Chapter 361 Wanting To Meet!

In the afternoon, Eagle Country Exhibition Center was as lively as in the morning.

The situation at Flower Stem's booth was still the same. No one was interested.

Even though Chu Yunyue had already rejected Brewer twice in a row, whenever he had some free time, he would come to look for Chu Yunyue.

"Beautiful Ms. Chu, it seems that no one is visiting your booth. How about we have a few drinks tonight and discuss it?"

"I might not have made myself clear yesterday. In fact, before long, I'll also enter Eagle Country Oil Company and join the ranks of its management. Therefore, you can absolutely believe in my abilities."

As he said this, he puffed out his chest.

Eagle Country Oil Company was definitely one of the companies with the best benefits in Eagle Country.

Yesterday, he was showing off his background.

Today, he was showing off his future.

He believed that Chu Yunyue would definitely be attracted to him.

The continuous harassment made Chu Yunyue completely disgusted.

She frowned and was about to speak.

At this moment, the already lively exhibition center suddenly became extremely noisy, and there were occasional cries of surprise.

"Queen Ibai is here!"

"Queen Ibai has come to the exhibition center to participate in the International Perfume Exhibition!"

"Heavens!"

...

Just as everyone had said, Queen Ibai was indeed here!

At this moment, Queen Ibai, Jules Grant, Riley, and a group of nobles were slowly walking into the exhibition center.

Queen Ibai's expression did not change much, but her heart was filled with nostalgia.

Due to her health, she rarely left the palace and had never participated in any perfume exhibition.

At this moment, she looked at the various booths and smelled the rich fragrance in the air. Her entire thin face was filled with excitement.

At this moment, Queen Ibai seemed to have thought of something and said, "Lil Jules, where did you say the second-largest shareholder of your company was?"

"His name is Lin Fan, but I haven't seen him yet. If the Queen wishes to see him, I'll ask him to come over," Jules Grant said honestly.

"Alright," Queen Ibai nodded and said.

Even Queen Ibai could not ignore Eagle Country's Oil Company.

Jules Grant first dialed Lin Fan's number, but unfortunately, no one picked up.

He had just told the Queen that he would look for the second-largest shareholder.

How could he say now that he could not find him?

What would the queen think of him?

Jules Grant felt helpless as he quickly walked away.

In that case, he would go and find Lin Fan himself.

Jules Grant quickly walked forward and searched for Lin Fan in the crowd.

Luckily, Jules Grant knew that Lin Fan was of Hua Nation nationality. He would stand out among the fair-skinned and dark-skinned people of Eagle Country.

Even so, Jules Grant spent nearly half an hour looking around before he finally saw Flower Stem's booth. His gaze was locked on a tall, handsome man of Hua descent.

"Mr. Lin!" Jules Grant shouted excitedly.

He shouted and ran toward Flower Stem's booth.

When Lin Fan heard someone calling him, he turned around slowly.

Although this was a foreign man with a beard, Lin Fan relied on his superb memory to easily identify him from his voice.

Jules Grant had just run over, but before he could say anything, Brewer, who was standing at the side, took the lead and said in an extremely respectful and excited tone, "Hello, Mr. Grant."

Brewer's uncle was the director of Eagle Country Oil Company, and he had always wanted to enter Eagle Country Oil Company.

Therefore, he paid more attention to the news and higher-ups of Eagle Country Oil Company compared to the average person.

Brewer did not expect to meet the chairman of Eagle Country Oil Company at the perfume exhibition today.

In his opinion, this was definitely a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

If only he could leave a slight impression on the chairman.

In that case, after some time, when he successfully entered Eagle Country Oil Company, would he not be able to immediately be promoted and make a fortune?

Thinking of this, Brewer felt excited.

Every day, countless people would greet Jules Grant.

Usually, Jules Grant would just nod in response.

He could also just pretend that he did not hear them.

It would be too tiring to answer all of them one by one.

However, when Jules Grant saw that Brewer and Lin Fan were standing together, he thought that he was Lin Fan's friend.

Thus, he nodded and said, "Hello, hello."

The chairman of Eagle Country Oil Company had greeted him!

Although it was just a simple reply, it sounded like heavenly music to Brewer's ears. He was filled with endless joy.

However, Jules Grant did not pay attention to Brewer anymore.

Then, he said to Lin Fan in English in a respectful tone, "Mr. Lin, so you're here."

The interpreter beside him translated the words.

Lin Fan said, "I'm the major shareholder of Flower Stem. Of course, I'm here."

"I see," Jules Grant said. "Oh right, our Queen Ibai wants to see you."

"Why does Queen Ibai want to see me?" Lin Fan asked curiously.

In fact, Lin Fan was not the only one who was confused. Chu Yunyue and the others were also confused.

However, before Jules Grant could answer, there was another commotion not far away.

"Greetings, Queen Ibai!"

"Greetings, Queen Ibai!"

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice.

They saw a large group of luxuriously dressed men and women walking over.

The person walking at the front had a head full of hair and a peaceful expression. It was Queen Ibai, who often appeared on television and the news.

Queen Ibai waved her hand gently in response to the greetings from the people around her.

When she turned her head, she happened to see Jules Grant standing in front of Flower Stem's booth. She could not help but walk forward slowly.

"Lil Jules, you're here?" Queen Ibai said.

"Yes..." Jules Grant respectfully said. "This is Mr. Lin."

When Queen Ibai heard this, she could not help but size Lin Fan up. Her kind face revealed a look of surprise.

When she heard Jules Grant introduce Lin Fan's name, she had already guessed that he was a man from Hua Nation.

However, she did not expect Lin Fan to be so young.

After a while, Queen Ibai said, "Hello, Mr. Lin."

Lin Fan replied, "Queen Ibai, nice to meet you."

When he said this, his eyes inadvertently fell on Riley, who was standing beside Queen Ibai, and he frowned slightly.

Chapter 362 Attack; Heal!

Observation, smell, question, and pulse-taking were the methods of diagnosis in traditional medicine.

Some highly skilled doctors could judge a person's physical condition with just a glance.

Lin Fan had obtained Sun Simiao's Medical Experience. Sun Simiao was the king of medicine. Naturally, he was a brilliant traditional medicine practitioner.

Lin Fan could tell that there was something wrong with Riley's body.

Moreover, the problem was huge!

Queen Ibai noticed that Lin Fan was staring at Riley and asked, "Mr. Lin, this is my great-granddaughter, Riley. What's the matter?"

Even if he was staring at an ordinary girl, it was not a very polite thing to do.

Lin Fan said, "One minute. I estimate that she'll faint in about one minute. She'll be in critical condition!"

Chu Yunyue, the oval-faced woman, and the staff of Flower Stem...

Originally, they were extremely excited because of Queen Ibai's arrival.

However, after hearing Lin Fan's words, everyone froze.

What did Lin Fan mean?

One had to know that Queen Ibai had just said that Riley was her great-granddaughter, the princess of Eagle Country!

In the end, Lin Fan said that she was going to faint in one minute and would be in critical condition?!

What was this?

Was he cursing her?

He was cursing Eagle Country's princess?

If Queen Ibai blamed him...

Because of Lin Fan's words, the atmosphere turned heavy.

At this moment, Riley, who was looking around curiously, suddenly rolled her eyes and fell to the ground.

Queen Ibai's heart tightened, and she hurriedly called out, "Doctor!"

The nobles beside her also shouted.

"Doctor, come quickly!"

"Princess Riley has fainted!"

...

When the queen went out, the doctor would always follow her.

He quickly ran over.

The doctor lifted Riley's eyelids and listened to her heartbeat.

Then, he took out a syringe and injected it into Riley's snow-white arm.

Obviously, the doctor had a deep understanding of Riley's condition.

After doing this, the doctor heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Your Highness, she should wake up soon."

In the past, the doctor had always treated Riley like this.

The effect was also very good.

However...

This time, after he finished speaking, Riley suddenly began to foam at the corner of her mouth, and her eyeballs kept rolling.

Seeing this...

The doctor's heart tightened, and a layer of cold sweat instantly appeared on his forehead.

He quickly bent down and began to perform emergency treatment on Riley, but it was useless.

"Doctor, how is it?" Queen Ibai asked anxiously.

The doctor quickly said, "Maybe it's because the dosage of the medicine isn't enough. I'll give the princess another injection."

After saying that, he took out another syringe and was about to inject it into Riley's arm.

t this moment, Lin Fan suddenly shouted, "Don't inject anymore! Do you want her to die?"

Lin Fan was not a saint.

However, when he saw Riley fall ill in front of him...

For some reason, Lin Fan suddenly recalled the scene of his sister falling sick.

As he spoke, he pushed the doctor to the ground.

The guards thought that Lin Fan was a dangerous person and wanted to stop him.

At this moment, Lin Fan said, "I can save her!"

Lin Fan's every sentence was translated by the interpreter.

When Queen Ibai heard this, she suddenly thought of what Lin Fan had said earlier.

'One minute. She'll faint in one minute and be in critical condition!'

"Everyone, stand down!" Queen Ibai hurriedly said."

No one dared to disobey the queen's orders!

The guards retreated.

Immediately, Queen Ibai, Jules Grant, Chu Yunyue, and everyone else focused their attention on Lin Fan.

Lin Fan opened a bottle of Flower Stem's perfume and placed it by Riley's nose.

About half a minute later, Riley stopped foaming.

Obviously, it had alleviated her symptoms.

Lin Fan thought for a moment and spent ten million yuan to buy a bottle of Medical Water from the system. He poured it into Riley's mouth.

With Lin Fan's current medical skills, even without the use of any healing potions, he could still completely cure Riley.

However, if Lin Fan were to save her, he would need to prescribe a prescription, get the medicine, and so on. It would be too troublesome.

Lin Fan hated trouble.

After consuming Medical Water, Riley slowly opened her eyes.

Riley saw that she was lying on the ground while Queen Ibai and everyone around her were looking at her. She said timidly, "Did... Did I get sick again?"

Seeing this...

Jules Grant could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

When Lin Fan pushed the doctor away and said that he could save Riley, his heart was in his throat.

Lin Fan was the second-largest shareholder of Eagle Country Oil Company.

At the same time, he was the one who introduced him to Queen Ibai.

If anything happened, he would definitely be unable to escape the responsibility!

The consequences would definitely be terrifying!

"Good, good! It's good that you're awake!" Queen Ibai said happily.

After a pause, she said, "Quickly thank Mr. Lin. He saved you."

"Thank you..." Riley said timidly. "Mr. Lin."

"You're welcome," said Lin Fan.

"I wonder what you used to save my Lil Riley?" Queen Ibai asked.

As she spoke, her slightly cloudy eyes landed on the Flower Stem perfume in Lin Fan's hand.

Lin Fan did not hesitate and passed it over casually, "A bottle of perfume."

Queen Ibai was slightly stunned.

A bottle of perfume?

He used perfume to wake up her great-granddaughter?

Queen Ibai slowly took the perfume with doubts in her heart. She placed it by her nose and sniffed it gently before nodding slightly.

Although the distance was quite far, when Lin Fan opened the bottle, Queen Ibai could still smell the fragrance.

At this moment, when she smelled it again, she could not help but praise, "What a nice smell. It has distinct layers. I like it very much."

After a pause, she continued, "Mr. Lin... In the future, if Lil Riley falls ill again, will she only need to smell this perfume? Is there a way to cure her completely?"

As she said this, Queen Ibai's usually calm face revealed an obvious look of anticipation.

She loved Riley very much. Every time she saw her fall ill, she felt very uncomfortable.

Unfortunately, no doctor could cure her.

Today, Queen Ibai saw a glimmer of hope.

Lin Fan said calmly, "Don't worry, she won't fall ill again."

When Queen Ibai heard this, even she could not help but become excited.

"Really? Has she completely recovered?"

"Yes," Lin Fan replied.

"That's great!" Queen Ibai shouted excitedly.

Chapter 363 Purchasing; Apologizing!

As Queen Ibai spoke, she could not help but look at Riley.

Her originally pale face was now flushed with a healthy red color.

Alright!

Riley had really recovered!

"Mr. Lin, may I purchase a batch of this perfume?" Queen Ibai asked after some thought.

Her thoughts were simple.

It did not matter if Riley was completely cured or not.

However, one thing was certain.

This perfume would definitely be helpful to Riley's condition.

Sniffing this perfume was obviously more suitable than getting an injection!

In addition, Queen Ibai really liked the smell of the perfume.

Chu Yunyue, the oval-faced woman, and the staff of Flower Stem all revealed unconcealable excitement when they heard this.

Finally, someone wanted to buy Flower Stem's perfume.

Moreover...

This person was the queen of Eagle Country!

This was good news!

This was definitely great news!

Compared to Chu Yunyue and the others, Lin Fan was much calmer.

"Of course!" he said casually. "This perfume is called Flower Stem. In fact, what you have is only part of the collection. There are many other different perfumes."

As he spoke, Lin Fan placed all the perfumes on the table.

Queen Ibai sniffed all the perfumes and nodded slowly. "They all smell very good. I'll buy 100 bottles of each perfume."

"Alright," said Lin Fan.

At this moment, a noblewoman whispered something into Queen Ibai's ear.

Queen Ibai's expression turned slightly solemn as she said, "Mr. Lin, thank you for saving Lil Riley. There are some things that need to be taken care of in the palace now. In two days, I'll hold a banquet to thank you."

"Your Majesty, you're welcome," Lin Fan said.

The two of them exchanged a few more words before Queen Ibai turned around and left.

Even though Queen Ibai had left, the people who had been watching from the start were still focused on Flower Stem's booth.

The chairman of Eagle Country Oil Company, Jules Grant, looked at Lin Fan with admiration and envy.

"Mr. Lin, you're really amazing! You actually used perfume to wake up our Princess Riley! In the future, your perfume will definitely be world-famous!"

Lin Fan said, "World-famous? That would be very difficult!"

Then, he pointed at Brewer and said, "Mr. Brewer's uncle is Alan Peter, the director of Eagle Country Oil Company.

"And he himself is about to join the management of Eagle Country Oil Company... He used this identity to get my girlfriend to go on a date with him. He also used this to say that he could help our Flower Stem attract customers."

The interpreter at the side quickly translated Lin Fan's words.

Using his identity to invite Mr. Lin's girlfriend on a date?

He was a mere nephew of a director, yet he said he was about to become a manager?

How dare he?

How dare he?

Not to mention that Lin Fan was the second-largest shareholder of Eagle Country Oil Company, just the fact that Lin Fan had just saved Princess Riley meant he absolutely could not be offended!

Jules Grant finally shouted, "How dare you?! Let me tell you, if Alan Peter is really your uncle, he will receive the punishment he deserves. Also, don't even think about entering Eagle Country Oil Company in this lifetime!"

Brewer's face instantly turned pale.

Eagle Country Oil Company was one of the companies that gave out the best benefits in Eagle Country.

In order to join, he had spent a lot of effort.

Now... all his hopes were dashed?

In addition, would his uncle be punished because of him?

His uncle would kill him.

He definitely would!

Thinking of this, Brewer shouted in fear, "No, no, no. Don't... M-Mr. Chairman, please let me go..."

However, Jules Grant acted as if he did not hear him and did not care at all.

Then, Brewer begged Lin Fan, "Mr. Lin, I'm sorry. I'm shameless. I'm despicable... I beg you, please forgive me. I beg you..."

"Get lost!" Lin Fan spat out coldly.

Although it was only two words, Brewer was frightened.

He gritted his teeth and was about to plead again when Jules Grant said, "Didn't you hear? Mr. Lin told him to get lost!"

The two muscular black men beside him were like ferocious beasts. They directly stepped forward and drove Brewer out.

The entire venue fell silent.

"Mr. Lin, I'm sorry. I can't believe such an unpleasant thing happened..." Jules Grant apologized.

Lin Fan said calmly, "Every company will have some parasites, but the situation still needs to be managed."

"Yes, yes... Don't worry, Mr. Lin. I'll definitely be stricter with my employees," Jules Grant hurriedly said.

"Are you free now, Mr. Lin? I'll give you a simple report on the situation of Eagle Country Oil Company last year and the direction of development in the coming year... If you have any other suggestions, you can also raise them..."

Lin Fan waved his hand. "No need. I'm not interested in this. It's best to leave professional matters to the professionals. Everything will develop according to the direction you have set."

Jules Grant heaved a sigh of relief.

Lin Fan was too young, but he had too many shares in the company.

It would be very troublesome if he were to command the companies' strategies.

The method that Lin Fan mentioned was the best.

Jules Grant thought to himself, then said, "Really? Alright then... If you have any suggestions for the company in the future, you can tell me at any time."

While the two were chatting, Flower Stem's booth was already filled with people.

"Hello, I want to buy your perfumes."

"I want 100 bottles!"

"I want 200 bottles!"

The sky gradually darkened.

Chu Yunyue, Lin Fan, and the staff of Flower Stem finally returned to the Royal Hotel.

Everyone was very busy this afternoon.

However, their faces were all filled with smiles.

The oval-faced woman said excitedly, "We were almost as popular as we are back home today!"

"That's right! If it wasn't for the fact that the exhibition was about to end, those people wouldn't have been willing to leave at all," another person said.

"In the past, people always said that foreigners had good qualities and never cut lines. In the afternoon, I saw a few foreigners cut the queue to buy our perfumes," the man in the white shirt said.

"Did you stop them?" the oval-faced woman asked.

"Of course!" the man in the shirt said. "I told them to queue up again. Otherwise, I wouldn't sell them anything!"

"Beautifully done!" the oval-faced woman exclaimed.

Chapter 364 Dream; Not The Largest Shareholder!

The employees of Flower Stem chatted and laughed, the atmosphere extremely heated.

Even Chu Yunyue could not help but smile.

It had always been Chu Yunyue's dream to make Flower Stem the world's top perfume brand.

What happened this afternoon had taken her one big step closer to this dream!

"How many orders have we received in total?" Chu Yunyue asked.

"108,900 bottles!" the oval-faced woman said.

"Not bad!" Chu Yunyue nodded in satisfaction.

Then, she looked at Lin Fan curiously and asked, "Lin Fan, why can our Flower Stem's perfume heal Princess Riley?"

Everyone in Flower Stem pricked up their ears.

Obviously, they were also very curious about this matter.

They had seen it with their own eyes... At that time, Riley looked very pitiful.

Her face was pale, she had fainted, and she was foaming at the mouth...

Even the doctor did not seem to know what to do.

In the end, Lin Fan took out the Flower Stem's perfume and placed it by Riley's nose for her to sniff for half a minute. Immediately, she stopped foaming at the mouth and her complexion turned for the better.

When he fed Riley some liquid, she immediately woke up.

In the eyes of everyone, this was simply too unbelievable.

Lin Fan said, "Riley's mother must've had a difficult birth. Riley's body is weak, and she catches a cold easily.

"So, Eagle Country's royal family placed her in a confined space for a long time and gave her a lot of supplements.

"However, a child's body can't absorb that many supplements. In addition, there was a long-term lack of air circulation... It caused problems in her respiratory system, digestive system, and so on.

"Riley had been sealed off from the world for a long time. Today, she walked for a long time in the exhibition center that was filled with different fragrances. This increased the burden on her respiratory system, which eventually caused her to fall ill."

"If that's the case, then why did she get better after smelling our perfume?"
Chu Yunyue asked again.

"That's because I took the wind series," Lin Fan said.

"Mint was added to the wind series."

"Mint has the effects of clearing the head and throat, thus reducing the burden on the respiratory system. Or rather, it makes the respiratory system think that it has come to an empty field..."

Lin Fan was a perfume expert and knew all kinds of perfumes like the back of his hand. In addition, he had Sun Simiao's Medical Experience, so he easily came up with a simple treatment plan.

After hearing Lin Fan's explanation, everyone's faces lit up.

At this moment, Chu Yunyue seemed to have thought of something and asked, "By the way, why does the chairman of Eagle Country Oil Company know you and treat you so respectfully?"

"Don't tell me you're the boss of Eagle Country Oil Company or the largest shareholder?"

The oval-faced woman and the employees of Flower Stem perked up their ears again.

They were also very concerned about this.

"That's not it," Lin Fan said.

Chu Yunyue was slightly relieved after hearing what he had to say.

Lin Fan was already the owner of Eagle Country's Royal Hotel and the biggest shareholder of Xia Airlines.

What if he was also the boss or the largest shareholder of an oil company?

Their little hearts would be unable to accept it.

At this moment, Lin Fan continued, "I only have 10% of Eagle Country Oil Company's shares. I can be considered their second-largest shareholder."

Silence!

The entire scene was silent!

Chu Yunyue, the oval-faced woman, and the staff of Flower Stem were all stunned.

With 10% of Eagle Country Oil Company's shares, he was the second-largest shareholder?

One had to know...

Eagle Country Oil Company was a super company with a market value of more than a trillion!

10% of the shares would be worth more than 100 billion!

It was true that Lin Fan was indeed not the biggest shareholder nor the boss.

However, 10% of the shares was a lot, alright?!

Lin Fan saw that everyone was in a daze and could not help but say, "What's wrong with you guys? Let's go. The food should be ready."

"Ah... Alright, alright," Chu Yunyue replied.

Then, the group continued to walk forward.

Just as Lin Fan said, the food was ready.

When they pushed open the VIP room, they saw very exquisite and sumptuous dishes placed neatly on the table.

Everyone was very busy today, and they were indeed a little hungry.

When they saw the delicacies, they all ate heartily.

When Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue returned to the luxurious suite, it was already an hour later.

They sat in front of the tall floor-to-ceiling windows that overlooked the busy road outside and the pitch-black river in the distance. They felt extremely relaxed.

It felt like they were not in Eagle Country but back at home in Jiangbei.

Home?

Chu Yunyue's heart softened when she thought of this term.

She could not help but turn her head and look at Lin Fan. Her beautiful gem-like eyes flashed.

At this moment, Chu Yunyue could not help but think of Lin Fan's use of perfume knowledge that far exceeded ordinary people. It allowed him to create a fascinating perfume.

She thought of Lin Fan picking up the microphone and singing a heavenly song.

She thought about how Lin Fan had used the perfume to save someone and how it had caused Flower Stem, which no one cared about, to become extremely popular...

These things were like scenes from a movie, rippling in Chu Yunyue's mind.

Gradually, Chu Yunyue's beautiful eyes went from shining to becoming a little dazed.

Then, she could not help but get closer to Lin Fan.

$o(\bar{\varepsilon}^*)$

$(\bar{3})(\bar{\varepsilon}^*)$

...

A strong wind blew outside the window, causing the river water to beat against the dam, making a crisp sound.

...

The next day, the sky was bright.

Lin Fan slowly opened his eyes. The entire suite was empty. There was a note on the table.

[Today is the last day of the perfume exhibition. I'll go to the exhibition center first. Remember to have breakfast later! Mwacks! Chu Yunyue.]

When Lin Fan saw the note, the corners of his mouth curled up slightly. He could almost imagine Chu Yunyue's sweet smile when she wrote the note.

Then, he glanced at his phone out of habit.

A text message appeared on the screen.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 7,493,100 yuan was deposited into your account.]

"Let's see what we can from signing in today," Lin Fan muttered.

"Sign in!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 1,000,000 yuan.]

Lin Fan pursed his lips and said, "What bad luck."

Then, he picked up the phone on the table and said, "Send some breakfast up."

The best service was offered to Lin Fan's luxurious suite.

Soon, truffle slices, toast, ham, M5 beef, black tea, and other exquisite breakfast dishes were served.

Lin Fan ate his breakfast while playing with his phone. He was very relaxed and satisfied.

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 365 Long Line; Welcome!

After a hearty meal, Lin Fan did not stay in the Royal Hotel for long.

He drove the Ferrari 812 alone toward the exhibition center.

He did not know where it was because today was the last day of the perfume exhibition or if there was another reason.

There seemed to be more people at the exhibition center today than two days ago. The number of people at the entrance was at least twice as many as two days ago.

However, when Lin Fan walked into the exhibition center, he realized that it was empty. Other than a few staff members, there were no customers at all.

What was going on?

Lin Fan was a little confused as he walked forward.

The next moment, he was stunned.

Not far away, there was a dense crowd of people who were all standing in a long line.

How many people were there?

500?

1,000?

Or tens of thousands?

Everyone in the exhibition center was probably queuing up here, right?

Lin Fan followed the mass of people and strode forward, looking into the distance.

Finally, his gaze landed at the end of the line... It was Flower Stem's booth.

These people were all queuing up for Flower Stem's booth. Were they all here to buy the perfume?

In reality, it was just as Lin Fan had expected.

They were indeed here to buy perfumes from Flower Stem!

"Give me 1,000 bottles of each perfume!" a Caucasian man said.

"I'm sorry, but we've limited it to five bottles per person," the oval-faced woman said.

"What? Five bottles? Are you trying to get rid of customers? Hurry up and get me 1,000 bottles!" The Caucasian man shouted and slammed the table.

The oval-faced woman frowned and said, "If you continue to cause trouble, we'll blacklist you and won't sell any products to you."

The Caucasian man was about to shout a few more words, but when he heard this, he immediately fell silent.

"Then... Then give me five bottles."

After paying, he did not leave immediately.

Instead, he turned around and went to the back of the line to queue again.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan's face revealed a strange look.

At this moment, the oval-faced woman happened to see Lin Fan and said excitedly, "Mr. Lin, you're here?"

Chu Yunyue and the others, who had been busy, stopped what they were doing and looked at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan smiled and nodded, "Yeah, I'll help too."

"No need," Chu Yunyue said. "They can line up and register slowly. You can just sit and rest."

Lin Fan smiled and said, "As a major shareholder, won't I be too useless if I do that? Let me do something. It's boring to just do nothing."

Chu Yunyue thought for a moment and said, "Then you can make an electronic version of these names and addresses, classify them, and summarize them."

"Alright," Lin Fan replied.

Lin Fan placed his hands on the keyboard. Like a phantom, he quickly entered the names, addresses, and numbers into the laptop. Then, he categorized and summarized the areas, numbers, types, and so on.

This scene made Chu Yunyue's eyes ripple.

Lin Fan first displayed his perfume knowledge that was far superior to ordinary people. Then, he displayed his singing voice which was like the sound of nature.

Then, with incredible medical skills, he used perfume to wake up Riley.

Today, he displayed his superb computer skill.

Lin Fan... What else could he not do?

In Chu Yunyue's eyes, Lin Fan was shining like the sun.

The setting sun dyed the clouds in the distance red, as if celebrating the successful conclusion of this perfume exhibition.

There was still a long line at Flower Stem's booth. After the exhibition center notified them that the event was over and security guards came to chase them away, everyone reluctantly left.

Today, all the employees of Flower Stem were extremely busy.

However, they did not show any signs of suffering.

On the contrary, their faces were full of happiness and fulfillment.

At this moment, Lin Fan said, "Everyone has worked hard these few days. Tonight, let's go to the palace to relax."

In the afternoon, Lin Fan received an invitation from the royal family. They wanted him to come to the palace to attend a banquet to thank him for saving Princess Riley.

At that time, Lin Fan asked if he could bring other people along.

Regarding this... the royal family directly gave an affirmative answer.

Flower Stem's employees immediately let out excited cries.

Under the escort of the Rolls-Royce fleet, a tall and ancient-looking palace gradually appeared in Lin Fan's and the others' sights.

After entering, they saw clear streams, green plants of various shapes, and jagged hills everywhere. It could be said that there was a perfect scene with every step, making people linger and praise what they were seeing.

In the distance, a man in a black suit said in fluent Hua Nation language, "Mr. Lin, nice to meet you."

Yesterday, this man had gone to the exhibition center with Queen Ibai and the others. He had been to Flower Stem's booth as well.

Even though Lin Fan did not communicate with him at all, he had a photographic memory and easily remembered him.

When Lin Fan and the others approached, the man in the black suit continued, "I forgot to introduce myself. My name is Maron Melvin."

It was also when they got closer that everyone smelled a familiar perfume on him. It was the scent of Flower Stem's perfume.

"Nice to meet you, Mr. Melvin," Lin Fan said.

"Mr. Lin, your perfume is amazing!" Maron Melvin exclaimed. "It has a wonderful smell. In addition, it makes me feel energetic. This should be considered holy water in Hua Nation, right?"

Holy water?

This was the psychological effect that Maron Melvin had after seeing Lin Fan use Flower Stem's perfume to save Princess Riley.

Even the princess, who was suffering from a chronic illness, could be treated. Of course, it would be of great benefit to his body.

In fact, this was also one of the reasons why many people fought to buy the perfume today.

Due to the media, many people in Hua Nation felt that the locals were stupid while foreigners were smart.

In reality?

The vast majority of foreigners could not compare to the people of Hua Nation.

Lin Fan did not expose Maron Melvin's words and said casually, "As long as you like it."

"Of course, I like it. I won't use any perfume that isn't from Flower Stem in the future!" Maron Melvin immediately exclaimed.

The two of them chatted as they walked.

Not long after, they arrived at the magnificent palace.

At this moment, men and women who looked very luxurious in formal attire were standing in the palace. Some were in groups of three or two, whispering to each other, while others were chuckling with their lips pursed... The atmosphere was extremely relaxed.

Someone seemed to have noticed Lin Fan who had just walked in and could not help but say, "Welcome, Mr. Lin."

Immediately, the people who were conversing with each other turned around in unison, and their gazes landed on today's main character... Lin Fan.
