The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 938

Louisa already reached the late Acquired State, and was only a sliver away from the peak Acquired State.

Iris was even better than Louisa. Iris was already at the peak Acquired State!

Comparatively, Leon did not improve much at all. He was already at the peak of the Acquired State for a long time without any improvements.

Of course, there was a reason his martial arts was still at that level. The first reason was because there was a gulf between the peak Acquired State and initial Innate State that was not easy to pass.

He was also more focused on the sage arts, so he lagged behind in terms of martial arts.

However, he was fortunate enough to be reasonably talented in martial arts, and he was even using an amazing Absolute Method. So, the rate of his improvements was much faster than anyone else.

Even though he was still not at the initial Innate State, he was not too far away, He could even feel that he would probably only need another two or three days to reach that level!

"Alright, let's start training!"

Leon took out three premium Energy Nurturing Pills and gave one each to Iris and Louisa before he took one himself.

Right after that, the three of them sat down and started training in earnest.

The next two days, Leon would go to work with Iris during the day and practice with Iris and Louisa during the night. Life went quite well.

However, he never noticed that Ruth was quietly observing his every move the whole time, preparing the make her move!

Other than that, news of him crippling Theodore's legs spread. Whether it was the Fields or the Northern King, all of them found out that the Collins were now one of his new backers!

Harold and George thought that they would be able to easily deal with Leon once Leon and the Collins' deal was done.

They never would have expected that Leon would suddenly be allied with the Collins right after his relationship with the Shears crumbled. It caught all of them off guard.

Worried about the power of the Collins, the two sides waited quietly, not daring to move recklessly. However, with their grudges against Leon, they would absolutely not let Leon off so easily!

Everything seemed quiet and peaceful on the surface, but it was like the calm before the storm.

The next day, at the chairman's office in Elegante, Leon worked as he learned about the company's matters from Iris.

The Southern King already sent over what they needed the day before, solving Elegante's problems with the high-end cosmetics.

There was nothing else to worry about, so Leon and Iris were both in a comfortable mood.

Right at that moment, they heard knocking on the door. Ariel walked right in with a frown on her face.

Iris was curious at Ariel's expression, "Ariel, what's wrong? What happened?"

"Iris, this is bad. Something really bad happened. I just received news that the Wick Group has canceled our deal," Ariel reported with worry.

"What?" Iris and Leon were both shocked as they stood up together.

The Wicks were their biggest clients and also the biggest distributors in Springfield City. Many of the company's products needed to be sold through the Wick Group. If the Wick Group canceled their deal, then it would definitely bring great losses to Elegante. It might end up even worse than not being able to produce the high-end cosmetics!

That was not the important point. The important point was that Leon's relationship with the Wicks was always close. When Elegante managed to secure the contract with the Wicks, it was all thanks to Leon.

Yet, Leon canceled the contract for no reason. It shocked Iris and Leon greatly!

"Leon, what happened? Why would the Wicks suddenly cancel our agreement?" Iris asked in confusion.

"I don't know what happened either. Let me give Jenson a call."

As Leon said that, he took out his phone.

"Hello, Mister Wolf. Are you calling me about the canceled agreement?"

Jenson's voice was heard from the other end.

He obviously knew what Leon wanted.

"That's right! Mister Wick, could you tell me why your company is suddenly canceling our agreement? Is there a problem with our company's products?" Leon asked.

When they first started working with the Wick Group, Ashwin and Michale purposely added some harmful substances into the cosmetics to hurt him. Thankfully, Jenson noticed in time, or the Wick Group would have suffered tremendous losses.

Leon thought that it could be something similar again. Otherwise, there was no reason the Wick Group would cancel their agreement!

"That's not it! It's actually Miss Shear that made me stop working with you," Jenson said after some hesitation.

"What? It's Cynthia again?!"

Leon was shocked, almost exploding at the news.

He never expected that Cynthia would not only have tried to sabotage him on the ingredients but even instructed Jenson to cancel his agreement with Elegante!

It was obvious that Cynthia was deliberately trying to attack him!

"Mister Wolf, I'm sorry. You've helped our family greatly, so I shouldn't be doing this, but Miss Shear constantly pleaded to me. It's really hard for me to reject her. Please forgive me," Jenson said apologetically. He was in a difficult spot.

In truth, Jenson felt the same as Snow. He felt like Leon definitely crossed the line a bit this time!

He knew of Leon's relationship with the Shears, and he knew that Cynthia and the Shears helped Leon a lot. Instead, it was Iris and the Youngs that wronged Leon in many ways.

From the perspective of a friend, he felt like Cynthia was better for Leon than Iris! He was willing to help Cynthia because he hoped that Leon would wake up and return to Cynthia's side.

"It's fine, I don't blame you," Leon let out a wry smile. He knew what Jenson meant. However, the woman he loved was Iris. He could not return to the Shears because of that!

"Mister Wolf, I can tell that Miss Shear loves you a lot. If you can, I'd advise you to go talk to her. I think she'll definitely forgive you," Jenson said.

"Let's talk about this later," Leon sighed and said before he hung up.

After Leon and Jenson's conversation, Iris could already make out what was going on. When Leon hung up, he asked, "Leon, is it Cynthia again?"

"Yes, it is," Leon nodded helplessly

"What do you plan on doing now?" Iris frowned, her mood slowly sank.

With Cynthia's control of medicinal ingredients, Leon finally solved their problems after some difficulty. Yet, Cynthia did not relent. This time, Cynthia struck quite viciously, targeting Elegante's biggest client!

That was not the important point. The important point was that Cynthia was clearly already determined to go for Leon. Cynthia might have other tricks up her sleeve!

If Iris and Leon did not figure something out quickly, the situation would definitely get a lot worse!

"I don't know what to do either," Leon shut his eyes painfully.

The worst debt to repay in the world was debts of the heart. He owed Cynthia. So, he did not know how he should deal with what Cynthia was doing.

Iris did not feel happy when she saw Leon's pained expression either.

She was the one who constantly distrusted Leon. That ended up pushing Leon to Cynthia.

However, she finally woke up in the end. She snatched Leon away from Cynthia in public, right at their engagement party!

Leon and Cynthia both become enemies mainly because of her. This caused her to feel very guilty toward Cynthia.

"Leon, Iris, don't worry. There are three large distributors in Springfield City. The Wicks are not the only ones. Since the Wicks don't want to work with us anymore, we can just work with Westpraise or Uniqpeace," Ariel said.

Before Elegante got the agreement with Wick Group, they always worked with Westpraise. However, Westpraise and Uniqpeace were comparatively less effective than the Wick Group. Furthermore, Westpraise was more demanding, and Elegante would need to make some concessions.

Working with Westpraise or Uniqpeace would definitely affect the company's future development, causing a lot of losses.

However, there did not seem to be any other alternatives at that moment.

"It looks like we'll have to do that for now," Leon said with a sigh.

He knew that it was not the best choice for the company to work with the other two distributors, but he could not figure anything out other than that.

"No, Cynthia is deliberately targeting Leon and our company right now. She definitely still has other plans! Even if our company takes a step back and manages to get past this difficult stage, it would still not solve the core issue!"

Iris shook her head, denying Ariel's suggestion. After that, she said, "The only thing we can do is to solve the main issue. Only that will be a long term solution!"

"The main issue? That's impossible!" Leon said.

Everything Cynthia did was to make things difficult for him, forcing him to return to the Shears.

Unless he left Iris and returned to Cynthia, there was no way to solve it.

That was just not going to happen!

"That's not necessarily true! Only the cause of the trouble can end it!" Iris said calmly. She looked at Leon, and a complicated expression was in her eyes.

"Iris, what do you mean?" Leon frowned, not understanding what Iris said.

"Leon, let me ask you something. If you have the chance, would you leave me for Cynthia?" Iris asked back.

"Of course not!" Leon said without any hesitation.
