

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 761-770

Chapter 761

Iris was incredibly frustrated.

She was adamantly refusing to sell Elegante, not just for herself. She was also leaving a contingency behind for the Youngs!

“That...”

Hearing Iris' reasoning, Gilbert and the others were speechless.

They knew that Iris was right. Leaving Elegante Group behind would definitely benefit the Youngs.

Yet, surely they could not leave Elegante behind and abandon the Young Group?

They were suddenly caught in a difficult position, not knowing what to do!

Seeing as Gilbert and the others had already been convinced by Iris, Daisy did not panic. She smiled and said calmly, “Gilbert, since Iris doesn't want to sell Elegante, then let's forget about it!”

“But, what do we do about our financial situation if we don't sell Elegante?” Gilbert said with worry.

“That's simple. I think we can ask Harold Lowe for help!” Daisy said.

“The Northern King?” Gilbert was stunned.

“That's right. The Youngs fell into this predicament because the Fields, the Collins, the Shears, and other major families have been taking the opportunity to push down our company. They're trying to benefit from this, but only the Northern King hasn't taken part!”

“I think Harold hasn't been doing so because he still wants to form a marital alliance with the Youngs. He doesn't want to offend us for some small benefit!” Daisy said firmly.

“Yes, that's possible!” Gilbert nodded in realization.

From the surface, Harold had not participated in all of this at all.

He knew that Harold did not have a reputation for being a good man in the underworld. The fact that Harold was willing to let go of such easy profits must mean that he still had some hope for the marriage!

“Since that’s the case, why don’t we agree to his proposal? Then, we can use their wealth to handle our financial difficulties easily! Harold had even agreed back then that, as long as Iris and Jacob got married, the Lowes would be willing to submit to the Youngs unconditionally! To be honest, with the help of the Northern King and his family, even if anything happens to the elder, the other forces in Springfield City won’t be able to do anything to us!” Daisy said with a fire in her eyes.

“That...” Gilbert was immediately convinced by Daisy.

Elder Young was already comatose. It was hard to tell if his life would end up in danger someday.

With the Young Group’s predicament, if Elder Young lost his life, the Young Group would probably end up getting eaten up by the other major families!

The Young Group would end up completely gone, and the Youngs would be completely lost!

Yet, as long as the Youngs managed to get Harold’s support, the situation would be different!

With the Lowes’ power, it would be incredibly easy for them to help the Young Group go through their difficulties. Even if Elder Young really ended up dying, the other major families would not dare to act rashly against the Youngs for fear of the combined might of the Youngs and the Northern King!

It was their only chance to turn the tides!

Of course, Gilbert was not the only one who was convinced; the others were too!

They knew very well that the Youngs would have a firm footing even if Elder Young never woke up as long as the Youngs established an alliance with the Lowes by marriage!

Even more so, the moment the Youngs gained control of the Northern King’s power, they would have enough to become the head of the four great families and even monopolize the whole city!

Chapter 762

That had been their dream for many years!

“No! I already told you. I won’t agree to marry Jacob. Grandfather already agreed to this and already rejected the proposal a few days ago!” Iris said angrily!

She never expected Daisy to be so sinister, first wanting to get her to sell Elegante, then turning around and planning on making her marry Jacob right after that!

It was despicable!

“That was then, and this is now! The elder handled everything in the family before this, but now that he’s ill, your father makes all the decisions!” Daisy sneered.

“Yes, Daisy is right! Gilbert, times are different now. The Youngs are in a bad situation. If we get a marriage alliance with the Lowes, it’ll be nothing but good for the family!”

“That’s right, Gilbert. As long as you agree to let Iris and Jacob get engaged, we’ll immediately support you in becoming the next head of the family!”

They had wanted a marriage alliance between the two families in the first place. It was just that Elder Young had forcibly pushed all of those ideas down.

With Elder Young in that state and the family’s dire situation, the intentions were renewed.

“I…” Gilbert was feeling very emotional at that moment.

Even though he was first in line to take over the family, his strength and abilities were nothing special. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com On top of that, there were problems with the Young Group that already made a lot of the family unhappy. It would not be very easy for him to take over the family smoothly!

Yet, at that moment, as long as he agreed to the marriage, he would be able to earn their support and easily assume the position of head of the family!

There was no way he would not be tempted by that!

However, he knew that Iris would never accept a political marriage. It would be too shameful of him to sell his daughter off for power and profit!

He was definitely hesitating.

“Dad, even if I have to die, I won’t agree to this! Can you not force me?” Iris pleaded to her father.

Before Gilbert could even answer, Daisy rushed forward. "Iris, this isn't your choice to make! We asked you to sell Elegante earlier, and you refused. Now, we're asking you to marry Jacob, and you're still refusing! What do you want us to do? You're a daughter of the family. Now that the family is in a difficult spot, you're just allowing the family to sink for your own sake. You're too selfish!" Daisy said coldly.

Hearing Daisy's words, Gilbert lost his hesitation and made a decision.

"Iris, I'm giving you a chance here! I'll give you two choices right now. Either you sell Elegante to help the family, or you marry Jacob! You can make your own choice!" Gilbert said coldly.

"I..." Iris paled. Her mood sank completely.

She had already given up a lot for the sake of the family, even losing the only man she loved.

Yet, what had she gotten in return? She either needed to sell Elegante she had worked so hard to bring up, or get engaged to Jacob!

She felt a chill in her heart.

"Whatever, I'll just sell Elegante..."

Iris bit her lips before she left miserably.

Chapter 763

Looking at Iris slowly disappearing, Daley let out a pleased smile.

The next day was a Saturday, so it was the weekend.

In the morning, Leon suddenly got a call from Ariel saying that she had something, very important to talk to Idus about. After that, she invited him to meet at a high-end cafe in the suburbs.

At Star Cafe, Leon had hurried over on his motorcycle. Right as he stopped his motorcycle, the door of a red Maserati next to him suddenly opened, almost knocking him over.

Right after that, a fashionable, beautiful woman with a nice figure walked out of the car with a snide “Idiot, watch where you’re going! Do you even know how to park? Do you think you can afford the repairs if you hit me?” The young woman barked at Leon, looking at the motorcycle Leon was riding in disdain.

Leon was shocked as she suddenly recalled Ariel’s beautiful looks.

The first time he met Ariel, the situation was very similar to this one.

Ariel’s door had almost knocked him over, but she had still scolded him unreasonably.

However, Ariel was a bit more well-mannered. Even if she scolded Leon, she did not have an arrogant tone to her voice.

The woman in front was different. She looked like she thought she stood above everyone else.

“Idiot, I guess you know your place!”

Seeing as Leon did not say anything, the woman sneered at Leon. After that, she left arrogantly, looking like she did not want to deal with someone as low-classed as Leon.

Leon let out a wry smile as he looked at the young woman leaving.

He was not a man who would fight a woman. Even if she had been at fault, he would not bother dwelling over such petty matters.

After that, Leon sighed before he walked into the cafe.

In the cafe, Ariel was sitting in a corner with a look of worry on her face, waiting for Leon.

“Ariel, did something happen?” Leon forgot about what happened earlier as he walked over and sat in front of Ariel.

“Leon, something happened to Elegante....”

“Last afternoon, Iris suddenly announced that she was going to sell Elegante for some reason. She asked Ashwin and me to be in charge of it..”

Ariel looked incredibly worried.

“What? Why would Iris sell Elegante for no reason?” Leon was shocked by the news.

“The Young Group is suddenly in a bad financial situation. She wants to sell Elegante to help with that...”

Ariel explained briefly.

“So that’s what’s happening!” Leon immediately understood.

He had already heard about the Young Group’s financial situation from Cynthia. It was not strange for Iris to sell Elegante if that was the case.

“It’s just that Elegante is going very well lately. If nothing bad happens, the company will make at least one or two hundred million a year, and it’ll keep increasing!”

“Wouldn’t Iris selling Elegante just be killing the golden goose?!”

Leon frowned.

When he was working at Elegante, the company’s biggest clients were secured by him, and he was the one who developed their high-end cosmetics.

It was not just Iris who worked hard for Elegante. He definitely put in a lot of blood, sweat, and tears as well!

Even if he already left Elegante, he did not want Iris to sell it!

Chapter 764

“I know it’s a bad choice too...”

“I tried to advise her so many times yesterday, but she didn’t want to listen. She insisted on selling Elegante. Nothing I said worked...”

Ariel looked very frustrated.

“That...” Leon’s mood sank.

He knew that the Young Group had fallen to that level mainly because Elder Young had fallen ill.

Yet, Iris would rather sell Elegante than ask him to cure Elder Young.

It was obvious how he would feel!

“Leon, even though you’ve already broken up with Iris, you were still her boyfriend before. The two of you had feelings for each other. I hope you can give Iris some advice. Maybe she’ll change her mind!” Ariel revealed the reason she came over, hopefully.

“Impossible! You’re her best friend, but even you couldn’t sway her. What could an ex-boyfriend like me do?”

“Leon said.

“That’s not necessarily true! Ever since Iris broke up with you, she’d been very sad. She’s been particularly dispirited lately and is both miserable and in a lot of pain. I can tell that she still likes you. As long as you appear, she’ll listen to you,” Ariel said in a hurry.

She was like a sister to Iris. The two of them worked together every day. She knew Iris better than anyone else!

She was sure that Iris was still deeply in love with Leon!

“Ariel, don’t joke around! I’m probably already a stranger in her heart. How could she still like me?!” Leon smiled sadly. He had to hold back the bitter feelings in his heart.

Iris had decided to sell Elegante rather than talk to him and was not even willing to see him.

If he was not mistaken, Iris must be planning on completely cutting ties with him. There was no way she still had any feelings for him!

He had some self-awareness!

“No, that’s not it. Listen to me, Iris really...”

Ariel wanted to help Iris explain things, but Leon stopped her before she could finish.

“Ariel, don’t say anymore! I can’t help you with this.” Leon shook his head.

Even though Iris was still the only woman Leon loved, he would not obsess over Iris and did not want to follow her every move!

Since Iris already planned on cutting ties with him, he would not go pleading to Iris!

That was a matter of pride!

“But, you gave so much to Elegante before this. You’ve played a large part in Elegante reaching its current state! Are you really going to just watch as your hard work is sold off?” Ariel said.

“I...”

Leon fell silent.

Ariel was right. He really had given a lot to Elegante.

Most importantly, there were a lot of beautiful memories within.

He could not bear to see Iris selling the company!

“Ariel, don’t worry. I’ll figure out a way to solve this,” Leon sighed and said.

“How will you do that?” Ariel was curious.

She had purposely invited Leon over in hopes that Leon would help talk to Iris. Other than that, she could not figure out any other way Leon could help!

Chapter 765

“It’s possible, I plan on buying Elegante!” Leon said after some hesitation.

Even though he acted like he did not care about Iris, he was actually still very concerned for her.

Since Iris was unwilling to see him, he would have to figure out a way to buy Elegante Group to help Iris in

That was the only thing he could do for the woman he loved at that moment!

No matter how Iris and the Youngs treated him before, he just wanted to ensure he had no regrets!

“What? Don’t joke around! Elegante’s market price can go as high as 650 million. How could you get the money to do that?” Ariel was shocked, not believing her ears,

“That... I can’t give you a clear answer right now, but I’ll do my best!” Leon said somewhat awkwardly.

Cynthion Group’s market value at that moment was between 650 to 780 million, but it was shared between him and Cynthia. Even if he sold all his shares, he would not be able to buy Elegante!

He would need to discuss things with Cynthia before he could make a decision!

“Oh, I thought you really had a way to do it. So you were just bragging to cheer me up...”

Ariel looked very disappointed.

She really did hope that Leon would be capable of buying Elegante so the company did not fall into anyone else's hands.

Unfortunately, she knew Leon's background. He was a powerless orphan that had just been kicked out of Elegante not too long ago.

She felt like Leon would probably not even be able to take out a few hundred thousand, let alone such a huge amount!

It did not sound possible at all!

Bang!

At that moment, a clear sound was heard.

Not far away from Ariel and Leon, a young employee accidentally bumped into a customer next to her with a cup of coffee in hand.

The coffee immediately splashed everywhere, and some of it splashed on the customer's clothes.

The cup dropped on the floor as well, shattering into pieces.

Leon looked over and could not help but feel surprised. The customer in question was the woman he had bumped into outside the cafe.

At that moment, there was a thirty-odd-year-old man sitting in front of the arrogant woman. The two of them looked like lovers.

“I'm sorry, I'm sorry...”

The employee panicked as she quickly apologized to the arrogant woman.

The employee was quite young, only about twenty years old. She looked quite pretty and youthful and was probably a part-time worker from one of the universities nearby.

Smack!

The woman was furious as she slapped the girl.

“Are you blind?! What are you even doing? Do you know how to serve coffee properly?!” The woman berated.

“I—I didn’t do it on purpose. You suddenly turned around and bumped into me. That’s why the coffee...”

The girl’s eyes were reddening as she held her face.

“You can’t even handle a cup of coffee, and now you’re blaming me?” The arrogant woman got even angrier.

She pointed at the employee and cursed, “Wretch, do you know how much these clothes cost? It was over ten thousand dollars. If you aren’t worth that much!”

“What? Over ten thousand?” The employee was shocked by the price.

“You stupid thing! You ruined my clothes, so pay for them right now!” the arrogant woman said furiously, cursing internally that she was really unlucky that day!

Chapter 766

She had first bumped into an idiot outside the cafe that almost ran into her car, and then the wretch spilled coffee on her!

“I—I don’t have the money...”

The employee paled, not knowing what to do.

“That’s your own problem! I don’t care how you do it, but you have to pay me back for my losses today. I won’t accept anything less!” the arrogant woman said.

“But, you were the one who bumped into me, you can’t completely blame me...” The employee was in such a panic that she almost cried.

“You’re still trying to twist the truth?!” The arrogant woman was furious as she sent another slap over.

Leon was completely stunned at everything that was happening. Before he could even do anything, a figure walked past him. Ariel had already started to walk over.

Since everything had happened behind Leon initially, he had not seen what happened and did not know who was to blame.

However, Ariel had been facing the arrogant woman. She saw very clearly that the woman was the one who bumped into the employee!

Ariel reached out and grabbed the woman's hand as she was able to land another slap.

"Can you be more reasonable? I saw everything clearly just now. You were the one who bumped into her. She already got slapped by you once and already apologized. You're really crossing the line by pushing the issue like that!" Ariel said unhappily.

In truth, quite a few of the people in the cafe had seen that the arrogant woman was the one who pushed the employee. It was just that the arrogant woman was dressed up too well and did not seem like a normal person. So, everyone decided to ignore it to avoid causing themselves any unnecessary trouble.

However, Ariel was different. She had a fiery personality and a strong sense of justice. Only she stood up to speak for the employee's sake.

"Who do you think you are to try and teach me a lesson? Get lost!" the arrogant woman shouted.

She was already used to having her way with everything, and Ariel was much more beautiful than her, which ignited her jealousy. She sent a slap right at Ariel!

"You..." Ariel was furious.

She was not someone who would let others do whatever they wanted to her. She avoided the arrogant woman's slap and sent one right back.

Smack!

A clear sound was heard. The arrogant woman had been defenseless as she got slapped.

"You wretch, how dare you hit me?! I'm coming for you!"

The

arrogant woman went crazy as she started to claw at Ariel's hair and face.

Ariel was very quick, and she kicked the woman on the floor.

The woman had lost to Ariel twice, so she realized that she was no match for Ariel. After that, she shouted at the young man next to her in frustration, "Wilfred Javner, what are you staring at? She hit me! Hurry up and teach her a lesson..."

Everything had happened too quickly, and the man was completely stunned.

He only reacted when the arrogant woman shouted out, and without a second thought, he sent a slap right at Ariel.

Ariel was still a girl in the end, and she was more than capable of dealing with that shrew.

However, Wilfred was a well-built young man. She was no match for Wilfred and looked on as the slap was sent at her.

Right at that moment, a large hand appeared in front of Ariel, grabbing Wilfred's wrist.

"Leon!"

Ariel was elated when she saw that it was Leon.

Chapter 767

Ever since she got to know Leon, the both of them had gone through a lot. She knew that Leon's martial arts were quite good. He was her favorite type of man, a strong hero.

With Leon by her side, she felt a sense of security.

"Brat, who are you? Let me go!" Wilfred looked at Leon in shock and anger. After that, he pulled his arm back, trying to escape Leon's grasp.

However, Leon's grip was very strong. It felt like Leon was going to shatter his arm. No matter how hard he pulled, he could not escape Leon's grasp!

"It's you!"

The arrogant woman got up from the ground, immediately recognizing Leon.

"Maisie, you know this guy? Who is he?" Wilfred was surprised. He looked at Leon before looking at the woman with uncertainty.

"I don't know him! He's just an idiot who rides a motorcycle. He almost ran into me outside the cafe!" Maisie said in disdain.

“So he’s a useless ruffian!” Wilfred sniffed.

Luxury cars were everywhere in society, and motorcycles were essentially never used anymore.

In his eyes, any rich and powerful man would be riding high-end sports cars. Motorcycles were just for the poor!

How could he be bothered with a powerless and poor bumpkin?!

“Brat, I’m warning you, let me go right now! Otherwise, don’t blame me for being rude!” Wilfred looked right at Leon, threatening him.

“What if I refuse?!” Leon said calmly.

“You…”

Wilfred was furious.

He had just been about to shout when footsteps were heard. A middle-aged man in a suit about fifty years of age walked in with a few guards.

“The boss is here!”

A few of the customers could immediately tell who the middle-aged man was. It was the owner of the cafe.

When the owner appeared, Leon scoffed and let Wilfred go.

“Young Master Javner, Miss Town, you’re here. Sorry for not welcoming you!”

The owner clearly knew Wilfred and Maisie and seemed to be very friendly with them.

From what he knew, Wilfred was the heir of Acme Corp, so he was an important person. Meanwhile, Maisie was Wilfred’s lover.

They were not people a mere cafe owner like him could offend!

“Mister Grover, you came at the perfect time! Your employee spilled coffee all over my girlfriend’s clothes. It’s up to you how you want to deal with that!” Wilfred said proudly.

“Young Master Javner, don’t worry, I’ll make sure to give you a satisfactory answer…”

He tried to curry favor with Wilfred as he looked at the female employee. His expression darkened as he shouted, “Shirley, what were you doing? You can’t even serve coffee properly!”

"You're fired. Also, you need to pay Miss Town back for her clothes!"

"Sir, I didn't do anything. She suddenly bumped into me and spilled the coffee..."

Shirley was anxious and frustrated. She started to cry.

Ariel was furious as she shouted, "What is wrong with you? You didn't even bother figuring out the truth before you decided to blame your employee. Are you the owner here?"

"Who are you? I can deal with my own employees however I want to. It has nothing to do with you..."

Grover looked at Ariel before he immediately felt amazed as he stopped talking.

"That's right. Are you blind?"

Chapter 768

"My clothes are already ruined, what's there to talk about?!" Maisie sneered.

"That's not necessarily true! We'll know who's in the wrong after looking at the CCTV footage!" Leon pointed at the cameras on top, unhappy with how the owner was doing things as well.

Maisie's expression suddenly darkened.

Grover obviously knew what to do in that situation. It was obvious that Maisie had probably knocked over Shirley.

However, Wilfred and Maisie were not people she could offend. He quickly made a decision!

"The camera is broken. We can't look at the footage!" Grover waved it off and said impatiently.

"Is that so? It really broke at such a perfect moment!" Ariel scoffed.

"Stop wasting time! Where are the guards? Catch those three! They're all working together. That wretch even slapped me just now. Make sure you all teach the three of them a lesson. Beat them up until I'm satisfied!"

Maisie ordered.

Grover hesitated for a moment before he nodded, allowing it.

After that, the four guards walked forward, surrounding Leon and Ariel.

“Thank you, you two. This has nothing to do with you. You should just leave. I don’t want to drag you two down...”

Shirley was incredibly scared as she looked at Leon and Ariel with worry.

“Don’t worry. It’s just a few guards. They’re nothing to me!” Leon smiled and said.

Ariel had seen Leon’s martial arts before. She knew that Leon was skilled and was not worried.

“Brat, you can really talk! Beat him up properly. Make sure he knows his place!”

Wilfred waved and said coldly.

The four guards were already angered by Leon underestimating them. They were not very willing to attack Ariel and Shirley, but they rushed right at Leon!

“My guards are all retired soldiers. This ignorant brat really is an idiot for challenging them like that!” Grover said in contempt. He looked at Leon like an idiot.

“That’s right. How dare they go against me. I’ll make them pay a painful price!” Maisie said venomously. She could already see herself trampling all over Leon and Ariel!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Right as they felt like they were definitely going to win, Leon made his move.

He sent out a few attacks in a row, and the guards flew everywhere..

After that, all of them crashed on the ground, losing their ability to fight back.

“H—how did that happen?”

Everyone was stunned at the sight, rubbing their eyes in disbelief.

They could not believe that Leon, who looked on the skinnier side, managed to defeat four muscular guards. in a matter of seconds.

It was too unbelievable!

Wilfried and Daisy, in particular, started to retreat a few steps, looking at the scene in fear.

However, Wildred was still the heir of Acme Corp. He quickly composed himself.

“Brat, no wonder you were so arrogant, so you are a martial artist! However, money and power are all that matter in this world. No matter how strong you are, you won’t be able to do anything in the face of my wealth!” Wilfried sneered.

“That’s right!”

Chapter 769

“Brat, do you know who Young Master Javner is? He’s the heir of Acme Corp! How dare a piece of trash like you try and go against him?!” Grover finally reacted as well.

Suddenly everyone started to talk amongst one another, “So that person is the heir of Acme Corp! Acme Corp is one of the biggest companies among the second-tier families of Springfield City. They are rich and powerful. They’re not someone anyone can offend!”

Everyone talked amongst themselves, and quite a few of them shot Leon looks of pity and sympathy.

There were also a lot of them who were thankful that they did not rush forward earlier. Otherwise, they would not have been able to do anything against Wilfried!

“Acme Corp?”

Leon was taken aback, feeling like the name sounded familiar. After thinking about it, he quickly recalled the name.

Janice and Ava were former employees at Acme Corp. He had just met the chairman of Acme Corp, Javner, two days ago. He had even taught that man a lesson.

Since Wilfried was the heir, Wilfried must be that man’s son!

Looking at Leon going silent, Wilfried thought that Leon had been scared by his background. He suddenly acted much more arrogantly.

“What, are you scared now?”

“Brat, I’ll give you one last chance. If you know your place, then kneel down and beg for forgiveness. I might consider letting you off! Otherwise, I’ll make sure to bury you alive!” Wilfred sneered.

“Dear, it’s not just this guy. There’s also that wretch next to him! She slapped me and kicked me just now. You can’t let her off easily!” Maisie pointed at Ariel with a pleased look on her face.

“Yes, I know...”

Wilfred looked at Ariel in amazement.

He had not been looking at Ariel carefully the whole time. Upon closer inspection, Ariel was actually an absolute beauty!

Whether it was looks or her figure, Ariel was much better than Maisie!

Suddenly, he started to have nasty thoughts in his head!

“Brat, once you apologize, you can get lost! However, make sure this girl stays behind!”

Wilfred spoke incredibly arrogantly as if he had already defeated Leon.

“How dare you!” Leon’s expression turned cold.

He was a man. He completely understood what Wilfred was thinking. It immediately infuriated him!

He dashed forward and kicked Wilfred right on the stomach, sending Wilfred flying into the desk behind him. The desk and a few cups shattered.

Everyone fell silent at that.

“T—that guy actually attacked Young Master Javner. Is he crazy?”

“That’s right, the Javners are rich and powerful. They’d be able to kill him easily. Is he suicidal?”

Everyone was dumbfounded as they looked at Leon in disbelief.

Leon already knew who Wilfred was, but he still attacked Wilfred. Was Leon not suicidal?!

At the same time, Wilfred slowly crawled up with Grover's help. He looked at Leon ferociously as he clenched his teeth. "Brat, you've got guts. Just you wait. I won't let you go!"

Chapter 770

As he said that, Wilfred took out his phone to make some calls.

"Crap..."

Ariel's expression changed at the sight.

Acme Group was quite famous in the business world. She had heard of them before and knew that they were not to be messed with.

Even though her family was a noted family of craftsmen, their fortunes were incredibly minuscule compared to the Acme Group.

As for Leon. She knew that Leon knew martial arts, but she also knew that Leon was just an orphan without anything.

Neither she nor Leon had the ability to clash against Acme Corp!

"Leon, let's leave!" Ariel pulled at Leon's arm, wanting to leave before Wilfred's men arrived. That way, they might be able to avoid Wilfred's revenge.

"Why would we leave?"

Leon found it strange.

Since they decided to help, he would see things through.

The female employee was still there. He could not just leave her alone!

"Leon, you might not know this, but Acme Corp is rich and powerful. We can't afford to go against them...."

"We should just hurry up and leave. Miss Shirley, come with us. If we don't leave now, we'll be done for when their reinforcements arrive!" Ariel said anxiously.

"Let them come! Ariel, don't worry. It's just Acme Corp. They won't be able to do anything to me!" Leon said with a smile.

“Alright, stop trying to brag! Do you think I don’t know anything about you?” Ariel glared at Leon. After that, she did not say anything else as she tried to pull Leon and Shirley with one hand each.

“You’re trying to leave? It’s too late!”

Wilfred sneered when she saw Ariel trying to leave with Leon.

The moment he said that, four men in suits rushed into the cafe.

Those four men were Wilfred’s bodyguards. They had been waiting in the car outside.

The moment Wilfred made that call, they rushed right over.

“Crap, they’re already here.”

Ariel’s face paled as her heart sank.

She never expected Wilfred’s men to arrive so quickly. It would be impossible for Leon and herself to flee!

Of course, she did not know that Leon had not been planning on fleeing at all. At the very least, Wilfred was not capable of making him run away!

“This guy’s dead now!”

“That’s right. If he had just apologized earlier, he might have been able to keep his life.”

“Look at it now. He actually attacked Wilfred. Even if Wilfred doesn’t kill him, he’ll at least be crippled!”

Everyone shook their heads. Some of them looked at Leon with sympathy while others were enjoying the show, feeling like Leon was a suicidal idiot!

“Mister Fred, this guy hit me!”

Wilfred pointed at Leon as he ordered the leader, “Quickly, teach him a lesson. Cripple his legs and feed him to the dogs!”

The few bodyguards were martial arts experts that his father had handpicked. They could fight against ten men without any problem.

The leader was especially strong. Wilfred felt like it would be very easy for them to defeat Leon!
