

Rewriting Life Chapter 111 – 120

Chapter 111

The tutor entered the classroom to wish everyone a happy holiday. Then, the sui

After leaving the school gate,

te, Eliana went t

went to Sunset Cafe.

summer vacation officially began.

Cameron and the others had been in the cafe for quite some ne time. When they saw Eliang coming from afar, Thomas waved his hand. "Eliana!" leaned back in his chair and held a can of instant coffee in his left hand. His cold and distant gaze gently looked in the direction where Eliana came from. The indifference in his eyes seemed to have vanished a linte.

Cameron

"You guys were out early." Eliana walked over with a simile and put down her log.

Seeing that Cameron was actually drinking instant coffee, she snatched the can from Cameron's hand and threw it into the trash can. "Do you know what my shop does You even drink instant coffee. You're so annoying!"

When they heard Eliana's words, they laughed heartily "Cameron, you deserve it"

The can in Cameron's hand was snatched away, but he was not angry. His voice was clear. "Then treat me to coffee."

Eliana turned to Lily behind the counter and said. "Lily, an Americana,

Lily answered. "Okay"

Thomas glanced at the can in the trash can. "Eliana has a way. Last time we were here , I told Cameron we could get some from the coffee shop, but he totally ignored me and didn't even give me a glance"

Adam said, "Then can't you just copy Eliana and snatch it over and throw it in the trash can"" .

Thomas imagined it for a moment and shuddered “Buddy, do you really want me to die so badly!”

Adam laughed out loud. Then what are you talking about!”

In other words, only Eliana would dare to do such a thing in front of Cameron. Even the three friends who were on good terms with Cameron did not dare to do so,

Only Eliana would dare, and Cameron would only tolerate her.

Eliana went to the freezer to get an ice cream. “It’s summer vacation. What are you guys going to do?”

Thomas said. “Didn’t we talk about it in the group last time! We’re going to the grasslands for horse racing, falcon training, drinking, and staying in yun!”

Eliana looked at the other three. “Are you guys going too?”

Adam replied. “Yeah. After all, the time we have to play is getting lesser and lesser.”

When the summer vacation ended, the second half of the semester would arrive

After the new year, their fourth-year students would have to be arranged by their families for internships or have other family arrangements.

Landon raised his hand and placed it behind his head. He mustered, “My youth is gone forever!”

Eliana ate

the ice cream as she pictured Landon in the news.

Before she got a second chance of life, Landon had once appeared on the news. It was a charity banquet. He attended the event in a luxurious suit. His appearance did not change much, but his aura was even calmer than now. Netizens called him a real president

Thinking of this, Eliana couldn’t help but laugh. “Alright, I’ll go back and discuss it with Dad and Mom

Lily made the coffee and served it

Cameron took a sip and looked at Eliana. “Didn’t you want to see the want to see the eagle last time? I can show you this time.

Thomas was surprised and excited. "Cameron, has Zeus returned to the country?"

Flirt asked. "Zeus?"

Adarn explained, "Zeus is C

is Cameron's e s eagle. It's a gyrfalcon"

11.07 AM

Chapter 111

Gyrfalcon was known as the King of Eagles, the fastest and highest-flying eagle in the world, valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

there was only one out of a hundred thousand eagles.

The ancient emperor had a very high evaluation of it. It was even said that th

As for Zeus, it was one of the best among the gyrfalcons. A few months ago, it had been given a custom-made headgear and was not easily shown to outsiders

Cameron put down his coffee cup and said calmly, "Yes, it's already hark

Landon said, "That's great. Coincidentally, there's an eagle training competition in Mongolia this time. Eliana, you're lucky. Zeus is a rare sight."

Hearing their words. Eliana was extremely curious and quickly noiled, "Okay, I want to go

After receiving an affirmative answer from Eliana, Cameron united imperceptibly,

After returning, Eliana discussed with Sebastian and Lucy that she wanted to Lucy asked. "Eliana, how long will you be gone for? Monany will miss you."

Sebastian nodded. "That's right. Eliana. Your mother and I were originally planning to bring you overseas to play during the summer break. Have you really decided to go to the prairie?"

In order to bring Eliana overseas to play. Sebastian and Lucy had already arranged their work and overseas schedules in advance to free up a

manth

However, Eliana had decide to go to the prairie. All the arrangements made overseas would be wasted.

Owen sat at the end of the sofa and flipped through the magazine. “Dad, Mom, Eliana isn’t a three-year-old child. We should let her go out and broaden her horizons”

Sebastian turned his head and glared at Owen. Those who should go out to play don’t go out. You’re the one who should go out! You’re not young anymore. Why are you still staying at home every day?”

Lucy said. That’s right, Chen You’re going to be 30 in two years. When are you going to bring me a daughter-in-law? No wonder people say that you’re an old bachelor! Those who don’t know might think that our family has a bad reputation and can’t have a daughter-in-law though we’re rich.”

Owen was silent for a moment. “Dad, Mom, when I was Ellana’s age, I had already traveled the world and returned.”

Lucy replied, “Don’t change the topic. When are you getting married?”

Sebastian warned. “If you don’t get married before the age of 30, don’t even think about it coming back! I’ll change all the password locks on the door and see who dares to open the door for you!”

Owen was speechless. I brought this to myself”

Owen looked at Eliana for help. Eliana was stunned and said, “Dad, Mom, why don’t you let Owen come with me to the grassland to play? Maybe he’ll fall in love there.”

Owen was silent. What a bad idea

However, when Lucy and Sebastian heard this, they agreed. “Alright, Eliana. Let this brat go with you this time. We’ll be more at ease with him taking care of you

Hana nodded “Okay”

Lucy said again. “Then only your father and I will be going overseas. I’ve already arranged the time for the theater. It would be a waste not to go?”

Eliana answered, “Sure, Mom You two can go out and love some alone time together”

Lucy's well-maintained face blushed slightly. "Eliana, what are you talking about? We've been married for so many years..."

Sebastian reached out and put his arm around Lucy's shoulder. "Lary, speaking of which, we've been married for so many years. Many years since we went out to play like this. This is a good opportunity for us to go out and relax"

Lucy was extremely satisfied that her family was at peace and that she had a son and daughter. She nodded. "Okay"

All the arrangements for the summer break had been made.

The best day, Eliana and Owen packed their luggage and went to the airport to meet up with Cameron and headed to Mongeland

It's indeed been

Chapter III

Lucy flew to Bobhana with Sebastian.

When they arrived at Mongeland, someone came to pick them up and arranged for a special car to bring them to the rest station.

Chapter 112

It was almost noon when they arrived at the relay station.

Their appearances were were exquisite and good-looking. The staff of the relay station were very warm to them and welcomed them with smiles, Owen helped Eliana carry the luggage to the second floor.

Cameron was on the phone.

Thomas and the other two went to the kitchen to order.

Eliana went to the backyard to take a look. There were a few horses, and a thin young man was feeding them.

One of the white horses attracted Eliana's attention. Its fur was glossy and its body was very clean. It was obvious that it had been carefully taken care of

She walked up and said, "Can I touch it!"

When the young man heard this, he turned around and looked at Elana warily. When he saw Eliana's face, he was embarrassed, he avoided her gaze and said. "No. Princess will kick. You'd better stay away from her" turned red. As if he was Eliana was a little disappointed: "Alright. What are they eating!"

"Sheep grass," the young man replied.

Eliana asked again. "Is there a horse riding service at your station?"

These horses should have been raised for people to ride. They were usually charged according to the time.

There was such a vast grassland behind them. Eliana thought. Wouldn't it be a waste of time if we don't ride horses?

Before she got a second chance of life. Eliana had also ridden a horse on set. Not only did the stunt double have to know how to ride a horse, but she also had to do some dangerous fighting moves on the horse.

"Yes." The young man nodded, but he thought for a moment and said. "If you want to ride Princess, you should give up. It doesn't like to be ridden"

"Oh So it's a fierce horse with a temper," said Eliana. "Beautiful and temperamental. Good horse"

As she spoke, a clear voice came from behind her. Jummy, there are so many people here. The kitchen is too busy. Morn wants you to go over

Sally ran very quickly. She did not manage not manage to stop and bumped into the back of Eliana.

Eliana fell forward unsteadily. A long arm grabbed her arm in time and pulled her to the side. Eliana almost fell. She looked up and saw that it was

Cameron

Cameron was on the phone next to the horse shed and heard everything Eliana and Jimmy said.

Just as he hung up the phone and walked over, he saw Eliana almost falling and reached out to grab her in time.

Their figures were reflected in each other's clear eyes. Eliana was slower to stabilize herself

Jimmy quickly asked, "Are you alright?"

Sally covered the tip of her nose and saw the faces of Eliana and Cameron clearly. She exclaimed, "You're so beautiful!"

Diana and Cameron were stunned.

The skin color of people from other places was a stark contrast to Jimmy and Sally's were

Eliana had fair skin and delicate features, while Cameron had deep-set bones and a distinct profile. It was clear at a glance that neither of them were born on the grasslands.

Sally said happily. "You must be the guests who came to stay at the relay station today!"

Jimmy frowned. "Sally, don't be so rash" After that, he looked at Eliana and apologized. "I'm sorry. My sister didn't do it on purpose on purpose just now,"

Eliana waved her hand. "It's alright. Are you siblings?"

Jimmy said. "Yes, I'm Jimmy Brown, and she's Sally Brown"

11:07 AM -

Chapter 112

The person in charge of the relay station had the surname Brown. It seemed that they were the children of the person in charge

Jimmy put down the sheep grass in his hand. "I'm going to the kitchen to help. Make yourselves at home" Then, he held Sally's hand and they left the stable together.

Cameron had just heard Elana's words on the phone. He asked.

Elana answered. "I like it."

"Since you like it, you can ride it in the afternoon," said Cameron.

"Do you lik

like this white hor

Eliana smiled faintly. That young man just said that this horse doesn't like to be ridden"

Cameron told her. "It's just not tamed yet?"

Eliana asked, "Oh? Do you believe I can tame it!"

Cameron's deep eyes shifted to Eliana's face and he said slowly, "Yes"

Eliana's lips curled up. Her words revealed his true feelings. "It's a lie. You clearly d

You clearly don't believe it"

Cameron's slightly restrained eyes contained a smile as he said, "Since you like it, there are a hundred ways for it to become yours. Whether it's tamed or not isn't that important"

"How domineering" Eliana looked at the horse and put her hands behind her back. There will be things that you can't get. If you don't tame it, it will never be yours. Something forced won't be nice."

"It's up to me whether it's nice or not? Cameron seemed to be implying something

Cameron extended his hand forward and Eliana dodged backward. "What are you doing?"

"There's something dirty in your hair. What else could I do?" said Cameron Eliana suddenly blushed. She raised her hand and casually waved it above her head twice. "I can't be bothered to talk to your

She turned around and walked toward the front hall. Cameron followed behind leisurely

His voice was clear and drawled. "Why are you walking so fast? Have you ever seen a sweet potato walk so fast?"

Eliana turned around and glared at him. Who are you calling a sweet potato!

Cameron replied. "Whoever takes it personally is the one being talked about"

Eliana was speechless. What a jerk! She ran upstairs in one breath.

Cameron sat downstairs

After a while, Thomas and the others came out of the kitchen "Cameron, why are you alone? Where's Eliana?"

"Upstairs." Cameron looked at his phone without even lifting his eyelids.

Thomas walked over and sat down. "Call Owen and ask them to come down for lunch. We can even go for a ride in the afternoon"

Landon said, "I heard that Owen came here to find a wife"

Thomas put down his phone. "Alas, Owen is no longer young but still single. Is there anything wrong with him?"

As he spoke, Owen and Eliana came down from the second floor

Thomas had his back facing the stairs as he chattered on. I've never heard of him dating before. Do you guys think there's something wrong with his sexual orientation!

Landon and Adam saw Owen and Eliana coming down the stairs and he kicked Thomas

Thomas said. "Why did you kick me? Is there something wrong with my analysis?"

Landon looked at Owen and tried to salvage the situation. He said, "Can't Owen have some standards? Do you think he's as eager a as you?"

Thomas replied, "Well, you can't really say that. I've heard that quite a few people have tried to set him up! Every eligible lady from the prominent families in Drators City that you can think of has been introduced to him.

2/3

11:07 AM

Chapter 112

“And

guess what? He hasn't clicked with any of them. The more I think about it, the more it seems off. There must be some issue there...

Adam looked at Thomas sadly. What a silly boy. It can't be salvaged Thomas became more and more enthusiastic as he spoke. Suddenly, he felt a chill behind him.

He looked sideways and immediately jumped up from the stool “Owen, when did you walk behind me! Eliana, why didn't you remind me! That's not nice

Eliana gave him a look that said “you're on your own” and then turned to sit down nearby.

Owen smiled at Thomas. His smile was a little scary. “Tom, do you have a problem with me?”

Thomas hurriedly said, “No... Absolutely not!”

“Do you also have doubts about my sexuality?” asked Owen again.

Thomas said, “Impossible, absolutely impossible!”

Owen chuckled and put his arm around Thomas's shoulder. “Come with me “Owen, don't be like this, Don't... Ouch! Owen kicked Thomas out, and Thomas fell headfirst into the haystack outside, Landon and Adam laughed out loud.

Adam said. “He deserves it

Landon chimed in. “He should learn his lesson!”

Chapter 113

Thomas spat out a mouthful of grass, stood up from the haystack, and returned to the house.

After a while, the people at the relay station began to serve the dishes. They went to the back hall to eat.

The dishes were simple grassland specialties, and there was also craft beer. Jimmy and Sally were also serving.

The relay station was used for transit, and there were fewer entertainment activities, so after dinner, they prepared to go riding

Xavier asked, "Do you have any riding experience?"

We do

do They all knew how to ride but didn't know if Eliana knew how to ride..

Eliana nodded. "I dæ

Xavier, the person in charge of the relay station, said, "We have a bonfire party every night. Everyone can participate later.

"Oh, by the way, we have a horse riding challenge here. If you're interested, you can participate. If you cover three kilometers in under six minutes, you'll get a dish for free. One successful ride earns one dish. If every one of you manages to do it within six minutes, you'll get six dishes for the evening

Thomas said. "Six people get six dishes. Not bad. Looks like I don't have to pay for dinner tonight."

Xavier laughed. "It's not as easy as you think to do it within six minutes"

It was well-known that the fastest horses were thoroughbreds, capable of running a kilometer a minute, but such speeds were only sustainable on racetracks and for very short durations. Pushing a horse too hard could easily lead to exhaustion or even death.

The Sweat Blood Horse could reach such speeds on the racetrack, but that was only under optimal conditions. Even a thoroughbred needed three minutes to run three kilometers.

In other words, the horse was the key to speed.

Owen asked. "The horses here are descendants of thoroughbreds?"

Thomas asked, "Has anyone ever broken a record here!"

Landon said. "If the horse isn't up to it, we can't make it within six minutes. Si

Sir, you're setting us up for failure."

Xavier explained. "If there's no difficulty, then it wouldn't be called a challenge. The horses in our stable are descendants of thoroughbreds. If you're lucky, you might pick one of them. If you're unlucky, then you won't complete the challenge."

So it depended on luck.

The group of them went to the horse shed to pick the horses. They happened to see a couple of customers buying horses and hear the sound of some whips, punctuated by the whinnying of the horses.

Jimmy and Sally brought Eliana and the others to the west to pick horses.

Sally had also heard the whinnying from the stables to the east. "Someone's whipping the horses again, she said helplessly. "Poor thing."

Eliana asked. "Since they're buying, why would they whip the horses?"

Sally said, "Because there's an evil woman"

Jimmy said, "Sally, don't talk nonsense"

Sally pouted and muttered softly, I'm not spouting nonsense. It's true. Every time Savanna comes, she has to whip the horses

The relay station also sold horses. However, not everyone was gentle with horses. Some treated them as companions, while others only treated them as tools.

bie client, so

The people on the grassland accompanied their horses every day, so they naturally felt sorry for their horses. However, Savanna was a big they could only endure it

They passed by Princess's stable. Eliana could not help but ask, "Can I choose it?"

Jimmy said. "Are you sure? You'll get thrown off by it"

1/3

Chapter 113

Eliana insisted, I want to go in and take a look"

Seeing that Eliana was so interested in Princess, Jimmy opened the door. Then go After Eliana walked in, she became even more aware of the beauty of the white horse. Its pure white fur would surely look elegant running across the grasslands. However....

is there a small gap!"

She took a closer look and actually found a small gap in Princess's eat. "What is this? Why is th Sally said angrily. "It's all Savanna's fault! Princess was for sale, but it was too hot-tempeigel, so it was returned many times. Savanna couldn't tame it, so when it was returned, there was a piece massing from its ear. We couldnt sell it anymore, so Father decided to keep it for us to raise

Eliana pursed her lips and a trace of displeasure flashed across her eyes Its such a beautiful horse but has such a flaw of being abused. Wh

What a

At this moment, Savanna's men happened in deag a few horses out of the cast stall. Eliana and the others turned around and saw a woman in a red hat in the lead. Behind her were a few subordinates in the traditional clothes of Mongeland

One of the horses had a few whip marks on its nuly that were reil.

Savanna's method of taming horses was very simple. She would whip them until they submitted.

"Why do you want to n

you want to make a deal with such a person?" asked Eluma

Jimmy said, "Savanna's family controls all the channels for selling horses here. If we don't sell them to her, we won't have any other sellers. We won't be able to raise them all"

A horse might not eat a lot of ingredients every day, but a group of horses had a lot of rations. The relay station could not afford to raise so many.

As Jimmy spoke, the horse held by Savanna resisted for a moment. Savanna picked up the whip and began to whip it.

The Ju

horse noched in pain.

The few people standing beside her seemed to be used to it and had mocking expressions...

Savanna was very good at whipping the horse. She knew which part of the horse would hurt, so after a few whips, the horse's cries became more and more miserable..

Jimmy and Sally could not bear to watch it.

Eliana could not stand it anymore. She walked out and said "Stop

"Savanna stopped what she was doing and turned to look in the direction of the voice. Her gaze landed on Eliana's face.

She was stunned for a moment. Then, she cursed in Mongelish and said to Eliana, "Don't meddle in my business. Otherwise, I'll whip you too. Eliana and her group were obviously not from the grassland. Savanna could tell at a glance that they were here to travel. She had seen too many of them and did not care about Eliana at all.

Moreover, in Mongeland, Savanna's family was big and she was not afraid of anyone.

After

he saying that. Savanna turned around and prepared to continue whipping the horse.

Eliana strode forward and grabbed her whip tightly. "It's also a life. Why are you abusing it?"

"It's none of your business. I told you to mind your own business. Otherwise, I'll whip you too! Savanna pulled out the whip from Eliana's palm. No one in the relay station dared to interfere with her. Now that she was angered by Eliana, she raised the whip and swung it at Eliana.

Because the distance was too close, Eliana couldn't dodge in time.

The whip landed with a loud crack.

Eliana's eyelashes fluttered, and as she focused her gaze, what blocked her view was the sleeve of a luxurious, casual outfit. "Cameron! Are you alright

The whip landed on Cameron's forearms. His thin casual clothes were not as leathery as a horse's skin

Savanna's whip could even make the horse's skin turn red, let alone human skin!

Eliana immediately grabbed Cameron's hand and pulled up his sleeve to take a look. Indeed, there was a streak of blood Savanna looked at Cameron's face and was a little surprised. She did not expect this group of outlanders to be so handsome...

Rewriting Life Chapter 115

Chapter 115

Savanna had a bad character. In her eyes, victory and defeat were no different.

Even if Eliana won, she would definitely not keep her promise, so there was no need to continue this bet and Princess an out of the horse shed. Xavier had been persuading her to give up the bet

"Did Cameron treat his injuries? She interrupted him abruptly and asked.

in the when stunned for a moment. "Oh, is it your companion in the white coat? He's already been treated"

Elana said. "That's good" Then she asked. "Whose counting the bones?"

Xavier was helpless "Miss Davis. I've said so much, but you didn't listen at all!"

Elana smiled faintly. "I've already told her that I'll definitely abide by it. As for whether she wants to abide by it or not, it's not up to her to decide"

The moment Starin agreed, the bet took effect, and there was absolutely no room for her to back on her word.

Seeing how determined Eliana was, Xavier sighed.

However, he could also tell that this group of people had a powerful background. Perhaps the person who would be taught a lesson was Savanna

Additionally, Princess was indeed not an ordinary horse, it had the blood of the famed Fergana horses

as flowing r

(through its veins, and its lineage

was quite distinguished

Xavier glanced at Princess. "But Miss Davis, this horse doesn't like to be ridden, Why don't I change a horse for you? I have a gentle and docile descendant of a famous horse. Look..

"No, I like it" Eliana turned around and stroked Princess's mane. Her clear eyes flashed with confidence, Princess snatched slightly, and it was still chewing on the unfinished grass.

Eliana led at to the starting point. Cameron was taken to treat his arm injury. Only Land on, the other two, and Owen were waiting for her at the starting point

When they saw Eliana leading Princess over, they went up to her. "Eliana."

Eliana looked at them.

At this moment, a few people carried a chair over and Savanna sat on it

She looked at Eliana and Princess with disdain and said, "It's not that I look down on you, but if you ride this horse. I'm afraid you'll fall before you can even walk meters. It's better to change to another horse now"

Princess was famous for its bad temper. After all, it had been purchased many times before and was returned

Falling off a horse's back could result in fracture or paralysis.

Savanna had once fallen off Princess's back and fractured her thigh. It took her a long time to recover

If not for the fact that Princess was expensive and had to return the money to the relay station, she would have killed it long ago!

How could that woman tame a horse that even I could not tame Savanna didn't believe it Eliana ignored her. After exchanging a few words with Owen and the others, she led Princess to the starting point and prepared to mount her horse.

Gwen wanted to go up and give her a hand. After all, Princess was an adult horse and was very tall. One had to know that some beginners had to use a stool to get on a horse. There had to be a caretaker beside her

toni

Trapedly, Elana skillfully placed her hands on Princess's back and cassy sat on it.

Owen and the others were studied.

They did not expect Elina to really know how to ride a horse, Judging from her proficiency on the horse, she did not look like a beginner at all. She looked like a lunle-hardened female general!

Upon seeing Eliana ger on the horse, Savanna uid mockingly, "She'll be thrown out in less than two minutes"

However, Ellana was not thrown off. She was still sing steadily on Princess twire its cars. At the moment, it wa not against Eliana riding it.

1/3

Sering this, Savanna was very dissatisfied and cable moride it. dening on it is just i just the first step. Shealackyf She was right. Princess was not against being ridden by Elana at the moment, bait had been standing on the spot without moving Eliana looked at the reins on Princess's lips and reached out to take the rope off,

Xavier as her actions from the side and quickly stopped her. Ton't, Miss Day Without the rein, you won't be able to hold jer

The reins wETE lto control the home to run forward. They were equivalent to the steering wheel of a car

Princess was wild to begin with. What would happen if it lost

The reins were taken off and Eliana threw them to the ground. Without the more related.

Eliana stroked its fur and bent down to whisper something into its ear

Princess suddenly looked up at the sky and marrd. Then, it ran out at lightning speed.

the reins, Princess shook its fur and seemed to be much

A gust of wind blew past. Dust flew everywhere. Eliana and Princess had already disappeared.

Fortunately, the timer on the side had already started the moment Princess ran out.

No one expected Princess to suddenly run out. Owen was worried that something would happen to Eliana, so he quickly got into the off-road vehicle that had been prepared. "Quick, follow them!"

The few of them got into the car, stepped on the accelerator, and chased after the horse

This scene was really unexpected. Savanna's face was covered in dirt. She sat and cursed, "She will definitely fall off the horse's back. She will fall to- her death"

Princess carried Eliana on its back and ran forward at an at an extremely fast speed.

The grassland was vast, and Eliana could see everything in front of her.

Sitting steeply on the horseback without reins, Eliana clung tightly to Princess's mane, bending low almost against her back to minimize air resistance and the risk of being thrown off

Behind her, Owen and his group sat in the SUV. They lowered the window and Owens said through the loudspeaker, "Eliana, be careful!"

Eliana
heard the voice and turned to look at them. She squeezed the horse's belly and shouted
, "Go!"

Princess was too fast. Atop the white horse, only a faint silhouette of a light purple coat could be seen, riding swiftly and elegantly.

In the SUV, Landon stood at the skylight window. He held his phone and zoomed in to see Eliana on a white horse.

Suddenly, a purple headband made of silk floated in the air.

Landon raised his hand to stop it. The headband landed in his palm.

It was tied to Eliana's hair. It must have been blown off by the wind..

Landon looked at the headband in his palm and was stunned for a moment. Then, he folded it and put it in his pocket.

The three—kilometer distance seemed far, yet three minutes passed almost in the blink of an eye. In a round trip, while Savanna still held her unfinished craft beer, Princess and Eliana had already galloped back from afar.

Savanna's assistant said, said. "Miss Savanna Look, that woman has returned on horseback"

Savanna had just taken a sip of beer beer, When she heard this, she spat it out and was almost scalded. "What? Is she back? Did she not fall?"

"In don't look like a said the assistant.

"How is that possible? Has the white horse become so docile now? Savanna jumped up from her chair and ran to the timer machine beside her to check the time: "How long has passed".

The record she set back then was three minutes and six seconds, but the timer had just surpassed three minutes.

Chapter 116

Princess stepped over the infrared, and the timer announced a stop-

The stat said. "Three minutes and one second"

Savanna's people were all stunned

After Princess ran back, it went to the sink to drink water.

Eliana jumped down from its back. The staff of the relay station quickly brought Princess to take cooling measures.

Savanna looked at the time on the timer in disbelief. Has she actually broken my record?

Then, the SUV returned to the starting point. Owen and his group got out of the car. They were all witnesses to Eliana breaking the record

Eliana said. "I won Bring me the whip!"

When Savanna heard Eliana's voice, she reacted and said, "No, I don't believe it It's just an old horse. How can it surpass my record! You must not have run the entire distance"

Xavier stepped forward. “Savanna, we recorded it in the car. Miss Dois did finish the entire distance, Every horse riding challenge had to be witnessed by a third party. Although this was not a particularly powerful competition, it had to be fair. Therefore, every relay station would arrange for staff to record it.

This time, it was Navier himself who went. With the video, how could it be fake?

Upon hearing this, Savanna narrowed her eyes. “How did you come that white horse!”

Eliana said. “This is none of your business. Go and get the whip. I want to whip her

The staff of the relay station hesitated. Xavier gave the staff a look, and the staff turned around to get the whip

Savanna was furious. She had never expected that that old horse and this frail-looking woman could actually break her record.

The record was broken, and Savanna’s heart was burning with rage. It’s already good enough that I haven’t lost my temper. How could I let her whip me?

Savanna kicked over the chair beside her feet and turned to her subordinate beside her “Go back and get Flame. I want to believe that old horse can break my record.”

to compete

again. I don’t

The subordinate said, “Yes.”

The staff member took the whip and handed it to Eliana with both hands.

Eliana did not care if Savanna admitted defeat or not. She was definitely going to whip Savanna!

The horsewhip was not long, only twenty inches. Eliana took the whip and whipped it in the air. A sonic booms sounded in the air.

Upon hearing this, Savanna turned around and her pupils constricted.

Eliana was aggressive. Seeing that Eliana really wanted to whip her, Savanna took a step back. Do you really want to whip me? You don’t know your Eliana said, “Then do you think I’m joking with you?” She aimed her whip at Savanna with all her strength Savanna widened her eyes and quickly hid behind her subordinates.

“Ah! The subordinate screamed in pain after being whipped by Eliana. There was a sharp

pain in his shoulder

Seeing that she had whipped the wrong person, Eliana said. I'm sorry. If you want to blame someone, blame Savanna for using you as a as a shield. I won't compensate you for the medical fees?

Savanna shouted, “Do you know who I am?! Since you dare to hit me, I'll make sure none of you can walk out of the grassland!”

Eliana smiled. The whip lashed out again, and Savanna quickly ran away.

he haystack.

The tail of the whip hit her ponytail, and a few strands of her hair were pulled off. Her hair was messy, and she threw herself into the 1 beside her, looking extremely pathetic,

1/2

Chapter 116

Savanna covered her head and looked at the boss of the courier station beside her. She gritted her teeth and said. “Xavier! Do you want to die? How can you just watch this woman go crazy and hit me”

No one on the scene helped Savanna. They all watched coldly from the side.

Xavier said, “Savanna, this was originally your bet with Miss Davis. Since you've lost, you should suffer her whip. Now that you're running around, you're really embarrassing your father.”

Savanna said fiercely. I'm not done with you. Don't even think about opening this relay station in the future!!

Eliana retracted her whip. “It's useless even if you dodge. I'm definitely going to whip you today. No one can save you”

Savanna quickly ran toward the door of the horse shed beside her. The subordinates behind her also ran with her.

keep her promise:

Eliana swung her whip, but Savanna dodged again. Eliana thought. 'It's really boring. It seems like Savanna really can not keep

At this moment, a staff member of the relay station hurriedly ran over and said to Xavier, "Bad news, Mr. Brown. Someone from the Chamber of Commerce is here!"

When Savanna, who was hiding behind the table, heard this, she was instantly delighted.

She stood up and pointed at Xavier, Eliana, and the others. "You're dead meat! It must be my uncle coming over! Xavier, like I said, don't even think about opening your relay station in the future, and don't even think about your son and daughter having a peaceful school life!"

Savanna was extremely vengeful. Anyone who offended her would definitely be retaliated.

Xavier's heart tightened when he heard this. Although Savanna was the one who was unreasonable, if she distorted the truth, this relay station would probably really be targeted by the Chamber of Commerce.

"Someone from the Chamber of Commerce? Eliana turned to look at Owen. Owen nodded at her.

She instantly understood that the people from the Chamber of Commerce were probably called over by Owen.

Savanna tidied her hair and ran out.

Xavier had a bad feeling in his heart. "Not good. Savanna is the best at distorting the truth. She must have gone to complain first Owen said steadily. "It's okay. Let's go out and take a look first. I also want to see what she's capable of Savanna ran out first. Just as Xavier had expected, she was going to complain.

Unexpectedly, when she ran from the horse shed in the backyard to the front hall, the smile on her face froze before she could call out.

On the sofa in the front hall, the young man she had whipped earlier was being bandaged and treated.

The person from the Chamber of Commerce was wearing a work uniform and sitting beside the young man. He was flattering the young man with a smile

However, the young man ignored him.

“Father...” Looking closely, Savanna found that the person who came from the Chamber of Commerce was not her uncle, but her father!

Grandet heard Savanna’s voice, he turned around and looked over. His face immediately darkened. “Savanna, did you do this?”

Savanna feared her father the most. Why would Father come personally? Why isn’t it Uncle....

Savanna clenched her fists under her sleeves, not daring to speak.

At this moment, Eliana’s group walked over from the backyard. Owen’s deep voice could be heard, “Grandet, long time no see.

Grandes, who was sitting on the sofa, quickly stood up from the sofa and greeted Owen with a smile. “Mr. Davis, long time no see! Why didn’t y you tell me you were coming to the grassland? I could have picked you up and arranged the itinerary properly Owen’s expression was indifferent and his eyes were cold. He did not answer Grandet but pointed at Savanna. “This is your daughter, right? You should already know who she injured today. I can’t help you settle this..

Chapter 117

‘His Excellency

Everyone was stunned by Grandet’s words.

Xavier looked at Owen in surprise. What was going on!

Grandet’s expression froze. He had rushed over as soon as he received the call. He was already mentally prepared.

Grandet said, “I didn’t teach my daughter well, which led to today’s disaster. The decision on how to handle her rests entirely with you, are! I will not interfere or offer any objection.”

Savanna’s body stiffened. She turned around and pulled Grandet’s arm “Father, they bullied me. This woman even wanted to whip me!”

“Nonsense” Grandet raised his hand and flung it away from Savanna’s.

He continued. "If you didn't do anything wrong, why would His Excellency's friend whip you for no reason? Do you know who you injured today? How dare you distort the truth in front of me Savanna, I think you've been spoiled rotten! You have no idea of the bounds of proper behavior. I must teach you a lesson today"

Savanna's gaze trembled. It was rare for Grandet to use the term "His Excellency" to refer to others

She tried to remember who might be important enough to him to deserve such care. Could it be the foreign oil merchant who helped him take over a few years ago!"

Thinking of this, Savanna looked at Owen in shock.

That's right. Owen was the foreign oil merchant who helped Grandet get the position of vice president of the Mongeland Chamber of Commerce in the past

Without Owen's support, Grandet would not have been able to live so comfortably.

The role of vice president at the Chamber of Commerce wasn't something just anyone could step i

Owen was the benefactor of Grandet.

Owen signed large-scale oil contracts with the Chamber of Commerce every year. Therefore, countless people wanted to work for him Grandet knew that Savanna was in big trouble, but he didn't know it until he came to the scene. As soon as he saw Cameron, he knew how much trouble she had caused him.

The person she accidentally injured with her whip was the son of an important cadre.

He couldn't bear the responsibility. Even Owen would not be able to settle this matter for him.

The more he thought about it, the angrier Grandet became. He stepped forward and raised his hand to slap Savanna, which stunned Savanna She covered her face and stood rooted to the ground. Her eyes instantly filled with tears.

She had never suffered such grievances in so many years!

Grandet knew that he must now take a proactive stance on addressing the issue before being blamed

He looked at the whip in Elianas hand and asked, "This lady, what other trouble did she cause Eliana replied, "She made a bet with me that if I broke her record, she would let me whip her. But now, she wants to go back on her word. How can Grandet said, "Give me the whip. I'll whip whip her for you."

Eliana hesitated for a moment and looked at Savanna. Although she wanted to slap Savanna personally, since her father was already there, it seemed more biting to let the elders handle the reprimanding of the child.

She thought for a moment, then handed the whip to Grandet, Grandet had more strength than Eliana.

In addition, if he wanted to handle this matter properly, he would not put on an act. He had to teach Savanna a lesson in front of Cameron and

Owen

1/3

Chapter 117

Savanna panicked when she saw the whip in Grandet's hand. "Dad..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Grandet lashed out with his whip, hitting her right on her forearm and shoulder.

Savanna screamed and fell to the ground, trembling in pain.

When Grandet saw this, he wanted to whip her again before being stopped by Eliana.

"I only bet one lash with her, and the wager has now been settled. If you whip her again, it's none of my business?"

Grandet looked at Savanna on the ground. This unfilial daughter has been spoiled by me. In case she causes trouble in the future, I might as well teach her a lesson this time.

Miss, that whip just now was a bet between you and her. I will give her another whip on behalf of Cameron!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Grandet whipped Savanna again.

This time, Savanna fainted from the pain before she could even scream. It could be seen how strong Grandet was

Then, the servant took Savanna out of the courier station

Grandet stayed at the station and wanted to hold a banquet to entertain Owen and the others.

He had always thought that all these people on the scene were Owen's friends. During dinner, he found out that Eliana was Owen's biological sister.

Grandet thought for a moment and took out a pair of surl white jade. He presented them to Eliana and Cameron, offering them as an apology to Eliana for the incident today

The finest surl white jade took on a subtle yellow hue under the light, akin to congealed fat

Among jades, white jade was the most precious, and the seed material among white jade was the most valuable of all.

Eliana originally wanted to politely decline. Unexpectedly, Owen said, "Eliana, take it."

After all, with the price he paid the Chamber of Commerce every year, he could easily afford as much mutton fat jade as he wished Therefore, Owen felt that it was reasonable for Grandet to give Eliana a gift. He did not need to remember any favors at all.

What's more, Savanna had caused such trouble today. Cameron was generous to not take it to heart, but Grandet had to show some sincerity.

Hearing that, Eliana accepted the two pairs of safety locks politely.

After dinner, Eliana handed one to Cameron.

Cameron looked at the white jade in her palm. "Why are you giving it to me?"

Eliana said. "Didn't you hear what he said? He's apologizing to us, so how can I take both of them alone? I'll give one to you"

Cameron paused for a moment and reached out to take the white jade from her palm.

He held the white jade under the moonlight and could see the good structure inside.

"Does your hand still hurt?" Eliana asked.

"It's fine. Do you want to see it?"

"Huh?" Eliana was stunned.

Cameron rolled up his sleeves and showed her his injuries

He had already applied the medicine to it, which was a terrifying long and thin whip mark.

Eliana felt bad. After all, Cameron had helped her block the whip.

Cameron rolled down his sleeves. "Do you feel bad?"

"Nonsense, I hate owing people favors the most. However, I've helped you take revenge. Savanna's injuries must be much worse than yours. You don't have to help me block it. Previously

- was a stunt doular,

Eliana had suffered more serious injuries when she was a

Cameron interrupted her immediately. He held the white jade and continued to look at it under the moonlight. He said calmly, "If I don't help you block it, won't it be your turn to be in pain?"

11:08 AM

Chapter 117

Eliana suddenly choked.

Cameron's clear gaze landed on her face. "You'll leave a scar."

Chapter 118

Given the distance between Savanna and Eliana at the time, the whip should have struck Eliana on the shoulder or neck, an area with thin skin that would surely leave a scar. It would be much more serious than the wound on Cameron's arm.

In her previous life. Eliana had suffered many injuries when she was a stunt double. Naturally, her body bore the marks of many scars as a result of inadequate care

To her, leaving a scar was not particularly unacceptable.

After all, how could martial arts practitioners not be injured! They were also impetuous on set, so it was impossible for them not to be injured.

She was used to being self-reliant, Sometimes, she would rather leave a scar than owe someone a favor,

Therefore, Eliana sighed. "I don't care about leaving a scar. Instead, it's more difficult for me to accept that the people around me were hurt because of me"

"But I care" Cameron said immediately.

"What

Would care if you had a scar"

"Do you think no one cares? Many people care about you, including your parents, your brother, and me." Cameron averted his gaze towards the stable in the courtyard at the silhouette of the white horse.

He continued. "Even if no one in the world cares, I will"

Eliana's eyelashes fluttered, and a certain part of her heart trembled.

At this moment, the moonlight shone down. The profile of Cameron left a deep impression on her heart. And these words would be engraved in her heart for the next few decades.

They stayed at the courier station for another day.

After breaking Savanna's record, Eliana became the new record holder for the station's Thousand Mile Walk

On the signboard of the Thousand Mile Walk, there was a signature of Eliana and a time record.

Jimmy had always been curious about how Eliana tamed the horse Princess

Before they left for the next station, Eliana came to the stable to feed the fodder.

Jimmy took the opportunity to ask Eliana, "How did you tame Princess! This is the first time it has been so obedient"

Eliana stroked the fur of Princess. "It's very simple. I told it that if it doesn't listen to me, I'll kill it and boil it in a hotpot."

"What? I don't believe it" Jimmy burst out laughing

Eliana said. "I'm telling the truth. Forget it if you don't believe me"

Jimmy had her set of tricks to tame Princess.

Eliana naturally!

However, this method could not be spread to outsiders because it was related to her master

With this method, Eliana was famous for being a horse trainer when she was training in her previous life.

Jimmy was a little disappointed that Eliana did not tell him the truth, but he did not force her. After all, everyone has a secret

In the afternoon, Atlas arranged for two cars to send them to the next stop.

After getting into the car, Eliana looked forward to what interesting things would happen at the next stop.

They arrived at the new courier station before dark.

After a long journey, everyone was listless. They entered the courier station to eat before returning to their rooms to rest.

The next day. Eliana woke up when she heard the eagle's cry

1/3

Chapter 118

When she came out of the room, she heard many people picking eagles downstairs.

After washing up, she went downstairs and saw Adam and the others surrounding the birdcage. "What are you guys doing?"

Thomas turned around and smiled at Eliana. "Eliana, you're up. Come and take a look. There's a new batch of little eagles"

"Eagle!" Eliana walked over.

There were many little falcons in

- birdcage.

"Where did all this come from?" Eliana asked.

Landon answered. They came from overseas with legal sales procedures. Someone used them to train eagles".

Eliana suddenly thought of Cameron's falcon. "Where's Cameron's Eagle!"

Thomas said. "It's in the backyard. Zeus is very beautiful. Cameron made a new headgear for it this time.

The falcons had to wear head masks to block their vision and reduce their desire to attack. During training, the falcons would pounce on living

Adam asked, "I didn't expect that we came just in time. Eliana, do you want to choose one

"We were lucky and happened to encounter a new batch of baby eagles. Tomorrow, this batch of baby eagles will be shipped away. Now is the best time to choose. Otherwise, the ones bought from other channels will be leftover

At this moment, Owen and Cameron walked in from the backyard. The staff of the relay station pushed a large cage. Inside stood an eagle with pure white fur and black fur. At a glance, it looked extremely mighty. This should be Zeus.

Those who played with eagles were all from wealthy families. Eliana had never played it before.

Owen walked forward. "Eliana, pick one".

Eliana pointed at a brown eagle in the cage. "Is this just a golden eagle?"

"Right"

"This one, then"

The most important factor in choosing an eagle is the connection you feel with it.

Eliana had taken a fancy to this golden eagle at first glance because its wings and feathers were not complete. The fur on its head was also a little bald. It was obvious that it had fought with other birds and neither of them was willing to submit to the other.

Landon smiled. This one doesn't look easy to deal with."

Adam agreed. "Needless to say. Except it, the others are all caged together?

Thomas explained. However, the fiercer the eagle, the greater the sense of accomplishment you'll feel once it recognizes you as its master after the training, Back then, wasn't Zeus also the fiercest?"

Eliana was curious. "Training an eagle"

Cameron leaned over and looked at the golden eagle in the cage. This one is not bad. An eagle can recognize its master, but you should train it rigorously before it can be convinced”

Eliana asked, “Then how long did you train it back then!”

Cameron replied, “Six days”

Adam added, “Back then, Cameron did not eat or drink for six days and nights.

That was torturous. It was not just the eagle that was being trained, it was a matter of enduring through sheer willpower

Owen frowned. “Huna, you should choose another one. This one is so fiercer. I’m worried that you won’t be able to persist

If she failed, it would be impossible for this eagle to recognize her as its master, let alone listen to her.

However, Eliana’s interest was ignited by their words. “Just this one.

Owen was rather worried, but seeing how insistent Eliana was, he did not do anything else.

Hanya

Chapter 118

After choosing the eagle, he paid on the spot.

Eliana carried the cage upstairs. The golden eagle narrowed its eyes and did not move.

Eliana used a wooden skewer to pick a shred of meat to feed it, but it did not move at all. It did not care about Eliana. It even pooped by curling up its tail “Sure, not bad. You’re arrogant Eliana had already decided to make it suffer. She immediately wanted to give it a name. “I’m going to call you Hera.

After choosing their eagles, many eagle masters gathered in the grassland to train the eagles the next day.

The eagle stood on the hemp rope, its feet tied to a cage. It maintained eye contact with a person until one of them broke.

The staff of the relay station said. The longer the eagle training session, the greater the eagle's endurance. According to the records, the fastest time for training an eagle is thirty-seven minutes, and the longest is seven days

After Eliana tied the hemp rope to Hera, she moved a stool and sat in front of Hera. She was already prepared to stay up for a week!

Landon, Adam, and Thomas also chose an eagle and sat beside it to train

Chapter 119

As more and more eagle trainers arrived at the venue, a girl in a Mongeland robe suddenly appeared beside Eliana. She tied her eagle to a hemp rope and began to train it.

Eliana caught sight of her out of the corner of her eye, but her gaze remained fixed on Hera.

A day and night passed

Fortunately. Eliana had a good rest the day before, so she didn't feel too tired. Hera didn't seem tired at all

The girl beside her continued to persevere was not until the next night that some of the eagle owners in the venue began to lose their patience.

Cheer and Cameron looked at Eliana and sighed helplessly. I wonder if Eliana can train her eagle successfully":

Cameron looked at the girl sitting beside Eliana. He immediately recognized that the girl was wearing gambiered canton gauze, which was recognized by the textile industry as the "soft gold" of fabrics. It seemed that she had a powerful background.

Two days and nights passed:

Hera was still standing firm. Some of the people on the field were gone, but most of them were still very persistent

Owen and Cameron drank coffee, fed eagles, and released eagles to fly at the courier station every day.

In the sky above the venue. Zeus's cries could be heard every day.

On the third day, a group of people arrived at the venue. They rushed to the girl beside Eliana and said anxiously,
“Miss! We finally found you. Sir said that he didn’t want you to train eagles. Why did yo u secretly come here to train eagles? Come back with us?”

The girl said in a clear voice. “Go away!”

“Miss, please come back with us”

“I’ve already persisted for so long. If you try to stop me, I handle each of you personally when I return.

Hearing those harsh words, her subordinates immediately did not dare to respond. They stood in a row at the side, like a wall

At first, they could still stand in rows. Later, they couldn’t stand anymore and took stools to sit. They even are delicious pics.

Not long after, many eagle trainers were attracted by them and announced their failure.

The girl was about to break through her defense. She had to control her attention to not be attracted by them.

She roared to her subordinates.” “Are you crazy? Get lostr

They were stunned and could only take the meat p pies out of the arena to to ca

After they left, the girl touched her stomach and muttered, “Damn. I’m so hungry after b eing fooled by them.”

Hearing her words, Eliana picked up a mint in her pocket and handed it to her.

“Do you want a candy”

The girl was stunned. Staring at her eagle’s eyes, she touched Eliana’s hand to get the candy. “What’s that smell! 1 hate mangoes the most.

The mint stimulated her brain to be clear, and she didn’t feel so sleepy

She took the candy, puffed off the icing, and threw it into her mouth. T

After Maying up for two nights, she felt refreshed after eating the mint..

After rating the candy, the girl introduced lienell. "My name is Eleg"

*Eliana"

11:08 AM D

Chapter 119

After exchanging names, Elegy seemed to open up like a floodgate.

"There's finally someone wise can chat with me for a while.

1. e. I'm suffocating. I didn't ride all the way here in vain

Eliana leaned back in her chair and kept her gaze on Hera. She spoke lindle and consu med less energy.

Elegy nagged for a while. Seeing that Eliana was ignoring her, she did not say anything else

Two days passed in the blink of an eye

The number of people in the venue had decreased by half. At a glance, there were still more than ten people in the venue.

Eliana and Elegy persevered while chewing on mines!

Elana had the experience of not sleeping for a few days. Hot more, her lundy was inverworked after several days without deep. Snowflakes sermed to float before her eyes. Then the face of a white-haired old man appeared in front of her

In her previous life, Willow suppressed Eliana in the entertainment industry. Eventually, Eliana was forced into the sidelines, taking on minor roles and extras in crowd scenes. How did she become a sua double!

When forced into a corner. Eliana met a martial arts stunt double on set who introduced her rodearning murtial arts on the mountain.

Comcidentally, an old priest was taking in a disciple on the mountain at that time. Eliana went to learn from him.

At

first, the old priest not fancy Eliana because it was not the best age for an adult of Eliana's age to learn martial arts. However, he did not expect Eliana to be so persistent.

In order to stay on the mountain. Eliana had been guarding the chicken shed outside in the cold winter.

At that time. Eliana was very pessimistic because she was targeted and could only starve because she could not take on any roles on the set. Her relationship with Andy and Victoria had long since turned icy cold. Besides being a stunt double, she had no other way out the might as well stay on the mountain and be a num

With her determination to fight to the death, the door of the Daoist temple opened when she was about to freeze to death in the snowy winter

When she was about to faint. Eliana saw a white-haired old figure in plain clothes.

Later on Eliana stayed on the mountain and learned martial arts from the old priest

However, since Eliana had long missed the prime age for learning martial tial arts, she couldn't master it proficiently. The old priest could only teach her some other minor skills that were regarded as unorthodox ways

Patching up here and there, making do with bits and pieces.

Finally, it was somewhat presentable. At least when she went down the mountain, she wouldn't embarrass her riding technique she showed before was not only used on horses. It could work on most animals, but the effect was short-lived. This was one of the unorthodox ways that the old priest had taught her.

The bone-

Although she didn't learn a lot, it was more than enough to be a stunt double. Moreover, Eliana still had many tricks up her sleeve

During her years as a stunt double on set, Eliana had also been accumulating experience.

Eliana had notched and played with multiple kinks and injuries weapons before. Every palm and fist strike, each bit of experience, was earned through real, hard

In her previous life, Eliana had lived for decades, and very few pe v people could be called benefactor by her.

u was an important benefactor who could change the trajectory of her life.

However, the old priest wa

ar memory ended

descended again in the distante.

A few people beside her gave up, but some people succeeded and cheered happily

The failed few fell as if they were sleeping or fainting. They were carried away by the sta ll of the relay station.

The staff member's works landed in Piana and Elegy's cars. "There's no lack of food or water these days. It's not worth it to burn yourself to death.

Eliana's bloodshot eyes narrowed slightly.

"Hey. Eliana, can you hold on?" Elegy asked.

2/3

11:09 AM

Chapter 119

"Yeali

that also want to become an eagle master!"

Elegy's voice came softly. She propped up her eyelids with her fingers. "Then I can do it too. I will succeed. Why are you hy are you so

so persistent? Could it be Elana's eyes darkened. She didn't want to become an eagle master.

It was just that the path she had walked on was much more difficult than this. How could she admit defeat here! It was just an eagle.

Chapter 120

Six days passed. Owen grew increasingly worried about Eliana. He spent more and more time lingering outside the arena. Several of Elegy's maids were also hovering around, standing in a line with concerned expressions.

Landon had already succeeded on the 4th and 5th day. Only three people were still persevering at the venue: Eliana, Elegy, and a young man.

Thomas succeeded on the fourth day. Afterward, he went to the relay station to sleep. He slept for an entire day, and when he woke up, he ate live bowl of rice.

Then, he strolled over leisurely from a distance. "Owen, is Eliana still hobbling on! The girl next to her is persevering. How impressive.

looks about the same age as her. She's also a girl. Thomas admired

Staying up for days on end was no joke. Even tough guys like Thomas were pushed to their limits, let alone Eliana, being a girl. Diana's determination.

Finally, the sky turned dark, and it was the seventh day. A sharp cry out through the quiet atmosphere of the venue, and the eagle in front of Elegy fell. When Elegy saw that, she instantly jumped up from her chair happily.

A few minutes later. Hera couldn't hold her breath and she collapsed. When Eliana saw Hera fall, she immediately stood up from the stool. Before she could even feel a moment of joy, everything went black. She got up too quickly.

"Ah, I made it!" Elegy happily carried Eliana

The servants outside the venue quickly ran up to Elegy. "Miss, that's great. You did it! Elegy laughed, then fell straight down a and slept soundly.

Owen and the others quickly ran to Eliana's side. Eliana turned around and said happily to Owen. "I succeeded. That's great. From now on, Hera would truly belong to the Elians."

Owen was happy for Eluna, but at the same time, he said worriedly, "Eliana, you've been up for so many days. Hurry up and sleep."

"Okay" Eliana returned to her room at the relay station to sleep. The unconscious Hera was carried into a cage by Cameron and brought back to the relay station.

When Eliana finally woke up, a new record was set at the relay station for eagle taming. She had spent 7 days, 3 hours, and 6 minutes successfully taming Hera.

Behind Eliana was another boy who spent seven days, three hours, five minutes, and forty seconds, earlier than Eliana by a few seconds. Eleya spent seven days, three hours, and one minute.

The three of them had succeeded at almost the same time. It seemed that this was also the critical point of the eagle.

Eagles could last for seven days, after all, they were ferocious birds, but humans could last for so long which was amazing.

After Eleya woke up, she liked her eagle and named it Apex.

Eliana did not expect to break the record. When she was taming the eagle, it was rare for her to accurately judge the passage of time. After she knew that she had been taming for seven days, Eliana was a little surprised.

But breaking the record wasn't important. What was important was that Hera was her eagle.

Fifteen people had succeeded in taming eagles this time. Many people treated this activity as a cultivation method. After successfully taming the eagles, they began to train them.

Unfortunately, it would take a long time to train an eagle, so Eliana decided to bring Hera back when she returned to Dratara City.

At night, she had dinner with Eleya and the others and learned that Eleya was the daughter of a prominent family, it was no wonder she could wear a gambler's cap and gauze.

"My dream has always been to become an eagle."

e master and represent my family in the competition. However, my father said most everyone can withstand the rigors of ragle training

He was worried about me facing such hardships, but I was determined to prove myself, so I came here.” Eley was about the same age as Eliana. They had spent seven days together in tame the rables, so they could be considered friends.

Eliana said, “I’m hear to travel with any brother and friends. This is our second stop. We might be going to the next stop in a few days”

Eley said excitedly. “Then you can come with me to Gunger, I can ask my father to tre at you well. The best eagle trainer was in my family” Eley was very proud.

1/2

11:09 AM

Chapter 120

Eliana did not know much about eagle training

Cameron guessed. “You’re from the Shaw family!

Eley was slightly stunned and nodded, “Yes”

“No wonder.” The Shaw family had indeed produced several of the best eagle trainers i n the country, Cameron who was good at training eagles had to interact with the Shaw f amily.

He took a sip of coffee and said flatly. “So you are Bart’s sister.

Eley blinked and suddenly stood up from the stool. “You know my brother?”

Cameron explained. Tve seen him at an eagle exhibition abroad.”

Eley’s eyes lit up with excitement. “Wow! My brother did go abroad for the Eagle Exhibi tion. That’s amazing!

He’s truly my idol”

After that, Eley said to Eliana next to her, “Eliana, if you come with me, you can also p articipate in my clan’s quinquennial Eagle Exhibition Festival. There are so many outsta nding eagle masters and rabbit-catching competitions. Come with us!”

It sounded quite interesting.

However, only eagles that had been trained for many years could participate in such festivals. A newly tamed youngster like Hera wasn't ready to follow commands yet, so they could only be spectators.

However, when she thought that she could watch Zeus spread its wings there, Eliana was instantly interested. "Owen, why don't we go?"

Owen had no objections. He had originally come out to play with them.

Adam said, "Sure. Since we're already out, let's go together. Let's hitch a ride with the m."

Thomas agreed, I have no objections?

Landon followed him, "Me neither."

The corners of Eliana's mouth curled up. "Alright, it's settled then. We'll go the day after tomorrow!"

The next day, they rested at the relay station for a day.

Word of Eliana's record-breaking eagle taming spread throughout the relay station. Many travelers who stopped there for rest were amazed by her achievement.

Eliana was feeding the eagle at the window. The guests in the hall looked at her and discussed. "It looks like she's not even 20 years old. She's about the same age as my little sister, but she lasted so long. She's amazing!"

"Look at the golden eagle in her cage. Its fur isn't even fully grown yet, but it can still last seven days. This eagle isn't a common bird"

"It's not due to lack of growth. It's the result of a fight." The station master shook his head. "When this young golden eagle was brought here, it was blindfolded. I wondered about the blindfold at first."

Then it revealed its extremely aggressive nature and nearly clawed me. It became uncontrollable in its cage, and the feathers on its head were all worn off. That girl was incredible to tame it. She has remarkable endurance.

"Such a powerful eagle. I'm afraid it'll catch all the rabbits in the grassland" The few people in the hall laughed loudly.