

The Revived Me Surrounded by Adoration as a Supporting Role by Dedaul Chapter 155 -

Chapter 155 Mother

Eddie took out a rope and continued practicing diligently.

This was the homework assigned by the school.

The stuffy and humid air made Eddie quickly feel sticky.

The small curls on the forehead stuck together due to sweat.

Eddie, who was still diligently counting, could not possibly imagine what would happen next.

After Sarah walked out of Phil's room, she took out her phone and sent a message to Valerie.

She put it back in her pocket and took out an anti-wolf weapon, standing at the doorway of the corridor.

I did not go out.

"Eddie!"

While Eddie was skipping rope, he heard someone calling him. He stopped practicing and looked toward the person, greeting Sarah with a cheerful smile.

"Sister!"

Sarah breathed a sigh of relief.

She reached out her hand and waved to Eddie, asking him to come back.

The heart was pounding vigorously, reflecting throughout the body.

Sarah nervously watched Eddie, hoping he would come back soon.

"What's wrong, sister?"

Eddie looked at Sarah strangely.

Didn't my sister say that there was something important that she couldn't let others know?

Did he need any help?

"Sister, wait a moment, let me roll up this skipping rope, I'll be right there.

It was a good habit, but now Sarah just wants him to come in quickly.

She anxiously watched Eddie as he slowly walked toward her, while rolling up a rope.

Her gaze was fixed on Eddie, without noticing the surroundings.

So when she lifted her head and looked around.

Suddenly, Eddie noticed a man in black standing behind him, but he didn't know when he had appeared.

He did not wear a mask, but his hat covered his eyes.

Suddenly, he slowly lifted his head and looked at Sarah, who was already scared and had weak legs.

He looked at Sarah with the eyes of a predator.

He raised the corners of his mouth and smirked at Sarah.

He walked up, bent down, and spoke to Eddie, who was still earnestly coiling the rope.

“Hello, little child.”

Eddie was startled when he saw the man behind him, feeling a sudden sense of fear in his heart.

“Eddie! Come back quickly!”

Sarah didn’t know where she got the strength from, but she shouted loudly for Eddie to come back.

Eddie’s mind was still a bit fuzzy.

But even if his mind was muddled, he could still feel it.

This man was very scary.

Eddie’s hair stood on end, and he quickened his pace, wanting to distance himself from this strange person.

Just as he was walking briskly, the next second, Eddie’s arm was grabbed by this strange person.

The force exerted on his arm made Eddie start screaming in fear.

The man also took out a sack and tried to cover Eddie with it, carrying him away.

“Eddie!”

Sarah tremblingly adjusted her anti-wolf weapon.

She also didn’t care about this surveillance anymore, not knowing where the courage came from.

She only wanted to electrocute this man to death with the anti-wolf weapon in her hand.

I didn’t expect Sarah to have the courage to come out.

The man's face suddenly turned ugly. He roughly grabbed Eddie, regardless of whether he was hurt by his rough actions or not.

"Let him go!"

Sarah shouted loudly, her current emotions were being expressed directly, and she hoped that her loud noise would be heard by the people around her.

The anti-wolf weapon hit the man directly.

The sack in his hand fell to the ground, and the man also fell down.

His hands and feet started twitching.

Sarah hurried toward the sack and rescued Eddie, who was crying loudly, from inside.

"Boohoo, Mom..."

Eddie cried loudly, while Sarah's forehead was dripping with nervous sweat.

"Don't cry, don't cry, sister is here to save you."

Sarah comforted Eddie and took off the burlap sack.

"You're doomed."

A curse burst out from the man's mouth in a gloomy manner.

He used determination to make himself stand up and looked fiercely at Sarah.

“Run!”

Sarah hurriedly pushed Eddie, but the man got ahead of them.

He grabbed Sarah’s hair and Eddie’s collar.
