Chapter 351 Meeting An Acquaintance; Collecting Debts

Lin Xiaoyao was now in her third year of high school, and her schedule was very tight. She only had a short half-day off every week.

After dinner, Lin Fan drove Lin Xiaoyao to Jiangbei High School.

Lin Xiaoyao looked at the dazzling starry sky above and touched the comfortable and soft seat. Her pretty face was filled with enjoyment.

"Brother, your girlfriend won't be angry that I'm sitting in your passenger seat, will she?" she asked.

"Brother, I..."

Lin Fan smiled and interrupted, "She won't be angry. Otherwise, your heart will ache, right?"

"Of course!" Lin Xiaoyao hugged Lin Fan's strong arm.

After sending Lin Xiaoyao to the school gate, Lin Fan returned home.

The night gradually deepened.

Lin Fan lay on the big bed that was filled with the smell of sunlight. He slept very comfortably and soundly.

The next day, when Lin Fan opened his eyes, the sun was already hanging in the sky.

His parents left the house early as usual.

After Lin Fan washed up, he went to a stall not far away and ate a bowl of wontons.

Then, he strolled along the winding road.

Humans were such strange creatures.

If he always lived in the same place, perhaps he would not have any thoughts of wandering around at all.

Once he returned from other places, he would have an inexplicable urge to look around.

Lin Fan looked at the tall buildings, the roads that were being repaired, and the laughing students... He felt extremely relaxed.

When a slightly hunched figure appeared in front of him, Lin Fan could not help but shout, "Uncle Xue?"

The middle-aged man with slightly white sideburns said hesitantly, "Are you... Lil Fan?"

"It's me!" Lin Fan said happily.

Back then, when Lin Fan was in his first year of high school, there were limited dorms, and Lin Fan's house was quite far from the school.

Therefore, he chose to rent a room nearby, which was a room in Xue Baoguo's house.

At that time, Xue Baoguo treated Lin Fan very well. Whenever he saw Lin Fan stay up late to study, he would often send him some porridge or noodles.

Xue Baoguo's aged face was full of wrinkles. He said happily, "Lil Fan, it really is you!"

"By the way, which university are you in?"

In the first year of high school, there were not enough dormitories, so the students could rent rooms outside.

However, in the second year of high school, the school built a new dormitory. Other than the students who lived within three kilometers of the school, the rest of the students were forced to live on campus.

Therefore, Lin Fan only stayed at Xue Baoguo's house for a year.

Therefore, he did not know that Lin Fan had dropped out of school in his third year of high school.

"I'm studying at Jiangbei University," Lin Fan said.

"Jiangbei University? Haha! As expected, I knew you would definitely get into a good university!" Xue Baoguo said happily, the wrinkles on his face deepening.

He looked even happier than when he heard that his son had been admitted to Jiangbei University.

Lin Fan did not explain in detail that he did not get in. He was about to say something.

At this moment...

Xue Baoguo seemed to be too happy that he could not breathe. His face was pale, and he lost the strength to stand upright. He fell to the ground.

Fortunately, Lin Fan reacted quickly and grabbed Xue Baoguo's arms. He asked, "Uncle Xue, are you alright?"

However, Xue Baoguo only panted heavily. His whole body was covered in a layer of cold sweat, and his pupils kept rolling. He could not answer at all.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan did not hesitate at all. He spent 10,000,000 yuan to buy Medical Water from the system and poured it into Xue Baoguo's mouth.

Gulp!

Xue Baoguo's condition quickly improved after drinking the medicine. His breathing gradually stabilized, and his complexion returned to normal.

After a while, he asked in disbelief, "I think I'm fine."

Over the past few years, Xue Baoguo had been worried and anxious because of his business. As a result, he suffered from heart pain, high blood pressure, and other diseases.

Therefore, he often looked tired and dispirited.

Just now... it was as if these illnesses had suddenly disappeared. He felt extremely relaxed right now.

"Lil Fan, what did you give me?" Xue Baoguo could not help but ask.

Lin Fan said, "A little medicine. Uncle Xue, it's good that you're fine."

At this moment, a series of footsteps suddenly sounded not far away.

A middle-aged man with a beer belly slowly walked over from afar.

Seeing this...

Xue Baoguo hurriedly went up to him and said, "President Liu, I've finally found you, President Liu..."

President Liu raised his head and pointed his nose at Xue Baoguo. "Oh, Old Xue, what's the matter?"

"President Liu, didn't I deliver three carts of pork and two carts of beef to you last year? The money... You haven't paid yet..." Xue Baoguo said carefully.

"It's just a few carts of meat, isn't it?" President Liu glanced at him and snorted. "You're even blocking me on the street? Are you worried that I won't give you the money?"

"No, no, I definitely didn't mean that..." Xue Baoguo hurriedly said. "It's just that I've been in urgent need of some cash recently, and I happened to meet you... So, I came to ask."

This was a strange era. Those who owed money were always more arrogant than those who borrowed money.

"I'm working on a big project now and don't have time to deal with this small amount of money. When my project is completed, I'll settle the bill with you."

Without waiting for Xue Baoguo's reply, he turned around and prepared to leave.

"President Liu, I really need this money right now. Can't you think of a way?" Xue Baoguo quickly shouted.

President Liu grunted and said impatiently, "Alright, alright, alright. You want money, right? I'll call you when I get back! I can't believe you're nagging so much over money."

Then, he prepared to walk forward again.

At this moment, a tall and handsome figure suddenly blocked in front of him... It was Lin Fan.

"You want to leave? Alright, you just have to pay Uncle Xue the money you owe him right now," Lin Fan said.

From President Liu's eyes, Lin Fan could easily tell that he was just being perfunctory. There was no way he would transfer the money to Uncle Xue right away.

A few carts of meat would only cost a few hundred thousand at most... It would not be a big deal even if Lin Fan gave that money to Uncle Xue.

However, it was only right and proper to repay debts.

President Liu raised his eyebrows and shouted, "What's wrong, Old Xue? Are you worried that I won't pay, so you found a young man to fight me?"

Xue Baoguo was about to explain when Lin Fan said, "Uncle Xue, leave it to me."

Xue Baoguo saw a calm and collected look on Lin Fan's face that was different from ordinary young people. He could not help but nod.

"Soft tactics didn't work, so you want to use force?" President Liu said. "Old Xue, you're really bold!"

Then, he said coldly to Lin Fan, "Brat, get out of my way! Otherwise, the consequences are definitely not something you can bear!"

Lin Fan's expression did not change. He said calmly, "Is that so? I want to see what the consequences are."

Chapter 352 - 352 Apologize; Introduction!

352 Apologize; Introduction!

When President Liu heard this, his eyes narrowed slightly. Just as he was about to say something, his gaze was suddenly attracted by a young man in a checkered shirt.

President Liu changed his arrogant appearance from before. He lowered his head like a pug and respectfully called out, "Hello, Young Master Wu."

Originally, Young Master Wu did not pay attention to them.

However, when he heard someone calling him, he still turned around politely.

When he saw President Liu, Young Master Wu's expression did not change much.

However, in the next moment, his pupils suddenly constricted.

Then, he quickened his pace and walked forward.

It was because he saw Lin Fan!

Young Master Wu was the groom of the wedding held at Qing Kun Hotel on the eve of the spring festival, Wu Kai!

He would never forget how respectful and fawning all the big shots were toward Lin Fan.

At the same time, he could not forget that Lin Fan was a major shareholder of Qing Kun Group, a major shareholder of Xiao Wu Wholesale City, and the owner of the Imperial Hotel!

Ever since the wedding, Wu Kai had been fantasizing about when he would be able to chat with Lin Fan and build a relationship with him.

Unfortunately, he had never had such an opportunity.

Wu Kai did not expect that he would encounter it today!

...

President Liu, who had a beer belly, saw Young Master Wu walking toward him. His fat face revealed a hint of surprise.

One had to know...

Young Master Wu's father was a big shot in Qing City.

If he had a relationship with him, it would definitely be a great thing for him.

President Liu saw that Wu Kai was getting closer and closer, so he quickly flattered, "Young Master Wu, you..."

However, before he could finish, Wu Kai said in a very respectful tone, "Mr. Lin, long time no see."

Lin Fan had a photographic memory, so he naturally remembered the groom from the wedding banquet.

At this moment, Lin Fan was in a bad mood.

Wu Kai saw that Lin Fan did not reply. His eyes moved slightly, and his gaze landed on President Liu who was beside him.

He had a vague impression of President Liu. After thinking about it carefully, he seemed to remember this man.

Wu Kai then remembered that the other party had toasted him when he went to a hotel for dinner once... His surname seemed to be Liu?

"Mr. Lin, do you know Mr. Liu?"

Lin Fan glanced at President Liu and said, "Yeah, I know him...He owes Uncle Xue money for a few carts of meat. He even threatened to teach me a lesson!"

Initially, Wu Kai thought that Lin Fan and President Liu were close.

He could use this to build a connection and get closer to Lin Fan.

However, what was the situation now?

This Liu guy actually dared to owe Lin Fan's uncle money and even threatened him?!

Threatening a major shareholder of Qing Kun Group?

Threatening the major shareholder of Xiao Wu Wholesale City?

Threatening the owner of the Imperial Hotel?

He... How dare he?!

More importantly, his words just now actually showed that he seemed to be somewhat familiar with this Liu fellow!

Thinking of this, Wu Kai's expression darkened as he shouted sternly, "Liu, you really have guts!"

President Liu stuttered, "Y-Young Master Wu...I..."

Wu Kai saw that he wanted to explain to him instead of apologizing to Lin Fan immediately. A wave of anger rose in his heart. At the same time, in order to cut ties with President Liu as soon as possible, he kicked him to the ground.

"F*ck!" he shouted.

Plop!

This kick finally woke President Liu up.

"M-Mr. Lin... I'm sorry, I didn't recognize you... I looked down on others... I'm sorry..."

However, no matter how much President Liu cried and apologized, Lin Fan's expression remained the same. There was no change at all.

Then, President Liu crawled a few steps forward and said, "Old... Old Xue, I'm sorry. I'm a bastard. I shouldn't have owed you money for the meat... I'll send the money to you right away. What's your account number? I'll transfer the money to you now."

President Liu kept kowtowing, then hugged Xue Baoguo's pants and wailed.

Xue Baoguo had no choice but to take out his bank card.

President Liu held the bank card as if he was holding a life buoy. He quickly took out his phone and entered a string of numbers.

Holding onto a life buoy.

In fact, there was nothing wrong with this!

That was because President Liu knew very well how terrifying Wu Kai's power was.

If Wu Kai wanted to push him into a dead end, it would not take much effort at all.

As for Mr. Lin, who even Wu Kai had to treat respectfully...

What kind of power did he have?

Yet he actually threatened him?

Just thinking about it made President Liu feel a wave of fear in his heart, and his face turned pale.

At this moment, he was filled with regret.

Why did he owe the money for the meat?

In less than a minute, Xue Baoguo's phone vibrated.

[Notice from Hua Nation Construction Bank: 1,000,000 yuan was deposited into your account.]

When Xue Baoguo saw the text message, he was slightly stunned and said, "One... A million? You only owe me 389,200 yuan, Mr. Liu. You gave me too much."

"It's not too much..." President Liu hurriedly said.

Seeing that Xue Baoguo still wanted to say something, Lin Fan said, "Uncle Xue, just take it. He has owed you money for the meat for so long. Take it as interest."

"Yes, it's interest..." President Liu added.

Xue Baoguo opened his mouth as if he wanted to say something.

In the end, he did not speak.

When President Liu saw this, he heaved a sigh of relief.

Then, he looked at Lin Fan carefully.

Lin Fan said calmly, "I don't want something like this to happen again. Do you understand?"

President Liu said excitedly, "I understand, I understand..."

"Get lost," Lin Fan said.

"Yes, yes... Thank you, Mr. Lin. Thank you, Old Xue. Thank you, Young Master Wu." After President Liu finished speaking, he quickly ran into the distance.

After he left, the scene became much quieter.

"Uncle Xue, how many carts of meat did you send to President Liu?" Lin Fan asked. "Are you in the meat business now?"

Xue Baoguo was still a little confused.

However, he still answered, "Yes."

At this moment, hurried footsteps sounded not far away.

"Mr. Lin!" The chairman of Qing Kun, Li Wannian, who was dressed in a suit, called out respectfully.

Lin Fan said, "You came at the right time. My Uncle Xue is in the meat business. The hotel, supermarkets, and other businesses in Qing Kun should also need pork and beef, right? In the future, you can source them from my Uncle Xue."

Li Wannian did not understand what had just happened.

However, since Lin Fan had opened his mouth, there was no problem at all.

Li Wannian took the initiative to extend his hand to Xue Baoguo. "Mr. Xue, we'll have to rely on you in the future."

The pork and beef of Qing Kun Group would be provided by him?

Xue Baoguo's mind was in a daze again.

However, he still reached out and shook Li Wannian's hand out of reflex.

Lin Fan introduced, "Uncle Xue, this is the chairman of Qing Kun Group, Li Wannian. If you need anything in the future, just look for him."

"What?" Xue Baoguo widened his eyes in shock.

Chapter 353 Accompany; Acquire A Hotel!

Earlier, Xue Baoguo saw that President Liu was trying his best to please Young Master Wu.

As for Young Master Wu... When he was treating Lin Fan with the utmost respect, Xue Baoguo was a little puzzled.

Now, even the chairman of Qing Kun Group was so polite to Lin Fan.

One had to know...

Qing Kun Group was the largest company in Qing City, and it had a wide range of businesses, including supermarkets, hotels, daily necessities, real estate, clothing, and so on.

In fact, because of Lin Fan's words, the chairman of Qing Kun Group even shook his hand and let him become the main vendor of the company's pork and beef?

This... This...

Was Lin Fan not from an ordinary family?

Lin Fan's learning ability was very strong, but he only graduated less than two years ago, right?

This... How could Young Master Wu and the chairman of Qing Kun Group treat him like this?

This...

What was going on?

Could it be that he had not woken up yet?

Naturally, Lin Fan did not know what Xue Baoguo was thinking. He was already attracted by a sentence that suddenly sounded in his mind.

[Ding! You've completed a hidden mission—a drop of water will be repaid with a spring. You have received one golden packet.]

'A drop of water will be repaid with a spring?'

Was this... Was it about helping Uncle Xue?

One golden packet?

This was a pleasant surprise.

In reality, Lin Fan was not wrong.

This was indeed the reward for helping Xue Baoguo.

Xue Baoguo used to treat him to noodles and porridge sometimes.

Now, Lin Fan had first cured Xue Baoguo.

Then, he helped him get one million yuan.

Finally, he also got him to be Qing Kun Group's pork and beef supplier...

If this was not repaying a drop of water with a spring, then what was?

At this moment, Li Wannian said, "It's almost time for dinner. Qing Kun Hotel is just ahead. Mr. Lin, Mr. Xue... and Lil Wu, why don't we go for a meal together?"

Lin Fan nodded. "Sure."

Wu Kai had always wanted to interact more with Lin Fan. Naturally, he would not disagree.

Xue Baoguo, who was still in a daze, followed behind them.

When the waiters of Qing Kun Hotel saw Li Wannian, they greeted him respectfully, "Hello, Chairman Li."

After a wave of greetings, Lin Fan, Li Wannian, Wu Kai, and Xue Baoguo arrived at a luxurious private room.

Immediately after, dishes of delicious food, high-end white wine, and so on were served.

Li Wannian personally poured a glass of wine for everyone and then toasted with them.

After drinking this glass of wine, the rich spiciness stimulated Xue Baoguo's throat, making him realize... that all of this was not a dream.

It was all true!

...

After Lin Fan left Qing Kun Hotel, he went home and stayed with his parents for a while before driving toward Jiangbei.

Although he felt that it was fine to stay at home for a few more days, his parents didn't think so. They felt that school was the most important thing.

When the sky gradually darkened, Lin Fan had already returned to the Coiling Dragon Villa.

He sat on the soft sofa and played with his phone.

When he opened his WeChat Moments, he saw that Chu Yunyue had just forwarded a company article.

Instantly, Lin Fan could not help but recall Chu Yunyue's pretty and serious face.

Hence, he opened her chat box and sent her a message.

Lin Fan: [You haven't slept yet?]

Chu Yunyue seemed to be using her phone. She replied almost instantly.

Chu Yunyue: [Yeah, I've been working overtime to process the information for the International Perfume Exhibition in Eagle Country. I've only just returned home.]

Lin Fan could almost imagine Chu Yunyue's tired face.

Hence, he sent out a message.

Lin Fan: [You can hand it over to your subordinates. You don't have to tire yourself out.]

Chu Yunyue replied: [I've already passed on many things. But this exhibition is very important. I have to go and be there personally. So, I have to prepare some things myself.]

Lin Fan: [You're going to Eagle Country personally? When?]

Chu Yunyue replied: [The exhibition is on Thursday. I'm going there tomorrow.]

Lin Fan said: [Then I'll go with you.]

Chu Yunyue: [Really?]

Lin Fan replied: [Of course. Have a good rest tonight. I'll pick you up tomorrow morning.]

Chu Yunyue replied: [Okay!]

The reason why Lin Fan decided to go to Eagle Country with Chu Yunyue was that he was worried.

Firstly, it had been a long time since he last accompanied her.

Secondly, he had never left the country.

Taking this opportunity to go overseas to take a look seemed like a good idea.

After ending his conversation with Chu Yunyue, Lin Fan focused his attention on... the golden packet that he received today.

"One golden packet. Let's see what I can get," Lin Fan muttered to himself.

"Open!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received Sun Simiao's Medical Experience.]

Seeing this...

Lin Fan was stunned.

Sun Simiao?

Was he not the famous godly doctor and king pharmacist in history?

His experience?

Just as Lin Fan was in a daze, in his mind... Suddenly, countless complex and profound medical knowledge emerged.

After a while, Lin Fan opened his eyes and muttered, "I already have such superb medical skills?"

That night, Lin Fan was sleeping soundly.

When Lin Fan opened his eyes, the sky was already bright.

He looked at his phone and saw a message.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 7,589,020 yuan was deposited into your account.]

"Sign in!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you've obtained Royal Hotel in Eagle Country.]

Seeing this...

Lin Fan's face revealed a strange expression. He was just about to head to Eagle Country and he obtained a hotel in Eagle Country?

"Lil White, do you know about Royal Hotel in Eagle Country?" asked Lin Fan.

"The Royal Hotel in Eagle Country was built in 2002. It took eight years to build and cost three billion Eagle Dollars. Due to its tall and luxurious appearance, it became one of the iconic buildings of Eagle Country," Lil White said in a very clear voice.

When Lin Fan heard this, the weird expression on his face grew even more intense.

This hotel was actually in Eagle Country. Was this not too much of a coincidence?

At this moment, the phone in his pocket rang.

He looked at the caller ID and saw that it was an unknown number from overseas.

If it were an ordinary person, they would have been shocked to see an unfamiliar foreign phone call.

Their first reaction was to hang up.

However, Lin Fan had already received many foreign calls.

Therefore, he did not hang up. Instead, he pressed the answer button.

"Hello, is this Mr. Lin?" A very gentle and respectful voice came from the phone.

Lin Fan said, "It's me. You are?"

"Hello, Mr. Lin. I'm Jack Smith, the chairman of Eagle Country's Royal Hotel. I hope I didn't disturb your rest?" The voice on the phone became more respectful.

Lin Fan said, "No, I'm already up."

Jack Smith heaved a sigh of relief. "That's really great..."

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 354 Hello, Mr. Lin; Boarding!

Not long ago, Jack Smith suddenly learned that Eagle Country's Royal Hotel had changed owners.

Moreover, it was a new boss from Hua Nation.

This made Jack Smith unable to sleep.

Therefore, when it was 9:30 AM in Hua Nation and 3:00 AM in Eagle Country, Jack Smith could not help but make a call.

He wanted to talk to his new boss as soon as possible and build a relationship with him.

Otherwise...

He had worked hard for so many years to become the chairman of Eagle Country's Royal Hotel.

Perhaps it would not be long before everything was ruined.

"Mr. Lin, I'm going to report to you about the hotel's situation in the first half of the year, as well as the plans for the next year. Are you free?" Jack Smith asked.

Lin Fan said, "Forget it. I'll be flying to Eagle Country today."

When Jack Smith heard this, his figure turned solemn, and he hurriedly said, "Alright, I'll get ready to pick you up!"

"Okay." Lin Fan said, "Oh right, aren't you from Eagle Country? Why do you speak Hua Nation's language so fluently?"

Jack Smith said, "Because there are many tourists from all over the world who come to our hotel. I used to receive tourists from all over the world, so I learned the languages of many countries."

Lin Fan said, "Not bad."

Although it was just a simple word of praise, to Jack Smith, it sounded like a beautiful symphony. It was so pleasant that his entire face was filled with smiles.

After breakfast, Lin Fan took his ID card, passport, and other documents before driving the Cullinan.

Not long after, he pressed a doorbell.

The door slowly opened.

Chu Yunyue's beautiful face appeared in front of him.

The two of them had not seen each other for a while.

Now that they met, there was no need to say anything. They were like magnets that directly embracing embraced each other.

The sun continued to rise, and the trees swayed gently...

About three hours later, Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue both changed into a new set of clothes and walked out of the room.

Just as the two of them sat in the Culinan, the phone in Chu Yunyue's pocket rang.

"I'm on my way..."

Chu Yunyue said a few simple words and hung up.

Then, she looked at the Culinan's interior curiously and said, "As expected of a Culinan. Be it material, comfort, or power, they're all top-notch..."

"The space in the back row is also very large. It won't be a problem to lie down and sleep."

Lin Fan said, "Really? Why don't you sleep here next time?"

Chu Yunyue seemed to have thought of something, and her face turned red.

They chatted while driving and soon arrived at the airport.

In the distance, an oval-faced woman in a dress kept waving and calling out, "Director Chu, Mr. Lin, we're here!"

Chu Yunyue and Lin Fan walked forward together.

"Hello, Chairwoman Chu, Mr. Lin."

Obviously, these people were all Flower Stem's employees.

When Chu Yunyue was alone with Lin Fan, she was like a little girl who did not know anything.

However, in front of the company's employees, she was like a cold CEO, extremely strict and imposing.

The oval-faced woman asked, "Chairwoman Chu, may I know which plane we're taking to Eagle Country?"

Yesterday, she was about to book a plane ticket when she suddenly received a call from Chu Yunyue. She said that the plane tickets were ready and they could go straight to the airport tomorrow.

However, Chu Yunyue did not say which flight it was.

Chu Yunyue did not answer her. Instead, she looked at Lin Fan.

It was because she did not know which flight it was either.

Yesterday, Lin Fan only told her that he had arranged the plane.

Lin Fan said, "The plane should be in front. Let's go."

Everyone did not ask much and followed Lin Fan.

When they arrived in front of Xia Airlines' shuttle, three beautiful air stewardesses bowed in unison and said, "Hello, Mr. Lin."

The air stewardess standing at the front smiled and said, "Mr. Lin, do you want to board the plane now or rest in the VIP lounge first?"

"Yunyue, do you want to rest and eat something first?" Lin Fan asked.

Chu Yunyue shook her head. "Let's just go straight to the plane. There should be food on the plane."

Lin Fan nodded and said, "Alright, let's go to the plane."

Thus, three air stewardesses led Lin Fan and the others to check their passports and identity documents.

Then, they strolled through the passage and took a Mercedes-Benz bus straight to the airplane.

Seeing this...

A few people could not help but discuss in low voices.

"Did you notice? I don't think we collected or checked our flight tickets, right?"

"Huh, it seems so!"

"Then how did we get in?"

"The shuttle bus at the airport in the past was just an ordinary one, right? How did it switch to a Benz today?"

Amidst the crowd's discussion, the Mercedes-Benz bus stopped steadily in front of a luxury passenger plane.

Lin Fan and the others had just gotten off the Mercedes-Benz bus... A group of tall, beautiful air stewardesses with exquisite facial features who scored above 85 points in appearance stood in two rows. They bowed at the same time. "Hello, Mr. Lin."

This scene...

The staff of Flower Stem, as well as Chu Yunyue, were stunned.

Such a scene... Let alone in reality, they had never seen it before even in TV shows.

Following that, everyone could not help but look at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan rubbed his nose and said, "Let's go. Let's get on the plane."

As soon as he finished speaking, he held Chu Yunyue's slender hand and walked past the two rows of beautiful air stewardesses.

At this moment...

Chu Yunyue suddenly had a strange feeling. It was as if... she was wearing a snow-white wedding dress. Under the witness of her relatives and friends, she was holding hands with Lin Fan as they walked onto the stage.

Chu Yunyue, who had always been calm and collected, blushed when she thought of this.

Lin Fan asked, "You seem to be sweating. Are you feeling hot?"

Chu Yunyue stammered, "Yes... That's right.

Lin Fan said, "Then let's go quickly. It'll be fine once we get on the plane."

"Yes, yes!" Chu Yunyue nodded vigorously.

When everyone got on the plane, they saw that there was no one inside, and it seemed very spacious.

As soon as everyone sat down, the beautiful air stewardesses who were standing in two rows earlier walked over.

The air stewardess at the front smiled and asked, "Mr. Lin, are all the guests here?"

Lin Fan did not reply. Instead, he looked at Chu Yunyue.

Chu Yunyue looked at the people on the plane and said, "They're all here."

"Then I'll ask the captain to contact the control tower and prepare to head to Lun City, Eagle Country."

"Alright," Lin Fan said.

"Alright," the air stewardess said.

Chapter 355 - 355 Surprised; Bragging!

355 Surprised; Bragging!

Rumble!

As the luxury plane trembled, it suddenly shot up into the sky.

After a while, they passed through layers of clouds and arrived in the blue sky.

After the plane stabilized, a beautiful air stewardess pushed a small dining table and walked over with a smile on her face.

"What's there to eat?" the oval-faced woman asked.

"Australian lobster, bread crab, top-grade Wagyu beef, natural vegetables, top-grade abalone..." the beautiful air stewardess said.

The oval-faced woman was a little stunned when she heard the names of the dishes.

After a while, the oval-faced woman said, “Then... Then I’ll have a serving of lobster and beef...”

She did not dare to say that it was Australian lobster or top-grade Wagyu beef.

It was because she felt that she might have been hearing things.

If she mentioned Australian lobster and top-grade Wagyu, she might end up making a joke of herself.

“Alright,” the beautiful air stewardess said with a smile.

As she spoke, she placed the Australian lobster that reached the length of one’s elbow and the top-grade Wagyu beef that was as white as snowflakes in front of the oval-faced woman.

Seeing this...

The oval-faced woman was completely stunned.

It was true!

This was really Australian lobster and top-grade Wagyu beef!

She did not hear wrongly just now!

However, what was going on?

At this moment, the beautiful air stewardess asked again, “Do you need anything to drink?”

“We have 2003 Lafite, Flying Maotai, Louis 13, Hennessy, natural fruit juice, high-end coffee, high-protein milk, high-end yogurt, and so on.”

The oval-faced woman said, “I... I want red wine.”

“Alright,” said the beautiful air stewardess.

Then, she handed it to the oval-faced woman.

Lafite!

It really was Lafite!

The oval-faced woman was stunned again.

In fact...

She was not the only one who was stunned. The other employees of Flower Stem who were also on the plane were stunned too.

They could be said to be the middle and upper management of the company. Perhaps some of them had never been abroad.

However, they had all taken a plane before!

Usually, there would be some food prepared on the plane.

However, most only served items like bread, beef brisket, shredded potatoes, and other very cheap food.

Now, the food in front of them... Not to mention the food, just this glass of 2003 Lafite would probably cost hundreds or thousands of yuan, right?

This meal would probably be more expensive than the plane ticket, right?

Was the airline company earning that much money?

At this moment, someone suddenly said, “It seems that there are only us on the plane. There are no other passengers.”

When everyone heard this, they looked around and realized that there was really no one else. They could not help but look at each other.

Lin Fan turned around and asked, “What are you guys doing? Eat up.”

The oval-faced woman opened her mouth. She could not help but voice the doubts in her heart.

“M-Mr. Lin, did you book this plane?”

“No, I didn’t,” Lin Fan replied.

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

Lin Fan continued, “I’m a major shareholder of Xia Airlines. I don’t need to book chartered flights.”

Silence.

The entire plane was silent.

The oval-faced woman, the employees of Flower Stem, and even Chu Yunyue were stunned.

One had to know that Xia Airlines was the largest private airline company in Hua Nation!

Lin Fan... was actually a major shareholder?

No wonder those beautiful stewardesses were so respectful to Lin Fan and served him so well...

If that was the case, everything made sense.

“When did you invest in Xia Airlines?” asked Chu Yunyue.”

Lin Fan said, “It’s been a while.”

He did not explain much about when and how much money he had spent.

This was because he had received everything from the system’s red packets. It was not easy to explain.

...

Another plane was heading toward Eagle Country. It was not as luxurious as Lin Fan's plane.

The plane was full of people. The air was filled with the stench of body odor, foot odor, and other unpleasant smells.

For lunch, they had fries, burgers, tomato beef brisket rice, and other cheap food.

A round-faced Caucasian man named Jonah Roger swallowed the last bite of his burger and wiped the oil off his face. He praised, "We're finally reaching Eagle Country!"

Beside him, Li Li, who was wearing heavy makeup, had a look of excitement on her face.

Jonah Roger's eyes turned slightly, and he said, "Li Li, the streets of Hua Nation are filled with rubbish and all kinds of dirty things. When you get off the plane, you'll understand what it means to be an international metropolis. The streets are spotless, and the buildings are extremely beautiful..."

"Didn't you want to stay in Eagle Country's Royal Hotel? It just so happens that my family used to do business with Royal Hotel. My father is also good friends with the owner of the Royal Hotel!"

"I've already told my dad about our arrival. He'll arrange for people from Royal Hotel to come and pick us up."

When Jonah Roger said this, he could not help but raise his neck, looking like a high and mighty yet mysterious young master.

In reality?

He lied about his family having done business with Eagle Country's Royal Hotel.

He also lied about his father and the owner of the Royal Hotel being good friends.

He did not have a prominent family background, and his father was only familiar with an ordinary manager of the Royal Hotel.

Jonah Roger had indeed told his father about their arrival... He also said that they were going to stay at the Royal Hotel.

In this way, he could get a little discount from that supervisor.

As for picking them up... That was normal because the Royal Hotel had a pick-up service.

Jonah Roger secretly glanced at Li Li's exquisite figure.

He believed that after saying all this, Li Li would definitely worship him. When he brought her to the Royal Hotel, he would definitely be able to get her.

It had to be said that Jonah Roger had a good grasp of Li Li's psychology.

Li Li was very interested in foreigners.

At this moment, she heard from Jonah that his family was able to do business with the Royal Hotel.

Jonah Roger's father was a good friend of the owner of the Royal Hotel!

In Li Li's heart, she was already imagining Jonah Roger's huge family power...

Gradually, Jonah seemed to occupy more of her heart, causing her to be in a daze. Her face, which was covered in foundation, also began to reveal a hint of redness.

Perhaps she would have a chance to join a foreign wealthy family!

Rumble!

At this moment, the passenger plane shook violently.

At the same time, a brisk voice sounded from the plane's broadcast.

"Dear passengers, there's strong turbulence ahead. Please don't panic and fasten your seatbelts..."

The plane shook for about five minutes before it finally calmed down.

After the plane continued on for two hours, an announcement sounded again.

"Dear passengers, the plane is about to land in Lun City, Eagle Country. It's now 2:10 pm in Lun City, and the temperature is 23 degrees... Please remain seated and fasten your seatbelts. The plane is about to land."

Chapter 356 - 356 The Son of the Boss' Good Friend; Liar!

356 The Son of the Boss' Good Friend; Liar!

Rumble!

After a series of decelerations and bumps, the plane finally stopped.

The moment Li Li got off the plane, she took a deep breath and praised, "As expected of Eagle Country. The air is so fresh and sweet!"

Then, she looked into the distance and took out her phone to post a message on social media.

[How big of an influence does the environment have on a person? I'm in Lun City, and I've just gotten off the plane.]

[The buildings in Lun City have a strong European and American style and a sense of history. Even people from Hua Nation won't be able to help but set higher standards for themselves, improve their quality, and transform themselves into polite gentlemen and elegant ladies upon coming here...

[My foreign friend's father is friends with the owner of Eagle Country's Royal Hotel. He has already arranged for the people from the Royal Hotel to come and pick us up.]

Li Li's fingers were flying. In just a minute, she had written a post with more than a hundred words.

After putting down her phone, her eyes quickly noticed a prominent banner not far away—Welcome to Lun City, Eagle Country's Royal Hotel.

Around the banner stood many men in suits and women with graceful figures.

Several Rolls-Royce cars were parked behind, and there was even a helicopter!

Seeing this...

“Jonah, are these the people who came to pick us up?” Li Li said excitedly.

In fact, Jonah Roger had also noticed the banner and the group of people.

He was a little puzzled earlier, wondering if this was the group who came to pick him up.

This formation seemed a little too big.

However, when he saw how excited Li Li was, Jonah Roger puffed out his chest and said, “Of course, they're here to pick us up! My dad is a good friend of the owner of the Royal Hotel!”

What he was thinking was that he had spent so much money to stay at Eagle Country's Royal Hotel. It was normal for them to welcome him with huge fanfare.

When Li Li heard this, her face was full of smiles. She followed Jonah Roger to where the banner was.

"Are you from the Royal Hotel?" Jonah asked.

Jack Smith, the chairman of Eagle Country's Royal Hotel, frowned slightly.

General Manager Edward Mullen said, "Yes, we're from the Royal Hotel. Sir, what can I do for you?"

Jonah looked up and said, "That's good. I've already booked a room. Oh right, my dad is also good friends with the owner of Eagle Country's Royal Hotel."

He said this without any pressure.

It was because Jonah Roger did not believe that such a small matter would be reported to the owner.

Originally, Chairman Jack Smith did not want to bother with Jonah Roger at all.

However, after hearing this, his heart skipped a beat. He said respectfully, "Hello, I'm Jack Smith. May I know your name?"

Jonah Roger saw that as he had expected, the other party could not tell whether what he said was the truth or not.

Moreover, he was so respectful to him.

He secretly glanced at Li Li, who was admiring him more and more. He said proudly, "I'm Jonah Roger."

Just as Chairman Jack Smith was about to say something, his expression suddenly turned cold and he said seriously, “Everyone, line up and prepare for the welcoming ceremony!”

As he spoke, he hurriedly went forward.

It was because he had seen his boss... Lin Fan!

Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, and the staff of Flower Stem slowly got off the luxury plane under the respectful escort of the beautiful air stewardesses.

“Welcome to Lun City, Eagle Country, Mr. Lin!” Chairman Jack Smith greeted respectfully.

Immediately after, a group of men in suits and women with graceful figures behind him shouted in unison, “Welcome to Lun City, Eagle Country, Mr. Lin!”

Chu Yunyue and the other employees of the Flower Stem were a little stunned.

All of them turned to look at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan did not feel too uncomfortable and said, “You must be Jack Smith?”

Chairman Jack Smith, who was standing at the front, said, “Yes, Mr. Lin. We have already prepared a means of transportation for you. Would you like to go to the Eagle Country’s Royal Hotel to rest for a while?”

“Alright.” Lin Fan nodded.

“Mr. Lin, this way please,” Jack Smith said respectfully.

Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, and the staff of Flower Stem, surrounded by a large group of foreigners, came to the helicopter.

At this moment, Jack Smith seemed to have thought of something and said, “By the way, Mr. Lin, your good friend’s son seems to be here. Do you want to bring him along?”

Lin Fan was puzzled. “My good friend’s son?”

He did not have many good friends.

Even if one of them had given birth to a son, he had probably just learned how to walk, right?

Yet he came to Eagle Country just like that?

Jack Smith pointed at the fair-skinned Jonah Roger and said, “Yes, he just arrived.”

Lin Fan sized up Jonah Roger and said, “I don’t know him.”

With that, he turned around and walked into the helicopter.

Jack Smith was a smart man. At this moment, how could he not understand that this man was simply lying?!

After glaring at Jonah Roger, he also boarded the helicopter.

Rumble!

The helicopter let out a roar as its propellers spun rapidly, forming a small hurricane as it soared into the sky.

The Rolls-Royce motorcade parked next to the helicopter was speeding in the same direction.

The helicopter in the sky and the Rolls-Royce fleet on the ground were all there to welcome Lin Fan. It was a luxurious sight.

The luxury plane was too fast and was above the clouds. There was no way to enjoy the scenery of Lun City.

The speed of the helicopter was relatively slow and flew at a low altitude. It was just enough for Lin Fan and the others to enjoy the beautiful scenery of Lun City.

They looked at the European-style buildings with curiosity on their faces.

“That seems to be the Shield Eye!”

“Is this it? It looks similar to the Ferris wheel in our country.”

“That’s the Tower Bridge of Lun City!”

“That... seems okay.”

“Is that the security tower?”

“It seems rather ordinary.”

Everyone commented from time to time.

Although the buildings were a little novel, they were not shocking.

...

As Lin Fan and the others boarded the helicopter and looked down at Lun City, Li Li and Jonah Roger, who were standing on the ground, were blown by the strong winds from the helicopter. Their clothes and hair rustled, and the dust made them cough.

The two of them only recovered after the helicopter took off.

“Jonah Roger, didn’t you say that they were here to pick us up?” Li Li said.

“This...” Jonah Roger said awkwardly.

“Didn’t you say that your father and the owner of the Royal Hotel were good friends?” Li Li shouted.

“This...” Jonah Roger did not know how to answer.

“You liar!” Li Li shouted.

After saying that, she turned around and left.

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 357 Listen To This; Sign In Overseas!

Naturally, Lin Fan and the others did not know about Li Li, Jonah, and Roger. They looked down from the helicopter.

About ten minutes later, the helicopter slowly decelerated...

In the end, they landed on a tall helipad... This was the Eagle Country's Royal Hotel!

"Tsk!"

When Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, and Flower Stem's employees got off the helicopter, two rows of beautiful Caucasian women with exquisite looks and graceful figures said in unison, "Welcome, Mr. Lin!"

This scene shocked Chu Yunyue and the staff of Flower Stem.

Then, everyone's luggage was sent to the luxury suites on the top floor by the Caucasian beauties.

Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, and the others were led to the VIP room by Chairman Jack Smith.

At this moment, the table in the VIP room was already filled with top-grade foie gras, cheese snails, top-grade steak, white truffle bagels, gold foil sundaes, caviar chocolate pudding, and many other delicacies.

When Flower Stem's employees saw this, they could not take their eyes off. In fact, they were not the only ones who were attracted. Even Chu Yunyue was attracted.

Lin Fan said, "Everyone has been on the plane for so long. You must be hungry and tired, right? Hurry up and eat."

Generally speaking, one would get hungry and tired when they took a plane. However, this time, they had taken a luxurious private plane. The plane had the best food and the best service. How could they be hungry or tired?

However, at this moment, when they saw the exquisite food, they could not help but pick up their cutlery and eat slowly.

Very soon, their stomachs became a little round, and they could not eat any more of the delicious food.

Chu Yunyue wiped her mouth with a napkin and could not help but ask, "Lin Fan, don't tell me you're also a major shareholder of this hotel?"

Flower Stem's employees pricked up their ears.

Obviously, they had the same suspicion.

This was normal.

The welcome from the Royal Hotel was simply too great, and the service was too thoughtful.

Lin Fan shook his head. "That's not it."

When everyone heard this, they all heaved a sigh of relief.

'It's alright, it's alright... He isn't a major shareholder of Eagle Country's Royal Hotel.'

They had just secretly searched the internet. The Royal Hotel was a landmark building in Lun City. It was one of the most luxurious hotels in Lun City, and it cost more than billions of dollars to build!

Their little hearts would not be able to withstand the torment.

At this moment, Lin Fan continued, "I'm the owner of this hotel."

Silence!

The entire room was silent!

The oval-faced woman, the other employees of Flower Stem, and Chu Yunyue were all stunned.

He was not the major shareholder, but the boss!

In the past, many of Flower Stem's employees felt that Lin Fan had just provided them with some perfume recipes and beauty essence technology yet he became the biggest shareholder of Flower Pedestal. He was simply too lucky.

They guessed that Lin Fan would probably be so happy that he would not be able to sleep every day.

Now it seemed like... Lin Fan probably did not care about the shares at all.

Lin Fan did not care about the stunned crowd and asked, "Yunyue, are you full? Do you want to rest in the room?"

"I'm not that tired yet," said Chu Yunyue. "I'll go to the booth first."

She was not a person who liked to relax and hated to work. In fact, she could be said to be a strong woman and a workaholic.

Otherwise, she would not have been able to establish the famous Flower Stem in Hua Nation by herself.

Lin Fan said, "Alright, I'll go with you."

Then, the two of them walked out side by side.

A Rolls-Royce was already waiting at the entrance. This was specially arranged by Chairman Jack Smith so that Lin Fan could travel around Eagle Country.

The driver was a Caucasian who was proficient in Hua Nation's language and English. It was effortless for him to communicate. At the same time, he also had good driving skills.

Lin Fan was very satisfied with this.

Soon, they arrived at the International Exhibition Center.

There was a huge LED display screen in front of the door, which was playing promotional videos of different brands of perfume.

Obviously, this was the venue for the upcoming International Perfume Exhibition.

As it was not the time for the official exhibition yet, there were still some things that were not ready.

Ordinary people were not allowed to enter and exit as they pleased.

However, as one of the participating companies, Chu Yunyue, the president of Flower Stem, was naturally not an ordinary person.

When Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue walked into the exhibition center, they were greeted by a strong fragrance.

Obviously, many companies had already brought their own perfumes in.

The two of them looked into the distance and saw various booths.

After a while, they finally saw Flower Stem's booth.

Different from the previous booth in Jiangbei City, Flower Stem's booth this time had a younger, more energetic, and modern feel.

Two men and women in Flower Stem uniforms were adjusting and modifying some small parts of the booth. They were very serious.

As a result, they did not even see Chu Yunyue and Lin Fan's arrival.

When a man turned around and was about to adjust the other positions of the booth, he shouted in surprise, "Chairwoman Chu, Mr. Lin!"

When the others heard this, they all stopped what they were doing. They turned around and greeted respectfully, "Chairwoman Chu, Mr. Lin."

Chu Yunyue nodded, "You've worked hard. The booth is very well done!"

When the four of them heard this, their faces revealed a hint of joy.

"Thank you for your compliment, Chairwoman Chu."

"This is what we should do."

...

Then, Chu Yunyue gave a detailed exchange and reminder about certain places and things to pay attention to during the exhibition.

When Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue left the exhibition center, it was already two hours later.

At this moment, the sky had already darkened.

After flying for a day, they went to the exhibition center to check on the booth. All of this made Chu Yunyue very tired.

However, Chu Yunyue knew she would not be able to fall asleep anyway. As long as she was on a business trip, no matter how tired she was, she could not fall asleep.

There were some people who were instinctively wary of unfamiliar environments and would struggle to fall asleep.

However, Chu Yunyue quickly fell asleep today.

It was because she had Lin Fan by her side.

...

The next day, the sky was bright.

Lin Fan opened his eyes slowly. There was no one around him.

He habitually picked up his phone.

A text message appeared on the screen as usual.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 7,891,030 yuan was deposited into your account.]

As he had walked more yesterday, his income was higher than usual.

Of course, Lin Fan did not care about this little bit of money.

Then, he turned his attention to the sign-in system.

He muttered in his heart, 'This is my first time signing in abroad. Let's see what I can get.'

"Sign in!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you've obtained 10% of Eagle Country Oil Company's shares.]

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 358 An Encounter

Eagle Country Oil Company?

Lin Fan did not know much about Eagle Country's companies.

"Lil White, help me check the information on Eagle Country Oil Company."

The super smart watch on Lin Fan's wrist flashed slightly before emitting a crisp and pleasant sound.

"Eagle Country Oil Company is one of the top three companies in Eagle Country and one of the top 100 companies in the world. Its current market value is 1.05 trillion yuan. Chairman Jules Grant, the largest shareholder, holds 14.1% of the shares, and the owner holds 10% of the shares. You're the second biggest shareholder..."

When Lin Fan heard this, he could not help but rub his nose.

The top three companies in Eagle Country?

Its current market value was 1.05 trillion.

He had 10% of the shares, which meant that he had earned 100 billion today?

Not bad!

Then, Lin Fan slowly climbed up from the bed.

When he came to the living room of the suite, he saw Chu Yunyue working hard in front of the computer.

At this moment, a crisp bell rang outside.

Chu Yunyue could not help but slowly raise her head. She was about to get up and open the door.

"Let me do it," said Lin Fan.

As he spoke, he directly opened the door.

Two attendants were pushing a cart in the corridor. They smiled and said, "Hello, Mr. Lin. This is your breakfast."

Lin Fan nodded. "Alright, please bring it in."

Then, a very exquisite breakfast was placed on the dining table.

After the attendants left, Chu Yunyue asked, "When did you get up?"

"It's only been a while," Lin Fan said. "This breakfast looks pretty good. Come and try it."

"Alright," Chu Yunyue replied.

Just as Lin Fan had said, the breakfast was indeed not bad.

White truffle meat slices, ham, beans, and high-end bread...

The high-end ingredients and superb cooking techniques made the taste of the food explode in their mouths.

Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue were very satisfied.

Lin Fan picked up the black tea and asked, "Yunyue, do you want to try some imported black tea?"

Chu Yunyue was a little confused.

Imported black tea?

However, she still replied, "Okay."

Lin Fan took a sip first and then leaned toward Chu Yunyue.

Gulp!

...

In the blink of an eye, two hours had passed.

Chu Yunyue changed her clothes and returned to the living room to continue working.

It could not be helped. The International Perfume Exhibition was going to be held tomorrow.

She had to prepare everything.

Lin Fan did not want to disturb Chu Yunyue's work. At the same time, this was his first time going abroad.

Therefore, he chose to go out for a walk.

He walked on the straight sidewalk that was surrounded by houses made of steel and cement.

If it was not for the people of different skin tones passing by, Lin Fan would have thought that he was in a particular city within the country.

Of course, there were still differences between Eagle Country and Hua Nation.

Most of the people in Hua Nation worked hard and were very diligent. Therefore, even if they were walking on the streets, they looked like they were in a hurry.

As for the people in Eagle Country, everyone seemed to be very free.

In a dark alley, someone was holding a bottle of wine and swaying, almost falling to the ground.

Another person was playing the violin and singing on the street.

He also saw someone who was lying down casually...

Lin Fan walked and looked around leisurely.

At this moment, the phone in his pocket vibrated slightly.

12:00 PM!

The red packets were here!

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received three yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 1,999 yuan.]

...

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 188 yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a Ferrari 812.]

...

Lin Fan kept clicking on the red packets and got a total of 45,211 yuan and a Ferrari 812.

Lin Fan was quite familiar with this car.

In order to complete a past mission, he had specially bought one.

Lin Fan's cars were endless.

Therefore, the Ferrari 812 was left in the Coiling Dragon Villa.

Now that he had come to Eagle Country, he did not have a single car. It was good that he had obtained one.

Lin Fan looked around, trying to find the Ferrari 812.

...

Not far away, a fair-skinned middle-aged woman whispered, "Our son has always said that he wants a sports car. What should we do? With our family's situation, we can't afford a sports car at all."

The fair-skinned middle-aged man said casually, "Don't worry, I'm already prepared. Isn't today our son's birthday? I bought him a fridge so that he can calm down!"

At this moment, a delivery car drove over from afar and stopped steadily in front of them.

"Are you Mr. Lauren?" the courier asked.

"It's me," the middle-aged man replied.

"Your express delivery has arrived," the courier said.

As he spoke, he slowly took out a box that was half the height of a person from the back.

"See that?" The middle-aged man laughed. "It's already here."

As soon as the delivery car left, a young man with golden hair walked over.

In the next moment, he could not take his eyes off something.

He had found a brand-new supercar parked by the roadside. It was his favorite open-top supercar, the Ferrari 812!

The middle-aged man smiled and said, "Son, I've prepared a birthday present for you! Do you like it?"

Birthday present?

Was it this Ferrari 812?

That was right!

This must be the case!

The young man said excitedly, "I like it, I like it so much! Daddy, I knew you loved me!"

Then, without waiting for the middle-aged man's reply, he impatiently came to the front of the Ferrari 812 and gently stroked the body of the car. He touched the soft interior... His slightly freckled face was overcome with delight.

At this moment, a tall young woman walked over and asked in surprise, "Is this your car?"

"Yes, it is! My father prepared this as a birthday present for me!" the young man said.

"That's great! Didn't you want me to be your girlfriend? I agree!" the young woman said.

"Good! Hahaha!" The young man shouted happily and then hugged the young woman in his arms.

While they were hugging, they did not notice a Hua Nation man coming to the front of the Ferrari 812. He slowly opened the door and got in.

This person... was Lin Fan.

Lin Fan naturally did not care about the two people hugging each other. He stepped on the accelerator and sped away.

The young man seemed to have heard the sound as well. He hurriedly let go of the young woman and shouted with his eyes wide open, "Hey! My car! My car!"

He shouted as he chased.

However, how could his two legs catch up to the four wheels of a supercar?

The young man had no choice but to return and call out, "Dad, call the police! The Ferrari 812 you gave me was stolen!"

The middle-aged man opened his mouth and said, "That's not my birthday present to you. The real birthday present is actually this refrigerator."

"What?" The young man's eyes widened.

"So, you don't have a sports car. Then I'm not your girlfriend."

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 359 The Exhibition Begins; Method!

Lin Fan had no idea about the misunderstanding between the young man and his father.

He drove the Ferrari 812 through the streets of Lun City.

Some people said that only those in Hua Nation who had not seen the world would be attracted by sports cars.

If it was overseas, a sports car would just be an ordinary means of transportation. No one would even take a second look at it.

In reality?

Lin Fan was driving the Ferrari 812 on the streets of Lun City. Wherever he went, he would attract the attention of many people.

Just like that, Lin Fan went on a short one-day tour of the city.

...

In the blink of an eye, the next day arrived.

Today, Chu Yunyue was wearing a white shirt, black trousers, and a pair of black high heels. She looked very capable.

Under the escort of the Royal Hotel's private car, Chu Yunyue, Lin Fan, the oval-faced woman, and the staff of Flower Stem arrived at the exhibition center very quickly.

The exhibition center was very lively today.

Even at the door, one could easily smell the fragrance that assailed one's nostrils, mesmerizing one.

It seemed like it was also because of this that it attracted an endless stream of people that kept surging in.

Many people with different skin colors came to the booths. They either tried out the perfumes, asked about them, or bought them.

Except for Flower Stem.

The sky gradually darkened, but no one came to Flower Stem's booth.

Chu Yunyue and the employees could not help but feel anxious.

Flower Stem was very popular in Hua Nation.

However, it was not famous overseas.

Therefore, they knew that they would not receive much attention.

Chu Yunyue and the others were mentally prepared.

However, the current situation was far beyond what they had expected.

At this moment, a white man in a suit slowly walked over and smiled at Chu Yunyue. "Hello, beautiful lady. My name is Brewer. May I know your name?"

"My name is Chu Yunyue," replied Chu Yunyue politely.

Brewer's eyes lit up when he heard that. He praised, "Your voice is very pleasant. Also, based on your name, you should be from Hua Nation."

Although Brewer had a plan in his mind, his expression did not change. He continued, "I saw that no one has been visiting your booth. How about it? Do you want to have a drink or two tonight? I'll tell you some methods."

Brewer was a staff member of GR Perfume which had a booth diagonally opposite Flower Stem's booth.

Ever since Chu Yunyue arrived at the booth, Brewer was immediately attracted to her.

Chu Yunyue had the same voluptuous figure as the top beauties of Eagle Country. At the same time, she had exquisite facial features that far surpassed the top beauties of Eagle Country.

In addition, she had a unique exotic temperament.

In Brewer's eyes, Chu Yunyue was the most perfect woman in the world.

Therefore, whenever he had the time, he would sneak a peek at Chu Yunyue.

When today's exhibition was about to end, he could not wait to walk over.

Brewer knew that many people from Hua Nation liked foreigners very much.

Now, he had proposed a way to increase the number of customers at the booth.

He believed that Chu Yunyue would definitely agree to his request.

As long as they drank together, he would have a chance!

Brewer was already cheering in his heart.

However...

"That's alright," said Chu Yunyue.

Chu Yunyue was not a fool considering how she was able to establish such a huge company.

She could tell what Brewer was thinking at a glance.

Then, Chu Yunyue ignored Brewer and said, "Today's exhibition is about to end. Everyone, pack your things and get ready to go back and rest."

Then, she held onto Lin Fan's arm and walked out together.

Seeing this...

Brewer's body stiffened slightly, and his face turned ugly.

...

In the blink of an eye, it was the morning of the third day.

Although Flower Stem could be said to have suffered a huge setback, Chu Yunyue, the oval-faced woman, and the staff of Flower Stem were still in high spirits.

They were looking forward to the day being different.

However, sometimes things went against one's wishes.

The entire morning had passed, but no one was interested in Flower Stem.

Brewer took advantage of the lunch break to come to Chu Yunyue again. He said, "Beautiful Ms. Chu, do you really not want more customers at your booth?"

"By the way, I forgot to tell you that my uncle is Alan Peter, the director of Eagle Country Oil Company. I think... you should understand that I have the ability to make your booth have more customers, right?"

"Why don't we have lunch together and discuss it properly?"

Brewer noticed that Chu Yunyue already had a boyfriend yesterday.

However, this meant nothing to him.

Not to mention having a boyfriend, even if she was already married... there was no problem with that.

After Brewer finished speaking, he puffed out his chest and made a gesture that he thought was handsome.

He thought that Chu Yunyue would be immediately convinced by his charm after seeing his handsome appearance and hearing that he had an uncle who was the director of Eagle Country Oil Company.

However...

The result was different from what he had expected.

"My boyfriend and I are going out for dinner. Don't block the way!" Chu Yunyue said.

She was an entrepreneur, but at the same time, she could also be considered a businesswoman.

A businessperson would not easily make enemies with others.

Therefore, even if they hated someone, they had to be tactful and polite on the surface.

As for Chu Yunyue... She did not have any intention of being tactful to Brewer, who was suspected to have a powerful background.

After saying that, Chu Yunyue held Lin Fan's arm again and walked out.

Seeing this, Brewer's mouth twitched slightly, and his expression became a little ugly.

Lin Fan had a weird expression on his face as he looked at Brewer. His uncle was the director of Eagle Country Oil Company?

Interesting.

Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue had just finished their lunch. When they returned to the exhibition center, the phone in his pocket rang.

He looked at the caller ID and saw that it was an unknown number.

Lin Fan did not hesitate and answered the call.

Very quickly, a somewhat dull and awkward-sounding sentence spoken in the Hua Nation language rang out from the other end.

"Hello, Mr. Lin."

Lin Fan said, "Hello, may I know who you are?"

Then, the earlier voice was replaced by a very clear and pleasant voice.

"Hello, Mr. Lin. I'm the interpreter for the chairman of Eagle Country Oil Company, Jules Grant. The person who just spoke to you is the chairman, Mr. Jules Grant. He asked me to convey his regards to you again."

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 360 The Queen's Decision; Arrival!

Lin Fan had received similar calls several times.

Thus...

This time, he was not too surprised. He said indifferently, "Please say my hello to Mr. Jules Grant."

Then, fluent English sounded on the phone.

Even though Lin Fan could clearly understand, he did not point it out.

"Mr. Jules Grant said that he would like to thank you for your trust in Eagle Country Oil Company and for becoming the second largest shareholder of the company..."

Generally speaking, the interpreter's tone should always be consistent.

However, when she said this, there was an obvious change.

One had to know...

Eagle Country Oil Company... was a super company with a market value of more than a trillion yuan.

The man she was speaking to on the other end of the line had actually become the second-largest shareholder!

He was definitely a big shot who could hold the heavens in his hands!

"Mr. Lin, may I know where you are now? Is it convenient for us to meet?" the interpreter continued after a pause.

Lin Fan said, "I'm in Eagle Country now. As for the meeting... I'm at the exhibition center in Lun City to participate in the International Perfume Exhibition. I'm afraid I don't have much time for the time being."

There was no sound from the other line.

Obviously, Lin Fan's answer surprised Jules Grant.

After a while, the interpreter said, "So, you're in Lun City. That's great! Mr. Jules Grant will definitely pay a visit personally later."

Lin Fan chatted for a while more before hanging up.

Just as the interpreter had said, Jules Grant was indeed going to pay a visit.

However, just as he got in the car, the phone in his pocket rang.

He looked at the caller ID, and his expression became slightly solemn. He quickly picked up the phone and said respectfully, "Greetings, Your Majesty."

Your Majesty?

Jules Grant called out softly, but there was no response from the other side of the phone.

Just as he was at a loss for what to do, a slightly hoarse voice finally sounded from the phone.

"Huh? Did I accidentally make a call? Lil Jules, hello!"

Lil Grant?

One had to know that Jules Grant was already 61 years old!

In addition... as the chairman of Eagle Country Oil Company, how many people in this world could call him Lil Jules?

Queen Ibai was obviously among them!

That was because she was the queen of Eagle Country, and she was 91 years old!

"Greetings, Queen Ibai," Jules Grant said hurriedly.

"Your oil company... How's the situation recently?" Queen Ibai asked.

"Recently, the development has been stable and the overall situation is good," Jules Grant said.

Queen Ibai nodded and said, "That's not bad... Today is a workday. Are you still busy at the company?"

"I'm on my way to the exhibition center," Jules Grant answered truthfully.

"Exhibition center?" Queen Ibai was puzzled.

"Yes, because there seems to be an International Perfume Exhibition there today. Our company's new second-largest shareholder is exhibiting there," Jules Grant said.

"Perfume!" Queen Ibai sighed.

Then, she seemed to have fallen asleep.

For a long time, there was no sound from the phone.

Jules Grant did not dare to disturb her and just held his phone silently.

At this moment, Queen Ibai spoke again, "What a nostalgic time. Lil Jules, let me go to the perfume exhibition with you."

"Huh?" Jules Grant was slightly stunned. He did not expect the queen to make such a request.

Queen Ibai did not give him much time to react. "That's all. Come to the palace first."

After hanging up, Queen Ibai made two more calls.

Immediately after, the luxurious motorcade, the guards, and so on all moved quickly.

The queen was a noble person, so she had to show royal dignity and ensure her safety!

The commotion in the palace was quickly noticed by a pale and thin little girl.

When the little girl arrived at the main hall, Queen Ibai asked, "My cute Lil Riley, why are you here? How are you feeling?"

This little girl was called Riley, and she was Queen Ibai's 15th great-granddaughter.

At the same time, she was also Queen Ibai's favorite great-granddaughter.

Unfortunately, shortly after she was born, she suddenly suffered from a very strange illness. She had a loss of appetite, and she often vomited and fainted...

The doctors did all kinds of tests, but they were still unable to determine the illness...

"Riley is feeling very well," Riley said.

"Alright, as long as Lil Riley is fine." Queen Ibai smiled kindly.

"You seem to be sleeping very late recently. You have to take care of your health," Riley said.

"Alright, alright!" Queen Ibai said happily. "My Lil Riley is so obedient. You're even showing concern for me!"

An old man and a young man chatted casually in the hall. The topic was very relaxed, and they would laugh from time to time.

At this moment, Riley finally said, "I heard that you're going to the exhibition center to attend a perfume exhibition. Can you bring me along?"

As she said this, her big eyes flashed.

Obviously, she was looking forward to this.

Queen Ibai opened her mouth but did not agree immediately.

That was because she knew that Riley's physical condition was very bad.

Some doctors even said that accidents could happen at any time.

To participate in a perfume exhibition in such a physical condition... After all, there were too many people there. What if...

Rationally, Queen Ibai did not want her great-granddaughter to go to the perfume exhibition.

However, when she looked at Riley's expectant eyes, her heart softened.

Ever since it was discovered that Riley was suffering from a strange illness, she had been staying in the palace almost every day. She was like a canary in a cage.

Perfume was like flowers, possessing a mesmerizing charm.

The perfume exhibition was like a blooming flower, attracting all the women.

It just so happened that there was a perfume exhibition today...

If Riley missed it, would there be a next time?

At the thought of this, Queen Ibai finally said, "Okay, then I'll bring you to the perfume exhibition."

"Really?" Riley shouted excitedly.

Queen Ibai smiled when she saw how happy she was. "Of course, it's true."

"That's great!" Riley could not help but hug Queen Ibai's arm.

At this moment, the sound of brisk footsteps could be heard from outside.

Soon, a middle-aged man dressed in European noble clothes slowly walked in.

He bowed slightly and said in a very respectful tone, "Respected Queen, Mr. Jules Grant requests an audience."
