Chapter 481 - 481 Apologies; Punishment

481 Apologies; Punishment

When Qin Changcun heard this, he could not help but reveal a smug smile.

‘Did you see that?’

‘I know the chairman of the Whitehorse Manor!’

Then, he sneered at Lin Fan.

It was as if he was saying, ‘Kid, weren’t you very arrogant just now? I’ll see how arrogant you are later!’

“Mr. Grians, you have to manage the Whitehorse Manor well.” Qin Changcun cleared his throat and said. “I just offered a million yuan out of goodwill to discuss with this young man about subcontracting the luxury island to me.

“In the end, this young man actually insulted me.

“I don’t think such an uncultured young man is suitable to stay in the Whitehorse Manor. Perhaps he has even maliciously destroyed some of the facilities in the Whitehorse Manor...”

It had to be said that Qin Changcun was quite capable.

With just a few words, he had turned himself into an honest person who had been bullied and humiliated. He had painted Lin Fan as a rude and overbearing evil person.

At the same time, he also found a good reason for the Whitehorse Manor to chase Lin Fan away. He suspected that Lin Fan had destroyed the facilities of the Whitehorse Manor.

In addition, he had a personal relationship with Grians.

He had reason to believe that Lin Fan would be chased out of the Whitehorse Manor soon.

Grians frowned slightly and looked in the direction Qin Changcun pointed.

In the next moment...

Grians' pupils constricted, and his expression changed drastically.

noVeLnext.com

He realized that the person Qin Changcun was referring to was Lin Fan!

His own boss!

Qin Changcun said that his boss was unreasonable?

He even wanted to chase away the boss?!

What a bastard!

Qin Changcun did not notice the change in Grians' expression.

"Mr. Grians, don't worry. After he leaves, I'll still spend one million yuan to book the luxury island. I..."

However, before he could finish, Grians shouted angrily, "Shut up!

"Now, immediately apologize to Mr. Lin. Otherwise, the Whitehorse Manor will not provide you with any services! We won't even send you back to the seaside pier!"

Qin Changcun was stunned by the sudden change in Grians.

After a while, he stuttered, “Mr. Grians, Yuan Ping’an and I are friends... Moreover, you’re a seven-star hotel. You need to provide the appropriate service to your guests...”

At this moment, he had already realized that something was wrong.

Therefore, he no longer stuck to his previous method.

At the same time, he also explained what those in the hotel line should do.

“Apologize immediately!” Grians shouted angrily. “Otherwise, go swim in the sea! The planes and islands here are all our private property!”

Qin Changcun was only Yuan Ping’an’s friend.

Even if it was Yuan Ping’an himself, so what?

One had to know...

Yuan Ping’an was just a food supplier of the Whitehorse Manor.

In a sense, the Whitehorse Manor was Yuan Ping’an’s sugar daddy!

Yuan Ping’an was the one who had to please the Whitehorse Manor.

As for what Qin Changcun said about the Whitehorse Manor providing appropriate services to its guests, that was also right.

However, that was only under normal circumstances.

This was clearly not normal circumstances.

That was because the man had a conflict with Lin Fan.

He even wanted to chase Lin Fan out of the Whitehorse Manor.

This was absolutely unforgivable!

Grians knew that if he did not handle this matter well, Lin Fan’s impression of him would plummet to the bottom!

...

The pilot slowly stood up after hearing Grians' words.

That appearance...

It was as if he would throw Qin Changcun and the woman into the sea if Grians said anything else.

Qin Changcun's and the oval-faced woman's hearts trembled, and their faces turned pale.

Qin Changcun knew that Grians was not joking. That young man probably had a terrifying identity.

He could only stutter, "M-Mr. Lin, I'm sorry. It's my fault..."

Lin Fan said calmly, "Next time, don't look down on others. Otherwise, just an apology won't solve it."

After saying that, he turned around and walked inside.

"Yes, yes, yes," Qin Changcun hurriedly replied.

Grians said to the pilot of the seaplane, "Send them back."

"Yes," the pilot responded.

About 40 minutes later, Qin Changcun and the oval-faced woman returned to the seaside pier.

The oval-faced woman said, "Honey, who exactly is that Mr. Lin? How despicable!"

"Hmph!" Qin Changcun puffed out his chest and said. "If it was anywhere else, I would have made him pay!"

The oval-faced woman said, "Wow! Hubby, you're so awesome!"

"Of course," Qin Changcun said proudly.

The oval-faced woman added, "Why don't we go to Vela's private island? It's also very fun there."

"Alright." Qin Changcun nodded.

Therefore, the oval-faced woman took out her phone and quickly searched for information about Vela's private island.

At this moment, Qin Changcun's phone rang.

He looked at the caller ID and saw that it was Yuan Ping'an.

Qin Changcun immediately answered the call.

"President Yuan, you..."

However, just as Qin Changcun opened his mouth, Yuan Ping'an's roar sounded from inside.

"F*ck you, damn it!"

"I was kind enough to introduce you to Big Boss whenever I had the chance. I even brought you so much business. Is this how you repay me? Hmm?"

"Now, the Whitehorse Manor has canceled all cooperation with me. In addition, Mr. Grians has also blacklisted me in the industry!"

"I'm completely finished!"

"I'm done for, and you won't be able to live well either! Let me tell you, not only will I not cooperate with you in the future, but I will also make sure that all the business I introduced to you will end here.

"In addition, I also know about your illegal coal mining in the country and your tax evasion... Prepare to receive a report letter!"

After saying this, Yuan Ping'an hung up the phone.

Qin Changcun held the phone, his face pale.

Losing the business introduced by Yuan Ping'an, losing the coal mining, and possibly being wanted...

It was over!

He was completely finished!

The oval-faced woman next to him was completely unaware. She smiled and said, "Hubby, let's go for the best and most expensive villa on Vela's private island later..."

When Qin Changcun heard this voice, his heart was suddenly filled with anger.

It was her!

If it was not for this woman who insisted on coming to the Maldives and staying on the luxury island, how could he have offended Mr. Lin?

The more Qin Changcun thought about it, the angrier he became.

He raised his hand and slapped the oval-faced woman.

"B*tch!"

Chapter 482 A Meal; Consumption!

Lin Fan was completely oblivious to all of this.

At this moment, he, Chu Yunyue, Yang Changlin, Li Rujing, and the other employees of Flower Stem had breakfast and arrived at the sports island.

There was a beach volleyball court, baseball court, swimming pool, basketball court, and a variety of fitness equipment.

There were also many beautiful women in bikinis with hot figures.

Laughter and shouts were endless.

Some of them rushed into the sea and played with each other.

Some chased after the women while laughing non-stop.

There were people jumping up and down, constantly cheering.

There were people rolling on the beach.

These...

It was all children's games.

However, in this place, the women were in their twenties and the men were in their thirties or forties.

This was one of the charms of the Whitehorse Manor. It had the unique power to make people return to their childlike state.

Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, Yang Changlin, Li Rujing, and the other employees came to the spa island after playing on the sports island.

There were top-notch masseuses and beauticians here.

Their massage techniques were perfect.

They used luxury essential oils from Lancome, Dior, and other brands.

noVeLnext.com

Everyone felt extremely comfortable.

They looked at the blue sky and the beach, enjoyed the perfect spa treatment, and drank high-end red wine and juice...

It was simply a heavenly enjoyment.

...

Unknowingly, the sky gradually darkened.

"There's going to be a bonfire party on food island soon," a man said. "Let's go and have some fun."

"Oh!" the woman said. "Bonfire party, that's my favorite!"

Thus, the two of them held hands and took a seaplane to the island not far away.

Many people heard their conversation.

Lin Fan saw that Chu Yunyue seemed to be interested, so he said, "I'm a little hungry. Let's go to the food island too."

How could Chu Yunyue not understand that Lin Fan was taking care of her? A sweet smile appeared on her pretty face.

She held Lin Fan's arm and said, "Okay."

Therefore, everyone took a luxury seaplane and arrived at the food island.

Lin Fan looked into the distance. It was still early, and the bonfire party had not started yet.

He then brought everyone to the restaurant LE1947.

The decorations here were very fashionable and elegant, giving off a noble aura.

Just as Lin Fan and the rest sat down, a tall and thin waiter walked over slowly and said respectfully in English, "Do you need any help?"

Lin Fan said directly, "Give me whatever's delicious and your signatures. Just order according to the number of people here."

When the tall and thin waiter heard this, he said in Chinese, "Alright, distinguished guests, please wait a moment."

Even the waiters here had to be proficient in multiple languages.

The Chinese language was obviously one of them.

Not long after, top-grade foie gras, snails, M9 beef, black pearl caviar, top-grade big abalone, deep-sea sea urchin, heart-shaped eggs, bread crabs, big lobsters... as well as exquisite desserts and pastries were served.

Even though everyone was busy at the spa island, they ate whenever they were hungry.

However, after seeing these delicacies, they could not help but eat in large mouthfuls, their faces filled with satisfaction.

From time to time, they would let out a heartfelt sigh of praise.

"It's so delicious!"

At this moment, an employee wearing pink glasses accidentally dropped a cup on the ground and broke it into pieces.

She had done something wrong and should face her mistake.

She quickly lowered her head to clean up the glass shards on the ground.

"Don't pick them up with your hands. Be careful not to cut your fingers," said Chu Yunyue.

As she spoke, she waved her hand into the distance and said, "Please help her deal with it."

The waiter walked over and took a deep look at the cup on the ground. He said, "Alright."

His movements were also very fast. He put on gloves and quickly cleaned up all the fragments.

Thus, everyone buried their heads in eating again.

When they were done, the waiter walked over again and asked, "Is there anything else you need?"

"No," said Lin Fan.

"Okay, it's a total of 142,000 USD. Would you like to pay by card or cash?" the waiter said.

When Lin Fan heard this, he did not have any reaction.

However, all the employees of Flower Stem widened their eyes.

142,000 USD!

If converted to Chinese currency, that would be close to one million yuan!

One million yuan for one meal!

This was indeed a little expensive.

The waiter seemed to have noticed their disbelief, so he explained, "The dishes and wine you ordered add up to a total of 12,000 dollars.

"However, the cup that you broke was a treasured cup from 1990 in Austria. If you break one, the entire set will be invalid.

"And that set costs 120,000 USD."

Everyone looked at each other.

The eyes of the woman with pink glasses who had broken the cup were red.

She had accidentally broken something worth nearly one million yuan?

Lin Fan said, "Don't be sad. It's just a small matter."

For many people, one million was a very large number.

However, it was nothing to Lin Fan.

Moreover, he was the biggest shareholder of the Whitehorse Manor.

Smashing things?

Even if they tore this place down, there would be no problem.

The waiter was worried that everyone would think that he was blackmailing them, so he said, "We have the appraisal certificate here..."

As he spoke, he seemed to be ready to take out the certificate.

At this moment, the phone in his pocket rang urgently.

Initially, the waiter was not prepared to answer the call.

After all, he still had to deal with the matter in front of him.

However, when the waiter saw the caller ID, his heart skipped a beat.

That was because... he realized that the caller was Chairman Grians.

Although the waiter was the lowest level employee of the Whitehorse Manor, he still saved all the phone numbers of the higher-ups.

However, the waiter never thought that Chairman Grians would call him one day.

This was simply... unbelievable!

He pressed the answer button excitedly and said in an excited tone, "Hello, Mr. Chairman."

Then, Grians' loud voice came from the phone.

"Listen, the young man sitting in front of you is the new boss of our Whitehorse Manor..."

After hanging up the phone, the waiter bent down and said in a very respectful tone, "Mr. Lin and distinguished guests, I'm sorry to have disturbed you...Do you need anything else?"

Chapter 483 - 483 I Am the Largest Stockholder; Meeting Huo Qilong Again!

483 I Am the Largest Stockholder; Meeting Huo Qilong Again!

How smart was Lin Fan?

The waiter's attitude had changed so much. How could he not understand who had called just now?

Lin Fan waved his hand. "No, it's alright. We can go now, right?"

"Of course," the waiter hurriedly said. "Take care, distinguished guests."

The outstanding employees of Flower Stem finally realized what was going on after they walked out of the restaurant.

"He... He's letting us go?"

Lin Fan smiled. "Yeah."

Then, he saw that the woman in pink glasses seemed to be a little worried.

"I forgot to tell you that I'm the biggest shareholder of the Whitehorse Manor. It's just a cup, and the price is not worth much." Therefore, everyone did not need to worry about it. n0vεLnεxt.c0M

Except for Chu Yunyue, everyone's mouth was wide open, and they were stunned on the spot.

The biggest shareholder of the Whitehorse Manor, which was known as the number one resort in the Maldives, was Lin Fan!

Lin Fan paused and said, “Oh right, Grians, the white man who picked us up from the airport yesterday, is the chairman of the Whitehorse Manor. If you need anything, you can call him directly.”

Now that he had made public his relationship with the Whitehorse Manor, he did not mind saying more.

In order to prevent anything from happening again, he would be able to deal with it in time.

When everyone heard this, they were stunned again.

One had to know...

Grians had been bowing and scraping when he picked them up, just like an ordinary waiter.

In the end, he turned out to be the chairman of the Whitehorse Manor?

...

Lin Fan ignored the shocked crowd. He held Chu Yunyue’s slender hand and continued walking forward.

Li Rujing, who was walking behind, could not help but whisper, “Who exactly is Mr. Lin?”

No wonder she would ask such a question.

Lin Fan’s performance was simply too shocking.

“Do you still remember the Xia Airlines plane we took?” Yang Changlin asked.

Li Rujing nodded.

“Mr. Lin is also the largest shareholder of Xia Airlines,” Yang Changlin said.

Li Rujing was stunned again.

Xia Airlines!

That was the largest state-owned airline!

Earlier, Li Rujing thought that the stewardesses were so respectful to Lin Fan because he booked the plane.

Now, it seemed that this was not the case at all.

The real reason was that Lin Fan was the biggest shareholder of Xia Airlines, the real boss!

Yang Changlin gently patted Li Rujing's shoulder and said, "It's your good fortune that Mr. Lin thinks highly of you. Work hard and your future will definitely be bright!"

Only then did Li Rujing come back to her senses. She nodded vigorously and said, "Yes!"

...

Lin Fan led the group on the soft sand, moving forward.

They saw...

A large bonfire had already been lit in the open space far away.

A group of people sat on the ground in front of the bonfire and chatted with each other.

Some were singing and dancing around the bonfire. It was very joyous.

Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, Yang Changlin, Li Rujing, and the other outstanding employees of Flower Stem were also affected by the atmosphere. They felt even more relaxed and carefree.

Not long after they arrived at the bonfire party, a fashionable man in a colorful shirt and sunglasses walked over.

It was Huo Qilong whom they had met at the airport yesterday.

Huo Qilong scanned the scene with his squinty eyes.

He looked like a hungry wolf looking for prey.

Looking for prey?

That was right!

He was looking for prey.

However, most hungry wolves were looking for sheep.

He was looking for beautiful women!

The next moment, Huo Qilong raised his eyebrows.

He had discovered Chu Yunyue!

Ever since he saw Chu Yunyue at the airport yesterday...

Huo Qilong's head seemed to be completely filled with her.

As a result, he tossed and turned the entire night and could not fall asleep.

He did not expect to meet her again today!

Indeed, the heavens were looking out for him!

However, his gaze soon fell on Lin Fan, who was beside Chu Yunyue.

Huo Qilong knew that if he walked over directly, it would be the same as yesterday. There would be no effect at all.

He had to do something to attract the other party's attention. It would be best if he made her eyes light up!

Only in this way could he leave a trace of an impression in the other party's heart!

It had to be said that Huo Qilong did have some ability to get a girlfriend.

As he pondered, he kept looking around...

Soon, his eyes focused on a piano not far away.

One had to know...

Huo Qilong had received a good education since he was young. He knew how to play the piano and guitar, how to paint, and how to play chess.

Among all the skills, he was the most talented in piano.

In fact, he was often praised by the teachers.

The corner of Huo Qilong's mouth curled up slightly. He grinned and said, "I got it!"

As he spoke, he quickly walked toward the piano and slowly sat down.

Then, Huo Qilong took a deep breath.

His hands began to dance rapidly on the black and white keys.

In an instant...

A melodious piano tune slowly rippled out.

Soon, it attracted the attention of many people at the bonfire party.

Some of them even swayed to the rhythm of the piano music and started discussing.

"It's Moonlight Modifications!"

"Not bad!"

"Yes, yes!"

...

When the piano song was about to end, one of the staff of Flower Stem looked over and said in surprise, "It's that person!"

When Chu Yunyue heard it, she looked over curiously.

It was also at this moment that the piano piece came to an end.

There was a burst of sparse applause.

When he saw that Chu Yunyue was also looking at him, the smile on his face widened.

His choice was indeed correct!

He had definitely left a good impression on her!

As Huo Qilong thought of this, he slowly walked toward Chu Yunyue under the gaze of everyone.

Then, like a gentleman, he smiled and said, "Beautiful lady, what a coincidence. We meet again."

He was dressed in a ruffian manner, but he forced himself to act like a gentleman... It gave off a nondescript feeling.

However, Huo Qilong still felt good about himself.

At this moment, he seemed to have noticed Lin Fan standing at the side and said, "Oh, Sir, you're here too."

"I can see that this beauty seems to like piano music very much. I suggest that you play more piano music for her when you have time. This way, she can always maintain a good mood."

It had to be said that Huo Qilong was definitely not without brains.

On the contrary, he was very smart.

He did not goad Lin Fan into playing the piano like most people would.

Instead, he suggested that Lin Fan play the piano for his woman when he was free.

This way, his provocation was not abrupt.

At the same time, he thought that he made a mark on Chu Yunyue's heart.

Chapter 484 Playing; Feeling Ashamed!

The first step, which was to leave an impression, had been achieved!

Huo Qilong began to formulate the second step of his plan in his mind to deepen her impression of him.

Soon, he had an idea.

He was about to speak.

"Yunyue, do you like to listen to piano music?" Lin Fan asked.

Chu Yunyue seemed to have thought of something and nodded with a smile.

Lin Fan said, "Alright, I'll play the piano for you."

After saying that, he walked straight to the piano not far away.

When Huo Qilong saw this, he was stunned for a moment.

Then, a smile appeared on his face as if he was watching a good show.

At first, he only wanted to leave an impression in Chu Yunyue's heart.

Who would have thought that Lin Fan would really go play the piano?

He could almost see Lin Fan being a mess and getting laughed at.

At that time, he would definitely occupy an even more important position in Chu Yunyue's heart.

As for the fact that Lin Fan's playing was better than his, Huo Qilong did not even consider it.

He had won an award for playing the piano back then.

Besides, the crowd had given him warm applause and Chu Yunyue had even stared at him when he played the piano.

Huo Qilong smiled and said to Chu Yunyue, "So, your name is Yunyue. What a nice name.

"Look at me, I haven't introduced myself to you yet. I'm Huo Qilong. Nice to meet you."

After saying that, he took the initiative to extend his right hand.

However, Chu Yunyue acted as if she did not see it. She just stared at Lin Fan with her beautiful eyes, her face full of anticipation.

She had heard Lin Fan sing before and knew that he had great musical ability.

She believed that Lin Fan would definitely be able to play a beautiful piece of music.

This was something he was specially playing for her!

...

Finally, Lin Fan sat in front of the piano.

A wave of discussion broke out around them.

"Huh? Someone wants to play the piano again."

"I wonder what song he'll play."

"Let's hear it."

...

Lin Fan did not care about Huo Qilong's thoughts at all, nor did he care about the discussions of the crowd.

He slowly closed his eyes and placed his hands on the black and white keys. Instantly...

The rapid, light, and gentle notes rippled.

The people who were still laughing, discussing, and chatting all stopped what they were doing and focused their attention.

They all swayed along with the music.

Even though the spot where Lin Fan was was rather dark, in everyone's eyes, it was as if a dazzling stage light had appeared above his head. It illuminated him to the point of being incomparably gorgeous.

As the notes continued to play, Lin Fan's body seemed to emit starlight.

More and more starlight appeared... It circled around Lin Fan.

In the end, it formed a strong traction force that carried Lin Fan and the piano into the air.

When it reached the night sky, the starlight condensed into a crescent moon, emitting an even more dazzling light.

Gorgeous and charming!

Everyone had expressions of admiration and enjoyment that were difficult to hide.

Finally, the last note fell.

paπdasNovel.com The entire bonfire party was still silent.

After a long time, there was extremely enthusiastic applause.

"The melody was so good!" novelnext.com

"That's Moonlight."

"This is the first time I've heard such a beautiful rendition of Moonlight!"

"It's even better than symphonies." I think you should take a look at paDasnovel.com

Exclamations, shouts, and screams echoed throughout the entire venue.

Lin Fan did not care too much about it.

He left the piano and strolled to Chu Yunyue, who had been staring at him without blinking.

Then, he slowly held her slender and fair hand.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, Lin Fan's head kept getting closer and closer to Chu Yunyue.

Their lips met.

Suddenly, a stage light appeared in the sky and fell on Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue.

Dazzling!

This talented man matched this beautiful woman perfectly!

Once again, the place erupted with extremely enthusiastic cheers and shouts.

In fact, when Chu Yunyue arrived at the bonfire party, it was not only Huo Qilong who noticed her.

There were also many men who thought they were qualified enough to woo her.

Chu Yunyue was simply too beautiful.

However, at this moment, they threw this thought aside.

They knew that they could not win against Lin Fan.

In other words, they felt ashamed in front of Lin Fan.

...

After a long time, their lips parted.

Lin Fan turned around slowly and looked at Huo Qilong. "You're right. I have to play the piano more for Yunyue in the future."

Huo Qilong's face turned red.

Originally, he wanted to use the piano to step on Lin Fan and at the same time get closer to Chu Yunyue.

Now, he had made Lin Fan into a star.

He had shot himself in the foot!

It hurt!

It hurt!

Huo Qilong grunted in response, then turned around and walked away.

At this moment, loud music sounded at the bonfire party.

A group of quick-witted staff members led the crowd to sing and dance, making the atmosphere even more lively.

In addition, there were some programs that had been prepared long ago, various interesting games, as well as drinks and barbecued meat that could be ordered at any time...

Everyone was having a great time.

When Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue returned to the luxury island, it was already midnight.

Perhaps she was too tired from playing, Chu Yunyue accidentally fell into the spacious and clear swimming pool in front of the villa.

Since she had already fallen into the swimming pool, she might as well enjoy her time in it.

She kept splashing water on Lin Fan and laughed.

Lin Fan chuckled. "You're even messing around with me!"

After saying that, Lin Fan jumped into the swimming pool.

"Ah!"

Thus, the two of them began to chase each other in the swimming pool.

Laughter and shouts rose and fell.

The two of them played in the swimming pool for about half an hour before they slowly got up.

After all, the swimming pool was a little cold at night.

After washing up, an alluring fragrance gradually filled the air.

When Chu Yunyue came out of the bathroom wrapped in an LV towel, her beautiful eyes fell on Lin Fan.

In her mind, she could not help but recall Lin Fan's elegant and serious movements when he played the piano.

Perhaps it was because she had just walked out of the bathroom, a blush gradually appeared on her pretty face.

Then, Chu Yunyue could not help but slowly approach Lin Fan.

Under the illumination of the light, the two shadows finally merged together.

...

At this moment, the TV in the living room suddenly started playing a song.

The sea breeze gently blew, and the waves gently swayed...

Chapter 485 - 485 Sea Fishing; It's Her!

485 Sea Fishing; It's Her!

For the next two days, Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, and the other employees of Flower Stem led similar lives every day.

They would go to the sports island in the morning, have lunch at LEE1947, a three-star Michelin restaurant, have a massage on the spa island in the afternoon, and play on the beach or attend a bonfire party at night...

Although they repeated the same routine, everyone still had blissful smiles on their faces.

However, Grians was worried that Lin Fan would not be satisfied.

Therefore, he spent a lot of effort to get a large yacht from somewhere else.

...

After Lin Fan and Chu Yunyue woke up and ate breakfast, Grians bowed like the most respectful waiter and said, "Mr. Lin, Ms. Chu, good morning."

Lin Fan was quite satisfied with Grians.

From the initial pick-up to the daily service after arriving at the Whitehorse Manor, to how he dealt with Qin Changcun... he performed very well.

Therefore, Lin Fan nodded in response to Grianth's greeting, "Good morning, Grians."

Although it was just a simple greeting, it sounded like heavenly music to Grians' ears, making him excited.

This meant that Lin Fan was satisfied with him.

Grians suppressed his joy and said, "Mr. Lin, I've brought in an MJ yacht from another place. I wonder if you and Ms. Chu want to take it out to sea?"

Lin Fan could not help but look at Grians.

One had to know...

Lin Fan also owned a top-grade yacht, Solange, which was still docked at the port of Modu.

It was because of this that he had specially searched for information about yachts.

Even though an MJ yacht was not as luxurious as Solange, its price exceeded 100 million yuan.

With Grians' status, it would probably take some effort to bring over such a large yacht.

Grians was really thoughtful!

Lin Fan nodded and asked, "Yunyue and the rest... Do you want to go on a yacht to play at sea?"

In fact, when Grians said that he had brought over a yacht, everyone was shocked.

Yang Changlin, Li Rujing, and all the employees of Flower Stem were tempted.

Now, hearing Lin Fan's question, their eyes lit up.

This was because taking a yacht to play out on the sea was a scene that only appeared in movies and television dramas.

At the same time, it was something that all of them had been yearning for.

However, no one responded.

Chu Yunyue looked at the crowd, but they did not dare to speak. She could not help but smile and say, "Look at you guys... Let's go on the yacht, then."

"That's great!" everyone shouted excitedly.

After a while, an extremely fashionable and cool 50-meter-long yacht appeared in everyone's sight.

This... It was an MJ yacht!

Flower Stem's staff members could not help but open their mouths and exclaim.

"Wow! This is too big!"

"So handsome!"

"So cool!"

However, what they did not know was that Lin Fan's Solange which was docked at the Modu pier was much bigger than MJ and was twice as big!

...

The tourists who were relaxing on the reclining chairs in the Whitehorse Manor also raised their heads and looked over curiously.

...

Lin Fan said, "Then let's go up."

"Alright," everyone hurriedly responded.

After boarding the yacht, everyone's jaws dropped again.

A wide deck, a gorgeous restaurant, an exquisite private room, a bar with all kinds of drinks, and a video room...

It was as if they had arrived at a mobile club on the sea.

As MJ's yacht let out a soft hum, everyone felt a gust of wind blow over.

Then, it continued to move forward toward the endless sea.

Instantly, an unprecedented sense of satisfaction filled everyone's hearts.

Laughter and shouts rang out endlessly.

MJ cruised at high speed for more than an hour before slowing down.

"There are fishing rods here!" Yang Changlin said excitedly.

Hence, everyone stepped forward and picked one up.

Those who liked fishing were naturally enthusiastic.

Those who did not also became interested.

After all, this was a rare sea fishing.

Chu Yunyue smiled. "We can eat fresh fish for lunch today."

After a while, Yang Changlin had a fish on the hook.

He suddenly pulled, and it turned out to be a ribbonfish the length of an arm.

Seeing this, everyone shouted excitedly.

"I'll help roast the fish!"

Then, someone brought over a barbecue rack, cooking oil, and other things.

On the deck, they began to grill the fish.

...

When the employees of Flower Stem were fishing on the MJ yacht, there was another large luxury yacht on the sea.

A group of men with extraordinary temperaments and branded clothes were drinking and laughing with a group of beautiful women on the deck.

Huo Qilong was among them.

“Speaking of beauties, I met a beauty at the Whitehorse Manor two days ago. That figure, that face, that skin...” She’s simply gorgeous!

” A fairy! She’s definitely a fairy!”

Obviously, he was talking about Chu Yunyue.

A man in a striped shirt and dyed light red hair said, “Is that so? Is she as divine as you say?” novelnext.com

A man wearing sunglasses asked, “Are you being for real?”

“Of course!” Huo Qilong said seriously.

“Then why didn’t you bring her over?” a man with an ear stud said.

Huo Qilong poured the XO into his mouth and said, “She has a boyfriend.”

Even though they were all accompanied by beautiful women, they were still talking about other women.

The beauties beside them did not seem to care.

This was the charm of the Maldives.

“She has a boyfriend?” The man in sunglasses laughed. “It’s because I wasn’t the one who met her. Otherwise, I would’ve easily won her over!”

“Of course, I can win her over,” Huo Qilong retorted. “Aren’t we here to gather and have fun? I don’t have enough time.”

The man with an ear stud also took a sip of his drink and said, “I’m already a little interested in this beauty.”

“Hahaha, I’m interested too! I’ll go to the Whitehorse Manor tomorrow and see if I can meet her,” the man in sunglasses said.

“Not bad, I’ll go take a look too,” the man with an ear stud said.

...

“I caught a fish too!”

Not far away, there was a sudden shout.

Huo Qilong, the man wearing sunglasses, the man with an ear stud, and the others all looked in the direction of the voice.

Only then did they realize that a large yacht had appeared not far away.

This was the MJ yacht that Lin Fan and the others were on.

In the next moment...

Huo Qilong stood up abruptly, his eyes fixed on the woman in the white dress. He shouted, “It’s her!”

She was Chu Yunyue!

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 486 Slap Yourself; Greetings, Mr. Lin!

The red-haired man beside him muttered, "A MJ yacht? This seems to be William's family's ship, right?"

The man with an ear stud, the man in sunglasses, and the others all looked at Huo Qilong in confusion when they saw his surprise.

"Why, do you know him?"

"Who is it? Why are you so surprised?"

Huo Qilong raised his finger and said, "The one in the white dress is the beauty I was talking about."

"Oh?"

When everyone heard this, they could not help but cast curious gazes in the direction Huo Qilong was pointing.

Huo Qilong had praised her too much just now.

Soon, the eyes of the man with an ear stud, the man in sunglasses, the man with light red hair, and the others lit up.

Snow-white skin, a voluptuous figure, an exquisite face...

Under the illumination of the sun, her body seemed to be shining with silver light.

Beautiful!

She was so beautiful!

The man with an ear stud shouted excitedly, "Beauty, come over and have a drink!"

As he spoke, he deliberately waved the Lafite in his hand.

The man wearing the sunglasses raised his watch and waved at Chu Yunyue. "Beauty, let's be friends."

The man with light red hair shouted, "Beauty, do you like yachts too? Our yacht, Hero, is bigger, more luxurious, and more comfortable. Do you want to come up and play?"

While the three of them were shouting greetings, they also casually showed off their wine, watch, and yacht.

"How is it? Pretty, isn't it?"

The man in sunglasses, the man with an ear stud, the man with light red hair, and the others nodded.

When Lin Fan heard the voices, he turned around.

When he saw that it was Huo Qilong and the others, he raised his eyebrows slightly.

The first time that Huo Qilong had taken the initiative to strike up a conversation with Chu Yunyue, Lin Fan ignored him.

The second time, Lin Fan ignored him as well.

This was the third time.

Moreover, from what he said, it seemed like he was showing off Chu Yunyue like an object.

Huo Qilong and his friends kept teasing Chu Yunyue in front of him.

This made Lin Fan furious.

It seemed that sometimes... one could not be too kind.

Lin Fan said coldly, "All of you kneel down and slap yourself ten times. Do that and I can consider not taking your words to heart."

The man with an ear stud, the man in sunglasses, the man with light red hair, and Huo Qilong were stunned.

Then, as if they had heard the funniest joke in the world, they all burst into laughter.

"Hahaha! What did I hear?"

"You want us to kneel down and slap ourselves ten times? And then you'll consider not making a fuss about what we just said?"

...

One had to know...

Which of their families did not have a huge amount of wealth and power?

Ever since they were young, they were the only ones who threatened and bullied others.

They had never been bullied or threatened before.

It was no wonder that they would laugh so loudly.

What if Lin Fan had shown off his power the moment he appeared?

Perhaps, the man with the ear stud and the others would not be so unscrupulous.

However, Lin Fan was only on a medium-sized MJ yacht.

The medium-sized MJ yacht, which cost more than 100 million yuan, was considered acceptable.

However, in their eyes, it was not enough.

Furthermore, the red-haired man had just pointed out that this MJ yacht belonged to the William family.

William's family was in the yacht and car rental business. noVeLnext.com

This meant... the other party did not even have a yacht worth more than 100 million yuan.

With such little strength, he still dared to threaten them?

What a joke!

After a while, the men stopped laughing and shouted, "Kid, I'll return the words you just said! Now, kneel down and slap yourself ten times! I can consider ignoring what you said just now!"

"That's right!" the man in sunglasses shouted.

"Ten slaps?" the man with light red hair asked. "No! 100 slaps!"

"Kneel down and slap yourself a hundred times!"

Everyone kept shouting.

...

At this moment.

Not far away on the sea, on a large yacht.

Several middle-aged men in suits and leather shoes were sipping champagne and chatting softly. They looked very relaxed.

A man wearing silver-rimmed glasses said, "When it comes to educating children, sometimes you can't force them too hard.

"My son used to like to play games. Later, he borrowed 500 million yuan from me and started a gaming team.

"I thought that all this money was going down the drain. In the end, his gaming team won the championship last year, which directly increased the value of the team by several times."

The man with the buzz cut nodded and said, "I agree. My son likes to watch live broadcasts and tips those internet celebrities tens of millions every day.

"I thought that I had given birth to a prodigal son.

"In the end, this kid actually used the money from the tips to establish a good relationship with the internet celebrities. Later on, he opened his own live-streaming platform and is now preparing to go public."

The man with a cigar in his mouth touched his chin and said, "Perhaps it's not a bad thing that my son likes to pick up girls?"

"Yeah, maybe one day he'll set up a modeling company or a film company!" the man with a buzz cut said.

"Hahaha! In that case, I can look forward to it a little." The man with the crew cut laughed.

Everyone was discussing their sons, and the atmosphere was very relaxed.

At this moment, the man with a buzz cut looked at the man wearing gold-rimmed glasses beside him and said in a fawning tone, "Mr. He, I heard that you went to Hua Nation with the chairman of Jiawen Group, Mr. Herrs, the chairman of Datong Group, Mr. Li Jiawei, and the chairmen of many other giant companies?"

As soon as he said that, the man with the crew cut, the man with the silver-rimmed glasses, and everyone else looked at him curiously.

Obviously, they were very curious.

The image of a young man gradually appeared in Mr. He's mind.

It was Lin Fan!

Thinking of Lin Fan, a hint of respect appeared on Mr. He's face.

He slowly raised his head and was about to say something.

The next moment, Mr. He's pupils constricted slightly as he stood up abruptly.

That was because he saw two yachts not far away.

Lin Fan was standing on one of the yachts!

He was the current sect master of the Qing Hong Sect!

Mr. He bowed and called out in a very respectful tone, "Greetings, Mr. Lin."

When the man with a crew cut, the man in silver-framed glasses, the man with a buzz cut, the man smoking a cigar, and the others heard this, their hearts skipped a beat.

They could not help but look in the direction of Mr. He's shout. They saw a young man in his 20s, and their hearts skipped a beat.

One had to know...

Mr. He was the chairman of Rising Sun Group.

He was an existence that they would try their best to please!

Rising Sun Group was one of the top 500 companies in the world!

However, Mr. He actually bowed to a young man and greeted him in such a respectful tone?

Who was this young man?!

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 487 Punishment; Apologize!

In the eyes of the public, Mr. He was the leader of Rising Sun Group, Herrs was the leader of Jiawen Group, and Li Jiawei was the leader of Datong Group.

Even if these people just stomped their feet, some countries or even the entire world might even be shaken. They possessed extremely terrifying energy.

However, only Mr. He and Mr. Heers, and Mr. Li understood that everything they had was given to them by the Qing Hong Sect.

At the same time, it could be easily taken away!

Lin Fan was the current leader of the Qing Hong Sect, so how could Mr. He not respect him?

Although the man with the crew cut, the man with silver-rimmed glasses, the man with a buzz cut, the man smoking a cigar, and the others still did not understand Lin Fan's identity, they followed suit and said respectfully, "Greetings, Mr. Lin."

After all, he was someone who even Chairman He of Rising Sun Group had to treat respectfully.

How could they, the leaders of small forces, dare to be disrespectful?

Lin Fan turned his head and glanced at Mr. He and the others. He did not take it to heart.noVeLnext.com

Huo Qilong, the man with an ear stud, the man with light red hair, and the man in sunglasses standing on the luxury yacht shouted at the men on the large yacht.

"Dad!"

"Dad!"

"Dad, what's going on?"

"Dad!"

The older men slowly turned around.

Only then did they realize that their sons were actually on the yacht beside theirs!

That was right!

Huo Qilong, the man with light red hair, the man with an ear stud, and the man wearing sunglasses were their sons!

Their minds began to work.

The yacht their sons were on was so close to Lin Fan's yacht.

Could it be...

Did they know each other?

Thinking of this, the man with a crew cut was the first to speak. "Mr. Lin, I didn't expect you to know my son. This is really surprising."

"It's my son's honor to know you," said the man wearing silver-rimmed glasses.

"And my son... Could it be that you're also interested in games, Mr. Lin?"

Everyone spoke up, wanting to use their son to get closer to Lin Fan.

After all, Lin Fan was someone that even Mr. He had to treat with respect.

Lin Fan glanced at everyone and asked, "Them? I guess you can say that we know each other.

"After all, they were all teasing my girlfriend just now. Then, they asked me to kneel on the ground and slap myself 100 times."

The hearts of the older men began to beat wildly.

Their sons had teased the girlfriend of a young man that even Mr. he had to treat with respect?

Then, they asked him to kneel on the ground and slap himself 100 times?

This...

They slowly turned their heads like machines.

Mr. He was staring at them with a pair of extremely cold eyes.

They were so frightened that they could not help but shiver.

"From now on, Rising Sun Group will not cooperate with all of you here!" Mr. He said coldly.

"I will even spare no effort to make you suffer the greatest punishment!"

The faces of the older men turned pale.

Almost half of their company's business came from Rising Sun Group.

Once they were abandoned by Rising Sun Group, the consequences...

Moreover, they would be punished by Rising Sun Group.

They could almost imagine... how miserable they would be in the future.

The man with the crew cut was the first to react. He shouted at his son, the man with light red hair, "Bastard, kneel down and apologize to Mr. Lin!"

"Dad, I..." the red-haired man stuttered.

Seeing that his son did not apologize immediately, the man with the crew cut was furious again. "Damn it!" I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

He shouted at the captain of the yacht, "Please go to the yacht over there!"

The man smoking a cigar, the man wearing silver-rimmed glasses, the man with the buzz cut, and the others also shouted.

"Quickly apologize to Mr. Lin!"

"Apologize!"

Then, they jumped onto the deck of the luxury yacht and walked angrily toward their sons.

All of them slapped their sons' faces.

They did not dare to hold back at all. Moreover, they continued to slap.

These slaps stunned the young men.

Soon, their faces became red and swollen.

The fathers all secretly looked at Lin Fan.

However, they saw that Lin Fan had no intention of stopping them.

Therefore, they shouted at their sons again.

"Kneel down!"

"Unfilial son, kneel down!"

"Kneel down and apologize!"

"Hurry!"

Huo Qilong, the man with an ear stud, the man with the light red hair, the man wearing sunglasses, and the rest now knew that Lin Fan had a powerful background. He was definitely someone they could not afford to offend.

Therefore, they all knelt on the ground and stammered, "Yes... I'm sorry, I must've been possessed just now..."

"I'm sorry, please don't take offense..."

"Please spare us..."

"I'm sorry..."

Lin Fan said indifferently, "Do you still remember what I just said?"

The young men suddenly remembered.

"All of you kneel down and slap yourself ten times. Do that and I'll consider not taking your words to heart.'

Although the faces of Huo Qilong and the others were already red and swollen, they did not hesitate and raised their hands to slap themselves.

Loud slaps echoed.

Soon, the ten slaps were over.

However, Lin Fan did not say anything.

Thus, Huo Qilong and the others did not dare to stop.

As time passed, Huo Qilong and the others had already started to bleed from the corners of their mouths, and their faces were slowly turning into pig heads.

Their fathers felt their hearts ache at this scene.

After all, they were their sons.

However, they did not dare to open their mouths.

After Huo Qilong and the others slapped themselves 100 times, Lin Fan finally opened his mouth and said, "Alright."

Lin Fan's thoughts were very simple.

At first, he only asked them to slap themselves 10 times.

However, they wanted to slap themselves 100 times.

Since that was the case, he would grant their wish!

At this moment, the faces of Huo Qilong and the others were completely swollen.

Lin Fan continued, "I don't want something like this to happen again."

The older men hurriedly said, "It won't happen. We promise that such a thing will never happen again."

Lin Fan did not care much about it. He nodded at Mr. He as a form of greeting.

Then, he said to the captain of the MJ Yacht, "Set sail!"

After a loud rumble, the yacht started to move.

Chapter 488 Return; Chance Encounter!

After traveling for about an hour, the MJ yacht slowly stopped at Lin Fan's request.

The staff of Flower Stem looked at each other and picked up their fishing rods again.

However, the atmosphere at the scene was not as lively as it was at the beginning.

Chu Yunyue did not have many other thoughts.

On the contrary, her eyes that were looking at Lin Fan shone even brighter.

Chu Yunyue had seen Lin Fan when he was focused on making perfume, and she had seen Lin Fan when he was singing...

However, she had never seen such a scene today. One sentence made everyone's mouth twitch.

Domineering!

"Lin Fan, who were those people just now?" Chu Yunyue asked gently after a while.

Lin Fan shook his head and said, "I only know that the man with the gold-rimmed glasses is called He Xiong. He's the chairman of Rising Sun Group."

"Rising Sun Group?" Chu Yunyue was slightly shocked. "The world's top 500..."

Lin Fan nodded. "Yes."

Silence!

The entire MJ yacht was silent!

They all knew that Lin Fan had a lot of assets and a lot of wealth.

He was the largest shareholder of Xia Airlines, the largest shareholder of the Whitehorse Manor, and so on.

Even so, they were still shocked by Lin Fan's words.

That was the chairman of Rising Sun Group!

Its market value was close to a trillion!

In the end, the chairman had to bow and greet Lin Fan.

Lin Fan did not care much. He looked at the grilled fish on the grill and said, "The fish is cooked."

Then, the outstanding employees of Flower Stem gathered around.

Lin Fan picked up a glass of wine and said, "I wish us a happy trip to the Maldives. Cheers!"

"Thank you, Mr. Lin. Cheers!" Flower Stem's employees raised their glasses.

After a glass of wine, the atmosphere became lively again.

Lin Fan, Chu Yunyue, and the employees of Flower Stem spent a few more days at the Whitehorse Manor before they were sent off by Grians' Rolls-Royce motorcade and boarded the private plane back.

When Lin Fan arrived at Jiangbei, it was already afternoon.

When Lin Fan drove the Cullinan past Xinyang Road, a beautiful figure caught his attention.

Peach blossom eyes, willowy eyebrows, cherry lips, and a full figure...

If it was not Su Ningjing, who could it be?

Speaking of which, he had not seen her for a long time.

Lin Fan turned the steering wheel and parked the Cullinan in a parking space by the roadside.

Then, he strode toward her.

Lin Fan was just about to open his mouth to greet her when Su Ningjing seemed to have sensed something and slowly turned her head.

In the next moment...

Her beautiful face was like a blooming flower, extremely brilliant.novelNext.com

"Lin Fan!"

A beautiful voice immediately came out of her cherry mouth.

"Did you just go grocery shopping?" Lin Fan looked at the groceries in her hands and asked.

As he spoke, he reached out to help carry the groceries.

"Yes, yes!" Su Ningjing nodded vigorously.

However, she stepped aside and said, "The bag is dirty. Let me carry it."

Lin Fan took the lead and touched the mud in the bag. He smiled and said, "My hands are already dirty, so it doesn't matter."

Then, without waiting for Su Ningjing to say anything, he took the bag.

At this moment, a series of crisp footsteps sounded not far away. I think you should take a look at paflidasnovel.com

A woman with a good figure and a cute bag hanging on her waist as well as a face that looked like a typical internet celebrity's was holding a man in a white shirt as they walked over from afar.

When the woman saw Su Ningjing, her expression changed slightly as she said, "Huh, Su Ningjing?"

Su Ningjing heard this and looked over.

However, her pretty face revealed a doubtful expression as she asked, "And you are?"

"What? You don't know me anymore after graduating?" The woman laughed. "I'm Wang Yunfang!"

Su Ningjing's pretty face clearly revealed a hint of surprise.

She and Wang Yunfang were indeed classmates, university classmates.

However, in her memory, Wang Yunfang seemed to have a square face.

Why did she have an oval face now?

After a while, Su Ningjing said apologetically, "Sorry, I didn't recognize you just now."

"It's okay, it's okay." Wang Yunfang waved her hand and said, "Su Ningjing, have you been staying in Jiangbei ever since you graduated from university? What are you doing now?"

Su Ning said quietly, "I worked at Ai Er Housekeeping previously. Now... I stay at home and take care of Grandma and Sister."

When Wang Yunfang heard the words 'Ai Er,' she almost laughed out loud.

Was that not a cleaning company?

'Su Ningjing, weren't you the prettiest girl in the class?

'Weren't you very popular with our classmates?

'What now?

'You're only a cleaner?'

However, Wang Yunfang still replied, "I see."

Then, she seemed to have noticed Lin Fan standing beside her. "This is?"

"I'm Ningjing's boyfriend, Lin Fan," Lin Fan said.

Wang Yunfang could not help but look at Lin Fan. When she saw his tall and handsome appearance, a hint of jealousy flashed across her face.

pandasNovel.com However, when she saw the groceries in Lin Fan's hands, a look of disdain flashed across her face.

She thought to herself, 'What's the use of being handsome? So what if she's beautiful? One can only haggle in the market, while the other can only be a cleaner!'

Wang Yunfang said, "So you're Su Ningjing's boyfriend. Oh right, this is my fiance, Shu Jiadong."

Shu Jiadong said, "Hello. Yunfang and I are getting married this Saturday. If you have time, you can come over and join in the celebration."

Speaking of this...

The smile on Wang Yunfang's face widened. She said, "Have you heard of the Imperial Hotel? That's a landmark building in Jiangbei! It's the most luxurious hotel in Jiangbei! My husband and I are having our wedding at the Imperial Hotel. It's easy to find!

"If you really can't find it, you can just take a taxi on the road."

"Su Ningjing, Lin Fan, you must come over when the time comes!"

On the surface, she seemed to be talking about the place where she was getting married.

In fact, it was to show how luxurious her wedding venue was.

She was showing off!

Su Ningjing did not reply immediately. Instead, she looked at Lin Fan who was standing at the side.

She could go over.

However, she did not know if Lin Fan had the time.

Lin Fan smiled. "Of course! Saturday, right? We'll be there."

When Su Ningjing heard this, the smile on her pretty face became even wider.

This meant that she would be able to meet Lin Fan again on Saturday.

Therefore, Su Ningjing also said, "We'll go over."

"Alright!" Wang Yunfang nodded. "Then it's a deal!"

At this moment, the phone in her pocket vibrated slightly.

She looked at her phone and said, "I still have something to do. I won't chat with you guys anymore."

After saying that, she held Shu Jiadong's arm and continued walking forward.

Chapter 489 Solved The Function Question; Second Authors!

Lin Fan carried the groceries and chatted with Su Ningjing as they walked toward the Washington Palace.

Just as he was about to open the door...

The big yellow dog that had been lying inside suddenly barked.

"Who is it? Who is it?"

When the door was completely opened and the big yellow dog saw that it was Su Ningjing, it wagged its tail and rushed up quickly.

As for Lin Fan, who was standing at the side, it was glaring at him like a tiger eyeing its prey. It kept whining as if it wanted to chase Lin Fan out.

"Big Yellow, don't be fierce to Lin Fan!" Su Ningjing scolded."

However, Big Yellow did not budge. It continued to bare its teeth at Lin Fan.

After all, it did not understand Su Ningjing's words at all.

Lin Fan laughed, "Big Yellow, do you still remember me? I'm your mistress' boyfriend! I even celebrated your birthday last time!"

After Big Yellow heard Lin Fan's words, it stopped baring its teeth.

Its entire dog face was a little stunned.

That was because it understood Lin Fan's words completely.

Even it found it unbelievable.

After a while, Big Yellow finally let out a cry.

"You are also a dog?"

Lin Fan's lips twitched. He understood that he shouldn't reason with dogs.

Therefore, he simply ignored it.

However...

Big Yellow barked at Lin Fan again.

"Are you really a dog?"

"Isn't that so?"

Lin Fan was speechless.

The old lady who was originally in the room slowly walked out when she heard the voice. She said kindly, "Lin Fan, you're here?"

"Grandma, you look much better recently. You even have a lot more black hair," Lin Fan said.

Lin Fan was not just spouting nonsense.

He had the Sun Simiao's Medical Experience. With just a glance, he could observe the condition of the old lady's body.

Now, the old lady's body was indeed very healthy.

"Thanks to the tea leaves you sent me, I always feel very relaxed after drinking them."

Obviously, she was talking about Spirit Tea.

Then, Lin Fan accompanied Grandma and Su Ningjing. They started chatting.

When the sun set, delicious food was served on the table.

At this moment, the door was slowly pushed open.

Ah Mei walked in with her school bag. She could not help but exclaim, "How fragrant!"

When she saw Lin Fan, she jogged over and shouted happily, "Brother Lin!"

As she spoke, she threw herself into Lin Fan's embrace.

After leaving the mountains for a few months, Ah Mei's skin was much fairer than before.

Her pair of big blinking eyes made her look like a lively little fairy.

"Sis, go wash your hands first and get ready to eat!" Su Ningjing said.

"Alright!" Ah Mei replied.

In the past, whenever Grandma, Su Ningjing, and Sis ate, they always wanted Lin Fan to eat first.

However, after Lin Fan's repeated reminders, they could finally eat together.

The four of them enjoyed the meal.

Lin Fan stayed in the Washington Palace until 9 PM before driving the Cullinan toward the Coiling Dragon Villa.

After taking a cold shower, he lay down on the soft bed and fell asleep comfortably.

...

The night passed in the blink of an eye. I think you should take a look at panidasnovel.com

When Lin Fan opened his eyes, a ray of sunlight had already fallen on the windowsill.

He glanced at his phone.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 37,893,200 yuan was deposited into your account.]

Then, he casually said, "Sign in!"

[Ding! You have successfully signed in. Congratulations, you've received ten million yuan.]

Lin Fan chose to ignore all of this.

He lay on the bed for a while before getting up to wash up and eat breakfast.

Then, he drove the Cullinan to Jiangbei University.

Ever since the report on Riemann's Hypothesis, Lin Fan had been taking leave.

Counting the time, it had been a few days.

Logically speaking, most of the troublesome professors and reporters should have left.

Since that was the case, he naturally went to school.

After all, Lin Fan was also a professor at Jiangbei University and had a few students under him.

When Lin Fan drove into Jiangbei University, he could still see his own banner.

[Congratulations to Professor Lin Fan for successfully solving Riemann's Hypothesis!]

...

Lin Fan merely glanced at it casually and did not take it to heart.
heart.novelNext.com

Then, he walked straight to the office.

At this moment...

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Hao Zhiwu, Jiang Chaoqun, Liu Qianqian, Nie Zhenjiang, and the others were lying on the table and studying silently.

At that moment, Lil White, who was lying on Hao Zhiwu's shoulder, squinting its eyes as if it was about to fall asleep, let out a loud cry.

Then, it jumped down and rubbed against Lin Fan's feet.

"Master, you're finally here.

"I missed you so much.

"Master, can you give me something delicious?"

Lin Fan smiled and patted the cat's head. He tore open a bag of premium beef cat food and placed it in front of it.

Hao Zhiwu felt the weight on his shoulder lighten and immediately realized something. He said excitedly, "Professor Lin, you're here! The Riemann Hypothesis report you gave in the auditorium was so cool!"

Lin Fan said strangely, "You guys didn't go, right?"

After all, when he entered the venue that day, he deliberately looked at the audience and did not see his students.

"We heard about it from many people!" Hao Zhiwu said righteously.

Then, he picked up another journal and said a little embarrassed, "Professor Lin, if our names are listed as the second authors of Annual Mathematics like this... Isn't it inappropriate?"

Even though he said that, his entire face was filled with smiles.

One had to know...

Annual Mathematics was the top mathematics journal!

In this world, how many names could appear here?

Not to mention, he was a student in the biology department.

This was definitely an honor, a great honor!

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Xu Qianqian, Jiang Chaoqun, Nie Zhenjiang, and the others heard the conversation between the two people. They raised their heads one after another, and their faces were also full of excitement.

Lin Fan said, "Didn't I ask you guys to solve a function question last time?"

"Yeah." Hao Zhiwu nodded.

"Riemann's Hypothesis is also a function problem, so it's normal for your names to appear as the second author," Lin Fan said.

After all, his mission was to get his students to solve math problems, which was how he got the answer to Riemann's Hypothesis.

After Hao Zhiwu heard Lin Fan's words, he was at a loss.

They solved a function problem, and Riemann's Hypothesis was also a function problem, so their names could appear as the second authors?

However, the function question they answered was a very simple one!

What did this have to do with Riemann's Hypothesis?

Chapter 490 Thank You; Set Questions!

"Thank you, Professor Lin!" Hao Zhiwu said seriously.

From his point of view, Lin Fan had put down his name as the second author because he wanted to take care of him.

Riemann's Hypothesis was too important.

Even as a second author, it would still bring great benefits to him in the future.

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Nie Zhenjiang, Liu Qianqian, and Jiang Chaoqun also said, "Thank you, Professor Lin.

Lin Fan waved his hand casually and did not explain further. "Are there any unsolvable problems recently?"

Hao Zhiwu quickly took out a few pieces of draft paper.

...

Lin Fan first spent about an hour answering and explaining all the problems that they had encountered.

Then, he lay on the executive chair and leisurely played with his phone.

At this moment, there was the sound of brisk footsteps outside.

Shen Liang, the chancellor of Jiangbei University, and two middle-aged men in white shirts walked in slowly.

"Professor Lin, so you came to the office today?" Shen Liang smiled. "That's great."

"Yes, I did." Lin Fan touched his nose and said, "Chancellor Shen, why are you here?"

Not coming to school often made Lin Fan feel a little embarrassed. OverNext.Com

"Oh, these two are Director Liu and Director Huang from the Education Research Institute. They have something to say to you," Shen Liang said.

"Professor Lin, I've heard a lot about you."

"Hello, Professor Lin."

...

The two directors greeted Lin Fan and extended their right hands to him.

Lin Fan also extended his hand and greeted them.

At this time, Director Liu said, "Mr. Lin, if it's convenient, can we find a place to talk?"

Lin Fan did not mind and said, "Sure."

Lin Fan, Shen Liang, and the two directors left the office.

"Professor Lin is awesome!" Hao Zhiwu exclaimed sincerely.

It was no wonder that he would sigh like this.

One had to know...

Shen Liang was the chancellor of Jiangbei University!

He had always been the only one who people reported things to.

When had they ever seen him personally come looking for someone?

In addition, the Education Research Institute was an incredible institution.

Now, two directors had appeared!

...

Not long after, Lin Fan and the two directors arrived at the meeting room.

Shen Liang understood that these two directors probably had something to discuss with Lin Fan.

Therefore, he found an excuse and left first.

"Professor Lin, first of all, congratulations on solving Riemann's Hypothesis."

"It's just solving a problem. Director Liu, you're too polite."

Director Liu was stunned for a moment. It was just a problem?

However, this was Riemann's Hypothesis!

Perhaps, in this entire world, only Lin Fan could make this matter sound so light.

Director Liu coughed dryly and said, "Although you just solved a problem, it's a difficult problem that has troubled the world for nearly a hundred years..."

Lin Fan saw that he wanted to continue lamenting and interrupted, "Director Liu, why did you come to look for me?"

All along, Lin Fan did not like to listen to too much nonsense. It was too boring.

Director Liu seemed to have noticed this and continued, "The college entrance examination is about to be held. I wonder if you can help me come up with the final question for each of these four subjects—mathematics, physics, biology, and chemistry?"

When Lin Fan heard this, he was slightly stunned.

When he was in high school, the exam that he looked forward to the most was the college entrance examination.

Later, because her sister was seriously ill, he chose to give up on it.

He was now asked to set the college entrance examination questions? I think you should take a look at paπdasnovel.com

He could not take the college entrance examination back then, and now, he was the one preparing the questions for others?

This... It seemed like a pretty good thing!

Director Liu saw that Lin Fan did not reply and could not help but say, "I know that this might be a little too much for you, but if you do this, many high school students in Hua Nation will be very happy."

"Because many students look up to you as their role model!"

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Director Liu, you've misunderstood. I'm very happy to set the questions for the college entrance examination."

paΠdasNovel.com When Director Liu and Director Huang heard this, they both revealed a hint of joy.

"Really? This is great!"

"Thank you, Professor Lin."

...

Director Liu did not forget to remind him, "Since the college entrance examination is on June 7th, and we still need time to print the test papers..."

"Professor Lin, if it's possible, please prepare the questions before May 25th."

Lin Fan waved his hand and said, "It won't take that long. Did you bring a pen and paper?"

"Huh?" Director Liu was stunned for a moment and said, "Yes."

As he spoke, he handed over a pen and paper.

Lin Fan asked, "Do you have any requirements for the four final questions?"

Director Liu thought for a moment and said, "I don't have any specific requirements... As long as they can test the students' learning of the subject in the three years of high school, that'll be enough."

Lin Fan nodded thoughtfully. After thinking for about ten seconds, he picked up the ballpoint pen and started writing quickly on the paper.

After a while, the four questions appeared.

"These..." Director Liu was puzzled.

"Didn't you just ask me to prepare the questions for the college entrance examination? Here," Lin Fan said.

"Huh... So fast?" Director Liu stuttered.

After all, this was the college entrance examination they were talking about.

It was a major exam that involved the fate of millions of students!

It could also be said that... to be the most important exam in Hua Nation!

Lin Fan wrote down the questions just like that?

From the time he said he was going to set the college entrance examination questions to the time he wrote them, and there were a total of four questions, had it been a total of three minutes?

"It's just a few questions for high school students," Lin Fan said casually. "I don't have to think about it for too long."

Director Liu opened his mouth and looked at the questions in his hand. He then said helplessly, "Alright...Alright then. Although these questions might not necessarily appear on the college entrance examination papers.

"But Professor Lin, please keep this matter and these questions a secret."

In fact, if it was someone else who set the questions, it would definitely not be as simple as asking for confidentiality.

It would require going through a strict process.

However, Lin Fan was the one who invented the earthquake prediction device, the carbon-based photolithographic machine, the super battery, and the human islet recovery drug... He had different privileges.

Lin Fan said, "Don't worry, I know the rules."

"Is there anything else?" Lin Fan asked.

"No," Director Liu thought for a moment and said.

Hence, Lin Fan got up and prepared to leave.

At this moment, Director Liu could not help but call out to him again.

"Professor Lin, do you want to prepare a few more questions as backup?"

Lin Fan waved his hand and said, "There's no need. These questions are quite suitable."

After saying that, he walked forward without looking back.

Director Liu and Director Huang looked at each other and sighed.

...

As for the matter of the college entrance exam, Lin Fan was only a little happy when he first found out.

After that, he put the matter aside.

He had just turned into the corridor when he saw Shen Liang standing in front of him, overlooking the campus scenery below. He casually greeted him, "Chancellor, are you admiring the scenery?"

When Shen Liang heard this, he slowly turned around and said, "Yes... Yes, Professor Lin, you finished chatting with Director Liu and Director Huang so quickly?"

"Yes, we just exchanged a few words," Lin Fan said.
