Chapter 30: XXX

Clara

Under our bed sheets our sweaty bodies were entertained and reached to each other naturally in the aftermath of our love making. Our night together left my body in a cool sweat and tired, happy while resting on his arms. He was warm and hard against my body.

Josh propped to me with a diamond ring as soon as we got into our cabin last night. It was a human tradition, but since I am pretending to be human, he thought it was a good idea to show our engagement like that. I found it thoughtful and romantic from him to do that.

However, I know his intention is to show in front of others that I am taken. We are not starting each other yet, but he will be away from me some days. I am not even sure how many, as his human tradition wants us to for his purpose. I do not complain. So far I like his possessive side. It is at the right moments to make me without suffocating me.

After accepting his proposal, Josh put his ring on my sign, and something awakened in me. . . I kissed him and one kiss after another, I ended up pushing on him tearing apart his clothes until his extra strength some provided. I wanted him desperately, unfortunately, he did the same to my borrowed dress. . . I wish unfortunately because I owe a true dress to Lucia back now. I did not care in that moment, tough.

I guess these things happen when you do not plan before hand, I was lucky that Blanche had a lot of extra clothes because I ripped the dress off. I felt bad for it, but I was already giving at once that she did enough and I was well taken. And we really did.

Despite being a little bit scared between my legs, I feel great. Thank Moon Goddess that we were welcome in our wolves can heal us faster or I would be done. He was intense and enjoyed every moment of it. I was aware that he hit mine but it was a little. I just did not expect what he made me feel right after it, and I want more of that...

When I was seventeen, I remember that I thought that Josh was good looking. He has thin lips, light cheeks, straight nose, and strong jaw. very muscular now with that beard and tattoos that I think work in an all messy but sexy quilling. But looking at his face and my naked body next to me, Josh is the most handsome male I have ever seen, and he is mine.

He will have to travel with Roger these next days, I will be better to join them for part of that journey. It is so hard to leave him, especially with a non-related Alpha. I am used to females from FDL, is the dangerous as those rouges that attacked me? Should he be safe transporting me to the King?

What if he sees/hears him and he never comes back to me? What if she attacks him at some point? What if there is a trap of FDL to get me hostages from the King? How secret is Josh's position? No... how dangerous is his role for the King? Fool and I...?

"What is wrong Clara?" Josh opened his eyes suddenly and looked at me somewhat. I guess my emotions reached him through our bond even when he is not awake.

"Are you alright?" He asked then. I rested my head on his chest hiding my face, hearing his heart to control my rush of emotions. I could not hear him. My old insecurities in the same form as in the past stopped my face. Would he think I am a weakling from having these fears, he understand me?

"Trust our mate, trust us ourselves... Our mate loves us." He did say for more me, baffled reminded me his words on my ears. While making love to me he said it, more than once. Beyond that, he has shown me how deep he feels for me, and I am sure of it, I am weak. I survived whatever life has thrown at me. Strength is more than just your rank.

The beats of his heart soothed me, the rush of the rapids on my skin went electrical waves of pleasure that rocked me and calmed me at the same time. He lifted my chin to look at my eyes. He was worried.

"Hey, look at me... what is wrong?" You can tell me... " I bit my lower lip still debating if telling him my worries or not. He misunderstood my expression.

"Are you hurt? I tried to be gentle, but it was so hard... I wanted to mark you and instead..." I am sorry if..." I kissed him. I was dying to taste his lips again.

"I am no, and everything was... amazing..." This time, he kissed hard me pulling me closer to his body, my breast was pressed onto against his chest. His tongue was playing with mine, and I felt his hands on my bare waist while his hands roamed over my body... Fear Goddess, this feels so good.

"Clara..." He moaned my name and that Clara inside of me, the one he has summoned, the one that was craving for him took control over me. I straddled him using his shoulders as support. I wanted to be on top, to feel him inside of me again, but in this position.

"My queen..." he said and helped me put on him a new context. Holding him in my hands made feel powerful and in control.

He was looking at me with lust, his eyes turned black. "My mate..." He moaned. Abelard and I rode over and over enjoying the view I was offering being naked on top of him. I got him to enter inside of my gently. I was the one moaning his name more than once.

I rode him while he motivated his hips in synchrony with mine increasing the tempo of our movements the pleasure was intense at each thrust. His hands were not quiet, neither his mouth. We were obsessed with our bodies. I ended up pushing him on his back and he was overtaking. His finger getting ready to mark me, he had no title he own by to hold it on.

He is right, it is so hard not to mark each other. Looking at his body under me, there are a couple of love bites on his right shoulder and some more on his torso. It seems that he has lost a lot a temporary mark. It will ease my heart to know he is carrying my mark on him while he is away from me.

We were sweating, and something began to build up from my lowest part erupting into pleasure. I was getting close. "Mate..." He moaned my name and I felt his cock incumbent on him and I kissed him tried feeling dizzy and satiated, but he was not done yet.

Josh tipped me to make me rest on my back, he spread my legs for him. My leg Alpha ate me up smothering my body. His kisses on my thighs were pure ecstasy... I wanted him. Josh's hands got to my head an sucking and licking, he was leaving hickeys on my thighs. Dirty possessive stud.

"Ready?" He always asks before. His rogers teased me a little more preparing me for length. I was so ready for him.

I want you Joshua Duncan." He said that his full name coming from my lips arouses him even more. There was a layer of sweat covering his body, he was holding me so he can enjoy this with him, to come together as one. I softly and slowly caressed his back with my agentles to lead the last time of coming to control, I wanted him again.

Josh pushed inside of me, he was trying to be gentle but to my good luck he could not be as gentle as he wanted to be. Yet, he waited a moment for me to adjust to his size and thickness before withdrawing to push back inside again. My lips went to his shoulder every time, it was just pure rough instinct. He buried his face on my neck, rasping, licking, biting, and kissing. I felt his hands on my waist, his thrust was faster and harder, he lifted one of my legs over his shoulder to get in deeper.

Despite our inexperience, our instinct guided us the rst time. Josh told me I was his on the same way as he was mine. Josh did wait for me. My heart tightened in my chest at his revelation.

I almost got the carpal tunnel syndrome waiting for my mate" he told me, I did not understand what he meant, he released the molesting eg and down his hand as if holding something. We laughed together.

Clara I got to rest to see it there with a fireside and there ready to start a crisis between us. I would not be so forgiving as Hugh. He is enough for himself. My name is Clara and I want things clear. "Maybe we should ask, just to be sure." I am still curious about him with Paige knowing together, we're terrible. Do they have history between them?

Josh still wants Liam for not telling him about where I was a while ago. Simon Lucia is a brain under the King of Ilyrene, his loyalty is only for the King, not ours. He can choose to betray us whenever he wants to please the King. I think Liam knows that even complain about it, and the fears each relation I wanted for him to be later about it.

"I cannot tell you what our King is planning but I can tell you that is big and that everything will be alright... Sabella, I will not be part of the action since he asks it of children I am not part of the plan as for I know. My time of service is over soon since I will have to lead my pack now that I have found you. I'm tasked of the my on my type and bossed my hand.

I want to give him something too. Something meaningful for us.

"I want you to have this locket with you..." I said taking it by necklace out from me. "This gave it to me as birthday present a while ago. It is empty now. Please, give it back to me with your photo when we see each other again in Saint Isabella town." He accepted, and I put it on him.

"By the way... our dear Alvin earlier is off." He said kind of annoyed.

"What?" I was confused about his last statement. Then I remembered, the beta and two guards for me at Saint Isabella town. That was our deal last night, our 1st compromise now I was fostering.

"Clara, you have scars. A ballet on your abdomen and another one of a knife's blade on your back. Werewolves do not have scars unless the wound were incited by silver or wolfsbane." He is the one mad now. Damn, he realized... I forgot about my scars when he was kissing me everywhere.

"They are old... It is nothing, you cannot call off our mi compromise..." I do not like the change of plans.

"Clara, you were not honest with me about this. The scar on your abdomen is old, yes. But the one on your back, it is recent... and I felt it. Someone attacked you recently. Who was who you are keen stubborn about your own safety? I got to exasperate him, but I need to make him understand. Probably, I should have told him about Lucia, but I was not sure about my on him and we have spent very little time together alone.

"Maybe, we can live there for a while. We can talk with my parents if they can wait for a year or two instead of us, and we will see then..." I guess I have to tell them about Lucia, you. Yes, he deserve the forgot about it. I cannot blame him, I have not told the Simmons either.

I think Mason is still at Saint Isabella. I am I that situation before Josh arrives and brings his parents, I had forgot everything about him and how some interactions with Lucia Michelle's family might become awkward because of him.

"We can negotiate anything but your safety. I will send more guards; they will be discrete. I swear..."

"How many?"

"The number is not important."

"It is important!" I do not want an unknown number of eyes and werewolves following me, taking away my freedom.

"You lied to me, Clara."

"No! I did not lie. . . I just did not reveal a little detail."

"Clara, I want to know everything. How you got hurt both times? Tell me, please..." So, I had to tell him about the attack of those rouges on Blood Moon before leaving. Then, about the Dark Moon pack leaders and how coward they were on a grill.

I also told Josh about my gifts, as I have more than one. My strongest offensive gift is an electricity current from my hands. It is only on my hands, the other party could feel it as fever if I concentrate. My other two are defensive, but I am still working on them. I need to learn to gain them at Pack.

"It is enlightful!" I do not want an unknown number of eyes and werewolves following me, taking away my freedom.

"You lied to me, Clara."

"No! I did not lie. . . I just did not reveal a little detail."

"It is enlightful to feel that. It makes us stronger as Clan... so we can measure it and isolated ourselves. He kissed that part between my neck and shoulder again. Even more since the mark left on the way. It is not fine to protect myself together to reply to him. My humorous mouth not found my mind then when interacting with him.

"I will never do that. I felt in love with you for you... It is Just that now, your life is mine too. I am envious..." I cannot imagine been alive without you Clara, I will not survive if something happens to you." I was so moved by what he was saying that I remember again trying to remove his worries from him. His knees were desperate now, looking for discontrol on our caresses.

PDA, as a threat but we are getting close to submit their leader and the nightmare will be over for us. I did not about our plan with the Simmons to gather information and evidence against the one they think is the leader of FDL under the shadows. Blanche knows how to contact them.

"I will be alright. I promise you to be safe and be careful. But you must promise the same thing. You must absolutely be back in time to me... soon. Very soon"

"I promise, but please do not post the fruit... I just..." His kissed again. We two magnetic that cannot be apart from each other I had him getting hard again.

"We are out of condoms Josh!" There was this smirk on his face that told me he was a resourceful werewolf and that I was going to enjoy his talents for the next couple of hours.

"Please, let birther take over... Alastair is ready for her too." Oh, dear Goddess!
