

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 941-950

Chapter 941

Iris was always the woman he loved the most. He already firmly decided to choose Iris, so how could he betray Iris for Cynthia? Iris's question was pointless!

"Good, then swear it to me!" Iris said seriously.

"Swear?" Leon was taken aback, puzzled by Iris's strange actions.

However, seeing Iris's serious expression, he still decided to do it, "Alright then. I swear that, as long as you still want me, I'll never leave your side."

"Good, very good. I'm happy enough that you said that!" Iris showed an incredibly happy smile.

"Iris, what exactly are you thinking?" Leon was completely confused.

Even Ariel who was by their side could not figure out what Iris was getting at.

Iris bit her lips, as if she made a decision. She said, "Leon, I'll give you a chance right now. Go find Cynthia and talk to her!"

"What? You want me to find Cynthia? A—am I mistaken?" Leon was stunned, unable to believe his ears.

"You're not! Leon, I'm the reason you and Cynthia's relationship got to this stage. I hope you can treat her better. Try to console her with a few words and apologize to her for me. Cynthia's given you so much. Even if the two of you can't be lovers, you should still have been good friends. At the very least, I don't want the two of you to become enemies because of me," Iris said after some hesitation.

"But—"

Leon was completely taken aback.

He definitely wanted to be good friends with Cynthia, but Cynthia was not willing to. Iris should know that as well.

Yet, even though Iris knew that, she still asked Leon to treat Cynthia better. He could not understand what Iris wanted!

"There are no buts! Leon, haven't you noticed it? Cynthia is already starting to turn into an enemy!" Iris said seriously.

"Yes, it does seem that way."

Leon's heart sank.

When they were at Zerbe Pharmacy the other day, Cynthia seemed like she wanted to kill Iris, and even made the move.

At the time, he noticed that Cynthia did seem like she was starting to go a bit crazy.

"I can understand how Cynthia feels. Her feelings for you are very deep, and it's become a shadow in her heart. Before she really goes to the dark side, I hope you can resolve the hatred in her heart. Otherwise, she might very well end up dying for you just like I did," Iris sighed as she said.

"What? No, I can't let that happen!" Leon was shocked. His expression completely changed. He was unable to remain calm.

He knew that Iris was right. If Cynthia really lost herself, the consequences would be disastrous!

Then, only two things would happen. Either Cynthia killed him or Iris, or he killed Cynthia!

Both of those results would definitely be a tragedy!

He could not accept that!

“Leon, go look for her right now! Remember what you promised me. You’re not allowed to leave her! Other than that, it’ll be up to you to get on her good side!” Iris said with some difficulty. She did not feel good about this.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 942

However, to stop any tragedies from happening and to make up for what she coed Cynthia this was the only thing she could do

“Iris, do you mean.”

Leon looked at Iris in disbelief.

Even though this was vague with her words, he could more or less understand what is meant is was trying to give him a bit more freedom

That kind of freedom was like Pandora’s Box!

Surely, he felt there were huge was in his heart. He could not remain calm

I’ll own, even a mile on you off easily!”

Looking at Leon’s emotional expression, he could not stop herself from glaring at Le

“Yes, yes”

“I’ll go look for Cynthia right now!”

Leon’s face reddened after that, he quickly left the scene, as if he was afraid that this would regret it.

In truth, he did not know if what Cynthia meant was the same as what he thought, but he knew something very well. He owed Cynthia a lot, and he could not allow

Conchitosol lose herself he ha

If he could, he wanted to do his best to undo Cynthia’s hatred for him.

As for what was bound to happen in the future it would depend on fate!

Looking at Leon leave, Ariel was shocked!

“Iris, are you crazy? Aren’t you just allowing Leon to fool around?” Ariel looked at his in shock.

She never would have dreamed that Iris would let Leon seek Cynthia out to mend their relationship. It was unbelievable!

“It’s not that I just don’t want to see Cynthia walking the path of no return! Leon already promised me that he’ll never leave me. There’s nothing I have to worry about! There’s no way I can lose him, so nothing else is important!” Iris said calmly.

“But-”

Ariel still found it hard to believe

“Ariel, don’t worry I know what I’m doing! Rather than continuing to fight with him and have her target

Leon everywhere, it’s better to let her mend her relationship with Leon. When she notices that I’m the one Leon loves in the future, she might end up deciding to give up on him herself. Then, all these problems will be resolved!” Iris said casually.

“That’s easy for you to say, but what if she’s not willing to pull back?” Ariel shot back.

“I don’t know. It’s just a possibility anyway. It might not happen, so why would I need to worry?" Iris smiled calmly, not answering it directly.

At the Shear household, Cynthia had a white attire on as she trained by herself in the training room.

In front of her was a wooden dummy the height of a man.

At that moment, she saw the dummy as Leon.

"Despicable Leon, you idiot, you heartbreaker."

Cynthia clenched her teeth as she punched and kicked the dummy.

After venting out her anger, Cynthia's eyes reddened. Two lines of tears flowed out of her eyes.

Even though Leon canceled her engagement and thoroughly embarrassed her and the Shears, causing them to become a laughing stock, she did not care. The only thing she cared about was hoping that Leon would return to her side!

However, she knew it was not possible unless a miracle happened!

Chapter 943

Cynthia, I've wronged you."

Right at that moment, a bitter laugh could be heard. Leon seemed to descend from the heavens as he speared in front of her.

"Leon, i—it's you!" Cynthia was stunned, unable to believe her eyes.

She never would have expected that Leon would miraculously appear the moment she thought about him!

It was obvious how happy she was!

For a brief moment, she almost lunged into Leon's arms.

However, when she remembered Iris, she looked like cold water was poured over her.

All of that happiness. and excitement completely evaporated.

"Why are you here?!"

Cynthia's face was cold as she pushed down the urge to jump into Leon's arms.

"Well, Iris asked me to come here."

Leon smiled awkwardly.

"Iris?"

Cynthia was shocked. After that, she looked like she understood something as she let out an angry expression, "What? Did Iris ask you to come here to gloat? Is she trying to show off the fact that I lost to her?"

"No, don't misunderstand. Iris just feels like she owes you a lot, and she asked me to come apologize to you. She asked me to mend my relationship with you?" Leon said honestly.

The moment he said that, it was as if Cynthia's mind was blown away by a bomb.

"What did you say? Iris is letting you mend your relationship with me? H—how could that be?!"

Cynthia was shocked. She looked at Leon in disbelief, wondering if she was dreaming!

"It's absolutely true!" Leon nodded and said.

"But, why? What does she want?"

Cynthia looked incredibly uncertain. Her heart felt like it could not settle down.

"I don't know what exactly she's intending to do either, but she asked me to treat you better, and said that she doesn't want us to become enemies," Leon explained.

“Could she want-”

Cynthia’s heart skipped a bit as she started to vaguely understand Iris’s intentions. She knew that Iris would not just give Leon to her, so there were only two possibilities. Either Iris planned on giving her a fair chance to fight for Leon, or Iris silently accepted something else, and wanted Leon and Cynthia’s relationship to be mended. Anything else that happened could be talked about later!

No matter which possibility it was, they were both good things to her!

At the very least, her hopes of being with Leon were rekindled!

“Good, that’s really good!”

Cynthia trembled emotionally. Her eyes were red, and she started to let out tears of joy.

She already loved Leon too much. There was no way she could let go of him. No matter what Iris wanted, nothing else was important as long as Cynthia could be with Leon again!

“Cynthia, I’m sorry. I broke your heart. I need to apologize to you. Can you please forgive me?” Leon apologized honestly.

“I can forgive you, but you need to hug me first so I know I’m not dreaming.”

Cynthia looked up at Leon with her tearful eyes. Her eyes were full of hope.

“I-”

Leon hesitated for a moment before he clenched his teeth. He reached out and hugged Cynthia tightly.

It was not like Leon was devoid of emotions.

He was with Cynthia for so long, so he definitely felt something for Cynthia. On top of that, he was there on Iris’s request, so it was like something was unlocked in his heart. He was no longer as scared.

“So I’m not dreaming!”

Cynthia smiled when she felt Leon’s warm embrace. She felt incredibly happy.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 944

At that moment, all the hatred and anger she felt for Leon completely disappeared.

Just like that, the two of them hugged each other tightly, and everything else was blown away.

“Cynthia, what are you doing?”

Right at that moment, a cold shout was heard. Cynthia’s father, Brad, appeared at the door of the training room.

Behind her were a few of the older Shears.

They came over to train, but they never expected to see Cynthia hugging a man in the room.

Leon’s back was facing them, so they did not recognize Leon immediately.

“Dad.”

Cynthia jumped in fright. She quickly reacted like a frightened rabbit as she jumped out of Leon’s arms.

“Leon, it’s you! Why are you here?!”

Brad finally recognized Leon, and was filled with anger.

“That-”

Leon looked rather awkward.

The Shears and Leon's relationship soured. There was no way the guards would let him in, so he snuck in with his skills.

That was one thing, but he was actually caught by Brad.

Suddenly, he felt like he was at a loss for words, not knowing what to say.

"Leon, how dare you come here!"

"You've got some guts!"

The other elders were furious as well. All of them had fire in their eyes.

When Leon canceled the engagement in front of all the major families of Springfield City, it completely ruined the Shears' reputation. It made them a laughing stock!

Two of them were even summoning up their energy to attack Leon!

"Dad, don't be angry. Listen to me. I've already made up with Leon," Cynthia said in a hurry.

"Made up?"

"What do you mean?"

The Shears were shocked and uncertain.

"I've already forgiven him," Cynthia said apprehensively.

"So you mean he's willing to be with you and come back to us?" Brad said with a frown.

The way that Leon completely embarrassed the family was definitely not to be forgiven, but he knew that Leon was incredibly capable. Leon would definitely be able to help the family a lot in the future. If Leon was willing to come back, the Shears could consider giving Leon a second chance!

Of course, it was not just Brad who felt that way.

"That-"

Cynthia did not know what to say. She shot Leon a look.

"Mister Shear, I'm sorry. I don't plan on coming back to the Shears for now. Let's talk about it another time," Leon forced himself to say.

"Another time? What do you mean by that? Are you planning on having your hands on two women?" Brad's expression changed.

"That-"

Leon was speechless.

"Dad, it's not like what you think. I've already reached an agreement with Leon and Iris. I'll deal with this. You don't have to bother with it," Cynthia hurriedly defended Leon.

"Cynthia, you're just messing around right now! I don't care what kind of agreement you have, I need a clear answer today!"

Brad was furious. He looked at Leon and said coldly, "Leon, I'll give you one last chance. Either you choose Iris, or you choose Cynthia. It's your own decision!"

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 945

"Mister Shear, I'm very sorry. I can't make a choice right now. Please give me some time," Leon said with some difficulty.

The woman he loved the most was Iris, and he would definitely choose Iris.

However, it was so hard for him to resolve the anger in Cynthia's heart. He could not make the choice in front of Cynthia and hurt Cynthia again.

In the end, his thoughts were the same as Iris's. Once Cynthia's mind was clearer, Cynthia might actually choose to leave him. Otherwise, they could talk about it when the time came!

Since Iris already allowed it, there was nothing he was worried about.

"Very well! You made this choice yourself! Since you want to die, I'll grant you your wish!" Brad was so angry he was smiling from it. He summoned up all his energy and prepared to attack Leon.

"Dad, no!"

Cynthia was shocked. She hurriedly stood in front of Leon, shielding him.

"Cynthia, move aside. I have to teach him a lesson today!" Brad said angrily.

"No, I won't let you hurt him."

Cynthia clenched her teeth and said firmly.

"You!"

Brad was furious. He let out a punch, sending a shockwave not far away from Leon's feet, causing an explosion.

"Leon, get lost right now! If I see you again, I won't show you any mercy!" Brad shouted angrily.

"Dad!"

Cynthia still wanted to say something, but Leon suddenly grabbed her arm.

"Cynthia, it's fine. I should leave for now," Leon said as he shook his head.

Brad was too caught up in his anger at that moment. There was no point in Cynthia saying anything else.

They needed to approach this with a long term plan.

"Alright then."

Cynthia nodded as she reluctantly watched Leon leave.

At Elegante, Iris was earnestly doing her work at the desk when Leon got back.

"Leon, you're back. How did everything go with Cynthia?"

Seeing Leon return, Iris set aside her work as she looked at him with concern.

"Well, I was kicked out."

Leon smiled awkwardly.

"Kicked out? Why? Did Cynthia not want to mend your relationship?"

Cynthia was shocked as she immediately started to worry.

She did not expect Cynthia to not be willing to accept the huge olive branch she threw Cynthia. It exceeded her expectations.

"No, Cynthia agreed, I was kicked out by the shears."

Leon explained everything briefly.

"That's good, I thought that Cynthia refused. That shocked me," Iris patted her chest, feeling more relaxed.

Right at that moment, Leon's phone suddenly rang. He picked up his phone. It was a call from Jenson.

Leon already made up with Cynthia, so it was obvious that Juneson was probably calling Leon about Elegante's contract with the Wick Group.

"Mister Wolf, I just received Miss Shear's call. I heard you've already mended your relationship with Miss Shear. Congratulations," Jenson said with a laugh.

"Mister Wick, you're being too polite. I should be thanking you. If you didn't help Cynthia against me, I wouldn't have thought about this at all."

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 946

Leon spoke with some frustration.

In truth, part of the reason he was willing to mend things with Cynthia was because of Iris allowing him to. The other part was Snow and Jenson's influence.

He was no saint.

Jenson and Snow could already be considered his old friends. Since even the two of them thought that he went too far, then he needed to correct his mistake.

However, the only awkward part was that dealing with their relationship would not be a small problem!

"Yes, as long as you've cleared your mind."

Jenson let out a dry cough as he said, "Mister Wolf, so are you planning on leaving Iris and returning to the Shears?"

"No, I won't leave Iris!" Leon said firmly.

"No? Then what about you and Miss Shear?" Jenson was shocked, wondering if he misheard things.

"I've already mended things with Cynthia, but I don't plan on leaving Iris," Leon said calmly.

Those words seemed to explode in Jenson's head.

"What? C- could you mean you want both of them?" Jenson's jaw almost dropped on the ground from the shock.

"Can't I?" Leon said firmly.

In truth, even Leon was not exactly sure what Iris meant. He would have to take things one step at a time.

"You!" Jenson was completely shocked.

Iris and Cynthia were both one of the four great beauties of Springfield City, and considered to be in the top two places. Both of them were basically goddesses in the eyes of the rich young men of Springfield City!

Just getting one of them would be a complete blessing.

Yet, Leon actually wanted both of them!

That was not the important point. The important thing was that Jenson could tell from Cynthia's call just now that Cynthia seemed to have silently accepted the fact.

Otherwise, Cynthia would not have been willing to mend things with Leon!

Two of the four great beauties were solely taken by Leon!

It shocked Jenson to the core!

"Mister Wolf, you're too amazing! I admire you so much" Jenson said with respect.

However, there was a lot of jealousy in his voice as well.

"Alright, let's forget about all of that. Let's talk about official business," Leon changed the topic.

"Yes, alright," Jenson pushed back his jealousy as both of them talked business, renewing their agreement.

When Leon hung up, Iris looked like a heavy burden was relieved.

"That's great! We've finally solved the issue!"

"That's right, everything's done now!" Leon let out a smile.

He felt incredibly guilty after hurting and betraying Cynthia. So it broke his heart, and he was even finding it hard to sleep.

Yet, since him and Cynthia already mended things, all his problems seemed to have been solved.

At that moment, all of the frustration and darkness in his heart was gone, and he felt incredibly good!

“You’ve really benefited from this!” Iris glared at Leon a bit unhappily, punching Leon on the waist.

Leon hissed in pain, but he was quite happy about it, “Iris, thank you for understanding me.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 947

Leon held Iris’s hand and thanked her sincerely.

If Iris was not so understanding, he would not have had the chance to make it up to Cynthia.

“I don’t care about your thanks. If you really want to thank me, then treat me well in the future. You’re not allowed to leave me!” Iris said, leaning into Leon’s arms.

In truth, she saw all the pain Leon endured. The reason she gave Leon and Cynthia a chance was because she could not bear to see Leon in so much pain.

Other women might not be able to do something like this, but she was different. With her feelings for Leon, she would not even hesitate to die for her love. So, making some concessions for Leon was nothing much.

“Iris, don’t worry. I’ll never leave you!”

Leon hugged Iris tightly, making a promise of a lifetime.

After a long time, Iris seemed to think about something. She reluctantly left Leon’s arms.

“Leon, I got a call from Louisa just now. She said she did not have class in the afternoon, so she’s asking me to drive her home. Will you come with me?” Iris said.

“Oh, alright.”

Leon nodded, and the two of them left the company as they headed to Louisa’s school.

At Dragonbay Villas, Ruth observed Leon’s movements in secret recently, and finally prepared to make her move.

Based on what her grandfather guessed, Leon must definitely have a Power Method or some amazing treasure. She was very eager to find out, so she was looking for a chance to sneak into Leon’s room to investigate.

However, even though Leon was not at home during the day, Gilbert was always idle and at home. Gilbert was an advanced Supreme Master, so she was worried that Gilbert would notice her. That was why she did not dare to be reckless.

However, opportunities came to those who were patient. Gilbert suddenly had something to do that day and was not home. The chance she was waiting for was finally here!

In Leon’s room, Ruth wore a tight suit, looking like teeth as she searched the whole room.

“I wonder where Leon hid his Power Method manual,” Ruth mumbled to herself.

She started from the shelves, and then the closet and the bed and various other places. She even checked all the corners. She left nowhere out.

Normally, the methods of the various families in Springfield City were all inherited from secret manuals.

Since those manuals were usually quite large, it was not something convenient to bring around. Ruth guessed that Leon hid his manual somewhere in his room. Yet, she was disappointed to have found nothing even after practically searching the whole place. She did not see any treasures either!

“Where did Leon hide his manual?!” Ruth was quite angry. She could not figure out where Leon could have hidden it other than his room!

Of course, she never would have dreamed that they were all in Leon’s head, not some manual!

It would be impossible for her to find anything!

Right at that moment, she suddenly heard some footsteps coming closer. The footsteps were moving toward Leon’s room.

Right after that, Leon, Louisa and Iris’s voices could be heard.

“Leon, why don’t we hurry into your room to start training?”

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 948

Louisa sounded quite impatient.

“What’s the hurry? It’s still the afternoon. There’s still some time until the night. We can just start training after we have dinner,” Leon said.

“No, I feel like I’m about to make a breakthrough. I need to hurry up and train so I can get stronger!” Louisa said in a hurry.

“Well, fine then. I feel like I’m about to get stronger too. Let’s start training now!” Leon said after thinking about it.

When he looked at how strong Iris and Louisa were a few days ago, she already noticed that Louisa was just a fraction away from reaching the peak Acquired State. Meanwhile, he was about to reach the initial Innate State from the peak Acquired State.

After the last two days of training, both of them were already at the brink of breaking through. If there were no surprises, the two of them would probably accomplish it that day!

In Leon’s room, Ruth was feeling shocked.

“What’s happening? It’s still some time away until the end of work and classes. Why are they suddenly back?!”

After a few days of observation, Ruth already had a sense of their timetables. She never expected the three of them to be home so early!

Of course, she did not know that Louisa happened to have no classes in the afternoon. After Leon and Iris went to get Louisa from school, they decided to head home.

Hearing the footsteps getting closer, Ruth panicked. She did not know what to do.

She wanted to slip away, but Leon’s room was on the first floor. There were alarms outside, so there was no way she could flee through the windows!

It would be disastrous if she was caught by Leon.

She was the treasured daughter of the Collins, and one of the four great beauties, but she was sneaking around like a thief at that moment. If they caught her, she was done for.

How was she going to even salvage her reputation?

Not only that, she moved in to get closer to Leon and figure out a way to get his Power Method.

However, if Leon realized that she had other intentions in mind, Leon would definitely kick her out. That would not only affect her grandfather's plans, but it would even ruin the deal between both sides!

She would not be able to explain it to her grandfather!

Suddenly, the door was being opened. Ruth was frantic and no longer cared about anything. She rolled on the ground and immediately hid under the bed.

At the same time, the door was opened. Leon, Iris and Louisa walked in.

Since Ruth was very careful earlier, the room basically looked like it did before. Leon did not notice anything strange.

Thankfully, she was smart enough that no one noticed!

Ruth hid under the bed, and her heart was beating frantically. She did not even dare to breathe too heavily.

She was someone incredibly noble, so it was the first time under a man's bed. It was an incredibly embarrassing thing, and it made her feel quite uncomfortable.

"Leon, let's start training! Let's see who'll make a breakthrough first!" Louisa said eagerly.

"Alright, I'm good with that," Leon said with a smile. He took out three premium Energy Nurturing Pills and gave Louisa and Iris one each before he took one himself.

The Energy Nurturing Pills were good in increasing a martial artist's strength as well as helping them reach higher levels.

Chapter 949

The effects of a premium Energy Nurturing Pill were even better than a first grade one, and both Louisa and him were not that powerful. So, it should help the both of them level up!

However, it was hard to say who would be able to do it first..

"What? Is Leon about to make another breakthrough? Is he even human?!" Ruth was completely shocked to hear that.

After what happened with the Youngs, everyone found out that Leon was already a peak Supreme Master!

If Leon improved even more, he would at least be at the Semi Overlord State or even get to the Overlord State directly!

At Leon's age, getting to that level, regardless if it was the Semi Overlord State or the Overlord State, was an absolutely shocking thing!

It was obvious how surprised Ruth was!

On the other side, Leon, Louisa and Iris all sat down, shutting their eyes as they started to train.

After taking the Energy Nurturing Pills, the pills turned into energy and went right into the Energy Sea. Leon and Louisa used the absorbed energy to increase their strength.

Louisa was only at the advanced Acquired State, so it might be easier for her to breakthrough than Leon. With the help of the premium Energy Nurturing Pill, the aura around her started to rise, showing signs of breaking through!

However, Leon was no worse either. As he absorbed the Energy Nurturing Pill, he directed the energy to constantly attempt to break through. He constantly tried and failed, but he did not give up.

“Advanced Acquired State?”

“Peak Acquired State?”

“How’s that possible?!”

Under the bed, Ruth was shocked when she felt the auras coming out of Louisa and Leon.

Louisa was one thing. At Louisa’s age, being at the advanced Acquired State was quite normal.

However, Leon was different. She knew that Leon was already a peak Supreme Master, regarded as the strongest of the younger generation in Springfield City. He was called a rare genius that only appeared once in a thousand years!

Not only that, she fought Leon during Cynthion Group’s sales drive before. She was a Supreme Master, but she was not even able to stand up to a single attack from Leon, even getting injured by him.

She personally experienced that, so there was no way it was fake.

Yet, Leon’s true power seemed to only be at the peak Acquired State. He was not even at the Innate State, let alone the Semi Overlord State or the Overlord State!

What was going on?!

Ruth was completely dumbfounded.

Boom!

Right at that moment, Leon finally managed to push past the barrier after trying and working hard. The aura around his body started to rise, and his martial arts reached the initial Innate State!

Feeling Leon’s rising energy and changes, Iris opened her eyes, stopping her training for the moment.

“This is great! Leon, congratulations, you’ve made it through!” Iris said happily.

“That’s right, my hard work hasn’t been wasted. I finally broke through!” Leon said with a smile. He was still calm, not looking as happy as Iris.

After all, his martial arts was still too weak. Even if he made a breakthrough, it was still nothing worth being too happy about!

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 950

It would be more amazing if he made a breakthrough in his sage arts!

He was still at the initial Foundation Phase at that moment, which was equal to the power of an intermediate Supreme Master.

As long as he could get to the intermediate Foundation Phase, he would be able to temporarily get to the level of an intermediate Overlord State martial artist with the help of a Dragon Pill!

When it came to Springfield City, an intermediate Supreme Master was already among the strongest of the whole city. He would be practically unbeatable!

Then, whether it was the Northern King or the Fields, none of them would be able to push him back with their martial arts!

Just thinking about it excited him!

However, for some reason, he showed no signs of breaking through after so long of being at the Foundation Phase, even though he was not far away from the intermediate Foundation Phase!

His intuition told him that he still lacked a sliver of comprehension, but he did not know what he needed to comprehend.

It could be a chance encounter, or it could be something that needed to be accumulated through time.

In the end, he could not rush it even if he wanted to.

“Strange, why hasn’t Louisa broken through yet?”

After Leon collected his thoughts, he realized that something was wrong. After that, he hurriedly looked at Louisa.

Earlier, Louisa already showed signs of breaking through. Louisa should have been even faster than him. Yet, Louisa was not successful. Instead, her face was pale and there was cold sweat on her head. She had a pained expression on her face as her body swayed.

“Leon, what’s wrong with Louisa?”

Iris was shocked. She could tell there was something wrong with Louisa as well. She reached out and tried to help Louisa.

“Don’t touch her! She might have lost control of her power!” Leon shouted in a panic.

“What? Then, what do we do?” Iris panicked.

Leon was very calm as he started to inject his internal energy into his fingers. He hit Louisa at a few different points, protecting Louisa’s heart.

The Ghost Points were an incredible technique that was only slightly less powerful than the Six Points of Fate. It was very effective for suppressing and directing internal energy, so it was very good to deal with losing control.

The last time, the Southern King showed signs of losing control when Vincent used the Pure Energy Pills to get to the Overlord State as well. He used the Ghost Points to help Vincent!

Louisa’s power was nowhere near Vincent’s, and her condition was nowhere near as bad either. With the help of the Ghost Points, the energy that was running amok in her body was immediately suppressed.

“Louisa, are you alright?” Leon said with concern.

“I’m fine.”

“Leon, what happened? Why did I suddenly lose control?”

Louisa opened her eyes, looking tired.

“I think you might be using the methods wrong, or there might be some mistakes in your understanding,” Leon said after thinking about it.

Failing to break through was quite normal for a martial artist, but they would normally not lose control unless there was something wrong with the way they were training.

Leon had his ancestor to guide him, so there was no such thing as mistakes.

However, Louisa was different. Since he could guide her before, there could be no problems with Louisa’s training.

Yet, he was kicked out by the Youngs, so Louisa trained without his guidance. She might have ended up straying off the right path.

“Louisa, recite the Mysterious Maiden Method for me. I’ll see if there are any mistakes.”
