

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 601 One Month; Golden Treasure Chest!

As the red forest descended, many people even hurriedly fled Yang City.

They were afraid that the red monsters would come out.

The government had even hurriedly mobilized armed soldiers, animal and plant experts, and other scholars to gather in front of the red forest.

They did not find any terrifying red monsters during their careful exploration.

On the contrary, they found that the air in the red forest was very fresh. After breathing in it for a period of time, the pain in their bodies gradually disappeared.

The longer they breathed in the air in the red forest, the stronger their bodies became.

It was extremely strange.

...

Lin Fan had no idea what was happening in the real world.

In the blink of an eye, another five days passed.

In these five days, Lin Fan did not encounter any beasts or monsters.

By relying on living in the Otherworld, Lin Fan gained a total of 800 Constitution points and 600 spiritual energy points.

Today, Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, and Sam continued to move forward in the wilderness.

At this moment, an emotionless voice sounded in the ears of everyone in the Otherworld.

"You've been in the Otherworld for 30 days. You've obtained a golden treasure chest."

Then, in front of Lin Fan and Sam, a chest shining with golden light appeared. Lin Fan had seen too many chests like this.

Therefore, with a calm expression, he reached out and opened it.

[You've obtained Beginner Earth Manipulation Technique. Do you want to use it?]

At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—Advanced Earth Manipulation Technique.]

Instantly, Lin Fan lowered his head and looked over. The originally hard ground was suddenly filled with countless tiny particles.

Lin Fan could clearly feel that as long as he willed it, these particles could gather with his thoughts and transform into different forms.

When Lin Fan raised his head, he realized that Sam was staring at the golden treasure chest in front of him.

If he had never used the things in the box before, it would have been fine.

However, Lin Fan had let him use it before.

Sam also knew that these chests contained very strange power.

Lin Fan said, "This is the reward from the Otherworld. Use it and see what you can get."

When Sam heard this, he hurriedly replied, "Yes, Master!"

Then, he opened the chest impatiently.

[You've obtained Beginner Gigantization Technique. Do you want to use it?]

Sam looked at the ball of light in the golden treasure chest and blinked.

Then, he looked at Lin Fan again.

Lin Fan said, "This is your skill. Use it."

Then, Lin Fan said to the Heavenly Hound, "Use this Beginner Earth Manipulation Technique."

Thus, Sam and the Heavenly Hound both touched the balls of light in front of them.

The balls of light circled around them and then entered their bodies.

Very soon, both of their faces revealed a hint of joy. I think you should take a look at

Lin Fan did not really care about the Beginner Earth Manipulation Technique.

That was because he himself had the Advanced Earth Manipulation Technique.

Lin Fan asked Sam, "What abilities does your Beginner Gigantization Technique have?"

"I can enlarge any part of my body!" Sam said excitedly.

As he spoke, his fist was like a balloon, constantly expanding.

Soon, it became a meter-long giant fist.

"Master, look! It's a fist bigger than a clay pot!" Sam said.

Lin Fan's lips twitched as a weird look appeared on his face.

...

Lin Fan and Sam knew that there were good things in the treasure chests.

However, those who had never successfully killed a ferocious beast did not know.

After living in the Otherworld for a month, the other heroes were all sallow and emaciated.

Therefore, when a chest appeared in front of them, they did not open it immediately but hurriedly avoided it.

They did not know if there would be any danger.

Of course, there were also some bold and curious people who picked up wooden sticks and pried open the box from afar, thus obtaining different abilities.

In Nashland's live broadcast room.

The host picked up the microphone and said excitedly, "Look! What happened? All six of our current heroes have obtained treasure chests. Let's see what kind of power they can obtain!"

Originally, there were more than ten heroes from Nashland who had entered the Otherworld.

At this moment, there were only six people left.

Some of these heroes were killed by ferocious beasts, while others starved to death...

There was even one person who walked into the mangroves and was eaten by the red monsters.

Fredo: [Six treasure chests! It seems that no country has ever obtained so many treasure chests!]

Irwin: [As expected, our country's luck is strong!]

MMM: [Why aren't you opening the treasure chest? Don't hesitate!]

ONE: [William has opened it. Oh my god, it's 300 points of Constitution. Ten points of Constitution is enough to make one like Superman. 300 points of Constitution... What kind of power will that have?]

WY: [Jani has also opened a treasure chest. Let me see... Lycanthropy! Could it be that he can transform into a werewolf? Wolverine! Amazing!]

Hero: [Kate is about to open it... Heavens! It's the Fog Controlling Spell! It sounds very powerful!]

...

Eagle Country's live broadcast room.

UU: [Andrew has opened the treasure chest! Is it a physical weapon? Heavens! His body can actually turn into a sharp blade. He's so strong now!]

pandasnovel.com Henry: [If that's the case, who can be his opponent in the future?]

Mark: [I knew it. Andrew must be the strongest.]

...

In Fray's live broadcast room.

K: [Qiao Yashu obtained 400 Constitution points!]

Chapter 602 One Month; Golden Treasure Chest! (2)

UA: [No way, no way! Then wouldn't Qiao Yashu become a muscular woman? God, no!]

...

In Japes' live broadcast room.

Sen Mu: [Hashimoto obtained Copper Skin Iron Bones? He's impenetrable now? Long live!]

Taro Ono: [In the future, only Hashimoto can fight the beasts and others. No one can harm him anymore!]

Ya Chen: [Long live Japes!]

...

In Bear Country's live broadcast room.

TT: [Alan's treasure chest is... Beginner Earthquake!]

Y: [Earthquake? Could it be that he can create an earthquake?]

Gulp: [An earthquake caused by human power? This is unbelievable!]

...

In Core's live broadcast room.

Li Zheng: [Hahaha! Li Jinxuan has obtained 500 Constitution points! How powerful is he now? He can definitely kill many ferocious beasts easily!]

Oppa: [Didn't many people praise Lin Fan before? Our Li Jinxuan is probably not worse than him now! Maybe even stronger! This is 500 points of Constitution!]

Gold: [If only Li Jinxuan met Lin Fan. Maybe he could kill Lin Fan with one punch and avenge Li Xianhao!]

...

Almost every country's live broadcast room was in an uproar.

When they saw their country's heroes die one after another, causing the country's resources, environment, and other aspects to continuously decline...

Everyone was in despair.

Now, they finally had a glimmer of hope.

The heroes of their own countries had obtained great power. In the future, they would no longer be afraid of the beasts of the Otherworld!

Through killing ferocious beasts and monsters to allow the country to obtain the corresponding resources...

Doomsday would not come!

...

Compared to the excitement of the other countries' live broadcasts...

Hua Nation's live stream was much calmer.

"Professor Lin didn't seem to use the skill in the treasure chest," Xiao Bing said. "Beginner Earth Manipulation Technique. Could it be the ability to control the earth?"

Take a Look: [I saw that the heroes of many countries on the foreign network have all obtained great power.]

Song: [Li Jinxuan of Corea has obtained 500 Constitution points. Now, many people in Corea say that Li Jinxuan can kill God Lin.]

On the Way Home: [Kill God Lin? This is probably the funniest joke I've ever heard.]

Mystery: Can Li Jinxuan withstand God Lin's sword, or can he resist being frozen, or can he withstand lightning? I'm about to laugh myself to death! How dare a mere mortal compare to an immortal?]

No Deal, No Harm: [There's no need to discuss Li Jinxuan at all. If we want to discuss, we should discuss the Heavenly Hound. I just want to say, why am I not the Heavenly Hound?!]

This sentence seemed to resonate with many people.

Then, the entire screen was filled with bullet comments. NovelNext.Com

Man in the Wind: [Why am I not the Heavenly Hound?!]

[Han Dynasty: [Why am I not the Heavenly Hound?!]

Servant: Why am I not the Heavenly Hound?!]

...

Countless people envied a dog.

It had to be said that this was indeed a little strange.

However, it was normal for such a situation to occur.

One had to know...

The Heavenly Hound had obtained many Constitution points, Beginner Fire Control, Beginner Light of Life, Beginner Earth Manipulation Technique, and many other skills.

As long as one obtained one of them, one would be a superhuman existence. How could this not make people envious?

...

After the heroes opened the treasure chests and experienced this magical power, an emotionless voice sounded in their ears again.

[Entering level-eight forbidden area.]

[Countdown, 10.]

[9!]

[8!]

...

When everyone heard this, they were at a loss.

None of them knew what the forbidden area was.

Meanwhile, the hearts of the audience in front of the screen tightened.

This was because everything was either broadcasted live or reported in the news. Most of them knew that there were extremely terrifying dangers in forbidden areas.

However, no matter what they thought, they could not stop the countdown.

As the last number fell, Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, Sam... as well as all the heroes in the Otherworld, suddenly disappeared from where they were.

In the next moment, they appeared in a relatively dark place.

Lin Fan removed his hand from the Heavenly Hound's head and muttered, "Sure enough, I can bring the Heavenly Hound in. Is this a level-eight forbidden area?"

He first silently sensed the changes in his body. He realized that this level-eight forbidden area was not like the mangroves that constantly absorbed the energy in his body. It was as if he had just changed his environment, and there was no other difference.

"Amazing!" Sam said excitedly. "Master, we suddenly came here! It was just like when he came from Earth.

"Master, is this the legendary Heaven and Earth Great Shift?!"

The Heaven and Earth Great Shift?

Lin Fan's mouth twitched, but he did not explain anything.

He randomly found a direction and said, "Let's go."

There might be many terrifying beasts and monsters in the forbidden area.

However, Lin Fan did not care at all.

In other words, he was looking forward to it.

That was because this meant that he could obtain more treasure chests and red packets.

Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, and Sam did not walk for long before they heard a sound from the forest not far away.

Sam immediately became alert. He clenched his fists and stood in front of Lin Fan.

Clearly, he was prepared to help Lin Fan fend off any danger.

Even though his actions were useless, Lin Fan still nodded his head silently.

In the next moment...

A man with a face covered in dust and wearing tattered clothes walked out of the forest.

When Sam saw that it was a human, he heaved a sigh of relief and said in English, "Hello, I'm Sam from Bai Nation. Who are you?"

The bearded man stuttered in English, "I am Hashimoto Musashi from Japes."

Then, he started to look at Sam and Lin Fan.

When Hashimoto Musashi saw the backpack behind Sam and the exposed roasted meat, his turbid eyes immediately lit up.

In the live broadcast room in Japes.

Feng Xingzi: [Is this the forbidden area? It's so dark. It looks so scary.]

Ikeda: [That's... Lin Fan! Hashimoto has met Lin Fan from Hua Nation!]

Natsuki: [Hashimoto, don't make Lin Fan your enemy...]

Tanabe: [Don't worry too much. Hashimoto has obtained Copper Skin Iron Bones. Even Lin Fan shouldn't be able to cause too much damage to Hashimoto. Furthermore, Hashimoto might not even fight Lin Fan.]

Moriguchi: [Hashimoto seems to be touching a gun!]

As soon as he said that, the comments suddenly stopped.

Everyone was focused on the live broadcast.

...

As the Japes audience expected, Hashimoto Musashi was indeed touching his gun.

"Don't move!"

Hashimoto Musashi revealed his yellow teeth and pointed his gun at Sam and Lin Fan.

"Don't move! Now, slowly put the bag behind you on the ground."

Sam had obtained 20 Constitution points and a gigantization skill. He had become a superhuman existence.

However, when he saw the black muzzle, a thin layer of sweat could not help but appear on his forehead.

Terrifying!

This was definitely the most terrifying thing he had faced!

Thus, Sam did as he was told and slowly placed the backpack on the ground.

Hashimoto Musashi nodded in satisfaction. Such a big bag of meat was enough for him to eat for a long time!

Then, he accidentally discovered that there was an animal that looked like a wolf or a dog at the side. His eyes lit up again.

"I didn't expect there to be a living animal! This way, I won't have to worry about food for a month!"

As he spoke, he could not help but swallow.

Lin Fan acted as if he did not see the gun pointed at him.

His expression remained the same. He looked down at the Heavenly Hound beside him and said, "That person wants to eat you."

When the Heavenly Hound heard this, it roared toward the sky, revealing its ferocious appearance.

Then, it rushed toward Hashimoto Musashi.

It was so fast!

It was so fierce!

Hashimoto Musashi was shocked and hurriedly fired.

However, there was no effect.

When he saw the sharp claws of the Heavenly Hound coming at him, he hurriedly turned his skin bronze.

[Skill: Copper Skin Iron Bones!]

Chapter 603 No Regrets; Strange Jar!

The Heavenly Hound did not seem to notice the change in Hashimoto Musashi, and its sharp claws continued to strike down without any pause.

A loud sound like metal clashing echoed throughout the scene.

Then, Hashimoto Musashi felt himself falling.

He saw his bronze skin and the metal bones in his body...

His upper body was actually neatly separated from his lower body!

In the next moment, Hashimoto Musashi's two halves landed heavily on the ground with a dull thud.

Hashimoto Musashi had always wanted to see what his bones had become after he obtained Copper Skin Iron Bones.

Now, it had finally become reality.

He... He could have no regrets!

It was also at this moment that Hashimoto Musashi's skill disappeared and his body returned to its original state.

Hot blood spurted out like a fountain.

Fortunately, the Heavenly Hound was fast, so its fur was not stained by the blood.

At this moment, an emotionless voice sounded in the ears of everyone in Japes.

[Hashimoto Musashi has died. The area of Japes has been reduced by 10%.]

...

Earth.

The Void Gate floating in the sky above Japes suddenly emitted wisps of black gas.

A huge wave crashed over from afar, instantly drowning the land that had been added not long ago.

At the same time, it also swallowed some of the buildings by the sea and the people who were playing.

In the live broadcast room.

The originally quiet livestream room began to become noisy after the sound in their ears.

Kitaoka: [Hashimoto is dead...]

Taro Oban: [This... This is not true.]

Cheese: [No!]

...

This video was quickly sent to Korea.

Originally, they were full of confidence in the Korean hero, Li Jinxuan. They were looking forward to him meeting a ferocious beast or Lin Fan.

From there, he could kill beasts and obtain more treasure chests or kill Lin Fan to avenge Li Xianhao.

However, at this moment, all the Koreans fell silent.

They prayed silently in their hearts that Li Jinxuan would not encounter a ferocious beast, let alone Lin Fan.

The other party... was simply too powerful.

Perhaps the prayers of the people from Korea had an effect.

Li Jinxuan indeed did not meet Lin Fan or any ferocious beasts.

However, he encountered many ceramic jars.

After Li Jinxuan arrived at the forbidden area, he appeared very calm.

He had obtained 500 Constitution points, so he felt that he was filled with endless strength. It was as if he had become Superman!

At this moment, Li Jinxuan felt that even if he faced a ferocious beast, he did not have to be afraid at all.

He first looked around and found that there were tall trees around him. There was nothing different. NovelNext.Com

Therefore, Li Jinxuan casually found a direction and strode forward.

He walked past the big trees and through the grass...

Many ancient ceramic jars with human faces engraved on them appeared in front of him.

"What are these things?" Li Jinxuan said lightly.

"Could there be something inside?"

Li Jinxuan's mind began to work.

He had once seen some movies where there would be some treasures in jars. In fact, the jars themselves were treasures.

Even though he was currently in the Otherworld...

pandasnovel.com Li Jinxuan felt that he would return to Earth one day.

At that time, these jars... and the things inside...

Thinking of this, Li Jinxuan walked forward to the mouth of a jar and prepared to investigate.

Just as he approached...

A crack appeared on one of the jars.

Then, black mucus flew out like an arrow and wrapped around Li Jinxuan. I think you should take a look at

Li Jinxuan was shocked and hurriedly struggled.

However, the amount of black mucus was increasing.

Soon, it completely enveloped Li Jinxuan.

Suddenly, the audience only saw a black thing that kept twisting.

A moment later, the black sticky liquid flew back into the jar.

However, Li Jinxuan had disappeared.

He... melted!

At the same time, an emotionless voice sounded in everyone's ears.

[Li Jinxuan's death will reduce the lifespan of Koreans by one year.]

A ball of black gas spread out from the Void Gate.

Suddenly, a driver's heart stopped, causing an accident.

A lecturer suddenly fell from the podium and stopped breathing.

The person who was drinking suddenly choked and spat out a large mouthful of blood.

...

In the live broadcast room of Coreia.

Li Oppa: [What exactly is that thing?]

Xuan Fan: [No! Li Jinxuan won't die.]

Seunmida: [It's too scary.]

Fans: [No!]

...

Hashimoto Musashi's death was just a small matter to Lin Fan.

As for Li Jinxuan's death, Lin Fan had no idea at all.

As usual, he walked forward unhurriedly.

...

Abraham, one of the heroes of Bear Country, was also in the forest of the level-eight forbidden area.

After opening the golden treasure chest, he had obtained 400 Constitution points, which gave him tyrannical strength.

At this moment, a three-meter-tall golden-furred bear stood in front of Abraham.

Abraham was nearly 1.9 meters tall.

However, he was still like a dwarf in front of the giant bear.

Even so, Abraham was not afraid.

On the contrary, he seemed very happy and said in his native language, "Yo! Bear! My country is called Bear Country! It's the country that gets along the best with bears!

"However, most of the bears in our world are gray."

The giant bear did not understand Abraham's words at all. It looked up and roared.

Then, it waved its ferocious claws and slapped down on Abraham.

Abraham's expression changed slightly, and he quickly flashed behind a big tree.

The terrifying power of the giant golden bear even caused the entire tree to tremble.

However, Abraham was not afraid.

"You attacked just now. Now, it's my turn!" He laughed excitedly.

As soon as he finished speaking, Abraham jumped up, raised his fist, gathered his strength, and smashed it toward the giant golden bear's chest.

The sound of something breaking through the air rang out.

The giant golden bear's huge body was sent flying several meters away.

The strength of 400 Constitution points was so tyrannical.

However, this did not cause fatal damage to the giant golden bear. It only broke a few of its bones.

A trace of blood seeped out from the corner of the giant golden bear's mouth.

It was injured!

It was injured by a weak worm!

The giant golden bear was completely enraged.

It roared at the sky and rushed toward Abraham like a speeding truck. It waved its claws and slapped Abraham again.

Abraham dodged to the side again.

The big tree in front of him fell down.

The giant golden bear's angry claws were so powerful!

"It's my turn!" Abraham shouted and jumped up to punch the golden bear.

However, the giant golden bear seemed to have expected this. Before Abraham's fist could hit him, it slapped him with its claws again.

Abraham's pupils constricted. He forcefully twisted his body in the air to avoid being sent flying by the giant golden bear.

Even so, the giant golden bear's sharp claws left a few scarlet scratch marks on Abraham's back.

Blood slowly fell to the ground.

Abraham panted heavily. "That's impressive. I can't fall behind!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he punched the giant golden bear.

A few more bones of the giant golden bear broke.

Then, the giant golden bear waved its claws again.

Abraham hurriedly dodged, but a few more scratches appeared on his body.

Just like that, the two of them attacked each other.

It could be said that every punch hit the flesh. It was very tough.

In the end, Abraham punched the golden bear's head.

The skull was broken, and the giant golden bear fell to the ground, quickly losing all its vitality.

At this moment, Abraham's entire body was covered in no less than 20 scratch marks. His entire body seemed to be soaked in blood, and he looked extremely miserable.

However, Abraham's face was full of smiles.

He had won.

Then, an emotionless voice sounded in his ears.

[The first to kill a level-four Golden Bear. You've obtained a level-four treasure chest.]

[The first to kill a level-four Golden Bear. The lifespan of Bear Country citizens has increased by one year.]

Then, an ancient chest appeared in front of him.

Abraham had already opened such chests before and knew that there was something good inside them.

Therefore, he did not hesitate to open it.

[You've obtained Beginner Sound Wave Technique. Do you want to use it?]

"Of course, I do!" Abraham said.

The ball of light in the box instantly entered his body.

Abraham's throat moved, and a strange power surged up and down his mind.

Before he could try it out, he heard brisk footsteps not far away.

A tall and handsome man, a dog, and a brown-skinned man slowly appeared in his field of vision.

It was Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, and Sam.

Sam hurriedly stood in front of Lin Fan and said in English, "Who are you?"

Not long ago, he had already experienced being threatened by Hashimoto Musashi. He was on guard with all new people.

Moreover, Abraham was covered in blood, which made him look dangerous. Naturally, he had to be more careful.

When Abraham saw Lin Fan and Sam, he was not as wary.

He seemed very happy and said in English, "I'm Abraham from Bear Country! I finally met the people from Earth. Who are you?"

"I'm Sam from Bai Country," Sam said.

"I'm Lin Fan from Hua Nation," Lin Fan said.

Lin Fan's impression of Bear Country was not bad.

In addition, Abraham did not show any hostility.

Hence, Lin Fan's tone of introduction was rather polite.

Abraham became even happier.

"So it's Bai Country and Hua Nation!"

"I often buy things in Hua Nation. They're very practical and beautiful!"

After a few words, their relationship became much closer.

Lin Fan said, "You seem to have a lot of injuries. Do you need treatment?"

"They're just small injuries." Abraham waved his hand. "They'll heal very quickly." "I think you should take a look at

In fact, that was exactly the case.

That was because he had 400 Constitution points.

Not only did they increase his strength, but they also increased his speed and recovery ability.

Lin Fan nodded his head.

"We're all Earthlings," Abraham said. "We should be traveling together in the Otherworld. It'll be safer if we can take care of each other.

"However, I feel that we should face danger alone in the Otherworld. Only then can we continue to grow.novelnext.com

"So, I won't be with you guys anymore.

"In fact, I think it's best for the two of you to leave separately."

"I want to be with Master all the time," Sam said immediately.

Abraham nodded thoughtfully and said, "Teacher and student?"

He felt his wounds gradually scab over and said, "It's about time. I'll be leaving first. Lin Fan, Sam, goodbye."

Abraham waved his hand and strode forward.

Lin Fan and Sam said, "Goodbye."

This scene appeared in Bear Country's live broadcast room.

Abraham had killed a level-four Golden Bear and obtained Beginner Sound Wave Technique.

At the same time, the lifespan of the citizens of Bear Country also increased by one year.

This was undoubtedly... something that made the people of Bear Country very happy.

However, at this moment, in Bear Country's live broadcast room, the comments were full of accusations against Abraham.

Mavis: [Heavens! Abraham actually rejected Lin Fan!]

Basil Bo: [What a great opportunity!]

Bunian: [Alone? Grow? God, Abraham, do you know what you've lost?]

Dean: [One year of lifespan? What's the use of one year of lifespan? Why didn't you follow Lin Fan?]

Armand: [He's gone, and he's walking so fast.]

Bodley: [Lin Fan even asked him if he needed treatment. Lin Fan... Even that Heavenly Hound could heal Abraham very quickly, and he still said they were just small injuries.]

Adolf: [That's right. Even if you want to leave, you should at least let Lin Fan treat you before you leave.]

Nanni: [He'll never know how wrong his choice was.]

...

Naturally, Lin Fan did not know the reaction of the people from Bear Country.

Since Abraham did not want to follow him, Lin Fan did not want to force him to stay.

He looked at Abraham's back and chose another direction.

Not long after Lin Fan left, a crisp notification sounded out in his mind.

[Ding! You've walked 1,000,000 steps in the Otherworld. You've obtained Skill Replication.]

Replication?

Lin Fan was curious and focused his attention.

[Skill Replication: Able to copy the abilities of others at will. You can easily learn other people's abilities and even obtain stronger abilities, thus displaying your unique charm.]

Seeing this, Lin Fan's eyes lit up.

If he had obtained Skill Replication before the appearance of the Otherworld, Lin Fan would not have felt that it would be of much use.

After all, his driving, mathematics, physics, chemistry, and other skills were far superior to ordinary people.

However, after the appearance of the Otherworld, such a skill had its uses.

This was because after killing a ferocious beast in the Otherworld, one could open a treasure chest and obtain power or different abilities.

Not long ago, after surviving for 30 days, everyone opened a treasure chest and obtained abilities.

Lin Fan should be able to find abilities worth replicating.

Then, Lin Fan turned his body and looked at Sam.

He had an ability... Beginner Gigantization Technique.

[Skill Replication: Beginner Gigantization Technique!]

Chapter 605 Level-Eight Hellwater, Killed!

Lin Fan felt his body warming up.

Then, he began to understand.

As long as he willed it, he could gather energy and make his body thicker and bigger. It was very magical.

The corners of Lin Fan's lips curled up slightly, and his footsteps became lighter.

In the distance, a gust of chilly wind suddenly blew over.

Sam could not help but shiver and say, "Why did it suddenly become cold?"

In the next moment...

Ceramic jars appeared in front of them.

The sight was eerie and strange.

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing said, "Ceramic jars suddenly appeared."

Qingchuan Calendar Hanyang Tree: [Ceramic jars? Are there humans in the Otherworld?]

Spring Won't Come Back: [Are these ceramic jars antiques?]

123 Wooden Man: [God Lin is rich.]

Flower: [Does God Lin lack money?]

I Love the Sun: [The man-eating ceramic jars!]

Mary: [Yes! They're man-eating ceramic jars! Not long ago, one had eaten Li Jinxuan from Korea!]

Waiting for You in the Wind: [God Lin, be careful.]

...

The Heavenly Hound sniffed and called out softly.

Lin Fan's heart skipped a beat.

He could understand the words of the Heavenly Hound.

"There's something in the jars."

However, Lin Fan did not care too much about it.

There was something in the jars?

What could it be?

Could it be a monster?

Lin Fan was curious.

Perhaps, it was the Heavenly Hound's bark that had disturbed the jars.

A jar nearby suddenly cracked.

In the next moment...

A stream of black sticky liquid flew toward the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound was slightly shocked. It waved its sharp claws and instantly shattered the black sticky liquid.

Following that, several jars beside cracked.

Several strands of black sticky liquid flew toward the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound either dodged quickly or attacked with its claws, constantly shattering the sticky liquid.

The number of cracked jars increased, and the volume and quantity of the black viscous liquid also increased.

Finally, the Heavenly Hound started to panic.

However, the Heavenly Hound was not to be trifled with. It roared toward the sky and spat out a huge fireball, dispersing and melting the black liquid.

Perhaps it was because the flames had burned the jars or the Heavenly Hound had completely enraged the black liquid...

All of the ceramic jars suddenly cracked, and endless black liquid spread out. It covered the sky and the sun. The place vaguely turned into a black ocean that filled the sky.

It was terrifying!

Then...

The rolling black liquid suddenly gathered and condensed.

It formed a giant monster that was about ten meters tall, with scarlet eyes and sharp fangs.

The monster roared, stirring up a gust of wind.

The wind blew the trees and leaves. It was extremely terrifying.

Even the Heavenly Hound could not help but feel its fur stand on end when it faced this monster, and its expression turned grim.

Sam's legs gave way, and he fell to the ground.

This was the natural reaction of the weak when they saw the strong.

Lin Fan's face was filled with curiosity.

"A monster transformed from the black liquid?"

"It seems quite interesting."

"Right, it seems to be afraid of fire." "I think you should take a look at

As the sound of Lin Fan's voice faded, a sea of fire rose up around him.

The sea of fire quickly condensed into a ten-meter-long flaming sword.

Lin Fan spat out one word, "Slash!"

[Skill: Sword 3!]

The flames and sword light intertwined.

The entire space seemed to have been sucked into a vacuum in an instant. It was silent.

In the distance, a gust of wind suddenly blew.

The surface of the huge monster was like a piece of ceramic that had been baked for too long, and fiery red cracks appeared on its surface.

In the next moment, the monster shattered into countless tiny black hard objects that fell to the ground with a dull sound.

The trees within a radius of hundreds of meters shattered like bubbles, turning into dust that filled the sky.

Then, an emotionless voice rang out in Lin Fan's ears.

[First to kill level-eight Hellwater. You've obtained a level-eight treasure chest.]

[First to kill level-eight Hellwater. Hua Nation's oil has increased by 50%.]

Lin Fan did not wait any longer and opened the treasure chest in front of him.

[500 Constitution points. Do you want to use them?]

At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—5,000 Constitution points.]

The surging power was like a tidal wave that surged within Lin Fan's body, causing his muscles and bones to start squirming.

Lin Fan looked at Sam, who was lying on the ground, and said, "Go and use your 500 Constitution points."

They had spent the past few days together.

Even though Lin Fan had never thought of taking Sam as his disciple, he had a good impression of him.

Every time a stronger monster appeared, Sam would instinctively be frightened. It was not a good sight.

Therefore, it was necessary to give him 500 Constitution points.

Sam was still in a daze.

As a result, he did not even hear Lin Fan.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan waved his hand, and the light ball entered Sam's body.

In an instant, Sam's muscles grew rapidly, and the surging energy pulled him back to reality.*noVeln*ext.co*M*

Sam looked at his hands in disbelief. "This... This..."

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

"Professor Lin is amazing!" Xiao Bing said excitedly.

Feng Clan: [I knew that God Lin was the strongest!]

God: [Awesome!]

Hongda: [The black liquid in those porcelain jars can actually fuse! Level-eight Hellwater. It's a bit like poison.]

Cold Air Comes: [I told you, God Lin is a one-hit Superman!] He killed level-eight Hellwater with a single strike. Moreover, he used a flaming sword. It was so cool!]

Pfft: [Hua Nation's oil production has increased by 50%! Now, we don't have to worry about energy anymore. Thank you, God Lin.]

Bai Yang: [Thank you, God Lin.]

Messy: [Thank you, God Lin.]

...

In reality, it was not just the Hua people who were thanking Lin Fan.

Some people in Bai Country were also thanking Lin Fan.

When Gilbevan's family saw Sam encounter the ceramic jars, especially when they saw the endless black liquid coming out of the jars, they were so scared that their faces turned pale.

When they saw Lin Fan kill the level-eight Hellwater and give the 500 Constitution points to Sam, the entire family jumped up in joy.

"Sam has obtained 500 Constitution points!"

"Sam has become even stronger than Superman!"

"Thank you, Master!"

paπdasNovel.com "Thank you, Master!"

"Master isn't at home. We have to thank Grandpa, Grandma, and Aunt!"

"That's right!"

Thus, Gilbevan's family rushed to Lin Fan's house and called Lin Tao, Dai Weixue, Lin Xiaoyao, "Grandpa," "Grandma," and "Aunt" respectively non-stop.

Lin Tao, Dai Weixue, and Lin Xiaoyao opened their mouths, wanting to stop them.

In the end, they could only sigh.

Chapter 606 Granny Tree Demon; Nie Xiaoqian?

Sam felt the endless energy in his body and was at a loss.

"Thank you, Master!" he said excitedly after a while.

Lin Fan did not reply. Instead, he looked ahead.

Perhaps, it was because killing the level-eight Hellwater had caused too much of a commotion.

Ten monsters that were about two meters tall, wearing bronze armor and holding long halberds, rushed over from afar.

Their eyes were scarlet, and their bodies were filled with a murderous aura.

It was awe-inspiring and terrifying.

Lin Fan muttered, "There are jars and armored warriors? There should have been people living in the Otherworld before, right?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Fan's palm shook gently.

The flaming longsword that had yet to dissipate transformed into a beautiful sword flower in the air. NovelNext.Com

The bronze-armored warriors that were charging at them shattered like bubbles.

Only the smoke and dust in the air proved that they had appeared not long ago.

At this moment, an emotionless voice sounded.

[The first to kill a level-six Armored Battle Team. You've obtained a level-six treasure chest.]

[The first to kill a level-six Armored Battle Team. An energy mine has appeared in Hua Nation.]

Lin Fan opened the treasure chest in front of him.

[You've obtained 600 points of spiritual energy. Do you want to use them?]

At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—6,000 points of spiritual energy.]

Lin Fan's entire body felt refreshed, and his thoughts were extremely clear.

Then, he said to the Heavenly Hound, "Use these 600 points of spiritual energy."

The Heavenly Hound placed its paw on the ball of light.

The ball of light circled around the Heavenly Hound once before entering its body.

Instantly, the Heavenly Hound's eyes flashed with a faint light.

It was also at this moment that another emotionless voice appeared at the scene.

[First to help a level-seven Heavenly Hound reach level eight. You've obtained a level-four treasure chest.]

[First to help a level-seven Heavenly Hound reach level eight. Hua Nation's pollution has reduced by 10%.]

Lin Fan did not expect to get another treasure chest. He opened it casually.

[You've obtained 200 Constitution points. Do you want to use them?]

Instantly, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—2,000 Constitution points.]

His strength rose again.

Lin Fan said to the Heavenly Hound, "Use these 200 Constitution points."

After all, he had already obtained 2,000 Constitution points because of the Heavenly Hound.

These 200 Constitution points would be the Heavenly Hound's reward.

The Heavenly Hound did not hesitate and placed its paw on the ball of light.

Its white fur shook, and its strength increased.

The enemies in front had been wiped out. Lin Fan did not have any intention of staying there.

The two people and the dog walked forward at a brisk pace.

The sky gradually darkened.

At this moment, a large bird flew over the treetops above their heads.

Lin Fan willed.

[Skill: Gravity Control!]

The giant bird fell to the ground as if it had been crushed by a mountain.

Sam had seen similar situations several times.

Therefore, he was not surprised.

He seized the time to gather firewood and prepare to roast the meat.

In the past, there were many dead trees on the ground.

pandasnovel.com However, today, Sam searched for a long time but could not find a single dead tree.

While Sam was trying to find the dead wood, he did not notice that a branch behind him suddenly shook.

No!

It was not just one branch, but all the branches shook. I think you should take a look at

Then, the branches surrounded Sam like tentacles.

The Heavenly Hound in the distance barked.

Then, it charged forward and cut off all the branches with his sharp claws.

Lin Fan heard the noise and walked over.

At this moment, all the surrounding trees seemed to have come alive. They kept shaking, and their branches danced wildly.

In fact...

Not only did the branches around Lin Fan shake, but when night fell, all the trees in the forbidden area came alive.

Sam had the Heavenly Hound block the branches. They did not dare to act rashly.

The others who were also in the forbidden area were not so lucky.

Some people were hung in the air by tree branches.

Someone was wrapped up like a dumpling.

Some people were chased by the branches and fled quickly.

...

In Nashland's live broadcast room.

"Oh, my god!" the host exclaimed in surprise. "What happened? This mustn't be true! I actually saw all the trees move."

Mike: [Host, you're not mistaken. The big trees are indeed moving.]

Allen: [This is too strange!]

Henry Fett: [Oh, no! Our hero is entangled by a tree branch, and he can't break free!]

MMM: [Someone save him!]

...

Eagle Country's live broadcast room.

Phoebus: [What is this place?]

FF: [Those trees are like terrifying monsters.]

8888: [No! He was caught!]

...

Compared to the shock and uneasiness of the other countries, the scene in Hua Nation's live broadcast room was very different.

Whose Youth is Not Lost: [Tree demons? Are they all tree demons?]

Shan Ye: [There are so many tree demons. Could there be a granny tree demon?]

Wind: [Granny tree demon? Wouldn't that mean that Nie Xiaoqian might be involved?]

Flower: [I wonder if Nie Xiaoqian from the Otherworld is good-looking.]

...

Who would have thought that the Hua audience would not be nervous or worried at all in such a critical moment?

Instead, they were concerned about Nie Xiaoqian.

It was because they believed in Lin Fan's strength. They believed that he would not be in danger.

The truth was just as everyone had expected.

Lin Fan looked at the swaying trees and muttered, "During the day, these trees don't move... Do they only move at night?"

Just as Lin Fan was muttering to himself, the surrounding branches turned into tentacles once more and pounced toward Lin Fan.

"Are you in such a hurry?" Lin Fan hollered and pulled out his sword.

[Sword 1: Draw the sword and slash the heavens!]

Several rays of light flashed, and the branches that flew over were all broken.

The surrounding trees were almost all bald.

However, the surface of these bald branches emitted a ray of light, and at a speed visible to the naked eye, dense branches grew out.

At the same time, the energy in Lin Fan, Sam, and the Heavenly Hound's bodies suddenly decreased.

Lin Fan said, "So it can absorb the energy of others to replenish itself?"

"Looks like... we need to end this quickly."

"Fire is more suitable for restraining trees."

As the sound of his voice faded, Lin Fan's entire body was engulfed in flames, lighting up the dark sky.

Lin Fan picked up the Star Meteorite Sword and waved it in the air.

In the next moment, all the flames suddenly gathered and condensed, turning into countless fire swords hovering in the air.

"Go!" Lin Fan said softly.

[Sword 9: 10,000 swords strike together!]

Chapter 607 Destroyed; Envy!

Lin Fan's voice was not loud.

However, it was like the voice of a god, ethereal and vast.

It rippled through the entire forest.

In the next moment, the countless fire swords that were hovering in the air shot out in all directions.

Wherever the fire sword passed by, the tree trunks and branches broke and burned rapidly, turning into ashes in an instant.

No!

Not only were the trees attacked, but many bronze-armored warriors and all kinds of ferocious beasts in the forbidden area were also attacked and turned into ashes.

As for those that were wrapped in branches, those who were chased by branches, and those who were entangled by branches... all of them landed on the ground safely.

They looked at the flaming longswords flying in front of them and were stunned.

A moment later, the fire swords disappeared and the trees dissipated.

The entire forbidden area became bare. There were no longer any trees, only flying smoke and dust.

At this moment, a series of emotionless voices rang out in Lin Fan's ears.

[The first to kill a level-six Black Python. You've obtained a level-five treasure chest.]

[The first to kill a level-six Black Python. Hua Nation's air quality has increased by 10%.]

[The first to kill a level-seven Tigerhawk. You've obtained a level-six treasure chest.]

...

[The first to destroy a level-eight forbidden area. You've obtained a level-eight treasure chest.]

[The first to destroy a level-eight forbidden area. A forbidden area has descended Hua Nation.]

In the next moment...

Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, Sam, and all the other heroes who were still in a daze disappeared from the level-eight forbidden area.

Then, they returned to the location where they had opened the 30-day golden treasure chest.

In front of Lin Fan, a few treasure chests appeared.

Lin Fan did not hesitate as he opened the chests one by one.

[300 Constitution points. Do you want to use them?]

[200 points of spiritual energy. Do you want to use them?]

[400 Constitution points. Do you want to use them?]

...

At the same time, Lin Fan's mind was filled with the crisp sound of notifications.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—3,000 Constitution points.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—2,000 points of spiritual energy.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—4,000 Constitution points.]

...

His strength and spiritual energy were both growing rapidly.

Lin Fan felt extremely carefree.

Finally, he turned his attention to the mysterious treasure chest.

[You've obtained Beginner Wood Controlling Technique. Do you want to use it?]

A clear notification sounded in his mind again.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—Advanced Wood Controlling Technique.]

Instantly, within Lin Fan's vision, the ground, rocks, and various other places were all filled with dense wood attribute particles.

Lin Fan had a very vivid feeling that as long as he willed it, these wood attribute particles would quickly gather together and grow into a lush green field of grass and towering trees.

Incredibly marvelous!

Lin Fan's lips curled up. Clearly, he was in a good mood.

Then, he said to the Heavenly Hound, "Use these things."

The Heavenly Hound called out softly.

It wagged its tail and touched the balls of light with its claws.

As the orbs of light entered the Heavenly Hound's body, its aura became even more tyrannical. I think you should take a look at

Lin Fan looked at the bird in his hand and said, "Go and get some firewood."

When the Heavenly Hound and Sam heard this, they hurriedly brought over a large pile of firewood.

The fire was lit after the seasonings were applied to the meat.

Soon, a fragrance filled the air.

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing praised sincerely, "He's so powerful!"

Protect the World Flame: [This is the power of martial arts! There were so many swords!]

Shanchuan: [Me too, I'm suddenly not short-sighted anymore!]

Sun: [Is the forbidden area that powerful? I've been nearsighted for many years. I'm going to Quan City now!]

Blockhead: [I'll go too!]

...

Many people set off for Quan City.

Some people wanted to be treated for shortsightedness like the people in Quan City.

Some people wanted to see if they could treat other illnesses.

After all, if one could recover from vision-related ailments, one might be able to recover from other illnesses as well.

There were also some people who were curious.

However, when these people arrived at Quan City, they were stopped by a large group of investigators and soldiers.

From now on, Quan City would be strictly managed.

In Nashland's live broadcast room.

The host jumped up excitedly and shouted, "Oh my god! What did I just see? A bunch of flaming longswords flew over from the sky? They burned down all the trees!

"I know, God must have saved them!"

Jack: [The heroes are fine. That's great!]

Fred: [Just now... What exactly happened?]

Galen: [Amazing!]

Abbott: [The flaming longswords remind me of a mage.]

Job: [It's Lin Fan. It's Hua Nation's Lin Fan. He's the man who's called a god! He shot out countless flaming swords and destroyed the entire level-eight forbidden area. It's simply unbelievable.]

Klaus: [Is it too late to join Hua Nation now?]

This sentence seemed to resonate with many people.

Therefore, on that day, many people came to Hua Nation to become Hua citizens.

Unfortunately, they were destined to make a wasted trip.

That was because the Hua household registration was not something that could be obtained just because one wanted to.

Chapter 608 Attacked; Goodbye!

Lin Fan had no idea what was going on in the real world.

After he was full, he drew a circle of 200 square meters, took out his sleeping bag, and went to sleep comfortably.

...

In the blink of an eye, it was the second day.

Just like usual.

Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, and Sam found a direction and started walking.

Not long after, Lin Fan heard a notification in his mind.

[Ding! You've been in the Otherworld for 744 hours. You've obtained Beginner Time Spell.]

Instantly, countless flowing time particles appeared in Lin Fan's vision.

Lin Fan willed the time particles to freeze.

The leaves that were about to fall, the big bird that was flying in the air, the small snake that was crawling in the distance, and Sam, who had just taken a step...The space seemed to have been frozen, and everything instantly stopped moving.NovelNext.Com

No!

It was not only this space, but the same thing occurred on Earth.

Lin Fan picked up a leaf in the air and tossed it casually.

The fallen leaf seemed to have frozen in the air again.

Lin Fan's lips curled up. Not a bad ability!

Then, his mind moved slightly.

In the next moment, the time particles resumed flowing.

The leaves slowly fell, the big bird in the sky continued to fly, the little snake kept slithering, and Sam took a firm step forward...

Everything returned to normal.

The people watching the live broadcast on Earth were still eating and sending comments...

No one noticed anything unusual.

In the blink of an eye, five days had passed.

In the past few days, Lin Fan had encountered a few ferocious beasts.

However, he did not even need to make a move. All of them were taken care of by the Heavenly Hound.

In addition, Lin Fan had obtained 800 Constitution points and 600 spiritual energy points from the system.

...

The hero of Li Country was called Eugene Giles.

He was a sniper from a dark organization.

After Eugene Giles was selected, he prepared two sniper rifles and a large bag of bullets.

Most of the heroes who arrived in the Otherworld were in a sorry state.

When they encountered ferocious beasts, they would either be eaten or flee in panic.

At the same time, they prayed silently in their hearts that they would not encounter any more ferocious beasts.

Eugene Giles was completely different.

After he arrived in the Otherworld, he found a high vantage point and used his superb shooting ability to shoot the eye of a giant lion with a snake tail. He obtained 20 points of spiritual energy.

Immediately, Eugene Giles' perception and shooting ability were greatly improved.

This allowed Eugene Giles to experience the benefits of hunting.

Therefore, he began to actively hunt fierce beasts.

Later on, not only did he hunt ferocious beasts, he also chose to kill people when he met them.

This was because most humans had resources on them.

In a month, Eugene Giles had killed four beasts and five humans.

Today, as usual, he found a hidden spot.

Then, like a wooden stake, he stood there motionless.

...

In Li Country's live broadcast room.

Barry: [I wonder if Eugene Giles will encounter a ferocious beast today.]

Huston: [It's just that... Eugene Giles likes to kill people. He's a little scary.]

Norton: [Scary? This is the law of the jungle! Survival of the fittest!]

Job: [That's right! In addition, I like seeing him kill people. One shot! Bang! He's so handsome!]

Klaus: [Eugene Giles, you're the best! You are our hero!]

Hero?

That was right!

Eugene Giles was indeed a hero.

After he killed the four beasts, Li Nation's land area, oil, ores, and air quality had all increased. I think you should take a look at

At this moment, Eugene Giles, who was originally motionless, suddenly curled his lips.

"There's another prey," he whispered.

A tall and handsome figure, a brownish-skinned man, and an animal that looked like a wolf or dog appeared in his scope.

They were Lin Fan, Sam, and the Heavenly Hound.

"Not bad!" Eugene Giles said. "There's a lot of food in the guy's backpack. There's even a dog. It seems... I can eat my fill for a long time."

...

In Li Country's live broadcast room.

The originally excited atmosphere immediately changed.

Xiu Mu: [It's Lin Fan!]

MAKING: [Wait, Eugene Giles, what are you doing?]

John: [Eugene Giles, don't! Don't shoot!]

Armstrong: [Don't shoot!]

...

The entire screen was filled with warnings.

That was because they all knew just how powerful and terrifying Lin Fan was.

He was a true god.

Guns would probably be useless on him.

Once Eugene angered the other party, the consequences would definitely be terrifying.

...

All these attempts to stop and persuade Eugene were obviously useless.

Eugene's lips curled up slightly. "Goodbye!"

He pulled the trigger three times.

Three golden bullets pierced through the air and shot toward the heads of Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, and Sam.

When the bullets were only half a meter away from them, Lin Fan suddenly raised his head.

It was also at this moment that the three bullets froze in the air.

No!

It was not just the bullets that stopped in the air.

The Heavenly Hound that took a step forward, the leaves above its head, and the big bird that was flying in the air... all stopped in the air.

[Skill: Beginner Time Spell!]

Lin Fan looked at Eugene Giles and said, "Killing people with guns?"

paΠdasNovel.com As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Fan slowly turned the bullets in the air.

It was also at this moment...

The front leg of the Heavenly Hound continued to move forward, the fallen leaves slowly drifted down, and the big bird continued to fly...

The golden bullets flew back to where they came from.

Three soft sounds were heard.

Three bullets simultaneously pierced through Eugene Giles' head, who was hiding in the distance. His entire head instantly exploded. Red and white shot out, making it extremely bloody.

"Master, there seems to be gunshots. Is there a battle?" Sam asked.

As he spoke, he kept looking around.

Lin Fan smiled. "You heard wrong. Let's go."

He did not stop and walked ahead leisurely.

The Heavenly Hound looked at the spot where Eugene Giles had fallen and followed behind Lin Fan.

"Did I hear wrong?" Sam scratched his head.

Then, he caught up to Lin Fan.

...

On the other hand, an emotionless voice sounded in everyone's ears.

[Eugene Giles has died. Li Country's desert area has increased by 20%.]

Suddenly, a wisp of dense black gas spread out from the Void Gate.

In an instant, a city in Li Country turned into a desert. Countless buildings collapsed like broken shadows.

Some people who lived in the city stood in the scorching desert with blank expressions.

A gust of wind blew many people into a mouthful of sand. Some were even buried in the boundless desert.

Awe-inspiring, terrifying!

Despair!

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing said, "The scenery in the Otherworld is really good."

BroadSky: [I think I heard gunshots too.]

Omen: [They're gunshots! Eugene Giles from Li Country just shot at God Lin! However, God Lin is fine, but Eugene Giles had his head blown off.]

Zhao Hai: [F*ck! I just saw the live broadcast of Li Country. Eugene Giles died so tragically, but it feels good!]

1314: [Hahaha! He even dared to shoot God Lin. He probably didn't even know how he died, right?]

...

Naturally, Lin Fan had no idea about the reactions of Hua Nation and Li Country.

Killing Eugene Giles was just a small matter.

He did not take it to heart at all.

Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, Sam, and the rest had just left when an emotionless voice suddenly sounded in their ears.

[Entering level-nine forbidden area, countdown!]

[10!]

[9!]

[8!]

...

The same voice rang in the ears of everyone in the Otherworld.

Most of the people had a look of fear on their faces.

This was because they still clearly remembered how terrifying the level-eight forbidden area was.

In fact, many had almost died inside.

What would the level-nine forbidden area be like this time?

No matter what they thought, it was obviously useless.

[1!]

As the emotionless voice fell, Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, Sam, and all the heroes from the other countries disappeared from where they were.

In the next moment, everyone appeared in the vast desert.

A dazzling sun hung in the air like a fireball.

Hot sweat dripped down their faces.

"It's so hot," Sam said. "Is the level-nine forbidden area in the desert? There are also cacti there, a huge number of them!"

"But what danger can there be in the desert?"

As soon as Sam finished speaking, the distance suddenly became foggy.

Then, it covered the sky and the sun.

"Sandstorm!" Sam's pupils constricted as he shouted. "Master, there's a sandstorm ahead!"

After saying that, he hurriedly looked around as if he was looking for a place to hide.

However, he soon realized that he was surrounded by yellow sand and there was no way to seek shelter.

"Master, what should we do?" Sam asked anxiously. "It's such a huge sandstorm. We might be buried alive!"

"This isn't a sandstorm," Lin Fan said.

"Not a sandstorm?" Sam was stunned.

Then, he looked forward again.

Soon, he frowned and said, "It's a sandstorm... Ah! No!

"Bugs, so many bugs!"

Black carapace with sharp antennae...

That was right!

There was an uncountable number of bugs.

It was not a sandstorm!

"Why are there so many bugs? They're flying toward us!" Sam shouted. I think you should take a look at

At this moment, the dense swarm of bugs was getting closer and closer to Lin Fan and the others.

When they passed by the cacti, the number of cacti decreased at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Soon, there was nothing left.

These bugs actually possessed terrifying destructive power!

"Master, what should we do?" Sam shouted in horror.

"It's fine," Lin Fan said casually.

The insects flew extremely fast.

100 meters.

90 meters.

...

In the blink of an eye, the dense swarm of bugs had reached ten meters away.

Seeing this...

Sam's forehead was covered in sweat.

Firstly, it was from the heat.

Secondly, it was from fear.

There were simply too many bugs. Just their numbers alone were enough to make one's scalp tingle.

Moreover, they had terrifying destructive power.

At this moment, the densely packed insects suddenly lit up with raging flames.

However, these flames did not cause much damage to the bugs. They continued flapping their wings and turned into fireballs that filled the sky as they continued to fly toward Lin Fan and the others.

Lin Fan was slightly surprised, "Oh? Resistant to fire?"

Then, he said thoughtfully, "Could it be because they've been living in the desert for a long time?"

"If you're not afraid of fire, what about ice?"

Lin Fan willed the ice particles to condense.

A thick layer of ice immediately formed on the bugs that were originally burning with flames.

Then, the bugs that filled the sky turned into huge ice cubes and fell to the desert with a dull sound.

This scene stunned Sam. His mouth was half open, and he could not speak for a long time.

After a while, an emotionless voice rang out.

[First to kill a level-six Desert Army Locust. You've obtained a level-six treasure chest.]

[First to kill a level-six Desert Army Locust. The number of endangered creatures in Hua Nation has increased by 50%.]

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing was stunned. "It's hailing in the desert."

Whose Fault I'm Lonely: [F*ck! When those bugs appeared, they almost scared me to death! Fortunately, they were frozen in the blink of an eye!]

Without a Trace: [Was this also done by God Lin?]

Warm Wine: [Of course, this was done by God Lin! Other than him, who else could make a miracle like this, having hail appear in the desert? God Lin is so awesome!]

Boiling Water: [Endangered creatures have increased by 50%. If God Lin gets this reward a few more times, won't every family be able to raise a panda in the future?!]

Gulugulu: [I want to raise elk!]

Flowing Water on the Mountain: [I want to raise a tiger!]

...

Gradually, the comments in Hua Nation's live broadcast room turned into people saying what kind of animals they would like to raise.

It was as though they were in an animal-related live broadcast.

...

Lin Fan was completely oblivious to all of this.

He immediately focused his attention on the level-six treasure chest in front of him and slowly opened it.

[You've obtained 400 Constitution points. Do you want to use them?]

Then, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—4,000 Constitution points.]

The surging energy flowed within Lin Fan's body.

His strength increased once again.

Lin Fan looked at Sam and said, "Use these 400 Constitution points."

Without waiting for Sam to respond, Lin Fan waved his hand and the ball of light entered Sam's body.

Sam felt the power in his body skyrocketing and came back to his senses. He said excitedly, "Thank you, Master!"

Lin Fan waved his hand and continued walking forward.

Chapter 610 Attack; Regrow Limbs!

When many people first saw the desert, they found it very novel.

However, as time passed, it became dull and boring.

This was because other than the yellow sand that filled the sky, it was very difficult to see any other animals or plants.

People in the desert would get tired easily.

Dehydration and heatstroke occurred from time to time in the desert.

Fortunately, the heroes selected from each country had all obtained at least one treasure chest. Some of them had spiritual power, some had physical strength that far surpassed Superman, and some had special abilities.

This also allowed them to last longer in the desert.

Abraham was one of the heroes of Bear Country.

A gust of wind swept over the sand.

Abraham did not have time to cover his mouth and nose with his hand.

"Damn it, it's all sand!" he spat.

Then, he looked into the distance and said, "When can we leave this place?"

Abraham could only lower his head and continue walking forward.

The host sighed and said, "I hope Abraham can walk out of the desert as soon as possible." NovelNext.Com

Alison: [God bless!]

Dodge: [The temperature in the desert is high during the day, and it'll usually be very cold at night. I hope Abraham can persevere. I'll pray for him.]

Hunter: [Sigh, if only Abraham followed Lin Fan last time.]

Heiss: [Yeah. I just saw Hua Nation's live broadcast. Lin Fan created large hail in the desert. If you follow Lin Fan, you won't feel hot in the desert at all.]

Abbott: [Desert hail? Heavens! That's so amazing! Is Lin Fan really a god?]

Marlin: [I think even God isn't as powerful as him.]

Girukos: [Now, I only beg Abraham not to encounter any terrifying monsters.]

...

However, sometimes, the more one worried about something, the easier it was for it to happen.

At this moment, a giant scorpion that was about five meters tall and covered in gold suddenly jumped out of the sand in front of Abraham.

A terrifying baleful aura surged out, stirring up the yellow sand that filled the sky.

Then, the giant scorpion raised its steel pincers and smashed them at Abraham.

Abraham's expression changed drastically, and he quickly dodged to the side.

Finally, he managed to dodge.

Sand and stones flew everywhere, and the entire scene immediately turned gray.

After missing its first attack, the giant scorpion raised its steel pincers and smashed down again.

Abraham dodged again.

Although the giant scorpion was big and heavy, it was still a giant scorpion.

However, its speed was not slow at all.

After dodging a few times, Abraham's reaction slowed down.

So much so that...

When the giant scorpion smashed down with its steel pincers again, the sharp steel pincers hit Abraham's right leg.

His right leg fell neatly onto the desert. Blood spurted out, and a miserable howl spread out.

The giant scorpion did not care about Abraham's screams at all. It raised its steel pincers and was about to hit Abraham's head.

At this moment, a dazzling light shot over from afar.

The next moment, the giant scorpion's steel pincers broke and fell to the ground.

Just as the giant scorpion was in a daze and was at a loss, its body split into two from the middle and fell to the ground with a dull sound.

Then, a tall and handsome figure, an animal that looked like a dog or wolf, and a man with brown skin strode over.

It was Lin Fan, the Heavenly Hound, and Sam.

When Abraham saw them, he endured the pain of his broken leg and said, "t's you..."

With a wave of his hand, a golden light shot out.

The golden light circled around Abraham.

Then, his severed right leg grew back at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In just a dozen seconds, he actually grew a new leg.

[Skill: Advanced Radiance of Life!]

Abraham looked at his newly grown right leg and was slightly stunned.

Then, he stood up in disbelief.

He jumped a few times on the spot.

Finally, he confirmed that his leg had really recovered.

"My leg!" Abraham shouted excitedly. "My leg grew back!

"That's great!

"That's great!"

Soon, he thought of Lin Fan's actions and said, "It was you. You helped me, right?

"It must be you!

"Thank you. Thank you so much, Lin Fan."

Lin Fan smiled. "You're welcome."

Be it Bear Country or Abraham himself, Lin Fan had a good impression of them.

Saving him was just a piece of cake.

At this moment, an emotionless voice sounded.

[First to kill a level-six Desert Golden Scorpion. You've obtained a level-six treasure chest.]

[First to kill a level-six Desert Golden Scorpion. Hua Nation's mineral resources have increased by 10%.]

...

In Bear Country's live broadcast room.

"Thank you, Lin Fan!" the host said.

Allen: [Who knows how the Desert Golden Scorpion died?]

Marvin: [It's Lin Fan! It was killed by Lin Fan with a single strike! He's so powerful!]

Maria: [He killed the Desert Golden Scorpion with one strike and easily let Abraham grow a leg. He's so handsome! Lin Fan, I love you!]

Hill: [Lin Fan, I want to marry you!]

Aberke: [Lin Fan, I want to hug you to sleep!]

It had to be said that foreigners were more open-minded when it came to expressing their emotions than Hua people.

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

"Regrowing limbs?" Xiao Bing was stunned.

Active Person: [F*ck! That's a divine technique! It's another divine technique!]

Unnamed Hero: [Invincible! He's simply invincible!]

Warm Wine: [No wonder God Lin gave the Beginner Radiance of Life to the Heavenly Hound. He probably didn't even like that thing.]

Stone Man: [He can jump dozens of meters high, freeze the desert, summon divine lightning... And now, he can even regrow limbs! God Lin is awesome!]

Kite: [I used to wonder how someone could solve several math problems and invent high-tech gadgets in various fields! Now, I finally understand. It's because he's not human but a god!]

Water: God Lin, when are you coming back to Earth? Please accept me as your disciple, Master Lin!]

Want to Chase Someone: [Please accept me as your disciple!]

W: [Please accept me as your disciple!]

...

Naturally, Lin Fan did not know that many women in Bear Country had started to covet his body. He also did not know that Hua people wanted him to take them as his disciples.

He looked at the level-six treasure chest in front of him and chose to open it.

[You've obtained 400 points of spiritual energy. Do you want to use them?]

At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—4,000 points of spiritual energy.]

Then, Lin Fan said to Sam, "Use them."

With a wave of his hand, the light orb in the treasure chest instantly entered Sam's body.

In an instant, Sam's mind became extremely clear, and his entire person seemed to have been sublimated.
