

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 781-782

Chapter 781

He loved Iris so much that he could not stand the idea of taking over Elegante Group—all he wanted was to protect Elegante Group so that it would not fall into the wrong hands.

Once the Youngs regained their wealth, he was willing to sell the company back to Iris again. This was the only thing he could do for Iris at such a time!

“Leon, have you...have you gone insane? Doing this serves no benefit for you at all and in fact, might harm you!” Ariel widened her eyes in shock as her jaw dropped. She never thought, not even in her wildest dreams, that Leon would want to buy out Elegante Group just to help Iris tide over this difficult time of her life!

“I’m not insane. I’m just giving my all so that I don’t leave any regrets behind...” Leon smiled.

“Well...okay then.” Ariel glanced at him with a strange expression as she began to mope.

Iris was her best and only friend, and Leon was doing all this for Iris’ sake. Since Leon was asking her, Ariel would never say no to him, but she had to admit that she could not help feeling even more jealous of Iris now, especially how easily Iris had won Leon’s entire heart!

After lunch, Leon and Ariel left the restaurant and went about their respective days.

With Ariel’s help, Leon was not at all worried as he knew that Ariel would take good care of everything. However, he seemed to have spoken too soon!

The next morning.

“Ring-” Leon was working in his office when his phone suddenly rang. He glanced at the screen and saw that it was Ariel.

“Hello, Ariel. Why are you calling me so soon? Have you already settled everything for me?” Leon asked, smiling. He could not help being in awe of how efficient Ariel was, considering how quickly she had gotten things done.

“No...Leon, something bad has happened. I just received the news that Ashwin managed to find another buyer before I did, and the other party has already paid the deposit...at this exact moment, Ashwin is discussing the contract with them at a hotel, as if they sign the contract, it will be too late..." Ariel said in a panic.

Since Iris had been busy taking care of Albert lately, she had handed over everything regarding the company's buyout to both Ariel and Ashwin.

Ariel never thought that Ashwin could manage to find a buyer so quickly, not to mention how speedy the other party was. Since they had already paid the deposit, she was one step behind.

"What?" Leon leaped out of his seat.

650 million was not a small number, and Ashwin could not possibly have found a buyer so quickly. This news greatly shocked Leon as well.

"Ariel, wait for me at Elegante Group headquarters. I'm coming over right now, and we'll go talk to Ashwin!" After hanging up the phone, Leon left the company in a hurry, hopped on his motorcycle, and sped towards Elegante Group.

Inside a lavish booth of a five-star hotel, Ashwin represented Elegante Group in a meeting with a middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man was flanked by two fierce-looking bodyguards, who were both in their mid-thirties. Their eyes glinted with malice, and one could easily tell that they were both skilled martial artists.

"Mister Mabre, this is the contract for Elegante Group's buyout. Please read through it. If there's nothing wrong, we can sign the contract right here and now."

Chapter 782

Ashwin placed a copy of the contract in front of the middle-aged man.

"Alright." Mister Mabre nodded and read through the contract, then could not help frowning. "Vice President Mercer, according to my company's accounting team, your company is only worth a little over 590 million, yet you're selling it at 650 million. Aren't you being a little too greedy?"

"Um...Mister Mabre, President Young does intend to sell Elegante Group at 650 million dollars." Ashwin let out an awkward cough.

“Well, that’s what she intends, but I want to know her lowest rate.” Mister Mabre asked, staring at Ashwin like a hawk.

“President Young told me not to go below 630 million dollars...” Ashwin said hesitantly.

“610 million dollars is still too much! Why don’t you call President Young and ask her if she’s willing to settle with 610 million dollars?” Mister Mabre asked.

“Mister Mabre, you know the potential Elegante Group has for the future. If it weren’t for the fact that the Youngs desperately need the money now, President Young wouldn’t even be selling the company. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com If you want to lower the price to 610 million, she might not want to sell anymore...” Ashwin said.

“I disagree! Vice President Mercer, I’m sure that you can convince President Young to settle for this. If you can help Mister Lowe save the 40 million dollars, I will, on behalf of him, pay you 7 million dollars as a reward!” Mister Mabre said, smiling.

The Mister Lowe he was talking about was none other than Jacob Lowe!

The reason Iris was even selling Elegante Group in the first place was out of Daisy’s threats, and with the amount of potential Elegante Group was displaying, Daisy and Harold naturally would never pass up this opportunity.

Harold had handed this over to Jacob, but since Jacob, like Leon, did not want to let anyone know he was involved in this, lest Iris find out about this and their plans would get foiled.

Therefore, Jacob had secretly sought out Ashwin and tried to bribe him.

Mister Mabre was just a puppet that Jacob was using to discuss the terms and conditions of the contract with Ashwin.

The true mastermind behind this was actually Jacob and the rest of the Lowes!

“7 million dollars?” Ashwin’s heart lurched. His entire family was worth about 14 million, and half of that money belonged to his grandfather. Therefore, 7 million dollars was a huge number to him, and he found it hard to resist this offer!

“That’s right. This is just Mister Lowe’s way of thanking you! If you settle this and get on Mister Lowe’s good side, it will benefit you greatly in the future!” Mister Mabre added.

“Alright...I’ll call President Young right this instant!” Ashwin soon agreed.

Now that the Youngs were in trouble and Elegante Group was about to be bought out, Ashwin did not know what would happen to his job, and he needed to rely on Jacob for his future career’s sake!

Revealing Iris’ rate and helping Jacob negotiate the selling price until 610 million dollars was his way of pledging loyalty to Jacob!

With that, Ashwin took out his phone and dialed Iris’ number.

After some persuasion combined with the fact that Iris was desperately in need of money, Iris finally relented and agreed to sell Elegante Group at 610 million dollars instead.

However, unbeknownst to Iris, her trusted accomplice, Ashwin, had already switched sides and was now loyal to Jacob instead!

“Mister Mabre, President Young has agreed to your terms, and I’ll go print the revised contract right now...”

Ashwin’s face was etched with anticipation as he left with the contract.

Since the selling price written in the previous contract was 650 million, he needed to reprint a new one with the revised price of 610 million dollars.

Ashwin returned not long ago with the revised contract.

“Shall we sign the papers now, Mister Mabre?” he asked, handing the papers to Mister Mabre.

“Sure!” Mister Mabre picked up his pen and was about to sign the papers when all of a sudden, a loud slam echoed through the room.

The door had been kicked open, and Leon and Ariel strode into the room.

“Ariel? Leon?” Ashwin was so shocked by this that he leaped out of his chair, his eyes ablaze with hatred.

Before Leon left Elegante Group, he had gotten into several conflicts with Leon, and every time, he would end up losing in some way or another. Therefore, he was determined not to let Leon win this time!

"Who are these people, Vice President Mercer?" Mister Mabre asked in surprise, glancing at Leon and Ariel.

"Mister Mabre, this is Ariel Summers, the secretary to President Young. Now that President Young is planning to sell Elegante Group, she's handed this project over to me and Ariel to handle...as for the man next to her, that's Leon Wolf. He used to work for President Young as a secretary too, but was let go some time back..." Ashwin explained.

"Oh, so it's your colleagues..." Mister Mabre was relieved to find out that Leon and Ariel were both just regular employees and not anyone powerful or influential come to stop him.

"What are you doing here, Ariel?" Ashwin asked as he shot Leon a disdainful glance, ignoring him entirely.

Back when Leon still worked for Elegante Group, he had Iris behind his back and thus did not dare to offend or cross Leon incessantly. However, now, Leon had been fired by Iris, and on top of that, he knew that Leon was an orphan with nothing in his name, and did not even possess formal education. He was sure that Leon probably would still be living on the streets now and still jobless.

Someone like him was no match for Ashwin at all, so naturally, he did not pay much attention to Leon.

"Ashwin, I want to talk to you about selling Elegante Group," Ariel said.

"There's nothing to talk about anymore. I've found a buyer, and we're about to sign the contract!" Ashwin said proudly, as though he was bragging about his capabilities. Unbeknownst to him, Ariel had also managed to find a buyer.

"You haven't signed it yet? That's great!" Ariel let out a sigh of relief at this. If the contract was signed, it would have legal implications, and things would become far more complicated than this, but since they had yet to sign the contract, it was much easier to deal with the situation at hand.

"Vice President Mercer, how much are you planning to sell Elegante Group for?" Ariel asked.

"610 million dollars," Ashwin said confidently.

"Only 610 million? Vice President Mercer, Iris has already made it clear that she'll only go as low as 630 million, so you shouldn't agree to sell the company for just 610 million, should you?" Ariel was shocked by this. She was a smart woman, and could easily guess that Ashwin h ad probably gotten some sort of commission from this, which was why he was willing to seal the deal at such a low price!

“Don’t say that. I’ve already discussed this with President Young, and she’s agreed!” As hwin snickered. After all, since Iris had already given him approval, there was nothing Ariel could do about it.

“Vice President Mercer, don’t try to use Iris to scare me. I’ve already found another buyer, and he’s willing to buy the company at 780 million dollars!”
