Elder Young, then the Young would truly be done for!

“Impossible! Leon’s not that type of person!” Iris shot back.

“That might not be the case! You can’t judge a book by its cover! Your grandfather and I kicked Leon out of the family back then. He might already hate your grandfather to the bone. Who knows if he’ll take the chance to kill your grandfather before working with the Shears to swallow us up!” Gilbert said coldly.

“But...”

Iris was still stubborn.

He knew of Leon’s relationship with her family and knew that Leon would definitely not have a good impression of her grandfather, but she believed that Leon was not someone who would do anything like that!

“Iris, don’t be stubborn!”

“Your father is right. Leon’s our enemy right now. He won’t help us for no reason!”

“Even if he knows some medicine, it’s not like he’s actually a doctor. He was just lucky to cure Elder Young last time. It’s not like his skills are reliable, or the elder’s illness wouldn’t have returned!”

“That’s right, even the Holy doctor couldn’t cure it, so how could Leon do it?”

“If he really kills the elder, then the family would be ruined!”

The others agreed with Gilbert’s view.

Even though the Young Group was barely holding on at that moment and Gilbert had barely managed to stabilize the situation after the past few days, no one agreed with Iris!

Chapter 759

Leon had a grudge against the Youngs and was a part of the Shears. How could the Youngs leave their fates in the hands of an enemy?

It was just suicide!

“That...” Iris had nothing else to say.

She knew that what they said was reasonable. Leon was already Cynthia’s boyfriend, so he had nothing to do with her!

With Leon’s relationship with the Youngs, it was already amazing that Leon did not take the chance to sabotage them. How could he be willing to help them!

It would be useless even if Leon was willing to help them!

She did not know much about Leon’s medical abilities, but she did not think that Leon was a better doctor than Graham. She felt like Leon would probably not be able to save Elder Young!

If she went to ask Leon for help, she would just humiliate herself, and she might even accidentally kill Elder Young!

She found herself in a difficult position, not knowing what to do!

"It's better to rely on ourselves! Iris, from the moment Leon rejected getting back together with you, he already drew the line as our enemy! You shouldn't expect anything from him anymore!" Gilbert said sadly.

After all, he had been the cause of the two of them breaking up, so he did feel guilty toward Iris.

"I understand..." Iris' face paled, and her heart ached.

Of course, she did not know that Leon had not rejected getting back together with her at all. Even at that moment, Leon was still dreaming of getting her back!

If she asked Leon to do something, Leon would never ignore her.

Unfortunately, when it came to Leon and her father, she chose to believe her father once again!

"Gilbert, the current situation is very bad for us. What do you plan on doing next?" Daisy asked. She had a strange look in her eyes.

No one knew better than her that the person behind all of it was actually Harold. She and Harold were the true culprits behind everything.

However, Gilbert was too stupid and actually mistakenly thought that Leon and the Shears could be the culprits. It was amazing news for Harold and herself!

"The situation with the company is already stable for the moment. It's just that we're really lacking in funds. We'll need around 780 million to stabilize the situation..." Gilbert said with worry.

"That much? We're already incredibly poor. Where would we get that money?"

The Youngs exchanged looks with each other, feeling incredibly unsettled.

It was far too large a sum for them to do anything about!

With Elder Young's state, the Youngs were in a dangerous situation. Even if the Youngs tried to use their connections to borrow from the bank, they would not be able to get nearly that much!

Everyone knew that!

Suddenly, Gilbert and everyone else fell silent, not sure of how they would get through this!

“Who said we don’t have any more money? Don’t we still have Elegante Group?! As long as we sell Elegante Group, we’ll be able to avoid this crisis!” Daisy dropped a bomb.

“What? How could we do that?!” Iris was shocked.

Elegante had been left to her by Elder Young, and Elder Young had wanted it to be a wedding gift for her in the future!

She never expected Daisy to mention her company!

Elegante had only been worth 40 to 50 million dollars initially. After two years of hard work, on top of Leon’s contributions, the company was already worth several times that amount.

Chapter 760

She had put so much of her efforts into Elegante Group to bring it up, but Daisy wanted to take it away just like that, even trying to sell the whole company!

It was too shameless!

“Why not? Elegante belonged to the Youngs anyway. The elder merely gave it to you temporarily! The Young Group is in trouble. Why can’t we sell Elegante Group to protect the Young Group?” Daisy sneered.

She never got along with Iris. It was a rare chance, so she planned on forcing Iris to sell the company, leaving Iris with nothing!

That was the consequence of Iris going against her!

“Yes, that’s a good idea! Elegante Group is currently worth about 650 million. With the company’s future potential, we should be able to sell it for a good price, possibly more than that!”

“That should solve the Young Group’s troubles!”

The older generation all nodded, agreeing with Daisy.

In truth, all of them knew that it was meant to be a wedding gift from Elder Young to Iris, but Iris was not marrying anyone at that moment, and Elder Young was sick. They would naturally forget about that!

To protect the Young Group and for the sake of the family, they were forced to sacrifice the Elegante Group!

They knew which was more important!

“No, I refuse! Elegante Group can take out 130 million to support the Young Group. That’s already the best we can do! However, I refuse to sell the company!” Iris objected.

Elegante was developing very well. On top of that, the high-end cosmetics Leon developed meant they had a lot of potential. They will be a lot bigger in the future!

Selling Elegante in such a situation was too stupid!

“What’s the point of 130 million?”

“Only by selling the company will the Young Group be able to get over the hurdle!”

“That’s right, are we supposed to just watch as the Young Group falls into bankruptcy by not selling Elegante Group?!”

The others were incredibly unhappy.

The Young Group was the foundation of the Youngs. All of them were closely tied to the Young Group. If the company really went bankrupt, then none of them would have good days ahead!

“Iris, I know Elegante Group was a wedding gift to you, but you don’t even have a boyfriend right now. Who knows when you’ll marry?! I think you can just sell Elegante first and help us out. I assure you, once the company gets through this, I’ll buy you a new company to manage. Wouldn’t that be fine?” Gilbert said.

He was the chairman of the Young Group. He would be the one holding the most responsibility if the Young Group went bankrupt!

Whether it was for himself or for the family, he had to make Iris sell Elegante!

“Dad, can you stop being so stupid?! The Young Group is in such a bad situation right now. There’s still the mastermind and the other major families keeping watch. Even if I sell Elegante, it might not help the Young Group go through this!”

“On the other hand, if we keep Elegante, then even if the Young Group is shut down, Elegante can keep all of us wealthy. Then, we’ll have some hope that we’ll rise back so meday!”
